

The Protector Chapter 746

Afterward, Michael arrived in the South City Warzone with the other Joneses, where they were stopped at the entrance.

“State your business.”

“Let me introduce myself, comrade. I’m Michael Jones of the Jones family in South Hampton. We’re here to see the God of War!” stated Michael with a smile.

“What? The God of War?” the sentry was puzzled by Michael’s words.

Not even we, the sentries, have seen him before, much less this random person.

Besides, the God of War’s identity is top secret, so not just anybody can meet him.

“Do you think this is funny, sir?” asked the sentry.

“We’re not pulling your leg. Please just inform the God of War. Tell him that Anson’s family has come to see him. That’s Anson of the Iron Brigade,” explained Michael panickily.

Even though the sentry had no idea who Anson was, his face turned pale at the mention of the Iron Brigade.

“Okay, I’ll notify them. You wait here!”

After the sentry left to pass the information along, Michael boasted proudly, “See how well-known Anson is? His name was all it took to get the soldier moving.”

“Uncle Anson is impressive indeed! He’s the hope of our family!” agreed the Joneses.

Because it was the God of War whom Michael requested to meet, the news quickly reached Mike, the commander-in-chief in the South City Warzone, and the deputy commander-in-chief.

“What? Here to see the God of War?”

“Who the hell is Anson? I’ve never heard of him!”

Everyone was perplexed by the news before Alfie of the Dragon Legion reported, “I’ve found him! Anson Jones is just a regular soldier, not a general in the Iron Brigade.”

“How can a regular soldier possibly be the right-hand man to the God of War?” Mike squinted in bafflement.

“Run a background check on the Jones family!” ordered Mike.

Soon, everyone on the scene was shocked by the result they got.

“Michael Jones is the grandfather of the God of War.”

Not familiar with the relationship between Levi and the Joneses, Mike and the others’ faces darkened when they got the news.

“Hurry up and invite Mr. Jones in! Forget it, I’ll invite him myself!” Mike hurried to the entrance with a group of people.

“Hello, Mr. Jones. I’m Mike Pence, commander-in-chief in the South City Warzone. Please, do come in.”

One by one, Mike and the others introduced themselves before inviting the Joneses into the warzone.

Every member of the Jones family was thrilled by the hospitality.

The Jones family's about to rise!

Just mentioning Anson's name was enough to get the commander-in-chief and his deputies to welcome us.

This indirectly speaks of Anson's importance in the Iron Brigade.

The right-hand man to the God of War is indeed important enough to make the entire South City Warzone tremble!

We're invited in like VIPs!
