

Chapter 447

At the other end, Darius said: "Okay, you can do your work first." After speaking, he hung up the phone.

After closing the line, Darius said to himself: "Suzi, you are a very self-disciplined girl, you will not easily ask for things from others, but I will give you a surprise. You have been as kind and affectionate as Sanford in the previous six years. Your brother who is righteous and has no distractions will take care of you. From now on, I will take over Sanford. Don't worry!"

Of course, these words of Darius could not be heard by Suzi.

After closing the line, Suzi raised his eyes and looked at Joan: "Chu Shao, we just talked in the cafe yesterday, what else do you want me to do today?"

"Suzi, good news, I have heard about your brother." Joan said excitedly.

Just last night, after quarreling with Walton, Joan and Walton ran out to drink boring alcohol in a fit of anger. He was drinking boring alcohol and overheard a conversation between a man who seemed to be a doctor by profession and his companion.

The male doctor said, "Unexpectedly, the medical level of that hospital is already so high. I want to enter that hospital, but I can't."

"Which hospital, what hospital?" another man asked.

"Specialized hospital with high simulation nerve configuration." The male doctor said.

Another man: "Isn't this a fantasy!"

"Of course not! I saw a Nancheng patient in it. The man was a Nancheng noble son named Sanford. Somehow, the son of Xu was paralyzed in his lower limbs due to neurological reasons. After he used this substitute He was able to stand up. Before I came back, he could slowly move two steps. He is now undergoing rehabilitation.”

Another man: “...” Joan who was drunk next to him: “...”

He immediately became sober and not drunk.

Then he grabbed the male doctor’s hand with a foretaste and kept asking, “Excuse me, where is Sanford? Where is Sanford? Tell me!”

The two male doctors fled in fright.

While running away, he shouted Joan: “Crazy man! You crazy man!”

Joan couldn’t help it. He had to take advantage of the two men walking away and quietly drove behind him. Who knew the relationship between the two men was, and they went to the hotel to open a room.

Sanford followed them all night and morning.

It was not until afternoon that the two men came out of the hotel. After the male doctor who knew Sanford was saying goodbye to the other man, he went to work in a hospital, which was a specialized orthopedic hospital.

Joan followed the doctor all the way to his department. After seeing the doctor’s name and the shift on duty, he took out his mobile phone and called Suzi.

As a result, Suzi’s cell phone shut down.

In desperation, Joan didn’t dare to delay for a minute to find Suzi.

When he heard Joan’s news about Sanford, Suzi suddenly forgot the rumors. She grabbed Joan’s hand and said excitedly: “What did you say, Joan, you say it again, you There is news from my brother, where is my brother? Is my brother in the country, where is he? You take me to see him, I will see my brother now! I want to see my brother!”

Joan: “ ...”

Chapter 448

Suzi tremblingly asked Joan, “Young Master Chu, can you take me to see my brother?”

The way she pleaded with Joan looked extremely anxious and pitiful in the eyes of several male colleagues. It was the kind of anxious feeling of losing her closest relative. The male colleagues especially understood Suzi.

They didn’t see any unruly behavior between Suzi and this young Chu Chu.

What they saw was that Suzi was looking for his elder brother, a sister who was so affectionate about her, really didn’t dislike her.

Here Joan nodded: “Well, I will take you there now!”

Suzi grabbed the bag and went out with Joan. Because of the urgency, she didn’t say a word to the director, and didn’t get the off-duty card, so she left in a hurry. Here, Suzi just left the design department. The men in the design department Colleagues will just say what you say to me.

“I found out that you women just have nothing to look for, and you can afford to have enough food!”

“Do you know why you don’t have the advantage of our male counterparts in architecture? That’s because you didn’t put your mind on design, or you spent your mind on fiddle with others all day long!”

“Are you tired? Half a month ago, I heard you talk about that every day. Fourth Master Fu captured a woman from a remote mountainous area. How did she drop it? He shouted at others for so many days. Have you ever seen that woman? ?

Do you know who the last name is?

I don't know anything, I follow the chase all day long!

Finally, an experienced company came to the company. Instead of following your studies, you transferred the gossip to the new employees and make irresponsible remarks!

I really convinced you women! "

Several male colleagues have been unable to get used to these women's hardships for Suzi several times recently, and they have also seen that Suzi is not troublesome, not okay to make trouble, but it is not easy to mess with.

This group of talkative girls are not Suzi's opponents at all.

The blind bibi who doesn't know it yet.

It's ridiculous.

A group of women, including Linda, were dumbfounded by a few male colleagues. They were suffocating in their hearts but couldn't refute them, because the male colleagues said it was reasonable.

Temporarily calmed down in the design office.

Suzi at the other end had also followed Joan out, and got in Joan's car all the way to the orthopedic hospital. At this time, the male doctor in the orthopedic hospital had not yet got off work. When he saw the male doctor, he sat Outside Suzi's hands trembled with excitement.

She tried her best to restrain herself, and waited until the clinic room, the male doctor called: "Next."

Suzi rushed in immediately.

The male doctor was startled first, and then when he saw a girl with a bitter but sweet-looking face, the male doctor gently asked, "Little girl, what's wrong with you?"

Suzi looked at the male doctor, crying tears in his eyes: "Excuse me, you...Where did you see my brother? Can you take me to find my brother?"

Male doctor: "Miss, did you go to the wrong door?"

Suzi couldn't wait to say: "No, doctor, please tell me where is the advanced orthopedics and neurology hospital you saw? You said you saw my brother there, how is my brother? "

Doctor: "..."

When she was about to drive Suzi out, Joan came in.
