

Chapter 363

Rayna temporarily found a pair of cotton trousers to wear in the cold winter in the office as a temporary replacement.

And Suzi, the pants he wears today are very thin.

In other words, if she were to sit on this broken chair instead, she might die by piercing her intestines.

"Suzi! Why is your new employee so vicious? Do you know that this is a crime of malicious harm!" Standing outside the emergency room, the manager of the personnel department scolded Suzi.

Suzi asked quietly: "I am a new employee who just came to work for two days, where did I get such a chair?"

Personnel Manager: "..."

After a while, the HR manager said gruntly: "They...all said that you pushed this chair over to Miss Min."

"Yeah! Where did I push this chair from?"

"Where did you come from? From your own seat! This should have been your chair! Suzi! Don't follow me with this set of soft and hard tricks. Go and explain to the police!" The manager was Shen. Suzi's unsatisfactory answer is irritating, and he wants to hit someone.

Suzi suddenly smiled: "Manager, do you want to tell me that when I just came, you will give me a broken chair that can kill my life. You did not invite me to work, but want to I was deliberately plotting to murder me, but I saw through your trickery, so I passed this misfortune to Rayna, right?"

Personnel Manager: "..."

After a long while, she asked angrily: "What the hell is going on!"

Suzi sneered lightly: "Then you can watch the surveillance!"

After speaking, he turned and left.

Suzi went back to his office directly and waited for the company to deal with it.

When the office guy saw Suzi coming back, he was scared to speak for a long time at first. Later, Linda was still courageous. She came to Suzi and said in a weird manner: "You woman! We really look at you. Wandering, you are brave enough!"

Even Rayna dared to frame him.

They were framed and admitted to the hospital.

It really impressed me. "

"Jealous?" Suzi asked.

"What?" Linda didn't understand.

Suzi's face was calm and unwavering: "I was jealous of Jun Arrong on the first day I came to work? I was jealous of my keen insight. At a glance, I saw that my swivel chair was moved by Rayna. Then he returned the swivel chair to Rayna, and escaped a disaster?"

To be more precise, you originally wanted to watch a scene where I was pierced by a bench and wailed to death. The camera missed you, so you were jealous and annoyed. That's why your attitude towards me is so bitter and mean now.

Am I right? "

Linda was annoyed: "What nonsense are you talking about! What are you squirting! You are bloody squirting!"

"I'm bloody, or if you don't report it, it depends on the law. I'm sorry I am not a judge, I can't make it!" Suzi shrugged innocently.

As soon as the words were spoken, everyone persuaded.

They have forgotten that there is still the law. They always had the mentality of looking at the jokes at first. Anyway, it was Rayna who made fun of people. Besides, they really didn't expect the one that Rayna had pushed. Chairs will kill people.

"What do you want!" Linda's tone was obviously softened.

Suzi's eyes darkened as well, and she said quietly, "I don't want anything, I just want to work hard."

Chapter 364

Nancheng has always been a place of right and wrong for Suzi. This is destined since she first came to Nancheng at the age of twelve. Therefore, Suzi has long ignored the situation encountered when she first came to work in the company. Child.

Since she has to live in Nancheng all her life, she can only relax herself, and she cannot escape.

Just like now, she just wants to get a job well.

She doesn't want to cause trouble.

When Suzi said this, everyone around him was deflated at the same time, and no one dared to say anything again.

This afternoon, Suzi was still sitting on her desk, helping Linda proofread some of the first drafts Linda gave her. At first, she also tentatively asked Linda: "Linda, your design drawings..."

"Can you understand my picture?" Although Linda didn't dare to fall into trouble with Suzi anymore, Linda was still suffocating in her heart, so her attitude towards Suzi was still grumbling.

Suzi nodded: "I can understand."

"You can understand it!" Linda rolled her eyes, and said to Suzi sarcastically, "You are not so dirty on the surface, you are still very strong in combat, but no matter how strong it is in combat, it does not mean that you have strong professional skills! The more effective the person is, the less professional knowledge is not strong, because most of your energy is spent on the company while fighting at the same time!"

Suzi: "..."

"What? You have objections to what I said? Or do you still want to fight another fight in this office, then I can tell you that there is no one who framed you in this office!" Linda said.

Suzi lowered his head slightly and said in a calm tone: "I just want to ask, do you need me to proofread the rationality of your design drawings?"

"Are you eligible!" Linda asked rhetorically.

Suzi: "Didn't you make me proofread?"

"I asked you to proofread whether I made any mistakes or not. I asked you to proofread whether I have any places to mark. I forgot to mark them. I didn't ask you to change my design drawings. Suzi, I have them in my computer. Archived! Do you dare to change my fortune, I will never finish with you! You can't bear this responsibility either!" Linda said to Suzi aggressively.

Do you think that if Rayna is in the army, he will be able to dominate in this design department?

It's ridiculous!

Suzi's tone was still calm: "What you said today can be heard by the office staff. Besides, your design drawings are printed out. Even if I want to change it, I can't change it. I just want to ask you about mine. Scope of work. Okay, now I know."

After speaking, she continued to proofread.

In this afternoon, she really didn't find any typos or omissions.

When she was about to get off work, Suzi read all the documents Linda gave her and handed it to Linda. When she was about to get off work, the design director walked in from outside.

"Suzi, what's the matter? I've been on a two-day short job, and I heard that you, a newcomer, have caused a lot of trouble?" The design director asked Suzi in a very serious tone as soon as he entered the door.

Suzi is neither overbearing nor overbearing: "Director, as a new employee, I did not do anything unrelated to work."

Director: "What the hell is going on!"

After speaking, she looked at Linda on the side again: "Linda, didn't I let you take Suzi, how did you take it?"

Linda's yin and yang tone: "I'm taking her, but I can't hold back her attractive ability. I rushed to the cafeteria to have dinner at noon yesterday, which attracted the attention of Mr. Jun. Although Mr. Jun likes beauties the most, he has never been involved. The women in our company, but Mr. Jun became interested in Suzi as soon as she came up.

This makes Miss Rayna very unhappy.

What's more, Ms. Rayna and Suzi originally had personal grievances, and Suzi was the mistress who undermined the relationship between Rayna's sister and her brother-in-law! "

Suzi: "Miss Linda! You have to take legal responsibility for your words!"
