

Chapter 323

Lilly: "...Uncle Christopher, what does it mean to kill two birds with one stone?" The little girl still doesn't understand such a profound idiom.

Christopher: "That is to say..." As he was about to explain in detail to the little princess, Christopher saw his grandfather's cold expression in the rearview mirror. Christopher was frightened. , Shut up immediately.

Christopher knows what he says, but the little princess doesn't have as good a wink as Christopher. Seeing that Christopher didn't answer her, the little girl looked up at her badass father. She rolled her eyes and said, "I ask you," What does it mean to kill two birds with one stone."

At this time, Lilly no longer snuggled into her father's arms like she was in the Fu's old house. She didn't even want to shout at her father, and she still had a breath in her heart. Why is this badass dad so fierce, there are so many women around him.

I hate it when I look at it!

Arron looked down at this wicked little man, he couldn't laugh or cry.

He did not answer Shen's only question, but asked, "Why frame Qin Shuang?"

"Because she wants to marry you!" Shen Only said without hesitation.

"Then why do you want to put a green hat on Lanita again?" Arron asked knowingly.

"She wants to marry you too!" Lilly grunted angrily.

"So you just lied to Qin Shuang, and then you put the blame on Qin Shuang, and then let the two women fight, are you watching a good show next to him?" Arron asked with interest.

"Huh! Who made both of them want to marry you! You can only belong to my mother, and no one wants to fight with my mother!" The little girl's tone was extremely domineering at this moment.

Arron laughed angrily, he asked coldly, "Do you really want your mother to marry me?"

Shen Only: "..."

Does she want? Has she ever thought about it?

It's never been alright!

"Who said that! My mother doesn't want to marry you!" Shen said duplicity.

Arron: "..."

He found that you can't tell a truth about the theory with a five-year-old scmbag, and it's all the scmbag's principles.

Arron simply didn't ask.

However, through a contest in the old house today, he has already experienced the combat effectiveness of his own daughters, which is really not an ordinary powerhouse.

Lilly doesn't know if his mother will marry the badass father, but in Lilly's heart, no one can snatch the badass father from his mother, and the father can only be regarded as the mother alone.

If someone dares to snatch her, she wants that woman to look good.

Today's first battle is successful!

This little thing!

It really deserves to be his kind of Arron, he is as brave, witty, and combative as he is in his bones.

Thinking of this, Arron felt warmth in his heart. He touched his only head, then took out his cell phone and pressed a string of cell phone numbers.

At that end, Suzi has just applied for the job, and the application process is very smooth. Suzi will be able to go to work in two or three days, and the salary is very good. While thanking the company for the job opportunity, Suzi also knows that this is all The resume made by Arron worked for her.

As soon as she came out of the application company, she received a call from Arron, and Suzi immediately connected: "Hey...what's the matter?"

On the other end, Arron asked faintly: "Where is that bracelet?"

Chapter 324

Suzi was questioned for a moment.

A word without beginning and end!

She asked inadvertently: "What bracelet? You only gave me clothes these days, but you didn't give me jewelry."

Do you want to corrupt people?

She didn't have any of his bracelets!

Arron said in a cold tone: "I asked about the bracelet from six years ago!"

Suzi: "..."

The bracelet six years ago, before she left Nancheng, she put the bracelet next to Aunt Shanna's urn. Suzi only wanted the bracelet to represent herself and accompany her to Aunt Shanna. Next to. That was the only thing she could leave to Aunt Shanna.

After a pause, Suzi said, "If you don't say I forgot about the bracelet, I gave it back to you six years ago, but you didn't want it. You told me that your mother gave it to me and let me wear it. , Why do you think about it now and ask me to take it back?"

Arron was robbed by Suzi, and for a while, he didn't know what to say.

But there was a breath of breath in my heart!

This woman used to misunderstand his meaning.

Six years ago, he said that it was given to her and naturally he would not ask her to come back again. It was a gift from his mother and he had no right to come back. He asked her what the bracelet meant and wanted to tell her that The bracelet is invaluable, far from what he paid for signing her contract back then.

He just asked her if the bracelet was still there.

If not, where did she sell it? No matter where the bracelet went, he must find a way to redeem it again. Arron definitely couldn't let his mother's legacy be left out.

After a long while, Arron asked angrily: "It's not impossible to take it back! Let's see your performance for the time being. If you behave well, I won't take the bracelet back, but it is my mother's relic, I Make sure that the bracelet is in your hands, or you sold it long ago for cash!"

Suzi: "..."

She also paused, and said in a rather bleak tone: "Who do you think I am? Aunt Xia is my only friend and relative in this world. She is like my mother. I can't sell anything to her. The bracelet is sold.

Don't worry, it's not sold! "

Arron said: "If it is not sold, it is naturally the best."

Suzi: "... " When I was about to hang up, I heard Shen's only immature and excited voice from the other end of the phone: "Mom, I helped you get rid of two women today, hey Hey."

Suzi was completely scared, and her voice changed: "The only one, where are you? What are you talking about? What helped mother get rid of the two women?"

Lilly was very proud: "Mom, today I saw two women at my grandfather's house who wanted to be my stepmother, and then I thought of a very small way to make those two women fight, haha .

They look so ugly to tear their hair, and an Uncle Christopher took a picture of me, and he went home to show you.

Humph! Who wants them to be my stepmother!

Dare to steal my father from my mother, I will kill them all! "

Suzi: "... "

OMG!

"Lilly, what have you done!" Suzi asked angrily on the other end of the phone. If the only one was by her side, she would almost beat the only one.
