

Chapter 121

Standing up, opening his tired eyes and looking at Arron: "I know you are very busy these days. Aunt Xia's condition makes you unable to deal with other things, but I...we are Isn't it time to talk about the contract?"

After speaking, Suzi swallowed his throat and looked at Arron.

She was a little tired after working for a day today. At night, she was taken to the box by the guy named Huo Jianshan. After half an hour in a panic, she stabbed Huo Jianshan with a broken wine bottle.

When she was irritated, she naturally didn't care about anything, but now she felt scared when she calmed down. The man was still lying in the hospital, although the matter was suppressed by Joan.

But for medical expenses, Suzi has no money.

She thought that the place where the money could be raised was Arron, as well as her ongoing contract.

Arron, please look at Suzi very coldly.

He is in a bad mood today!

My mother has been in a coma for three days and has a high fever every day. Now it is unlikely that she will wake up. In the past few days with a high fever, the internal organs have been almost destroyed.

Watching his mother die a little bit in front of him, Arron's heart couldn't be described as pain. He has endless regrets, regrets that he shouldn't let his grandfather and grandmother bring relatives of the Fu family to admit his mother's existence.

In this way, at least the mother will not become careless and her physical condition will suddenly decline because of the end of her mind.

Arron has not rested for three nights.

When I was in a bad mood, I came out of my mother's ward and saw Suzi getting into the car half-wrapped by an old man in his 50s and 60s. Originally, he had changed her.

Because of that cigarette holder.

The small cigarette holder really poked his heart. However, whenever he changes a little bit about her, the facts he sees tell him that the woman in front of him is so complicated!

What a disguise!

She turned out to be the woman her mother thought of.

My mother was already in a coma, still chanting Suzi's name, still calling Suzi.

And this woman?

When her mother was talking about her name, she was cuddling with an old man who could be her grandfather!

She would really choose the time, knowing that he really couldn't spare his hands to deal with her now, so she was very blatant. Not only did he hook up with other men during the contract period with him, but he also came to ask him personally, about the contract?

"In your heart, have you ever thought about my mother?" he asked quietly.

Suzi: "..."

"Answer me!" The man's tone was still very flat.

Suzi: "What do you want to hear? Even if I say the truth, you don't think I am the truth, do you? Then I might as well say what you want to hear. I never thought of your mother in my heart, I just use She approached you, originally intending to use the child in my stomach to rely on you, but I did not succeed, since I did not succeed, then I can only be part of my contract.

May I ask Mr. Fu, when can you pay the expenses in my contract? "

She looked at him without changing her face.

His complexion was also very calm, calm enough to make her feel uneasy.

During the time he was with Arron, Suzi knew about Arron a little bit. He spoke very little and acted fiercely and decisively, but what he showed was only a cold expression, and he never showed a fierce look on his face.

However, she had seen his ferocity and cold blood several times.

Chapter 122

The layout of his living room is full of organs that put people to death. He deals with those who oppose him, and absolutely does not even give you the opportunity to beg for mercy. It has always been without procrastination, but also solved people without making a word.

At this moment, Suzi didn't know what Arron was really thinking, she could only pretend to be calm.

And he could not hear any emotions, anger, sorrow or sorrow in a light tone: "The contract is that after my mother has passed away, I will be able to provide you with expenses. Now my mother is still alive."

Suzi: "..."

In a daze, Arron had opened the door and entered. He didn't mean to let her in at all. Instead, he closed the door with his backhand and shut Suzi outside.

The moment the door closed, the cold bird in Arron's eyes gradually released.

Several times he tried to strangle a woman by raising his wrist.

However, he held back.

What she thought of was the way she took care of her mother bit by bit, and the few sweet and simple smiles in front of him.

And her good handwriting is sharp and smooth.

And her talent in architectural design.

However, she was so complicated and unbearable.

Outside the door, Suzi was stunned for a long time, then dragged his tired body into the elevator and went downstairs.

She knew that she couldn't ask the result anymore, she was very tired now, she needed a rest, and the child in her belly also needed a rest, she couldn't spend it here anymore.

Just a few steps away from the elevator, Suzi suddenly saw Arron rushing out of the elevator. At first she thought he was rushing to deal with her, and she was so scared that Suzi's breathing was stuck in her throat, but she found that Arron hadn't looked at all. She went straight to the parking place instead.

The man got in the car and immediately started the engine, drove the car, and increased to the fastest speed, the car flew out like an arrow. The sound of the car rubbing against the ground is very harsh.

"Not good!" Suzi suddenly realized that it must be Aunt Xia's condition in the hospital that has deteriorated again. Suzi could not lose her soul, and even if there was Huo Jianshan who was stabbed by her in the hospital, she rushed out of the community. On the main road, I stopped a taxi and hugged the name of the hospital, and asked the taxi to drive faster.

A quarter of an hour later, Suzi came to the hospital and came to the ward where Aunt Xia usually lives. Aunt Xia had all the tubes unplugged. Her complexion was turmeric and turmeric, and her lips were vented without air intake.

"Auntie Xia..." Suzi lay outside the ward, crying silently.

On the other end, Shanna's lips slowly squirmed, and Arron was next to her mother. At this moment, the man who was so cold and decisive on the sofa could not help crying: "Mom, what else do you have to say??"

"Suzi..." Shanna said two words laboriously.

"Mom, I'm here." Suzi rushed to Shanna regardless.

"Suzi Suzi...help me...photograph...Gu...Qin...Qin...er." Shanna Said intermittently.

The sound is smaller than a mosquito.

"Hmm, don't worry, mother, I will definitely help you take care of Arron." Suzi cried and said.

"Qin'er..." Shanna shouted again.

"Mom?"

"No...you want to...bury me...buried...in the...Fu family...zu... ...Fu, Fu...Family, I don't like...I, I... alone...will... ...Isolated by...I...I'm lonely. Buried me...in...the cemetery...lively." Just short Shanna spoke for seven or eight minutes.

Arron understood: "Mom, I understand what you mean, don't worry, I will find many friends for you, many companions to accompany you, so that you are no longer alone, I have taken my aunt, my grandma and grandpa All of his tombs have moved here, and they are all buried around you, so that you will not be alone."

"Really...my son is so nice, mom...mother is gone." After speaking, Shanna's head tilted and passed away.
