Novel Chapter 2349 – 2350

Chapter 2349

No one answered him.

Few people know about this kind of problem, even if someone here once knew about it, what about now?

It was empty long ago, and there was no one to see.

Andrewsighed and did not respond. The water in the pool seemed to be just water again, with no response at all. The first post @@@

他 took his hand back and looked at the water vapor spreading in the pool.

“If you want to tell me, please tell me.”

Andrewsaid, “Any bit of confidence is very important.”

After speaking, he didn't say anything. He took some water from the longevity pond, and then took the dog brother and the others away.

He also didn't expect that when he came back to Tiangong this time, Harrison and the others hadn't been transformed, and it seemed a little different from what he expected.

But this kind of thing, he can't force it.

Back to the South Estopia.

The old naughty boy also shook his head when he learned of this.

"Impossible, it must be impossible."

He didn't believe it, and he personally checked Gou Ge and their bodies. There was indeed no change. "How is this possible?" The old naughty boy glanced at Jiang Ning.

"Nothing found, other abnormalities?"

"No."

Andrew shook his head.

Everything was the same as when he went there last time, except for the pool water, but Andrew didn't find anything different in terms of pool water.

"Impossible," the old naughty boy still didn't believe it. "The water in the Longevity Pond is definitely useful. Not to mention them, even ordinary people can benefit a lot."

He himself had experienced it himself, and he knew better how powerful these pools of water were, how powerful it was that they had no effect?

He also couldn't understand.

"Could it be that they have experienced a transformation, and it is no longer effective?"

Last time, the old naughty boy used an old method to stimulate them by borrowing drugs to further tap their potential. Is it possible because of this?

"Hmph, you might underestimate the water in the longevity pond." The old naughty boy hummed.

He wanted to say that Andrew looked at himself too highly.

How could his little tricks be more powerful than the water in the longevity pond.

“I will think about it.”

He waved his hand, “Perhaps the method is wrong.”

Maybe this pool of water can only be used to change the structure of the body by drinking.

But Harrison and the others are not old urchins, and they don't have strong strength and foundation. How dare Andrew let them drink it easily, if there is any accident, he will regret it too late.

“If there is any way to extract the good things from the pool water, and become gentle without hurting others, that would be great.” The old naughty boy sighed, but knew that what he was talking about was nothing short of it. dream.

But Jiang Ning's eyes lit up, staring straight at the old naughty boy, looking at him a little hairy.

“Don't look at me like this, I can't do it.”

He can do it, and he says so much nonsense what to do.

“I can do it!”

Andrew said.

Now, it's the old naughty boy's turn to stay.

Can Andrew do it?

“An old house where a treasure.”

Andrew laughed, making the old naughty boy a little bit unaware of what was going on. Andrew didn't say much, turned around and left.

The old naughty boy reminded him.

He almost forgot, there is still this technique of extraction.

This is an opportunity for high-tech civilization to combine with the mysterious things of those legends. Even if technology can't do it, his formation may be able to assist and try together.

Andrew immediately sent the pool water to the research room to communicate with Professor Ethen, and at the same time asked him to invite some experts in this field to discuss together, is it possible to analyze the specific components of the water in the longevity pool!

At least, you have to use high-tech means. Try it first?

If you can decipher the secrets of the longevity pool, it will simply bring human civilization one step closer

Chapter 2350

At the same time that Andrew was busy.

Crypt.

The atmosphere is a little dull.

The return of the greedy wolves made the eighteenth hall masters who originally wanted to be independent and were a little unhappy.

They all know now that it is indeed the Demon King who has returned, but after so many years, their ambitions have long been up, how can they be willing to easily surrender?

Especially some young palace masters have never experienced it at all, and there is no impression of the devil's rule at the beginning.

They want to become the devil themselves!

This is especially true of being slapped by the greedy wolf.

In front of the greedy wolf, he now naturally has to maintain respect and dare not disobey the greedy wolf face-to-face. That is entirely an act of seeking death.

But if he refuses, he just refuses!

“I’m afraid that all the hall masters don’t want it. The situation that I finally won has changed again?”

Guan Yi invited several other hall masters who came close to come, saying that they were drinking tea and chatting, but in fact, everyone All know well.

The slap was on Guan Yi’s face, but also on their faces.

“But he is the Demon King, what can you do? His strength is still there. Although it is not as good as the past, it is also not to be underestimated.” The

Eighth Hall Master Tang Fang said, “That feeling is too familiar.”

He has experienced it. At that time, he was just at that time. He was not the Lord of the Palace, nor was he qualified to follow the Demon King to the Heavenly Palace. They only knew the result of that battle.

They only knew that the demon king and the hall masters had fallen, and only a few hall masters had returned from serious injuries, and now they have retired behind the scenes and let the newcomers go up.

They can’t understand the giving up of rights, but no one asks.

“Guan Yi, what do you want to do?”

Guan Yi glanced at him with a grim expression: “I want what I want most!”

“Don’t you want to?”

“A king or a slave? How do you choose?”

Guan Yi snorted.

If it is just a palace master, but can “close love Yishan’s attendant Erling” occupy one side and command the soldiers, then they are kings and live for themselves.

But if the greedy wolf is there, then they are at most just a dog under the greedy wolf!

Even if it is the hall master, it is just another dog with the identity of the hall master!

Guan Yi didn’t want this, and others didn’t want to do the same.

“Do you have any plans,”

Luo Yang, the master of the Ninth Hall, said lightly, “I can say first, my choice is the same as you.”

His eyes fell on Guan Yi’s face.

He is even younger than Guan Yi, but his character is more calm, but by this time, everyone has sat down and talked about this matter. Everyone knows that this is a chance to choose one.

If you choose, it will be clear whether it is an enemy or a friend.

“Tiangong, there are signs of recovery,”

Guan Yi sneered. “We can use them to send the Demon King on the road, and take advantage of the fisherman’s profit.”

He is not stupid, knowing that if they do it themselves, the loss will be too great. It is even possible that you will lose your life because of this, it is not necessary at all.

Can borrow a knife to kill, why do it yourself?

“Are you sure, those people, will help us?”

“He is not helping us, but helping himself.”

Guan Yi said.

He snorted, his face full of cunning, “If the devil is completely restored, he will only make a mess of the world, we have a hard time, and they have a hard time!”

“They want to survive, so they can only kill. Demon King, if you want to kill the Demon King, you must let the Heavenly Palace be rebuilt. Do you think the Demon Lord will agree?” /

There is no doubt that the wolf will not allow the Heavenly Palace to be rebuilt. There can only be one Heavenly Palace and a crypt. The crypt exists, and the heavenly palace is about to be destroyed!

Several people looked at each other, and they all saw the decision in each other's eyes.

Guan Yi laughed: "You only need to follow my arrangements and everything will go smoothly. Of course, since you have chosen to betray him, then you must think clearly."

"Because this is really going to be deadly!"
