

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 2751 - 2760

Chapter 2751

ks carrying wine bottles on the deck of the cruise ship rubbed their eyes and looked forward.

“Huh? Why is the sea bubbling?”

“Also, is it red? Did I drink too much? Why did the sea turn red?”

“And this smells so bad!”

...

Quite a few people have already issued questions.

“What the sea is red? Are you damn drinking too much?”

“Don’t you want to drink it? The sea is bubbling and all these words come out!”

“Hurry up and drink!”

A few drank more and turned around, urging their companions to drink.

But they knew that a hill-like head came out of the water behind it, as high as the deck, looking at them.

“boom!!!”

When I saw the huge head emerging from the front.

The big mouth of the blood basin, the sharp teeth like downturned, the face covered with scales and corners like steel bars...

The few people standing in the front were frightened.

I woke up as much as I drank at this moment...

“Patter!”

“Patter!”

...

All the wine bottles and glasses in their hands fell to the ground!

Everyone was horrified, and they were speechless in surprise.

The body has been trembling!

Some people were even scared to pee their pants on the spot.

Everyone understands at this moment!

Levi Garrison’s prediction is correct!

Disaster is coming!

Chapter 2752

The real disaster is coming!

The Big Mac that appeared in front of them was definitely much stronger than the ones they had seen or even killed before!

It's not a level at all!

"What's wrong?"

"How did you do this?"

The drunks with their backs were very curious when they saw the incredible expressions of their companions.

Even the wine woke up a bit.

"Uuuuu..."

The comrades in front of them crazily pointed at the Leviathan behind them!

But one by one, because of the shock, the vocal cords were damaged, and there was no sound at all.

"What's wrong?"

"Is there anything behind?"

...

These drunks turned their heads subconsciously.

"boom!"

When seeing the Big Mac behind him, someone was frightened and passed out.

"my God!!!"

At this moment, all the drunks were sober up.

so horrible!

Their expressions are even more exaggerated than those in front of them!

“This is... really here???”

They didn't even think that they just arrogantly called for people to come out.

I didn't think it really came! ! !

What Levi Garrison said is right!

The real disaster will indeed come!

All they encountered were smoke bombs!

The regret is over!

At this time their brains are blank.

I don't even have the consciousness to send the message...

“Boom...”

But the next second, the entire cruise ship began to tremble and was overturned directly.

The people lying on the deck woke up one by one.

Unexpected response.

The cruise ship was overturned and sank directly to the bottom of the sea.

“boom!”

...

One ship.

Two ships.

...

In the bursts of howling ghosts, more than a dozen cruise ships were overturned and sank to the bottom...

Soon there was no sound.

Then all the cruise ships and speedboats on this sea area suffered.

They have all been swept away.

Chapter 2753

I also blame these young people for being bold enough to celebrate in their own homes.

Specially went to the high seas to celebrate.

They were the ones who didn't support Levi Garrison's statement.

Going to the high seas deliberately to vent their dissatisfaction with Levi Garrison in this way-they just want Levi Garrison to understand that there is a Big Mac appearing there?
What disaster is there?

Everything you predicted is wrong!

But who can think of it!

It's really coming!!!

What Levi Garrison said is right!

There is no regret medicine in this world!

Since you have chosen to contempt, you have to pay the price!

Successfully cleared the obstacles on the high seas!

And the Leviathan's offense has officially begun! ! !

They dived into the sea again and attacked the Daxia coastline.

It will enter the Daxia sea area in one minute...

Although Daxia withdrew the defensive line, the personnel and equipment at the monitoring station were all stopped by half.

But there are still hundreds of monitoring stations.

Once there is an abnormality, it will still be found.

A monitoring station is built on the seabed between the high seas and the Daxia waters.

"Huh? There seems to be something abnormal?"

The personnel in the monitoring station suddenly discovered violent electromagnetic fluctuations and an abnormal increase in energy.

"No! Something will happen..."

But at this time, mysterious people suddenly appeared behind them.

"Puff!"

"Puff!"

...

A few blood arrows shot sharply, and they fell helplessly.

The message of the anomaly in the sea was finally sent out...

This is the No. 98 submarine monitoring station.

There is a problem.

There are also adjacent numbers 96, 97 and so on, but anomalies have been found.

But their experience is the same.

I didn't wait for the message to be sent out, and all of them suffered.

All other monitoring stations encountered the same situation.

Chapter 2754

Although the anomaly was detected the first time.

I don't know what happened. Other people appeared in the monitoring station, and all the monitoring personnel were wiped out.

No one is left.

Yes!

All the monitoring stations used in the sea area encountered exactly the same situation.

One by one death!

The transmission of the monitoring station was immediately interrupted, and there would be no feedback to Daxia headquarters at all.

Hundreds of monitoring stations failed at the same time...

It is equivalent to useless.

Wrong!

All this is arranged by the Lab of the Gods!

Send people to pay attention to the major monitoring stations early, and when the operation is underway, the monitoring stations will be destroyed one by one.

Let it fail!

Originally, the monitoring stations were very secretive.

Even if the Lab of the Gods and the Nation of the Eagles go to find it, it is basically impossible to find them all.

It's not bad to find a quarter.

But when the smoke bomb was released last time, Daxia exposed all the deployment, including firepower configuration, monitoring configuration, transportation configuration, medical configuration, and so on.

It is equivalent to being transparent to the Lab of the Gods.

There will be no more secrets!

It seems that the last time Daxia was a complete victory!

In fact, the loss was a mess!

Almost everything is exposed!

Everyone is just a small move, but you even hand in the big move.

Therefore, the Lab of the Gods will also know that the monitoring station will find anomalies, and if Daxia knows it in a short time, it will quickly establish a defensive line.

After all, in the last battle, Daxia let the world know what Daxia speed is.

That's terrifying!

It is bound to cause huge troubles to the plan of the Gods Laboratory.

Therefore, these monitoring stations have long been targeted by dead men arranged by the Gods Laboratory.

Once an abnormality occurs, they will immediately take action to destroy everything in the monitoring station.

Chapter 2755

In this way, hundreds of monitoring stations failed.

Large quantities of Leviathan entered the Great Summer Sea...

Other Leviathans scattered around the world are also moving quickly in the deep sea, arriving in Daxia at the fastest speed.

Surveillance in many countries is gradually still able to find anomalies.

But the most powerful brain in the Lab of the Gods-God's Brain.

Arranged long ago.

He invaded major satellite systems early in the morning.

At this time, unusual frequency signals began to be released.

Let the major countries and forces shift their attention to space.

Start to examine what anomalies appear in space.

How can there be time to examine the situation in the deep sea...

In addition, the frequency jammer set by the brain of God is activated in various sea areas around the world.

It can greatly interfere with the sea monitoring station.

In this way, no one would be able to find the Leviathan marching in the deep sea at all.

No other countries will.

Let alone Da Xia...

The only country where anomalies can be found-the war eagle country.

But this time the Eagle Nation chose to be invisible and transparent, not participating in anything, and not making a sound.

As long as it has nothing to do with yourself.

Then there will be no action.

A total of 3,000 Leviathans from all over the world are gathering together in a frantic direction.

Leviathan has gathered in the Daxia Sea.

About to resist the coastline of Daxia.

For all this.

The Lab of the Gods is quite satisfied.

Mr. X also deliberately let go of Agent Black Hawk.

“Well, Mr. Black Hawk, you are free now! Your value has been reached! You can give you anything you want! Of course, you have to swallow Daxia!”

Mr. X smiled.

“Hey!”

Agent Black Hawk took a long breath.

This is over!

The Eagle Nation will face an unprecedentedly powerful enemy!

The threat is far above Daxia!

This is the most terrible!

He was not released until now.

To no avail!

Even if he informs Daxia now, it will be futile.

People still don't believe it!

And in terms of time, it's not enough.

How horrible Mr. X is.

It must count every minute and every second to you.

Next, he couldn't go back alone, it was someone who sent him back to Warhawk Nation.

Chapter 2756

It seems that he will be released after the operation is completely over.

So everything is not useful!

But the only hope is the few confidants of Agent Black Hawk.

If he can't be contacted in these two days, some measures may be taken.

Wrong.

After the Black Hawk agent was put under house arrest.

Several of his confidants immediately realized that something was wrong...

Agent Black Hawk is not a good stubborn, nor is his confidant.

Several people combined with the time and place of the Black Hawk agent's disappearance and so on.

Finally realized that Agent Black Hawk was under house arrest by the Lab of the Gods.

The Lab of the Gods is afraid that it will attack in advance.

These confidants knew about the relationship between the Black Hawk Agent and the Lab of the Gods and Levi Garrison.

From the standpoint of the War Eagle Nation, they naturally hope that Daxia and the Gods Lab will kill each other.

After realizing that there was a major problem, they immediately went to the Bible organization to find the evil god.

"Something may be going on!!! Agent Black Hawk is under house arrest! We can't find anyone else, let alone receive any information!"

"According to our inference, the last time the giant creatures raged! The Lab of the Gods had taken advantage of the chaos to hide all the real giants under the energy power station..."

It was a smoke bomb last time! The first step is to find out the various deployments of Daxia! Second, take advantage of the chaos to hide the Big Mac! Kill two birds with one stone! "

"Although the Black Hawk has disappeared! His authority still exists everywhere in the Warhawk Nation! This is definitely the Lab of the Gods that controls everything behind!"

...

At this moment, the Underworld God who was in a relaxed state jumped up after a few strokes.

No wonder his people stared at the major energy power stations of the War Eagle Nation, but there was no problem.

It turned out that they had been hiding a long time ago, and they couldn't even stare at them wherever they were.

No wonder the message from Agent Black Hawk was never received. It turned out to have been under house arrest a long time ago.

“But my people found someone dangling near the energy power station yesterday! According to logic, they should be stepping on the spot, thinking about how to hide the Big Mac underneath!”

The evil god began to say.

He couldn't believe it, everything was silent?

How can it be?

Chapter 2757

Several people glared at him and said, “It is also possible that they are here to check and make sure they are correct!”

Feng Xie Shen exclaimed: “Yes! This is the last inspection before the general attack! After all, we saw suspicious figures appearing in all energy power stations yesterday!”

“This is checking! Confirm that there are no problems!”

The confidant of the Black Hawk agent said: “Hurry up and take precautions! It is very likely that you will act soon! Or you have already begun to act!”

“Just now we received a message that we found obscuration jammers in the waters near the Eagle Nation! They are in large quantities!”

“Not only that, there is also an anomaly in space! Countries are reviewing the specific situation! This is likely to be the smoke bomb in the laboratory of the gods!”

...

After being reminded.

Underworld gods panicked them.

“Hurry up and gather all forces, including notifying Maya Industry to support Daxia right away! Hurry up!!!”

“Connect me to the Yanlongwei Intelligence Department!”

Soon, the Underworld God contacted Cao Zhiguo.

Tell him what happened.

Cao Zhiguo shook his head: “Impossible!”

But in the next second, the intelligence department on his side sent a message that something went wrong.

“Cao Group! It’s not good! Something big happened!!!”

Several people rushed in in a hurry.

“what?”

Cao Zhiguo’s face changed drastically.

The Underworld God over there also heard it.

The secret road broke with a sound.

Since it’s all here.

Then it shows that the situation is much worse than imagined.

“boom!!!”

Cao Zhiguo’s face changed drastically.

“what’s the situation???”

He could no longer talk to the Underworld God at this time.

Hurry to ask what happened.

“Our monitoring stations in the Daxia sea area suddenly lost contact. I don’t know what happened!”

“It’s all monitoring stations! All lost contact!”

The intelligence department said.

“Huh? When did it happen?”

He began to hurriedly ask.

“Four or five minutes ago!”

Someone said.

Chapter 2758

Another person immediately said: “No, we found that they lost contact four or five minutes ago, and their accident may have been earlier. Estimated in seven or eight minutes!!!”

“Seven or eight minutes? No! Something is going to happen!!!”

Cao Zhiguo reacted immediately.

Combined with the evil god who was talking to him, he knew immediately that something big was going to happen.

“I understand the situation of the evil god! There must be something wrong this time! I immediately contacted a few leaders!!!”

Cao Zhiguo has no other concerns.

Go straight to the other people’s station.

"It's not good! Something happened! Get up!"

...

Fortunately, the places where the leaders of Xiao Liejun lived temporarily were all together.

After Cao Zhiguo ran into trouble.

After pulling out a throat.

Everyone walked out wearing clothes and yawning.

"What's wrong? What's the matter?"

"What did Old Cao do early in the morning? It's been almost two months. The first time I slept well, I was disturbed by you again!"

Several people were extremely upset.

There are others who are also very puzzled.

Cao Zhiguo's always calm person, how could he go crazy this time?

"Something happened! Something happened! All of our hundreds of monitoring stations in the ocean failed!"

"There is also the Underworld God telling me something is going to happen..."

"It's too late! Hurry up and start the highest level of response! Immediately lay out the defensive line on the coastline! Take out all our hole cards!"

"Quickly, quickly, it's too late!!! The word side by side king predicted is right!"

Cao Zhiguo went crazy and asked Xiao Liejun and the others to respond quickly.

"Is there anything else???"

Although Xiao Liejun and the others did not have the first time to respond.

Can immediately come to the headquarters command room.

“Give me the observation post of the East China Sea and the South China Sea!”

Xiao Liejun immediately connected the front observation post.

Put aside those monitoring stations.

Chapter 2759

The forward observation post is the only hope in front of the Daxia coastline...

“I am Yanlongwei Xiao Liejun! Are there any abnormalities in the area monitored by your ministry?”

Xiao Liejun asked.

“There is nothing abnormal in my department! I checked one side just now!”

“My ministry has not found any abnormalities!”

“My department too...”

...

The forward observation posts in front of the coastline all sent messages.

No abnormalities were found.

“good!”

Hear here.

Everyone breathed a long sigh of relief.

If it is true according to what Cao Zhiguo said, the coastline may have been lost.

But there are no words.

fine.

“But... something really is going to happen... The information I’ve collected is...”

Cao Zhiguo was anxious.

Definitely something big happened.

“Head Cao, did you talk about the monitoring station?”

Cao Zhiguo nodded subconsciously: “Yes! What’s wrong?”

“Just now our hundreds of monitoring stations have been restored one by one...”

Someone said at this time.

At the same time, the master control room had a message: “Monitoring Station No. 98 just responded to the message, saying that an anomaly that suddenly appeared in space affected the frequency and signal of the monitoring station!”

“96 recovery!”

“97 recovery!”

...

One by one, the information of the recovery of monitoring stations came.

Hear good news one by one.

Xiao Liejun’s frowning brows gradually unfolded, and the tense atmosphere disappeared.

It turned out to be a false alarm.

“Haha, a false alarm! Nothing happened!”

“Scared me to death, thought something happened!”

Chapter 2760

Everyone said one after another.

Only Cao Zhiguo stood there dumbly at a loss.

At this time, professionals began to explain: “It was the space that found anomalies! Abnormal fluctuations occurred ahead! Research institutes and scientists in various countries, including mine in Daxia, are inquiring and studying what is going on!”

“Yes! The abnormal fluctuation in space just now has a great impact...it is no surprise that the monitoring station was affected!”

Everyone began to say.

Xiao Liejun smiled: “It’s all a false alarm! You don’t need to be tight, just do what you should do!”

He looked at Cao Zhiguo again and smiled: “Old Cao, don’t you worry now? The coastline is not happening! The monitoring station has also been restored! Everything can find its source!”

“As for the people in the Bible Organization, they are all predictions, and they can’t produce substantive evidence at all!”

“But.....”

What else does Cao Zhiguo want to say.

But in the face of the facts, I really don’t know how to say it.

The abnormality of the monitoring station was resolved and explained perfectly.

“Old Cao, go and rest!”

Xiao Liejun and the others left after checking the situation.

After all, nothing happens.

Is it because something has to happen, so that everyone has to be happy?

Cao Zhiguo was still sleeping there, and he quickly contacted the god of Underworld.

Ask about the specific situation.

The situation was so urgent just now that he didn't hear much.

He also fed back the information here to the Underworld God.

"Huh? It's all back to normal? Is something wrong? And the frontier observation post can't find the problem?"

Underworld God was surprised.

"My situation here is complicated! Let me tell you roughly... In short, immediately notify Daxia to make a comprehensive defense, just like the last time! Then notify Tiance Mansion and so on! Be prepared!"

"Hurry up! Hurry up! It's too late to explain! It's just a few minutes!"

...

Underworld God has realized the complexity of the situation.

Hastily urged.

"I also feel something is going to happen! Let's fight for it again!"

After Cao Zhiguo hung up.

First, he sent out all his intelligence teams to investigate the situation ahead.

He sent a few henchmen to contact Tiance Mansion.

Finally, he approached Xiao Liejun and the others again.

“I would rather believe it! If you don’t believe it, there is nothing!”

Cao Zhiguo strongly demanded.

“What’s the matter with Lao Cao? Didn’t I say, don’t discuss this matter anymore?”

“If you want us to act, come up with substantive evidence! You can’t just guess! Everyone is not a prophet!”

...
