

The Best Son in Law Chapter 135 – 137

Chapter 135

Only he knew that Holander's group's money was actually Haoden Ye's money, and he had to respect Haoden Ye's opinion on this matter, so Li Mingsheng set his eyes on Haoden Ye.

And then Haoden Ye saw Sun Yuxuan's mouth and smirked, sensing Li Mingsheng's gaze, Haoden Ye turned his head and nodded gently to him.

Having received Haoden Ye's initial approval, Li Mingsheng's bile form, snorted, "Well, the Sun family is so disrespectful to our Shengwen International, the cooperation between our two companies is cancelled!"

This statement was met with full-on surprise, and the camera snapped even louder.

Sun Yuxuan also stayed a bit, this project Sun family actually did not put much money, most of the money is still words of Shengwen International.

"What...what do you mean!?" Sun Yuxuan's face became ugly, he didn't think that Li Mingsheng really had the courage to withdraw his capital, he lowered his voice: "Do you know how much money your company will lose if you withdraw your capital now?"

Maya Shen listened to Li Mingsheng's pretty face is also very ugly, after all, this project is her hand to make it happen.

"Mr. Li, you should think about this matter!" Maya Shen's face was apologetic to Li Mingsheng.

Li Mingsheng was already on fire, of course it was useless for anyone to persuade him, he knew that Haoden Ye cared about what Maya Shen thought, so he immediately asked Haoden Ye for advice.

Haoden Ye couldn't care about Maya Shen's mood at this point and shook his head gently at him.

"Ya, I know you've put too much effort into this project, but the Sun family is just too much of a bully!" Li Mingsheng raged Heng and shook his head at her.

Maya Shen was lost in her heart, and that was all she could do.

"Let's go!" Li Mingsheng said and walked out.

Sun Yuhuan stayed and watched them leave, his whole body confused.

Without Shengwen International's investment, the Sun family couldn't have given him tens of millions to complete the project.

"Li Mingsheng, don't be too arrogant, you're considered a breach of contract, our Sun family will sue you!" Sun Yuxuan was furious, pointing at Li Mingsheng and shouting.

"Oh, Sun Shao that's really scary, I'm not scared of Li Mingsheng, you said at the press conference that this project is the Sun family's project, it's already in breach of the contract, it seems like we should be the ones to sue!" Li Mingsheng sneered at the doctor, Sun Yuxuan, a rookie like him, was also too young to know that this conference was actually held by two people, and that he would be legally responsible for making that kind of statement at the conference.

After Li Mingsheng said that, he walked out, while Sun Yuxuan watched him leave, his face stiff and terrible.

The snap of the camera kept going.

“Bastard, it’s a disgrace to our Sun Family!” Inside the Sun family compound, Sun Zhengwu, the current head of the Sun family, slammed the table with force and became furious.

The Sun family is not what it used to be, and without the support of the Lin family, the Sun family is fragile.

The relationship between the Sun family and the Lin family goes back to the last generation, when Sun Zhenbin was a driver for the old man of the Lin family, and then when he got older, the Lin family gave Sun Zhenbin a sum of money to start a company.

Later, after the Lin family’s eldest daughter’s illness was discovered, the Lin family wanted to cultivate a medicinal guide for Lin Yumo, and the old man selected Sun Yuxuan, Sun Zhenbin’s grandson.

The Sun family is not good at business, these years have been relying on the support of the Lin family, originally counted on Sun Yuxuan and Lin Yumo married, the Sun family to inherit the Lin family if everyone can not imagine their son is not competitive, people Lin Yumo simply do not see Sun Yuxuan.

Now that the engagement is off, the Sun family is completely ruined!

But over the years, relying on the support of the Lin family, the Sun family has also cultivated some vision, which is nothing in the capital, but has a bit of status at the local level.

It would have been possible to rely on these strengths to squeeze into the upper echelon at the local level, even if they couldn’t restore their former glory.

But this time, Sun Yuxuan’s cooperation with Sheng Wen International had completely disgraced the Sun family.

Once Sheng Wen International withdrew its investment, Sun Yuxuan couldn't continue the project and asked the Sun family for help, but the Sun family simply couldn't come up with tens of millions of dollars, and now all the money is in circulation, so where is the free money?

So Sun's project could only end, and this incident directly led to the downfall of the Sun family even more quickly.

"What a waste, a complete waste, originally I thought he was enlightened, actually thought of cooperating with Shengwen International, that company is small, but behind it stands but the Holander's Group, as long as climbing this line, even if it is Pei Qian, we have to go on with the project! I never thought he would be such a loser..." Sun Zhengwu's face turned red with anger.

"Why are you angry with your son, didn't you give birth to him? It's the Lin family's treachery that's to blame. When it's over, the Sun family will throw it away like garbage! Sheng Wen International is not a good thing either, blatantly defying the contract, and you're blaming your son for all these mistakes!" Seeing that Sun Zhengwu was angry, the Sun family's mistress, Zhao Yashu, snorted coldly.

"Huh? You still defend him. If he wasn't so unprofessional and fooling around with women every day, why would Miss Lin withdraw her marriage? And the Shengwen International thing, people have already paid for it, what else does he want to do? How dare you directly say that this Sun family's project puts the credibility of our Sun family there?" Sun Zhengwu's voice had become hysterical the more he spoke.

"What's the use of being angry with me, you're still incapable of doing it yourself, if you can talk your way into the Lin family, would Lin Yumo dare to back out of the marriage? This little bitch, who caused our Sun family to be so crippled, will definitely have her retribution!" Zhao Yashu heard her words and also turned red with anger.

"Hey!" Sun Zhengwu sighed and looked lonely, "You're right, there's no use getting angry now, the Sun family, it's completely over..."

Inside the pharmacy, Lin Xiang put down his phone and smiled wickedly at the corner of his mouth.

Sun Yuxuan was really absurd enough to give up on what was clearly an opportunity to save the Sun family for nothing.

“This trash is really no use at all, if it wasn’t for the support of our Lin family, the Sun family wouldn’t have been able to get a foothold in such a big enterprise!” With a sneer, Lin Xiang’s face turned icy cold.

She hadn’t always hated Sun Yuyuan, and when she was little, she had a few expectations of this future husband.

She really hated Sun Yuxuan, officially the first time she saw this man, when the two were still only eleven or twelve years old, the Lin family arranged for two people to meet to cultivate feelings unexpectedly this waste to see their first words is: “In the future, you have to give me as a wife, now you have to listen to my words, otherwise I will be bad for you in the future!”

Who is Lin Yumo? No one had ever dared to threaten himself like this, and Sun Yuxuan was talking to him like this, Lin Yumo didn’t say anything and had Sun Yuxuan taught a hard lesson.

From that day on, the two of them never saw each other again, and the parents of the two families didn’t take this matter seriously either.

Chapter 136

Dan City’s delicate body Lin family villa, Zheng Lao put down the tea bowl, lazily lying on the rocking chair, his eyes fell on the outside scenery.

“Have you, Daxian, heard about the Sun family!” Zheng’s eyes were squinting like he was asleep, and if you didn’t look closely you thought he had his eyes closed.

In front of him, white as snow, Lin stood at the railing, staring out at the scenery.

“I haven’t asked about the Foresters in years, why are you talking about this?” Lin’s voice was faint, as if he didn’t like talking about this topic.

“Hehe, don’t think I don’t know, that Sun kid is the medicinal guide you chose for Yu Mo, right, now that you don’t need anyone else, you’re just giving up on the Sun family, you Lin family is really ruthless!”

Zheng Lao tsked and shook his head, his tone full of mockery of his old friend.

The corners of Figmen Lin’s mouth raised, revealing a wisp of an imperceptible smile, and said faintly: “That brat of the Sun family is loyal, honest, and has the appearance of wealth and nobility, but his fortune is also limited, so his descendants are often sneaky, treacherous and cunning, especially his grandson Sun Yuxuan. It can’t be helped if you won’t marry him!”

Zheng old fingers knocked on the rocking chair: “You old boy is very treacherous, I’ve said it all, you still don’t want to admit that you completely severed ties with the Sun family because of the boy surnamed Ye? The Sun family boy’s grandson is not a good character, but that’s no reason for your Lin family to give up on the Sun family that has been cultivating for so many years!”

Zheng Lao snorted and stood up from his rocking chair, “Not to mention the energy and money they have invested in other places, in Dan City alone, you have spent no less than three billion investment for the Sun family, you are willing to give up so many years of investment for a weak Sun family boy? If you only have this much insight, then my old man would simply leave Dan City, so why spend time with you here!”

The light inside Figmen Lin’s eyes shone, and he turned his head to look deeply at Zheng Lao, “You’re old and confused, can you say such things?”

Zheng lao left his mouth, unconcerned, "You're already a year old, so tell me what's wrong? This old bone of mine is spying on you in Dan City, and we both know what we're doing!"

Figmen Lin smiled bitterly and shook his head slowly.

Zheng Lao walked up to the parallel and turned his head to look at him curiously, "It's really strange, what do you see in this kid that's worth it! It can't be..." said Zheng, pointing at Lin and laughing, "You're trying to slip your granddaughter to someone, aren't you!"

Lin's cheeks twitched and he turned his head to look at Zheng, his face bitter, "Hey, in the eyes of a commoner like you, I, the Great Immortal, am also full of vulgarity!"

Old Zheng's face turned ugly and unhappy, "Yes! I'm vulgar, you Lin old gods and goddesses, a vulgar like me doesn't understand, so tell me, Lin Daxian, aren't you trying to slip your granddaughter to someone else?"

Lin's cheeks twitched again, and even more so.

Zheng pointed at Lin with a sneer of disdain, "Hey! You said no! If you say one word of no today, I'll acknowledge the commoner's name!"

Lin laughed bitterly and shook his head lightly as Zheng looked very pleased and laughed, "Haha! I never thought I'd be able to disgrace you, the Immortal, with nothing to say!"

After saying that, his face straightened and his tone became serious, "What's this girl Yu Mo's attitude? As far as I know, this is her last chance, and you're not going to do any thinking about it, you immortal? I'm getting a little anxious!"

Figmen Lin sighed at the words, his tone became lonely, and slowly said, "Yu Mo has been following me since she was a child, and in terms of the hundred and one things on earth, although she hasn't seen them all, she has listened to me, and the truths of the world, she may not have experienced them all herself, but she has heard them all from me, so this matter still depends on her thoughts, and it's futile for me to advise her."

The first time I heard this, I was unhappy again, one hand repeatedly pointing at Figmen Lin: "You old man reasoning than anyone else, why do things are so awkward, didn't you say that my life is also closely related to this kid?If you're not going to do it, I'm going to do it!"

Figmen Lin's eyebrows furrowed slightly as he intoned, "Didn't I tell you that this kid's destiny is complicated and there are too many variables, it may not be a blessing for you to be so reckless, I think he's a good person and has a good relationship with your son, why don't you wait for a while and let me see a reason why, then you can ask him for help!"

Zheng Lao returned to his seat and shook his rocking chair, looking unconcerned, "My old man doesn't have as much sense as you do, and I don't want you to be divine, but I understand one thing, sending charcoal in snow is more useful than adding more flowers to the brocade!"

Thinking about it, he looked relaxed and focused again as he looked at the scenery of the sky...

"Maya, don't feel bad I'm sure you'll have another project soon!"In the car, Haoden Ye told the sad Maya Shen.

At this time, Maya Shen was looking out the window, looking full of self-loathing and loneliness.

The company has lost millions, and she, the vice president, is to blame.

Two people were on their way back to the office, and the car in front of Haoden Ye was Li Mingsheng's car.

When we arrived at Shengwen International, there were a number of Shengwen International staff standing at the door, people who clearly didn't have time or were not qualified to attend the press conference.

"Mr. Li, what's going on here, why did our cooperation with the Sun Group stop!" Seeing Li Mingsheng and the others get off the bus, all the people from Shengwen International gathered around, and the first one to speak up was General Manager Xu.

When Maya Shen had just started working with Sun's group, he was very unhappy, but there was nothing he could do about it.

However, after hearing what happened at the press conference today, Mr. Xu was delighted, this is a good opportunity to get rid of Maya, will he refuse?

So before Li Mingsheng and the others had returned, Xu incited the rest of the company to block Li Mingsheng at the door.

Hearing Xu's words, Li Mingsheng's face became ugly.

He is not wrong to turn down the cooperation with the Sun family, but after all, this project concerns the future of everyone in the company, so he still feels guilty.

"This matter is all due to my spur of the moment, the Sun Group is too bullying our Shengwen International, but don't feel bad, we have the Holander Group as our backing, and there will definitely be many future projects!" Lee immediately began to shareholder military morale.

Chapter 137

“Li is right, Sun’s group is too bullying this time too!”Mr. Xu was no fool, so naturally he had to agree with Li Mingsheng on such matters.

The people in the company listened to their words, and though they nodded along on the surface, they were all uncomfortable.

How much less profitable is the company going to be this year if a multi-million dollar project is buried like this?Everyone had a belly full of unhappiness and no place to vent it.

General Manager Xu swept his gaze over everyone and sneered in his heart, suddenly changing his words, “Humph!Sun’s group is too much, it’s wise of Li to not cooperate with them, but this matter still affects our company too badly, the press conference Sun’s group looked down on us and made our company lose face not to mention, how are other companies going to look at us, will they think that we don’t have the ability to take on big business?”

The crowd turned slightly pale at the news.

Mr. Xu was right, by working with the Holander Group, Shengwen International did have many more projects, but had never worked with a large company, and this was the first time working with the Sun Group.

Although it’s not Shengwen International’s fault that this partnership didn’t work out, is it possible that other companies who don’t know the inside story, or who have a vivid imagination, might think that Sun sees that Shengwen International is incapable and that’s why they look down on it and embarrass Shengwen International at the press conference?

Would those big companies still want to work with Shengwen International?

It was even Li Mingsheng who was frowning at what Xu said, looking a little worried.

Mr. Xu laughed coldly in his heart and continued, "And our company is just starting out, and if we offend the Sun family, it might be even harder for the company to go in Dan City in the future!"

This speech made the whole company turn pale again.

Li Mingsheng's face was gloomy, he was unhappy just now when General Manager Xu hit the company's morale in front of his colleagues, but he couldn't refute it, so he was particular, and it was clear that General Manager Xu's words were trying to stir up the army, making Li Mingsheng very unhappy.

"Old Xu! Don't you dare talk nonsense. The Sun Group is a big company, why would it have a problem with us? Don't forget, we still have the Hongs behind us!" Li Mingsheng took advantage of the face.

Mr. Xu nodded quickly and smiled, "This is of course, but our company has to be blamed for such a big loss this time, someone has to be blamed, this time the Sun Group's cooperation failed, obviously someone didn't examine it strictly, otherwise our company would lose such a big face!"

As soon as the words came out, Maya Shen's petite body standing next to Haoden Ye was in a slight burst.

I have to say that the timing of Mr. Xu's outburst was very good, just when everyone in the company was feeling bad.

Hearing his words, everyone's eyes turned to Maya Shen and their faces began to turn angry.

"Mr. Xu is right, could we have been so humiliated this time if not for Shen's rash cooperation with Sun's group?"

“This time it’s not just our company’s face, our credibility has also suffered a great loss, and it will be difficult to work with big companies in the future!”

“Shopping malls are like battlefields, morale one two down three and exhausted, this incident should affect our company so much, it’s all her fault!”

“I’ve already told you what this woman is capable of and why she should be the vice president of our company! You don’t have the skills, but you still have to be in charge of such a big project, so look at the plant!”

“This kind of person shouldn’t be allowed to be in a high position, she should just dry out of the company!”

The whispers were not loud, but clearly audible.

Maya Shen’s face gradually began to turn white and her petite body trembled slightly.

When Li Mingsheng heard this sentence, his face became red, others do not know, but he is clear, Maya Shen is Haoden Ye’s wife, the company is Haoden Ye’s, how the future development of the company, people Haoden Ye said.

To be frank, the company lost tens of millions and millions of dollars, all of which were Haoden Ye’s money, and he was only responsible for managing the company.

Although he also wanted the company to grow, but in the end, it would depend on the mood of others Haoden Ye.

Besides, what does it matter if we lose Sun’s group this cooperation? With Haoden Ye’s relationship with the Holander family, what project couldn’t be pulled over? And I’ve heard that Sun’s group isn’t going to make it, so this partnership with them is just a bridge to cross the river.

Thinking of this, he subconsciously looked at Haoden Ye.

But then I saw that Haoden Ye's face had turned red, his chest heaving with anger.

The gang's words irritated Maya Shen, and irritated him.

Yes, it's true that Maya Shen's cooperation with Sun's group has a bad effect on the company, but is this matter Maya Shen's fault?

How could the collaboration have ended if not for the shamelessness of the man Sun Yuxuan?

These people will jump in and say snarky things when Maya Shen fails, and who of them wants to help when Maya Shen is working hard for this collaboration?

He had seen with his own eyes that Maya Shen had even fought herself for this cooperation!

"Mr. Xu, what do you mean, is it Maya's fault that the cooperation can't continue? What? When the partnership failed you jumped out and said something sarcastic, and when the partnership succeeded, how come I didn't see you speak up for Maya?"

Haoden Ye was very angry in his heart and walked directly past Maya Shen to General Manager Xu and said angrily, "Do you know how hard Maya worked for this cooperation?"

Hearing his words, Maya Shen's delicate body shook slightly, and her already pale face began to show some color.

General Manager Xu was originally a deliberately picky eater, and was naturally very happy to see Haoden Ye angry, but on his face he pretended to be angry: "Humph! Am I wrong?She worked really hard for the partnership, but she was subpar at her job, started the partnership without a full inspection of the Suns, and now I can't say anything but questions?Is she the only one working on this project?Didn't that colleague at the company follow suit?"

This comment caused everyone in the room to nod their heads, and someone whispered, "Yeah, that's like the whole company saving him alone."

"A lack of ability is a lack of ability, and people are right about what Xu said!"

"What kind of a person are you that you're allowed to dictate what happens in our company?"

The voices of criticism grew, and eventually everyone in the company began to verbally assault Haoden Ye in unison.

"Don't even say it!"Maya Shen stood behind Haoden Ye, seeing the angry faces of her colleagues in the company, tears had filled the top of her pretty face, "What Mr. Xu said is right, this time it's really because I'm not capable enough and didn't examine carefully... I've decided to resign my position as Vice President!"

Haoden Ye's face changed fiercely at the news, Maya Shen's heart the importance of the company's job is clear to him, making her quit her job is even worse than killing her.

"No!! disagree!"Haoden Ye immediately spoke up.

"You disagree?"General Manager Xu snorted at the news, "I'm so sorry, it's not your turn to dictate our company's affairs, you trash!"
