

Chapter 2973

Lord Kenny got up immediately when he saw Hansel. He said politely, "Master Envoy, you've appeared so suddenly. What is your command for me?"

Hansel smiled. " You are the New World Emperor. I'm sure you've heard that eight of the nine oracles had gathered at the South Cloud World royal city."

" Yes!" Lord Kenny nodded immediately.

Hansel did not waste time; he said, " The King of the Dead has a mission for you. He wants you to lead the envoy team to the South Cloud World royal palace!"

What ?!

Lord Kenny was stunned when he heard that.

'I need to lead the envoy team to the South Cloud World royal palace?'

When he noticed that Lord Kenny's facial expression had changed, Hansel said, " The Nine Saint Oracles had the support of the South Cloud World's royal family. They will soon set up the Profound Heaven Great Formation to return to the Godly Region.

" The Nine Saint Oracles played a critical role in the King of the Dead's conquest plan. So, we must never let them form the Profound Heaven Great Formation, understand?"

As he spoke, Hansel shared the details of the plan.

Sigh!

After he learned the situation, Lord Kenny nodded firmly. " Don't worry, Envoy Hansel; I will never disappoint His Majesty!"

A few minutes later, Lord Kenny gathered the envoy team immediately. He led them and a few thousand elite members of the royal army toward the South Cloud World.

...

Meanwhile, Darryl and Yvette chatted and laughed while they were on their journey.

That was the first time Darryl had spent time with Yvette since he returned from the Wild Deserted Secret Region. They held hands; it was adorable.

They arrived at the Flying Cloud Mountain three hours later.

They saw many people gathering herbs on the small roads up the mountain; some of them were cultivators too.

However, that did not disrupt Darryl and Yvette's mood. Everyone took what they needed; no one interfered with another. Darryl and Yvette were delighted when they thought about how everyone in the Carter family would be cured after they got all the spiritual herbs they needed.

Wow!

Darryl and Yvette's appearance attracted the attention of many people there.

Many of the men were staring blankly at Yvette.

How beautiful!

Even though they were amazed, they did not forget their tasks to search for spiritual herbs,

Darryl realized that the people there could only reach the middle section of the mountain. The higher sections had really steep cliffs, and it looked dangerous. An ordinary cultivator would find it difficult to fly up there, let alone non cultivators.

Darryl knew that many rare spiritual herbs grew only in dangerous places. So, once they arrived at the mountain's middle section, he carried Yvette in his arms and flew toward the peak.

Yvette had no internal energy; she could only hug Darryl firmly.

Wow!

Yvette's gorgeous face was blushing as Darryl carried her in his arms. She was shy.

She said gently, " Many people down there are looking at us."

Darryl smiled. " I'm carrying my wife; there is nothing to be worried about."

After he spoke, he saw Yvette turned her head aside and said impatiently, "Who is your wife? Wherever you go, you will have another woman with you. This time, you've returned with Yuri and Bonnie. Their powers are so much stronger than mine; they should be your wife."

Her tone carried a sense of sadness and jealousy.

' Sh * t! Is she jealous now?'

Darryl did not know whether he should laugh or cry, but he explained immediately. " You've misunderstood. Even though Yuri said that I'm her man, I'm not. She is just like Bonnie; they are fairies from the Illusion Virtual World."

Darryl shared the situation in the Illusion Virtual World with her.

Sigh!

Yvette was stunned when she understood the situation. She only managed to regain her thoughts after a while.

So, Yuri and Bonnie are not human!'

While they spoke, Darryl had managed to carry Yvette to the mountain peak successfully.

Chapter 2974

Wow!

At that moment, Yvette was incredibly happy when she saw the beautiful scenery. She struggled to get out of Darryl's arms.

Everywhere around the mountain peak had extraordinary flora and faunas. The smell of the spiritual herbs mixed wafted by, and it made them feel so peaceful.

Seas of clouds floated nearby; it was like heaven.

" Three Yang Grass, Seven Color Flower-there are so many of them!"

While she felt excited, Yvette was really emotional too. Then, she started to gather the spiritual hers they needed with Darryl.

Half an hour later, they had gathered a lot of herbs. Next, Darryl carried Yvette and flew down the mountain.

" Darryl! "

Once they reached the mountain base, they saw those people who were still gathering herbs tiredly. Yvette felt for them. She said," Those people must do this for a living, and it looks like they're really suffering. Let's give them the extra spiritual herbs that we have.

Even though she had been the New World's princess, Yvette had a kind heart, especially when she realized that the citizens were suffering.

"Very well!" Darryl smiled and agreed without any hesitation.

He was about to walk forward to hand the spiritual herbs to the citizens around them.

"Run! The grand army is here!"

Suddenly, they heard a panicked shout before all the people on the mountain ran fearfully in all directions.

What?

Darryl furrowed his brows and turned his head around. He saw a grand army heading toward them from the nearby main road. They were a few thousand of them; they were all in the same shiny armor.

A group of Honor Guards led the army; they guarded a luxurious horse carriage that was gold and grand. It was made of gold! A pair of dragon and phoenix was engraved on it. Eight white horses carried the carriage, and all the flags had logos of Five Claws Golden Dragon.

What a grand arrangement!

Darryl mumbled to himself when he saw that. 'Was that the South Cloud World Empress on patrol?'

That ...

Yvette's body trembled; she said softly, " That is the New World Emperor's dragon carriage. What is Lord Kenny doing in the South Cloud World?"

Yvette had been a princess; she could identify the New World's dragon carriage instantly!

What?

Darryl's brows lifted when he heard that; he knew that trouble was brewing.

Lord Kenny was in the horse carriage?

What!

At the same time, Lord Kenny, who was in the horse carriage, saw Darryl and Yvette too. His body trembled as he said coldly, "Stop!"

Then, Lord Kenny got out of the horse carriage slowly. His vision locked onto Darryl. "It looks like we can meet anyone anywhere!"

Lord Kenny's official reason to be there was a social visit to the South Cloud World royal family, but his real intention was to take action against the Nine Saint Oracles. He did not expect to bump into Darryl once he entered the South Cloud World.

Darryl furrowed his brows and did not reply.

Yvette felt an unknown fear.

"Darryl!"

Lord Kenny said coldly, " I won't waste time. All these years, your wife has been missing you day and night in the palace. She had lost a lot of weight. Since we've bumped into each other today, you can come with me, and I will let you reunite with her once we return to the New World. What do you think?"

Lord Kenny took note of the surrounding environment when he said that.

He had wanted to take action immediately when he bumped into Darryl. However, when he considered that they were in South Cloud World and Darryl had so many tricks up his sleeves, he was worried that the man had set traps for him.

' Sh * t! That Lord Kenny is so hypocritical!

As he mumbled in his heart, Darryl replied impatiently, " Lord Kenny, you don't have to pretend. You've always wanted to get rid of me. Why would you let me reunite with my wife?"

" Besides, I still had not settled our feud when you wanted to execute Ambrose!"

Anger burned in Darryl's heart when he said that; he was suspicious of the man.

' What is going on? Why does Lord Kenny make me feel creepy and dark? ' What ?!

Chapter 2975

Lord Kenny's face darkened instantly as he sensed Darryl's humiliation." Capture those two people! " he commanded harshly.

At that moment, Lord Kenny was confident that there were no traps. There was only Darryl and Yvette, so he was not worried.

" Yes, Your Majesty! "

The elite members of the royal army replied unanimously. They drew their long blades and charged forward quickly, and surrounded Darryl!

Yvette was nervous when she saw that.

If she had not lost her internal energy, she could leave with Darryl easily. However, she had become a liability for Darryl.

Darryl consoled her when he felt her nervousness. " Don't worry!"

Then, he pushed her behind him. He did not even look at the elite soldiers as he spoke to Lord Kenny coldly, " You think you can capture us with these people?"

"As for my wife, if I take Ambrose away in front of you, naturally, I will be able to take my wife too."

Darryl's heart ached when he thought of Monica.

It had been more than ten years, and she was still trapped in the palace. He did not know how much suffering that she had gone through during that period.

Lord Kenny had gone completely crazy when he heard that.

"Kill him!"

As he roared, Lord Kenny drew a longsword and charged toward Darryl.

At the same time, the elite soldiers shouted grandly and launched their attack against Darryl.

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath; he did not panic at all. He held the Heavenly Halberd firmly in his hand and went on to meet their attack.

Bang, bang, bang ...

Darryl had not only cultivated the Ghost Valley Sage's techniques, but he also had the Chaotic Yin Yang Beads of Empress Nuwa in his body. His power was no longer like before. In the blink of an eye, he managed to defeat more than a hundred soldiers easily; their bodies laid on the ground.

However, his attention was divided as he wanted to protect Yvette. He could not focus all of his attention on the battle. Many more enemies charged toward him, and he could not charge out of that situation.

"Kill him! Kill him!"

Lord Kenny roared as he found a chance to ambush Darryl from the back. He pierced Darryl's back with his longsword!

Whoosh!

Fresh blood oozed from the wound immediately after the sword pierced through it!

"Darryl!"

Yvette, who was hiding at the back, shouted. Her heart twisted; her exquisite face looked worried.

Darryl clenched his teeth through the pain as he shouted at Lord Kenny. " You call yourself the New World Emperor, but all you know is to ambush your enemy?"

Darryl activated his internal energy. An eye striking light ray exploded from the Heavenly Halberd and charged toward Lord Kenny.

How powerful!

When he felt the strong bright ray, Lord Kenny's facial expression changed. He immediately put the longsword across his body and activated his internal energy to defend himself.

Bang!

The next second, the bright ray clashed fiercely on the longsword. A crystal-clear sound was heard as the longsword broke into pieces. Lord Kenny moaned as the impact threw him off.

He flew more than a few dozen meters backward. He landed on both his feet, but he was incredibly shocked. At the same time, he locked his vision at Darryl, and his vision became colder.

'Darryl's power is getting scarier. If he gets away today, he'd be a huge problem in the future.'

'No matter what, I must find a way to get rid of him today!'

Darryl wanted to continue his attack when he saw Lord Kenny thrown backward from the impact. However, many soldiers had rushed toward him, and his path was blocked.

Those soldiers saw red when they realized that Lord Kenny was injured. 'We can't take the responsibility if anything should happen to His Majesty!'

"Darryl, be careful!"

Yvette's eyes also reddened when she realized that Darryl was surrounded, so she shouted.

She wanted to help, but she had no internal energy at all. She could only worry about him.

Chapter 2976

"Go to hell, Darryl!"

Lord Kenny roared and immediately drew a longbow. He pinched the feathered arrow and aimed it at the back of Darryl's heart. The arrow screeched as it sliced the air when it whizzed past.

The feathered arrow traveled as fast as lightning, and it was too late when Darryl finally realized the danger.

"Careful!"

Yvette's pretty face looked terrified as she let off a concerned shriek. Her feet carried her quickly toward Darryl. Then, she threw herself at Darryl's back, taking the arrow for him!

Chuck!

The feathered arrow pierced Yvette's torso, and blood exploded out of her body as she slumped onto the ground.

"Yvette!" Darryl trembled in horror and yelled crazily; he turned around and embraced her!

Yvette's delicate face turned ashen as blood continued to ooze from her body and dyed her dress red!

" | ..."

Yvette opened her mouth to speak, but she could not say more than a word. She was in great pain.

"Yvette, don't scare me!" Darryl yelled; his eyes reddened. He was devastated!

' Why? Why are you so stupid?'

' You've lost your internal energy, yet you took the arrow for me!

"Yvette, don't scare me ..." The heartbroken Darryl shook Yvette's body gently; tears choked his voice.

Darryl thought their journey to collect medicinal herbs could help Yvette, Dax, and the others restore their internal energy; they did not expect to run into Lord Kenny. Yvette was injured because she wanted to save Darryl.

Darryl regretted his decision to bring Yvette with him.

Yvette heard Darryl's cries; she forced a weak smile. "I'll be fine, don't be sad!"

"No, don't talk, don't say anything. I'll take you home immediately!" Darryl's tears rushed down his cheeks incessantly!

"Oh, are you going?"

The corner of Lord Kenny's mouth curled into a cruel sneer as he said coldly, "Neither of you can leave here today. You can die together as a pair of lovebirds!"

Lord Kenny waved his hand, and the other soldiers swarmed the couple.

Darryl's eyes turned bloodshot. He put Yvette down gently and held the Heavenly Halberd tightly as he gazed around him.

" All of you should go to hell!"

Roar!

Darryl urged his internal energy, and a terrifying burst of aura that distorted the air exploded and dispersed within a thousand meter radius.

"Die! All you just f * cking die!" Darryl's voice was hoarse from shouting. Suddenly, he raised his right hand!

"Thousand Calamities!"

Upon his command, thunderclouds rolled in the sky and brought a storm condensed from internal energy. It enveloped the Royal Army like a huge savage tornado.

"Argh!"

Thousands of the Royal Army elites screamed as they were unable to dodge in time.

In less than ten seconds, more than half of the three thousand Royal Army soldiers fell in pools of blood.

What?

Lord Kenny felt his scalp tightened against his skull and his brain buzzed as he watched in horror.

'How did he kill so many of my soldiers with just one move?'

"Darryl, count yourself lucky today. We'll meet again soon!" Lord Kenny screamed grudgingly and then left with the rest of the Royal Army in embarrassment.

Chapter 2977

Lord Kenny wanted to continue to fight Darryl to his death, but he chose to retreat because he had more important things to do.

He decided that he would deal with Darryl after completing the King of the Dead's mission for him and claimed his rightful reward.

Damn it!

Darryl wanted to chase after Lord Kenny, who was leaving with his subordinates, but he decided against it due to Yvette's injuries.

"Yvette, hold on. You must hold on ..."

Darryl quickly picked up Yvette and flew into the sky; there was a look of anxiety and distress on his face.

"Darryl, I feel so cold. Am I going to die?" Yvette asked weakly. It was heartbreaking to watch her in such a pitiful state!

"Don't talk nonsense! You won't die; I don't allow you to die!" Darryl hugged her tightly. His heart pounded as he sped up.

A few hours later, Darryl and Yvette joined Dax and the others.

Whoa!

Everyone panicked when they realized that Yvette was seriously injured. Subsequently, Lu Dongbin treated Yvette's injuries.

Darryl had learned some medical skills from the Divine Farmer, and he also had the Infinite Elixir Manual. However, Yvette's injuries were far too severe for Darryl to command his confidence in handling them.

Lu Dongbin, on the other hand, was different. He was the Grandmaster of Daoism.

Two hours later, Lu Dongbin walked out of the tent; he looked tired!

Darryl ran forward and asked anxiously, "Master Lu, how is Yvette?"

Lu Dongbin smiled faintly and comforted Darryl. "Sect Master Darby, Miss Yvette is all right now. The arrow struck her heart; she might have died if it had gone any deeper, but rest assured that she is all right now. All she has to do is take a good rest."

Phew!

Darryl let out a long sigh of relief. He was overjoyed and kept bowing to Lu Dongbin. "Thank you, Master Lu!"

Lu Dongbin smiled and waved his hand to indicate that it was nothing. Then, he said solemnly, "Oh yeah, there is one thing, though. When I pulled the arrow out, I found some kind of Yin poison on the head, something to do with evil spirits. You have to be careful when you face Lord Kenny in the future!"

'Yin poison?'

Darryl was stunned.

He did notice that Lord Kenny seemed different from before that. After that, Lu Dongbin had found the Yin poison on the arrow.

'Does he have something to do with the King of the Dead?'

"All right!"

While Darryl pondered that, Lu Dongbin announced with a smile. "I will go and make the antidote for the rest of them." Lu Dongbin strolled away after that.

Then, Darryl dashed into the tent.

Yvette was in the tent; her face was still pale. Her eyes were closed, and her eyelashes quivered slightly. It was such a pathetic look.

Darryl walked forward and looked at her quietly. An overwhelming feeling of guilt weighed him.

Yvette, a noble princess, had suffered so much in the past few years after she got together with Darryl. He had yet to let her live a happy life, and she was already seriously injured by Lord Kenny; she almost died.

Fortunately, she was no longer in a life threatening state.

" Darry ..."

Just as Darryl was blaming himself, Yvette woke up and called out to him softly.

Darryl reacted; he held Yvette's hand gently. Yvette, why did you take that arrow for me? You are not allowed to do such a silly thing in the future. "

Yvette forced a weak smile. She spoke in a soft tone, but she sounded firm. "You are my husband. Of course, I had to do it because the situation was so dangerous at the time. If something were to happen to you, what's the point of me being alive?"

Darryl's heart quivered; he was indescribably moved! He hugged Yvette gently in his arms.

Chapter 2978

Yvette felt Darryl's warmth and took the advantage to press her face into his chest. Her beautiful face revealed a hint of happiness.

For so many years, she and Darryl had spent more time apart than together.

At that moment, Yvette only wanted Darryl to hold her tightly.

Yvette's red lips tempted Darryl after he gazed at her from a close distance. Then, he kissed her!

Yvette trembled at the touch of their lips. The sensation traveled from her buzzing brain to her body. Her body softened against his, and then she slowly closed her eyes.

The atmosphere in the tent was indescribably warm and lovely

"Sister Yvette!"

However, they heard a shout from the outside of the tent. It was Sara.

Then, the tent curtain was lifted, and Sara walked in quickly. Her delicate face looked anxious. "Sister Yvette, how are you –"

Huh!

Halfway through her sentence, Sara was shocked when she noticed the situation in front of her.

Darryl was holding Yvette affectionately, and Yvette was only in her innerwear. She was nestled in Darryl's arms, and the two of them were ...

' Err ... Brother and Sister Yvette ...'

Sara had learned what had happened after everyone had settled down. She had learned the A Thousand Faces Trick, so everyone was at ease when she went out and about. Sara only heard that Yvette was injured upon her return.

Sara and Yvette were like sisters, so she went to her hurriedly because she was worried about Yvette. Unexpectedly, Darryl was there in the tent.

The next second, Sara finally snapped back to her senses; her delicate reddened from blushing. Sara was a mature woman, so she knew that she had disturbed Darryl and Yvette's private time.

" Brother ..." Sara was embarrassed. She closed her eyes quickly and said with a smile, "I saw nothing."

Urgh ...

Darryl was also a little embarrassed. ' She came in so suddenly. Fortunately, Yvette and I did not take a step further. Otherwise, it would be even more awkward.'

Darryl scratched his head. " You ladies should talk. I'll go out!"

Then, he walked out of the tent.

At the same time, Yvette was extremely shy. Her lovely face was red like a ripened apple.

Sara pursed her lips to suppress a smile and approached Yvette after Darryl walked out of the tent.

Then, she took Yvette's hand and asked with concern, " Sister Yvette, how do you feel? I was so worried when I heard that you were injured just now.'

"I'm alright." Yvette smiled faintly and said, " Fortunately, Master Lu came to my rescue."

Phew!

Sara was relieved to hear that.

Then, she thought of the scene she witnessed and looked at Yvette with a smile." Sister Yvette, when will you and my brother get married? "

"Let's wait for the situation to stabilize! " Yvette responded softly and then asked curiously," Why did you ask? "

Sara pucker her lips to a smile and said, "You two love each other, and both of you can be happy after you're married. After your wedding, you won't need to be embarrassed about situations like what happened just now."

Over the years, Yvette had been living with the Carter family, and she had developed a good relationship with Sara. There were things that Sara had been embarrassed to say before that, but she had grown mature and bolder.

Yvette blushed. She bit her lips and whispered, "Don't talk nonsense, Darryl and I were -"

Her heart pounded when she tried to explain it!

Sara tilted her head and said with a smile, "Sister Yvette, you don't explain. I have seen it all. Besides, isn't it normal for a man and a woman to love each other?"

Chapter 2979

After that, Sara said solemnly, " Seriously, I want you and my brother to have a wedding so that I'll have a baby nephew soon!"

Err ...

Yvette was embarrassed. Her face reddened, but she made a reproachful remark with a smile. "Girl, what is in your mind? I'm going to rest now. You should go out and help them!"

She felt embarrassed, so she wanted to dismiss Sara quickly. Otherwise, the younger woman might say something even more embarrassing.

"Okay, rest well then!" Sara smiled and bounced out of the tent happily.

When she got outside, she saw Darryl waiting for her.

"Little Sister!"

After Sara got out, Darryl asked her immediately, "Did you hear anything when you went out to get news?"

The earlier scene was too embarrassing, so Darryl tried to change the topic. Otherwise, Sara would make fun of him.

"Oh, yeah!"

Sara pondered and said thoughtfully, "I got some news from the South Cloud World's Royal City. It seems like the Empress wants to help the eight Nine Saint Oracles to build the Profound Heaven Great Formation. I heard that the formation is huge in scale and requires a lot of financial and material resources."

Darryl frowned when he heard that.

He knew about the Profound Heaven Great Formation. When Yennie took him to the Heavenly Spirit Realm, she told him that the previous Profound Heaven Formation was the one that connected all the Nine Mainland. It was on the peak of Kunlun Mountain, the highest point in the Nine Mainland. Later, it was destroyed by the King of the Dead.

If the South Cloud World Empress could rebuild the Profound Heaven Great Formation, then the Nine Saint Oracles would be able to establish contact with the Godly Region. With their help, they would be able to stop the King of the Dead's conspiracy,

In general, that was a good thing.

Suddenly, Darryl thought of Lord Kenny.

The South Cloud World Empress was about to build a great formation for the Nine Saint Oracles, and Lord Kenny had arrived with his delegation. Was that a coincidence?

Darryl thought of the evil spirit on Lord Kenny, and he sensed that things would get more wrong.

"Oh, right!"

As Darryl pondered that, Sara said, "Just as I came back, the Empress issued an edict. She's inviting people with lofty ideals from all continents to come forward and help build the Profound Heaven Great Formation."

Sara asked curiously, "Brother, is the Profound Heaven Great Formation really that important?"

Darryl took a deep breath and explained it to Sara. "The Profound Heaven Great Formation is very important, indeed. Since the Empress has issued an edict, let's join the fun!"

He found Yuri and Bonnie and asked them to guard over everyone else. Then, he returned to the South Cloud World's Royal City with Sara.

The South Cloud World Empress had issued an edict inviting people with lofty ideals from the Nine Mainland to help build the Profound Heaven Great Formation. The news had spread quickly throughout the Nine Mainland. Everyone from the cultivator's world and the commoners were all talking about the same thing.

Suddenly, various sects from all continents poured into the South Cloud World.

At that moment, in a small town on the border between the South Cloud World and the New World Continent.

The town was not big, but it was very lively, and there were many shops.

White Horse sat in the private room on the second floor of a tavern. He was looking at the scene on the street through the window leisurely.

Half a day ago, the sects of all continents made their way to the South Cloud World's Royal City after learning that the Empress had issued an edict. Unwilling to be left behind, White Horse also led the Eternal Life Palace Sect disciples toward the South Cloud World hurriedly.

After he got the Sky Breaking Axe, White Horse was ready to do something big. He knew it was his chance when the Empress issued the edict.

"Sect Master!"

Suddenly, a man with a clean and fair face walked forward quickly and reported respectfully to White Horse. " I have just inspected the surrounding town and made a major discovery!"

The man's name was Gath, White Horse's loyal follower.

Since he became the Sect Master, White Master had carried out an effective strategy-he replaced the people in some of Eternal Life Palace's crucial positions with his own men.

"What major discovery?" White Horse asked casually as he sipped his tea.
