

Chapter 139

When Suzi woke up again, he was already pushing into the operating room in the ambulance. Suzi grabbed the doctor's hand: "Don't, don't call me... Don't give me anesthesia."

Doctor: "..."

"I am a pregnant woman, I want to keep my baby, I have no relatives, my baby is my only relative, please, don't... don't give me anesthetics." Suzi cried and pleaded.

Sanford: "..."

Doctor: "Can you bear the pain in the process?"

Suzi resolutely said: "It must be possible!"

Doctor: "Yes." After he finished speaking, he pushed Suzi into the operating room.

Sanford, who was waiting outside, could clearly hear heart-piercing howls in the operating room.

More than an hour later, Suzi, who was pale, tired and sweaty, was pushed out.

It was Sanford who was waiting for her outside.

"Thank you Mr. Xu, you can go back." Suzi said in a weak tone.

Sanford said, "How can this be done? You have just had an operation and there is still a baby in your belly. How can no one beside you take care of you?"

Suzi looked at Sanford sadly: "Mr. Xu, can you tell me what you picture me? What do you need me to do for you? Or do you want to play with me?"

Sanford: "..."

Joan had always been with her, and it was normal for Suzi to think of him in this way.

He choked his throat and said, "Don't worry, I won't ask you for anything in return."

After speaking, he pushed Suzi into the ward. He hired a nurse for her and came to the hospital every day to take care of Suzi. Because Suzi did not take anesthetics, and because the weather was moderate, the wound healed quickly, and she could actually be discharged in three days.

It was Sanford who asked her to stay for a few more days.

During this period, Joan came to visit Suzi, his face was full of guilt: "Suzi, I'm sorry."

Suzi smiled: "Has the murderer caught it?"

"Caught it, it was the desperado who Huo Jianshan was looking for. He gave him 20 million just to kill me. Fortunately, you blocked me twice, otherwise I would have seen King Yan now." Joan Sitting in front of Suzi's hospital bed, Suzi said sincerely while inserting the lilies that he had just bought.

"If you can save your life, I can count on repaying you for helping me." Suzi stopped looking at Joan, only looking out the window.

"Suzi." Joan shouted.

"Huh?"

"Will you forgive me?" Joan asked.

"I don't blame you." Suzi smiled.

"Will you still treat me as a friend in the future?" Joan asked again.

"No."

Joan: "..."

After a long while, he anxiously and sincerely grabbed Suzi's hand: "Please, Suzi, give me a chance to take care of you forever. I will treat you and your stomach well, and I will treat her As my own child..."

Suzi: "..."

The door of the ward was slammed open, and three or four people came in outside, including Joan's parents and Joan's grandfather Fu Hengsheng.

The last one to come in was Arron.

Chapter 140

"You woman! What do you want to do? Do you want to rely on our Fu family? First have a leg with my grandson, Qin'er, and find that it is impossible with my grandson. You come to violate my grandson again? Wild woman, listen to me. , You have to rely on our Fu family man again, I will let you die without a place to be buried!" The old man Fu Hengsheng who was standing in the front, pointed at Suzi's nose and yelled.

Suzi's face became paler, but she didn't have the slightest cowardice: "I'm sorry, Mr. Fu, I have never seduce your grandson Arron! I have never seduce your grandson Joan.

On the contrary, I saved Joan's life! "

"You save my Ling'er's life?" A middle-aged lady suddenly reprimanded sharply: "If it weren't for you, my Ling'er would be in such a danger? The reason why my Ling'er provoke Huo Jianshan is not to do it for you. What kind of mess to settle yours?"

You wild woman! You even dared to give him the root of Huo Jianshan's life, there is nothing you can't do!

You Qin'er for a while, Ling'er for a while, and for a while it's Huo Jianshan's immortal, how many men have you hooked on! "

Suzi bit his lip: "Go out! Please go out! This is my ward!"

After speaking, she rang the alarm bell by the bed.

After a while, the nurse came over and saw so many people when she entered the door. The nurse was also surprised. Suzi calmly said: "I am afraid of making noise and need a rest. Please ask them all to leave here."

The nurse also looked at the four people standing in front of Suzi with an angrily look: "What's the matter with you people, the patient is still pregnant, and the anesthetic was not used during the debridement and suture. The only thing left is the body. It's half life, are you still bothering her here? Go out!"

The nurse doesn't know who the person is, and if you know who it is, you must be afraid to drive it away.

However, Fu Hengsheng and his daughter-in-law still listened to the nurse's words and left the ward. Arron, who was standing at the outer end, left without saying anything. Except for the hospital door, he said to Christopher who was standing by the car: " Go and check, the day before my mother died, where did Huo Jianshan hijack Suzi, and what happened during that period?"

Christopher did not speak.

"Go!"

Christopher: "Four Lord, I actually checked."

Arron: "?"

"It was Huo Jianshan who took Miss Shen away and brought them to a box. He wanted to be rude to Miss Shen, and Miss Shen..."

"Say!" Arron said.

"Ms. Shen is struggling to protect herself, and has abandoned Huo Jianshan."

Arron: "I see." After speaking, he got into the car and didn't speak any more. Christopher didn't dare to ask any more, so he got in the car and drove out of the hospital.

When driving halfway, Christopher asked Arron: "Master, shall we go back to the company?"

"Go to Lin's house." Arron said.

"Good Fourth Master." Even though Christopher didn't want to go to the Lin family, he still had to obey Arron's orders.

The car drove all the way to Lin's house. Jarod handled affairs at the Lin's industrial company. Only Kuotai Moira, who was about to go out to play mahjong, and Lanita, who raised a fetus at home, were the only ones at home.

Seeing Arron personally came to the door, Moira and Lanita were both excited to follow the ancient emperor in person.

Arron asked Lanita symbolically: "How is your body?"

"Okay... Much better, Master Four." Lanita said diligently.

At the engagement banquet a week ago, Lanita thought that she had been busy and tired all day, and her body was a little overwhelmed, but she succeeded in letting Arron drive her home in person.

In fact, Lanita's physical symptoms were already terrible, she just concealed the truth from Arron.

She wants to marry Arron as soon as possible.

Now that a week has passed, Lanita thought that Arron must take her to try on her wedding dress this time.
