

The Best Son in Law Chapter 63 – 65

Chapter 63

Especially Maya Shen, if it wasn't for the slight pain she still felt on her body, she would have thought she was dreaming!

"You're welcome, Attorney Kim, I'm glad you're here!" Haoden Ye quickly said a few polite words.

Lawyer Jin smiled slightly and slowly walked up to Director Zhang, his face was a humble smile, but his eyes were sharp, "This is Director Zhang, I'm a lawyer from the Holander's Justice Department, and this Mr. Ye is my client today!"

Upon hearing this, Mr. Zheng's face instantly went white, in the absence of the arrogant appearance just now.

Director Zhang also stared, he never dreamed that Haoden Ye knew someone from the Holander's Group.

"Jin... Mr. Jin... Hello!" Director Zhang swallowed hard as cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

Lawyer Jin didn't even look at him squarely in the eye and said indifferently, "My client has already told me what happened, so it's a bit abrupt for Director Zhang to let him go like this."

"We're following the law here, too!" Director Zhang endured the fear in his heart and forced himself to look decent.

“What a way to do things according to the law!” Lawyer Jin smiled slightly and nodded, “I just got off the phone with the city’s Wu Bureau and asked him to find out more about the case, and I’m sure Wu’s call will be here soon! This matter will be pursued to the end on behalf of my client, and not only whoever breaks the law will get away with it!”

“Wu Bureau!” Director Zhang was shaken and his legs had started to weaken.

He had received black money from Mr. Zheng before releasing him, and if the person in question was just a minor character like Haoden Ye, he naturally couldn’t do anything about it, but if Dan City Public Security Bureau’s Bureau Wu, he would be able to guess what was going on without investigating!

And Bureau Wu knew that the result of this matter was that his career path had come to an end, and the best outcome now was to not be implicated in jail.

“I’ve just given it some thought, and what Lawyer Jin said does make sense, this man can’t be released! And this lawyer Liu, who is also one of the clients identified by Miss Shen!” Director Zhang reacted very quickly and immediately clarified the pros and cons.

Catching a Zheng, I’m afraid, won’t quell Haoden Ye’s anger, and arresting Lawyer Liu all together, perhaps Haoden Ye will be happy about it and plead for him!

As soon as Lawyer Liu heard that even he was going to be arrested, his face changed dramatically and he couldn’t care less about other things to Director Zhang, “Director Zhang, but we gave more than 200,000!”

When Director Zhang heard it, his face got ugly, and Zheng was terrified, if this was arrested to go, with Lawyer Jin’s ability, he could really go to jail.

“I also know the city’s Bureau Wu, I’m a peasant entrepreneur, you can’t arrest me!” Mr. Zheng quickly shouted in fear.

“Peasant entrepreneur, I think it’s just a family that got some money from a mine and thinks they’re great, what’s that in the eyes of our Holander family?” Lawyer Jin smiled faintly and said to Director Zhang, “Then follow Director Zhang’s instructions, I’ll follow the whole case, I hope Director Zhang is impartial!”

Director Zhang wiped a cold sweat from his forehead and slowly panted, thanks to his cleverness, or else the consequences would have been great.

“Bring these two people in!” Director Zhang shouted, then with a flattering smile on his face to Haoden Ye, “Don’t worry, Mr. Ye, just leave the whole thing to me, I’ll do things according to the law!”

Haoden Ye felt hung over from hearing him say that he was acting according to the law, and took a look at Lawyer Jin.

Lawyer Jin smiled faintly and said, “Don’t worry, in Dancheng, no one has dared to refute our Holander’s Group’s face yet!”

Hearing this, he was also somewhat relieved and quickly showed gratitude to him.

“You should go to the hospital first, just leave this matter to me!” Lawyer Jin gave a slight smile to Haoden Ye.

Haoden Ye nodded lightly and left the police station with Maya Shen who was still in surprise.

“How do you know this Lawyer Jin!” Only after leaving the police station did Maya Shen regain consciousness!

“It’s nothing, I just helped him with a doctor’s appointment!” Haoden Ye quickly explained that he didn’t want to talk about his relationship with the Holander family yet, or else Maya Shen would think he was bragging.

“So that’s how it is!” Maya Shen suddenly realized that Haoden Ye had just learned this matter of acupuncture, and Milda Hao had told her about it.

The two of them went to the hospital, and after a brief checkup, both of them were fine, Maya Shen asked for leave from the company, and the two of them returned home.

It was already five or six o’clock in the afternoon, father-in-law Robert Shen did not have classes and had already returned.

“How did you two get into this mess!” Robert Shen was reading the newspaper in the living room and frowned when he saw the two people in a mess.

“Dad!” When Maya Shen saw her father, her eyes reddened slightly and her heart swelled with grievances, but she still held back her tears, she didn’t want her father to know the sadness of today’s events.

“Dad! I was the one who accidentally fell down and got Maya down with me!” Haoden Ye noticed Maya Shen’s look and quickly explained to Robert Shen.

“Why so careless!” Robert Shen had a reproachful look on his face and glared at Haoden Ye, “So grown up, you don’t even know how to watch where you’re walking!”

Haoden Ye hurriedly apologized again before Robert dropped the matter.

“Dad, I’m going back to my room with Haoden Ye!” Maya Shen’s Haoden Ye revealed a look of gratitude.

Robert Shen revealed a surprised look, how Maya Shen root Haoden Ye would room to rest so early, but he quickly lost interest and continued to focus on reading the newspaper.

Returning to the room, Maya Shen said, "You change your clothes first, I'm going to take a shower and you can wash!"

Haoden Ye nodded, and Maya Shen took her clothes and went to the bathroom to shower, Haoden Ye listened outside, his heart very agitated.

He was still the first time to go back to his room with his wife in broad daylight, and his eyes couldn't help but go to the bathroom.

Soon, Maya Shen finished washing and came out in her bathrobe, her fluorescent white face covered in a layer of red, as tempting as a ripe cherry.

"You should also hurry up and wash up!" For some reason, Haoden Ye felt that Lin Feng's Maya Shen was especially beautiful at this time, and seemed to have a bit more of a woman's unique glow than usual.

"What are you waiting for, hurry up and take a shower!" When Maya Shen saw Haoden Ye dumbly looking at her, her pretty face blushed slightly, and she don't look good, "Are you deaf?"

Haoden Ye came back to his senses, an embarrassed look on his face, and quickly apologized, "I'm sorry... I... I just got distracted!"

Seeing his nervous appearance, the corner of Maya Shen's mouth slightly hooked, as if she found it funny, her face still plastered, "Hurry up and wash! I'm tired, take a break!"

Haoden Ye nodded and hurried to the bathroom to take a shower, and in less than five minutes he was clean, checking his body along the way.

When he came out of the shower, Haoden Ye headed to his bunk, but by the steel trough bed, he heard Maya Shen on the bed, "Go sleep on the bed today."

Chapter 64

Haoden Ye's heart was agitated, did Maya Shen accept herself?

He quickly jumped onto the bed and looked excitedly at Maya Shen.

Maya Shen's pretty face blushed slightly, but her cheeks were plastered, "You can go to bed later, but we have to make an appointment, first, you can't touch me!" Maya Shen said, drawing an indentation on the bed with her hand.

"Your body cannot cross this line, understand?" Maya Shen made a serious expression.

Even though it was different from what she thought, Haoden Ye was still very satisfied in his heart and nodded his head incessantly.

"Second, before you go to bed in the future, you must change into clean pajamas, and if you drink alcohol, you're not allowed to sleep on the bed!" Maya Shen continued to.

Haoden Ye naturally wouldn't refuse, nodding his head in a row.

"The third..." said Maya Shen, her pretty face reddening slightly, her eyes avoiding Haoden Ye, "The third rule is that I have the right to cross this line, and you have no right to stop it!"

Haoden Ye's heart jumped when he heard that, doesn't that mean that if he performs well, the line won't be permanent?

Thinking of this, Haoden Ye's heart was delighted, and his face showed a piggish smirk.

"What are you laughing at, hurry up and rest, I'm exhausted from being scared and frightened today!" Maya Shen coquettishly pouted and turned her back to Haoden Ye.

The thin quilt exhibited the outline of her petite body, a long hair scattered, which was clearly about past the line, and where the clothes and quilt couldn't cover, Haoden Ye could clearly see the white, jade-like skin....

Haoden Ye lay down, his nostrils bored into the aroma of Maya Shen's hair, and couldn't help but smile happily.

Not knowing when, Haoden Ye fell asleep in a daze, and the next morning, Haoden Ye slept until eight o'clock, the first time he didn't get up early to cook.

He quickly washed up and dressed out, and Robert Shen and the others all went to work.

After eating alone, Haoden Ye thought of Zheng Guo, counting the amount of days to give him medical treatment had arrived.

After eating, Haoden Ye went to a phone call to Zheng Guo.

"Hey, Mayor Zheng, it's Haoden Ye! The day for you to be seen!" The phone connected, and Haoden Ye explained his intentions.

"Haha, look at me, I was so busy that I even forgot about this, I just happen to be going to a summer resort to see our old man, you come with me!" Zheng Guo chuckled over the phone.

When Haoden Ye heard him say that he was going to meet his own master, he felt that it was a bit inappropriate for him to follow, and quickly said, "That won't be necessary, I'm afraid of embarrassing you if I go!"

"We'll talk when we meet. Are you in the shop? I'll pick you up at the store!" Zheng Guo didn't explain much, but was direct.

Haoden Ye quickly said that he was at home and asked Zheng Guo to meet him at the store later.

He said, "I'm not going to be able to do anything about it, but I'm going to be able to do something about it," he said.

Haoden Ye quickly got off the car and ran to Zheng Guo, "Mayor Zheng, you can just come later, how can I make you wait here!"

"Oh, no delay," Zheng Guo smiled casually, "I'll wait for you, the little miracle doctor, I'm willing!"

Haoden Ye followed up and opened the door, invited Zheng Guo in, and pulled out silver needles for Zheng Guo's acupuncture.

Xuanjiu needles Haoden Ye was very skilled, and in less than five minutes the acupuncture was finished, Zheng Guo tidied up his clothes and sighed, "These days I went to the Spiritual Medicine Hall to find Professor Hua and their acupuncture over, your acupuncture is much more effective compared to them!"

Haoden Ye smiled modestly, Zheng Guo then said, "Trouble Little Doctor Ye to go with me to meet our old master, he is celebrating his 80th birthday today, I will go to pay my respects to him, along the way you will also see what's wrong with the old master's body and adjust it!"

Haoden Ye finally realized that Zheng Guo had asked himself to pay his respects as a pretext, mainly wanting to give the old man a look at his body.

But there was nothing to say about this filial piety himself, immediately nodding his head, "Alright!"

It soon occurred to him that he couldn't go empty-handed either, which is why he said to Zheng Guo, "Mayor Zheng, wait a moment, I'll go inside and get something!"

Zheng Guo was very happy to see him agreeing to go, thinking that he was taking some Chinese medical stuff, and even nodded.

Sending some valuable treasures, it seems to be disproportionate to his identity, he is a poor shopkeeper, how to take expensive treasures, to the time without others Zheng Guo will feel strange.

But to say to send some novelty, you don't know what the old man likes.

Suddenly, Haoden Ye was smart enough to think of one thing.

He only had a white and a red bubble in his hand now, and this time when he used up the white bubble, he was left with the red one, so hopefully what he gave away this time would be considered a merit!

Haoden Ye thought, wishing on the koi, the white bubbles disappeared and he had one more thing in his hand.

Wrapped the thing he made up with the package, Haoden Ye only then came out of the storehouse and Zheng Guo got on the car together.

In front of the gate of Mountain Springs Resort and Spa, we heard a lot of luxury cars, all very high grade, needless to say it must be to Zheng Guo's old one's birthday.

Zheng Guo's car did not stop at the entrance, but drove straight into the mountain resort inside, until it stopped at the entrance of a courtyard.

There were a few cars here, not many in quantity and not higher in grade than those outside, but Haoden Ye noticed that most of the cars parked here were red flag, that is, cars used by officials.

Getting off the car, Zheng Guo brought Haoden Ye into the courtyard, and at this time the courtyard accounted for more than ten people, men and women, young and old, but one looked like an official's demeanor.

"These should be Mayor Zheng's relatives, think not so many of Mayor Zheng's family are officials!" Haoden Ye looked in amazement.

When he looked at others, others were naturally looking at him as well, especially those who came over to greet Zheng Guo, very strange as to why Zheng Guo was following such a poorly dressed person behind him.

As he thought about it, he followed Zheng Guo inside, and in a short while, he arrived inside the courtyard lobby, but saw an old man sitting in the middle of the lobby, looking hale and hearty.

The old man was standing next to two people, an old man and a young man, who looked like father and son, the younger one in his early twenties, laughing with the old man.

Zheng Guo quickly walked up to the old man, bent down and smiled, "Dad! I'm coming!"

When the old man saw Zheng Guo coming, he immediately smiled, but the middle-aged man behind the old man, whose grade was about the same as Zheng Guo's, frowned and said, "Brother, Dad's birthday, why did you only come now!"

The old man laughed and turned his head to glare at him, "Your big brother is busy with work, what's a little late!"

Chapter 65

Mayor Zheng's brother still looked unhappy and snorted softly.

The young man next to him, on the other hand, smiled politely at Zheng Guo and said, "Hello, uncle!"

Mayor Zheng smiled up at him with a very kind smile, before he said to the old man, "Dad, I've come so late to hire a little miracle doctor, he's a brilliant doctor and can take a look at your body! I know that an old revolutionary like you is more interested in Chinese medicine, and this Brother Ye is a genius in this area!"

Before coming here, Zheng Guo had already said that his father was an old generation revolutionary.

"Big brother is really good at finding reasons!" Mayor Zheng's brother's face sank as soon as he heard it, and he snorted, "What kind of doctor wants your hall to wait so long for a mayor, and the put's body has been tended to by the doctors of the Spiritual Medicine Hall, what's wrong with it, can't they see it?"

At this time the lobby inside and outside people have been paying attention to this side of the situation, once they heard that Mayor Zheng is waiting for a divine doctor to come so late, many people revealed curious looks.

What kind of doctor could make Zheng Guo wait?

But then Zheng Guo smiled slightly, pointing at Haoden Ye and laughing, "What I'm waiting for, is this divine doctor!"

Hearing Zheng Guo's words, everyone's eyes brushed against Haoden Ye.

Everyone couldn't help but reveal a look of surprise when they saw him dressed in a poverty-stricken outfit, coupled with his obviously unseen temperament.

Mayor Zheng's brother suddenly laughed and pointed at Haoden Ye, "He's the divine doctor you're talking about? Brother, you don't have to deal with it this way! You see how he doesn't look like a divine doctor!"

Zheng Lin, who was next to him, also laughed and said, "Uncle, recently many rural people come to the city to deceive people, they all say they have some kind of local recipe and are divine doctors, you should have fallen for it!"

Some people in the crowd couldn't help but snicker even as they heard Zheng Lin's words.

"Mayor Zheng is such a big leader, but he's also been cheated!"

"I've seen doctors who are not a handful of years old, and it's good that this kid is young enough to know how to read a doctor!"

In the face of the crowd's questions, Mayor Zheng smiled without saying a word and turned to Haoden Ye and smiled, "Brother Ye, you come and show my father!"

Hearing him call Haoden Ye as Elder Brother Ye, many people showed a sneering look, especially that Zheng Lin, who had a glint of jealousy in his eyes.

He had been the pride of the Zheng family since he was a child, he had excelled in both studies and other aspects, and the Zheng country had great expectations for him.

His own father, Zheng Tai, was already a famous entrepreneur in Dan City, and coupled with his own uncle, the mayor, his future could be said to be on a smooth path, and his heart was inevitably high and proud.

But Zheng Guo spoke to Haoden Ye in a respectful tone, which made Zheng Lin feel very unhappy.

Although there were many people in the lobby who didn't understand why Zheng Guo was so respectful to Haoden Ye, they still focused their attention on Haoden Ye.

It was also the first time that Haoden Ye was being stared at by so many political and business elites, and his heart began to get nervous, and his smile was all far-fetched.

"Then... then I'll show it to the old man!" Haoden Ye swallowed his saliva and stammered.

Seeing his demeanor, many people couldn't help but make sneering noises.

The old master also revealed a look of distrust, but seeing that Zheng Guo was very respectful of this kid, he didn't show any dissatisfaction.

In the midst of the crowd's gaze, Haoden Ye walked to the old master directly across from him and swiftly swept his gaze twice over the old master.

"What kind of doctor is this, isn't Chinese medicine emphasizing on looking and hearing? He doesn't even diagnose his pulse or ask about the old man's recent health, this is called Chinese medicine?"

"I told you, it must be a liar, how Uncle Zheng gave him the slip!"

Dissatisfied voices rang out from time to time in the crowd.

When Zheng Lin heard these voices, the corners of his mouth showed a sneer, and he thought of how Haoden Ye would make a fool of himself later.

Haoden Ye quietly looked at the old master for twenty seconds or so before he withdrew his gaze and said to the old master, "Old master, you don't have any major health problems, it's just that you suffered from the cold earlier, and you have old cold legs around the age of forty, right?"

Hearing his words, many people revealed a sneering look, the old man's problem Zheng family, it must be Zheng Guo who told him.

Zheng Lin couldn't wait to expose Haoden Ye long ago, and sneered at the words, "Who doesn't know about my grandfather's old cold leg problem, this must be what uncle told you!"

Hearing so many disdainful voices, Zheng Guo was busy explaining on Haoden Ye's behalf, "I didn't say anything to Divine Doctor Ye about this matter."

After this sentence, many people slightly revealed their surprise.

Could Haoden Ye have been able to diagnose just by looking at a few eyes just now?

However, soon, Haoden Ye's words once again stunned them.

"The old man should have been hit in the leg by shrapnel when he was thirteen years old, it was just a small wound, not much treatment was done after the shrapnel was removed, now the wound location is about six inches upwards, there is often slight pain at night!" Haoden Ye slowly said.

Just after saying that, everyone's face changed, Haoden Ye just looked a few times, could he even see this?

All eyes focused on the old man's face, but the old man was surprised as well.

"Yes, I lied about my age to enlist when I was thirteen and my calf was wounded in the first battle, I now have a little pain at the base of my thigh at night, what's the problem?" The old master hurriedly said.

Receiving the old master's seal, everyone couldn't help but stare, and even Rao Zheng Guo couldn't help but be surprised.

“Hehe, there’s nothing wrong, it’s just that it hurt the meridians at that time, you’ll be a few years older and you might have problems walking because of that, but now there’s no major problem, I only need these two stitches!” Haoden Ye said, pulling out a silver needle, his fingers were like electricity, and he quickly pierced Old Leaf’s leg twice.

As the people around them watched, they couldn’t help but reveal their surprise again.

Haoden Ye’s movements were in too fast, so fast that they couldn’t see exactly where he had pierced.

And when they looked at the old man’s appearance again, they saw that he seemed to look a lot more relaxed, and a red glow gradually appeared on his face.

“That’s amazing!” The old man exclaimed, feeling the comfort of his body to, “What a healer! Just these two stitches, I feel so much better!”

Everyone immediately let out exclamations, while Zheng Guo had a smile on his face.

Among the people present, only Zheng Tai and Zheng Lin frowned.

Zheng Tai was upset because his brother had stolen his thunder, while Zheng Lin was upset because Haoden Ye had stolen his thunder.

“Come on, little divine doctor, come sit down beside me!” The old man was in a good mood and reached out to hold Haoden Ye’s hand, allowing Haoden Ye to sit down next to him.

Zheng Lin looked even more jealous and suddenly thought of the gift he had brought today, immediately smiling, “Grandpa, I know you’ve been feeling unwell recently, so I bought you a treasure!”
