The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 2997 - 2998

Gives a new feeling!

Is this destruction? ? ?

Question marks popped up in everyone's hearts!

This obviously changed the world, right?

Looking everywhere, it feels thriving!

newborn!

It is a new life for the whole world!

"The energy is still exploding! We still can't detect it! But I found one thing! Now the beams of light seem to have radiation effect! It seems that humans or animals can get energy from radiation..."

Soon, the space station made a major discovery.

"What? There is radiation effect?"

"The light beam radiates people or animals, and even plants will transform them! In layman's terms, after being radiated by this light beam, they will all mutate!"

"Look! Is the vegetation more lush?"

...

Although the energy is still exploding, everyone can't survey it.

But the general situation can be observed through the instrument.

After all, the darkness has been dispelled.

They can see clearly.

The result is this look.

Found that the world has changed a lot.

Even in a desolate and barren place, it is covered with vegetation, and huge trees are rising from the ground!

All kinds of exotic flowers and grasses are densely covered, full of vitality.

It's an earthshaking difference from the previous desolation.

The change from the desert directly to the green ocean!

And the place itself is lush with vegetation, as a result, after this change, it becomes more and more horrible!

The size of the big trees has increased several times!

The other flowers and plants have also mutated, and they are so big that they are terrifying!

For example, a small grass grows to two or three meters, which is bigger than a human body!

And it is so luxuriant that the gas lingers, the leaves are full, as if it contains jelly and jade dew.

Not to mention the size of the flowers, bright to the extreme, this is the watering of the top fertilizer.

Nowadays, the whole world is full of spirits and clouds, like a fairyland!

In today's world, even a breath of fresh air can cleanse the body and get rid of all diseases!

It's so exaggerated!

This is the change brought about by the explosive energy of the Super Spirit Vessel!

The "Aura" inside is too scary.

Enough to change the world!

However, due to the limited equipment, they can only observe the general situation.

You can also see the big changes in the original world.

But I can't see the details.

Therefore, they can only see the prosperity of the world today.

But the traces of the catastrophe impact are not visible at all.

I don't know if it was covered up or it didn't happen at all.

"This, this, this is not destroying! On the contrary, it has brought such changes to the world?"

Everyone was stunned.

The world has changed so much.

It's got a brand new look.

It was originally dilapidated, but now it is equivalent to wearing new clothes.

Even the barren lands of the desert have changed against the sky, which is incredible.

"Could it be that our homeland still exists? Can we go back?"

Many dignitaries are thinking about going back after seeing the changes in the world.

And the world environment has become so good again!

For a while, everyone wanted to go back as soon as possible.

“No! Maybe it was safe when the darkness was shrouded before! Now it looks bright and beautiful, and there are often countless dangers hidden!”

Someone said.

After a reminder, everyone was shocked in a cold sweat. Looking at the world again, although it is completely new, it is covered with flowers and vegetation everywhere.

The environment is countless times better than before.

But the more glamorous the surface, the more terrifying it feels, and there is something hidden behind it.

This is no longer the world that everyone is familiar with.

It is equivalent to a strange planet.

Go back rashly, wondering if it will be dangerous?

No one can tell!

Another said: “Now plants have undergone such changes! Even humans or animals may have changed. To put it bluntly, this is a dangerous and unfamiliar world! We must not go back!”

“Yes, let alone other things, that mutated flowers and plants may all eat you!”

Everyone couldn't help but fought a cold war.

Such earth-shaking changes have taken place in the world these days.

The Guardian of the Galaxy Alliance is in sight.

Especially they saw beams of light from the transparent dome.

Everyone is curious.

Even the high level of the Eagle Nation is no exception.

The world has changed a lot.

However, they dared not open the device's shield, for fear that it would still be dangerous.

"The energy outside is still exploding! Our instrument is in a malfunctioning state! It can't be detected at all!"

"But it seems that the energy is getting weaker!"

...

The various ministries of the Warhawk Nation are still observing the situation outside.

Not letting go of a single detail.

They looked more closely at the outside than the space station.

Especially when you look outside at the desert border, it's a big change.

The desert has become an oasis!

The environment is beautiful to the extreme!

Even the mainland of Warhawk Nation does not have such a good environment.

All of them were dumbfounded.

It's still desert here.

Is there an oasis over there?

This has changed too much before and after, right?

It makes people feel unrealistic!

"The energy in this super spiritual vein is too strong? You can transform the desert into an oasis casually? You can't create such an oasis without spending a lot of money?"

"You said, did we miss something?"

Some people began to doubt.

The defense before, actually blocked the great opportunity.

"Would you like to open it and take a look outside?"

Someone even suggested.

"No! In case of danger, trouble!"

"And this device is one piece! In order to withstand the energy storm, the whole device is one piece! There is no regional problem! Opening a corner means that all the devices covering the War Eagle Nation have failed!"

...

In the end, this idea was rejected.

"And look! Although the world has undergone earth-shaking changes outside! Is there anyone? Are there animals? There are none? It means that the outside is still dangerous!"

Someone raised a terrible question.

indeed.

Although everyone has witnessed a series of changes outside.

Especially the changes in vegetation.

But people and animals have never been seen before.

And look quiet outside.

It's weird.

As a result, everyone is even more afraid to go out.

Can only continue to wait.

As for the details, they still need to wait and see!

The brain of God was also dumbfounded by the changes outside.

Judging from the vision of the Gods Laboratory, this is destroying the world!

How can there be a transformation? ? ?

why is that?

Can't figure it out!

Is the world a blessing in disguise?

the other side.

In Daxia Security Island, the concept of recovery time was finally restored.

But for the changes that have taken place in the outside world.

They still don't know anything.

After all, the islands are all sealed.

“Let’s wait! Wait ten days to see!”

Daxia chose to continue to wait.

Time passed slowly.

The beam of light in the sky gradually weakened and darkened.

The world’s energy has weakened slightly, but it has been lingering.

But all the abnormalities gradually disappeared.

In the blink of an eye.
