

My Dreamy Old Husband Chapter 792

Sophia was so happy she wanted to do a cartwheel, but she managed to suppress herself and keep a straight face. Then, Michael added, "Carmen wants to be on 'Dad, Where Are We Going'. If I'm not famous, my child won't be able to get on that show, which is why I'm planning to accompany Carmen to be on TV after my comeback."

As soon as Carmen heard this, she immediately pulled away her covers, jumped out of bed and made a heart shape with her arms. "Daddy, you're the best. I love you!"

Seeing this, Michael hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Okay, now go to sleep. The producers won't want a child that is not pretty. You can only be pretty if you sleep early."

Sophia put Carmen back into bed and asked her to go to sleep. Then, she got up, took the phone and went out to call Michael. The two people who hadn't spoken in a few days chatted happily on the phone. They talked about Michael's new movie, Sophia's shop that sold dog collars and about Carmen getting on the TV show, 'Dad, Where Are We Going'.

When they talked about Carmen getting on TV, Michael was actually unwilling. "Carmen is still too young. In fact, I don't want her to debut at such a young age and I was hoping to wait until she's old enough to make her own choices. Sophia, what do you think?"

As they spoke about this, Sophia also had a solemn expression. "She's still a child, so perhaps she's just curious. I think you can find some roles for her to act in, maybe a small role in a movie, so that Carmen can have a try. Who knows? She might not be amazed by it after trying it out and stops being curious." It is not a good thing to be a movie star. Back then, Michael also lost his life after being surrounded by crazy fans...

Michael thought about it for a while before he relented. "Alright, I'll ask my friends in the crew for a favor and give her a small role."

The two of them spoke on the phone until the middle of the night. All of a sudden, there was a third person's voice on the phone.

"Enough of chatting. You should go to bed." Upon hearing Cooper's voice, Sophia was startled. "Dad? Where did you come from?"

On the other end of the line, Michael greeted, "Hello, Mr. Mitchell. How's your health?"

However, Cooper only muttered, "I'm so healthy that I won't be dead in ten years. Goodbye."

With a thud, the other end of the phone went silent and nobody's voice could be heard. And so, Michael hung up helplessly. Cooper really is... I can't believe he hacked into our call! We were just talking on the phone and I can't even do anything to his daughter!

After he hung up the phone, Michael's figure disappeared into the darkness. The darkness swallowed his figure and he blended into the dark. He combed through his hair that was as dark as the night and looked at himself in the mirror. The person who likes to watch my movies has returned, so it's time for me to get back up...

At breakfast the next day, Sophia told Cooper about her plan to take Carmen to the TV set to try out for a small role. Sure enough, Cooper looked solemn and he announced, "No, I don't agree."

My granddaughter doesn't need to show her face to the public to earn money! A young child like her should stay at home and play. There's no way that I'll let her shoot a movie. Isn't it fun to play with the dog and cats? If that's not fun enough, I'll buy another dozen for her to play with. Why does she want to shoot a movie? If she really can't find a job in the future, she can follow me to the coal mines in Africa! If that doesn't work out, she can work in the Michel Group. If that doesn't work out either, she can go back to Northern Europe to plant vegetables. I have a large piece of land and a million lambs for her to inherit. If she really gets bored, I'll let her manage the million employees in the Michel Group. She'll definitely be busy! Her father was so famous back then that he was blocked at the stairs by crazy fans and almost got killed by someone who took advantage of the chaos. It is too dangerous to be a star.

In a stern tone, Cooper said to Carmen, "I don't agree on letting you go. A child should act like a child. You're not allowed to shoot a movie."

Hearing this, Carmen pouted her lips and with a firm attitude, she replied, "I want to be a star. I want to be on TV. I want to play the role of a beautiful lady!"

However, Cooper was equally stubborn as he countered, "No, I won't allow it."

Carmen instantly threw her milk bottle away and angrily turned her back to Cooper. "I'm really angry! You won't be able to coax me!"

Sophia knew that Cooper wouldn't agree so she hurriedly said, "Alright, alright. Calm down. Let's discuss this properly."

Carmen puffed out her cheeks angrily but she still took her milk bottle back. Even though she was mad, she still needed to drink. Meanwhile, Sophia had to leave the house today so she changed into office attire and wore a mask. Before she left, she said to Carmen, "Darling, talk to Grandpa nicely. I have to go out to work now."

Carmen pouted her lips and said, "I want to go to work too. That way I can earn money and raise Judgey."

Sophia then took the dog out and went to the office that Sam was about to transfer to her. She also stopped by to check the progress of the renovation at her shop.

Linus accompanied her to transfer the ownership that day and Sam was also there. His face was still swollen that day and Sophia still had no idea what happened between Cooper and him but judging by the situation, it must have been serious.

"Uncle Sam, are you alright?"

However, Sam only replied, "I'm fine; don't worry."

After they finished signing the ownership transfer papers, Sophia and Linus got ready to leave. Sam wanted to have a chat but Linus didn't seem to like Sam talking to Sophia. Thinking about it for a moment, Sam decided to use the same method. "Sophia, I'll be going abroad soon and there's no one to take care of Corrado. Can you help me take care of him?"

Sophia blinked in confusion before she said, "The Edwards family residence is huge. You can ask other family members to take care of Corrado for you!"

Sam pressed, "Your house has more dogs and it's more lively there. Plus, Corrado likes lively places with lots of dogs."

Sam gave me a few floors of an office building. Helping him take care of a dog is nothing compared to that. And so, Sophia agreed to his request and happily took Corrado with her. Sam was also happy because he now had an excuse to visit them in the future. After they finished the transfer, Linus kindly rejected Sam's invitation to have lunch together. Instead, he brought Sophia to check on the renovation progress at the shop and went to the pet shop to drop off the dogs for a grooming session. After leaving the dogs at the shop, they went to have lunch.

Once lunch was over, they hurriedly went to meet Stanley's 'son' in the game, Kenny, to discuss their business cooperation.

Pourl was a luxury chain store for pets and Kenny worked at L/K, which specialized in luxury goods for people. The two of them could work together to develop a series of luxury products.

Sophia read her previous work notes and saw that she had discussed business cooperation before. After the accident, she placed it aside but now that she wanted to do it again, Kenny was also interested to work with her.

The discussion with Kenny ended in the afternoon. After Sophia left L/K, she turned around and glanced at the magnificent building, hoping that Pourl could be that successful one day.

Meanwhile, Linus came over from Michel Group to pick Sophia up and had made it just in time. Then, they went to pick up the dogs before they head home for dinner. In the car, the dogs smelled great after their bath. Bubbles even had a cut so it looked pretty and smelled nice. Holding her dog, Sophia suddenly remembered something and asked Linus, "Uncle Linus, have you ever thought about finding your family?"

Cooper told her that Linus was his adoptive son. Linus has a family. With his current abilities, it should be easy for him to find his own family.

At that moment, Linus was looking down at his laptop. With a smile, he commented, "Since the day your father adopted me, I became part of the Michel family and have no other relation to my past."
