

The Best Son in Law Chapter 126 – 128

Chapter 126

“Let me give you some acupuncture today!” Haoden Ye called out to Lin cheerfully mopping the floor.

“Today?” A strange light flashed inside Lin Xiang’s eyes and his voice lowered, “How... how about acupuncture?”

“With acupuncture, of course!” Haoden Ye looked at Lin Xiang with bewilderment, not understanding what she meant.

Lin Xiang’s head lowered even more and his voice was very thin: “To... to take off his clothes or not!”

Haoden Ye was stunned, his eyes staring at Lin Xiang’s face, but he saw that she didn’t have any look on her face, not even a meaning blush, but her eyes were shining with a glowing light.

A face as if these eyes were the only ones that were alive, and it happened to be the same eyes that added a bit of movement to the girl.

A smile spread in the corner of Haoden Ye’s mouth, he originally thought that Lin Xiang looked like she was indifferent to things around her and wouldn’t be shy when it came to this kind of thing, he never thought that she would be embarrassed.

He slowly walked over to Lin Yao, who saw him coming and trembled slightly, gently biting her lips.

Her heart was beating very fast now, and her cheeks were burning.

If it wasn't for the disease, a man like Haoden Ye she had met in her life wouldn't have even bothered to take a second look, but now she had to live under the same roof with him.

And she had made up her mind before she came here that this time, no matter what the cost, even if it meant sacrificing her own color, she would cure the cold blood disease.

At the thought of this, she felt not only shame, but a strong sense of shame.

The proud daughter of heaven, the eldest miss of the Lin family, international movie star Lin Yumo, slowly closed her eyes and began to resign herself to her fate.

Two puffs came, Lin Yumo felt someone else poke him twice, subconsciously opened his eyes, and saw that Haoden Ye had already started talking about silver needles into the box.

"You...you're not going to acupuncture me?" Lin Xiang frowned slightly, confused to Haoden Ye.

"The acupuncture is done!" Haoden Ye put away the silver needle and smiled.

"Over...over?" Lin Yao carefully felt it and really felt a warm current surging inside his original cold blood.

It was a feeling she hadn't had before, once the temperature around her dropped, her body temperature dropped as well, and even when the temperature around her was high, the cold feeling in her blood was still something he could clearly feel.

The coldness felt deep in her bones and stayed with her at all times, as if her entire body was cold as well.

On the screen, Lin Yumo is as cold and beautiful as an iceberg snow lotus, and even when she plays a lively young girl, the cold personality in her bones is inadvertently revealed.

A lot of people thought she was going for the cold route on purpose, but they didn't know that this girl had an inherently icy personality, because her blood was cold!

But then Lin Xiang clearly felt a warm current flowing in her blood, a strange and warm feeling that made her cry out in excitement.

The feeling quickly faded, however, and her blood turned cold again.

“What’s going on... I was warm just now, and now why do I feel very cold again!” Lin Xiang looked at his hands and felt very sad about the feeling he had just had.

When Haoden Ye saw that disappointed look inside her eyes, he sighed slightly and scratched his head, “Cold Blood Syndrome is very difficult to treat, it takes a long time to treat, and the treatment I just gave is only just starting to have an effect!”

Lin Yao understood and his eyes flashed with disappointment.

She wouldn’t be so sorry at this point if she hadn’t experienced that warm feeling.

Lin Xiang raised her head and looked at Haoden Ye, her eyes started to shine when she thought of the unbearable feeling of cold blood all over her body when she was sick.

Haoden Ye gave her a surprisingly panicky look and couldn’t help but shiver.

“What the hell!” Haoden Ye was surprised in his heart, “Look at the look in her eyes, it’s like she couldn’t help but come over and suck my blood dry!”

But thinking of the characteristics of the disease of cold blood, Haoden Ye understood Lin Cheng in his heart.

A cold-blooded person could live to her age and, in addition to medication, would need human blood pumped into her body, and not just a simple transfusion, but a live transfusion of the blood of a sixteen-year-old virgin.

“It’s getting late, I’m going home first, I’ll start refining your medicine tomorrow, don’t worry I’ll be able to heal you in no time!” After saying that, Haoden Ye turned around and hurriedly left.

Lin Xiang watched his back and waited until Haoden Ye’s figure disappeared in the doorway, suddenly puffing out a laugh.

Haoden Ye returned home, cooked dinner, and the family only returned at six o'clock.

When Maya Shen returned home, his father-in-law and mother-in-law treated him much better, that is, his father-in-law, who had shown impatience when they met before, also chatted with Haoden Ye for a few words.

"Haoden Ye ah, you don't have to come back so early to cook from now on, just have your mom bring some back from the restaurant for dinner!" Robert Shen smiled as he saw the table full of food.

"Your dad is right, we have our own restaurant and we still let you cook every day, you have a pharmacy business to take care of now, so you don't have to come back so early every day!" Milda Hao smiled as well.

Hearing the two people's words, Haoden Ye's heart swelled with warmth, had the in-laws already started to accept themselves?

Although it wasn't as intimate as he thought it would be, Haoden Ye was also very satisfied.

The only beauty was that Maya Shen was now indifferent to him.

"Mom and Dad, I'm so used to cooking, I hired someone to watch the store!" Haoden Ye was busy smiling.

When the family got on the table, Robert Shen saw that Maya Shen hadn't come back and frowned, "Why is Maya so late today, it's almost seven o'clock!"

Milda Hao gave him a glance and said, "Young people work a lot, you think they are all like you, going to work every day with regularity!"

As the two of them were talking, the door to the restaurant opened and Maya Shen walked in with a tired face.

Her brow was furrowed slightly and she looked a little worried.

"Maya, what are you working on today, why are you back so late!" Seeing her daughter return, Milda Hao was busy.

However, it was as if Maya Shen hadn't heard and walked straight to her room.

Milda Hao's eyebrows immediately furrowed in displeasure, "What's going on, not even Mom is taking care of it!"

Robert Shen quickly gave her a wink, "She's in a bad mood, you understand!"

Milda Hao still looked unhappy, and Haoden Ye was very distressed when he saw Maya Shen like this.

Maya Shen was usually very respectful to her parents and had never been so rude before, she must have run into some serious trouble today!

Haoden Ye stood up and said to Robert Shen and his wife, "Mom and Dad, I'm going to check on Maya!"

Chapter 127

"What's the use of you going to see!" Robert Shen frowned when he heard, his face unhappy, "I'm afraid she's in an even worse mood when she sees you!"

Haoden Ye's face flashed a touch of loss, if he had the ability to become his woman's dependence, Maya Shen this kind of difficult time, he should give him support, and it was Robert Shen this father all felt that he could not become Maya Shen's dependence.

"You should also cut the crap, people are married after all, if Maya can't talk to us, she can talk to Haoden Ye!" Milda Hao glared at her husband.

Robert Shen lightly trailed off, his face looking as if he was saying again, "What do they have in common?"

Haoden Ye had stood up and walked to the room, and when he reached the door, Haoden Ye knocked lightly on it.

"The door's unlocked!" Maya Shen's voice came out sounding very impatient.

Haoden Ye opened the door and saw Maya Shen sitting on the dressing table money, staring out at a document.

“Maya, Mom and Dad were so worried about you that they asked me to come over and check on you!” Haoden Ye entered the door and looked at Haoden Ye cautiously.

When he entered the door just now, Maya Shen’s face was impatient, but a trace of warmth flashed between her eyebrows, and her pretty face immediately went cold when she heard this.

“If Mom and Dad don’t tell me, you won’t bother coming over to see me, will you?” Maya Shen snorted.

“Of course not!” Haoden Ye hurriedly waved his hand and walked over to the file, concerned, “What’s wrong, you look like you’re in a bad mood!”

“Need you say more?” As soon as Maya Shen heard his words, her temper instantly erupted and turned her head to stare at him fiercely, “What are you doing over here! Comfort me?”

Obviously, Maya Shen was angry outside and the fire was transferred to Haoden Ye, Haoden Ye saw her getting angry and habitually lowered her head to show a look of guilt.

Seeing his appearance, Maya Shen’s face became even more angry and glared at him viciously, “Get out, I don’t want to see you right now!”

Haoden Ye smiled bitterly, his heart a million words but he didn’t know how to speak, so he turned around and walked outside.

Seeing his back as he left, Maya Shen’s eyes suddenly turned red.

She had really been wronged outside today, and originally didn’t expect any help from Haoden Ye, as long as Haoden Ye would talk a little and comfort her a little she would be satisfied.

But the man can’t even say two warm words, so don’t scold yourself and then slink away.

You don't expect Haoden Ye to help him at work and give her a little support mentally?

However, watching Haoden Ye's figure arrive at the door, Maya Shen's heart swelled with guilt.

What right did she have to ask Haoden Ye to comfort her when she had already decided to separate from him?

She was about to say a few words of apology to keep Haoden Ye from being sad because of her, but Haoden Ye's figure suddenly turned around.

"You...if you're really uncomfortable, then yell at me, I'm not going out!" Haoden Ye's face reddened, like a fighter about to go to war, and his fists clenched.

Maya Shen was dumbfounded, in the past, she used to scold herself for a couple of sentences and Haoden Ye left sadly, how could this be the case today, making her not even know how to react.

"Who cares about yelling at you!" Maya Shen's heart surged with warmth, but her face was still cold, don't ignore Haoden Ye.

Haoden Ye was relieved to see that she wasn't violent.

He was very nervous just now, this was the first time he had faced Maya Shen in such a bold way.

"Maya, what the hell is wrong with you today?" Haoden Ye saw that Maya Shen ignored him and boldly walked over, his gaze hastily sweeping over the documents.

"What's the use of telling you, you can help me?" Maya Shen sighed, her tone eased down: "Our company recently talked with a company about a very big project, the project was talking well, but their company accounts suddenly appeared on the problem, was investigated by the Bureau of Industry and Commerce. Can't get back to normal operations, we've lost at least thirty million this time!"

Maya Shen said, her face becoming pained, "The problem with the accounts has actually been solved, but the rest of the formalities will take some time, this project is under my auspices, originally Li felt that we should be more cautious, but I insisted on keeping the project going, and as a result....” she said, getting teary eyed.

Haoden Ye listened to her words and finally understood.

He had run through the pharmacy procedures with Simen a few days ago, knowing the complexity of the procedures at the Bureau of Industry and Commerce, and Lawyer Jin had reminded him that the store’s accounting work must be done carefully and in detail, or else the Bureau of Industry and Commerce and the tax authorities would order the closure of the audits if problems arose and they found out.

This audit is very tedious and once you start auditing the paperwork is a lot of work and even after the audit, the paperwork will take a day or two to come down.

And a day is a day’s money for projects between companies, and Maya Shen is a strong woman who is very demanding and responsible for her work, except for this kind of thing, even though it’s not her fault and she blames herself very much.

Exclude this aspect of her not to mention that she was the one who presided over this project, and she has a responsibility to the company if she loses money.

Seeing her painful look, Haoden Ye heart hot, decided to bar the company is their own thing to say, immediately said: “You do not worry, soon a few million well, I do not care!”

Maya Shen’s face sank as soon as she heard this and slammed the table, “What’s the use of not caring? Can you pay the company? Is that how you comfort people?”

Haoden Ye looked slightly choked, holding back the words that rushed to his mouth.

What Maya Shen needs most is not someone to tell her that it’s okay to pay any amount of money, but to give her solutions.

“Lawyer Kim has a friend in the Department of Commerce and Industry, I’ll have him help right away!” Haoden Ye thought of Lawyer Jin and hurriedly said.

Maya Shen listened to his words, the anger in his heart slightly reduced, knowing that Haoden Ye was concerned about himself before saying those ridiculous words, ghostly sigh, tone slowed down: “It’s useless for you to know the leaders of the Bureau of Industry and Commerce, this matter is personally reviewed by the people of the municipal party committee, unless lawyer Jin can speak in front of the municipal party committee leaders!"

In fact, this is a one-sentence affair, and getting the city council people and the IAB to return some paperwork is the most that can be done.

But with so much work in the City Council and the Bureau of Industry and Commerce, and so many companies in Dan, who thinks about their companies every day?

"This... I also know one of the leaders of the city council, why don't I ask for you?" Haoden Ye thought of Mayor Zheng and scratched his head.

Maya Shen's eyes couldn't help but stare at his words, Haoden Ye actually knew someone from the municipal committee?

Chapter 128

"You know someone on the city council?" Maya Shen asked off the top of her head, and in her heart, she couldn't even believe that she had asked such a question.

Who is Haoden Ye? In the past, a guy who ran a dollar store was already lucky to know Lawyer Kim, how could he know anyone on the city council?

If he knew someone on the city council, would he still feel comfortable opening a small pharmacy?

"Haoden Ye, I know you want to comfort me, but do you think I'll feel better if you make up such lies?" Maya Shen's eyes looked sternly at Haoden Ye.

Haoden Ye's heart couldn't help but sink, Maya Shen actually thought she said and lied to her, was he this kind of person in her eyes?

Haoden Ye blushed and argued, "I really know the people in the city committee, don't believe me when you go with me to the city committee tomorrow!"

Seeing his angry appearance, Maya Shen suddenly had a funny feeling in her heart.

“What am I doing? Expect him to help me? Why did you tell him about it?” Maya Shen shook her head, not even bothering to get angry, turning her head and no longer paying attention to Haoden Ye, her heart pondering bitterly over countermeasures.

Haoden Ye saw her distrustful look, and felt even worse, making up his mind to go to the municipal committee tomorrow even if he didn't sell medicine.

Seeing Maya Shen's sorrowful appearance, he did not rest assured and went to the kitchen to make a bowl of soup to send to the room, Maya Shen sulked for a while and relaxed a lot, also felt hungry, drank some soup and took a bath to rest.

Both of them slept late at night, thinking of each other's thoughts.

The next morning, when Haoden Ye woke up, he saw Maya Shen sitting in front of the desk, still reading documents and wearing a nightgown.

Obviously, she got up very early this morning to think about work, and Haoden Ye looked very distressed and hurriedly got up too, going to find her suit.

“Did you put away that suit I bought last time?” Haoden Ye didn't find his clothes and was confused to Maya Shen.

Maya Shen impatiently turned her head to look at him, and spoke in an annoyed tone: “Five hundred dollars for a dress, it's just you as a treasure, I've already thrown it away!” Afterwards, she suddenly gave an amused look and said, “What are you looking for that dress for, are you going to meet your friends in the 'city council'?” The tone is full of ridiculousness.

Haoden Ye looked a bit ugly and wanted to nod, but had the feeling that this seemed to make Maya Shen feel even more ridiculous, so he muffled his voice.

Casually putting on a piece of clothing, Haoden Ye went to cook dinner.

Maya Shen didn't eat in the morning either, she only came out when Haoden Ye was brushing the dishes and drove off out of the room.

When Haoden Ye saw her leave, he also quickly finished packing up and drove out to the car.

Driving inside the pharmacy, Haoden Ye quickly said to Lin cheerfully, "How much money is left in the counter, give me that money!"

Lin Xiang is a bit strange, she has known Haoden Ye for so many days, she hates to understand Haoden Ye's temper, he is not a very extravagant person, why does he suddenly want money? Lin Xiang is naturally very knowledgeable about the pharmacy's accounts, and immediately said, "Yesterday, he bought 300,000 medicines, and the money in his account was 200,000, and 100,000 was introduced to him by a friend, so you said it was a free gift."

Haoden Ye was delighted and quickly said, "Get me... 20,000, I'm going to buy a daughter-in-law suit, I have something important to go to the municipal committee!"

"To the city council?" Lin Xiang's eyebrows furrowed as she listened, she had investigated some of Haoden Ye's relationship, and she also knew about Zheng Guo's relationship with Haoden Ye.

You're going to meet with the city council and wear a $20,000 suit?

Now Haoden Ye was considered a respectable person in the Dan City medical industry, and 20,000 yuan of clothes might be a lot for an ordinary person, but it seemed a bit cheap for Haoden Ye.

"Boss, the effect of a twenty thousand dollar suit and a few hundred is actually about the same, why don't you just take a hundred thousand and buy a suit, I can introduce you to a store!" Lin cheers quickly.

Haoden Ye almost didn't jump up when he heard, 100,000 yuan to buy a suit? He's crazy to do this!

"A hundred thousand dollars for a suit, no no no!" Haoden Ye was busy shaking his head, "I can't part with 20,000! You girl looks plain and simple, why don't you know how to save your money when it comes to spending!"

Lin Cheng shows a puzzled look, is a 20,000 Yuan dress very expensive?

She had the feeling that she wanted to laugh, Haoden Ye's income of hundreds of thousands of dollars a day, but couldn't afford to spend tens of thousands of dollars to buy a dress, he was going to meet the leaders of the municipal party committee, wearing ordinary clothes, aren't you afraid that you will look shabby?

"Boss, people depend on the clothes, wear good or bad is a demonstration of your ability, your income of hundreds of thousands of dollars a day, words 100,000 to buy a dress is not good!" Lin Xiang tilted his head, curious.

"Crap, of course I can't give it up!" Haoden Ye snapped his fingers and counted, "You only know that I have hundreds of thousands a day, don't you want the cost of refining medicine? Besides, to give you treatment medicine can be expensive herbs, each time the medication at least three to four million, if you officially start treatment, at least five days to treat the medication once, this should all be less money? Don't you know how to save, don't you want to heal?"

At his words, Lin Qi was dumbfounded!

She also knew that treating herself would cost a lot of money, and she wasn't short of money, which she reasonably needed to pay for herself.

However, after she and her grandfather knew that Haoden Ye was carrying a different treasure, they subconsciously felt that Haoden Ye shouldn't lack money, at least a few million, so she didn't care about the money.

Now she realized that Haoden Ye was desperately trying to earn money to cure himself.

In an instant, a wave of emotion surged through Lin Xiang's heart.

This man in front of me, this man that I didn't even bother to look at in the past, this waste in the eyes of others, I actually dutifully took such an irrelevant girl like him!

"I...my grandfather doesn't need money!" cheerful Lin cheerfully lowered his head and tried to hold back the tears that were about to remain.

There are countless fights in the entertainment industry, and she is not a person who is easily moved, but Haoden Ye's simplicity still touched her.

Haoden Ye didn't know what was in her heart, as soon as he heard her words his heart couldn't help but snort, his heart said, "I know you don't lack money, but your grandfather left you to me, do I have to reach out to you for money?Your master saved my life, I owe this life to you, am I good with that?"

Coughing, Haoden Ye said, "Let's talk about money next time your master comes, give me 20,000 first, I'll go buy clothes!"

"I'll buy it for you!"Lin Xiang looked up with a shallow smile on his ancient face and said, "I know a store that can wear millions of clothes for 20,000!"

Haoden Ye's eyes lit up with surprise as he heard, "Great, thank you, give me the address, I'll be right over, now I'm in a hurry!"
