

Chapter 1884

Seeing that her brother had released Pan Haoyang in order to heal his foot, Yingzi immediately stopped him: "Brother! If you release Pan Haoyang, you will die."

Ying Ming smiled gently: "Silly girl, brother just released him from the cage, and didn't give him freedom. He can't run away, and I can't die."

Yingzi shook her head, her throat choked up, "You can't beat Pan Haoyang, he is very cruel, and his skills and kung fu are better than you. You are not his opponent when you fight alone, you can't take it lightly."

Ying Ming looked at his sister with a reassuring smile: "It's alright, don't worry, now Pan Haoyang has a broken leg, he can't use his strength. He can't beat me, besides, even if he can beat me, now this island is all me. Can he escape from this island?"

Yingzi: "Brother, I'm afraid..."

"Don't be afraid, brother is sure to take me." Ying Ming said.

The conversation between the brother and sister gave Suzi an illusion.

It was as if the two brothers and sisters were not robbing other people's territory, or suppressing other people's robbers, but two brothers and sisters who suffered and depended on each other for life.

For a moment, Suzi even felt sympathy for the two brothers and sisters.

However, after thinking about it, Ying Ming is indeed committed to robbery and theft. There is no sympathy for this. Even if it is sympathy, it can only sympathize with his sister.

Sister is innocent.

Thinking of this, Suzi put pressure on Ying Ming and Yingzi again: "Hurry up!"

Ying Ming's men immediately released Pan Haoyang from the cage.

In fact, what Ying Ming said was right, Pan Haoyang's leg was broken, and he was imprisoned in this cage for a day and a night. Ming shook his fist.

As a result, it was easily avoided by Ying Ming.

Ying Ming raised his foot and kicked Pan Haoyang's stomach, and Pan Haoyang immediately curled up on the ground, coughing wildly.

Ying Ming sneered at his opponent and said, "Lock him up!"

Pan Haoyang was dragged out immediately.

"Okay, can you treat my sister's foot for me?" Ying Ming asked.

Suzi said: "I have to make sure that Pan Haoyang is in good health, you can put him in jail, I just want to treat your sister's foot wound on his arm."

"You! Your request is too much!" Ying Ming roared.

Suzi shook his head: "Actually, it's not too much, I just don't want me to heal your sister, but you just killed Pan Haoyang, I didn't ask you to let him go, I just want him to not be humiliated like this, That's it."

Ying Ming looked at the woman in front of him and suddenly asked, "Could it be that you love Pan Haoyang?"

Suzi sneered: "I only love my husband!"

"Well then..."

Suzi ignored the man's guess, but said impatiently, "Do you agree or disagree!"

She just didn't want Pan Haoyang to die.

To put it a bit harsher, although Pan Haoyang took her hostage, on this island, if you really want to escape, you really have to rely on Pan Haoyang to do it.

She can't be a leader without creating for herself.

Ying Ming was silent for a few seconds and said, "Okay!"

As soon as he turned around, he ordered the subordinate: "Take Pan Haoyang to my room! Lock him in the room, and let Suzi stay in the living room outside to heal my sister's foot wound."

"Yes! Master Ying!"

Soon, Suzi and Yingzi were taken to Ying Ming's room.

This is Ying Ming's room, but it was actually Pan Haoyang's room half a month ago. All the furnishings here are Pan Haoyang's preference. Pan Haoyang is also a very romantic man.

Seeing this house, Suzi suddenly thought of Shanna's mother.

Chapter 1885

Although Pan Haoyang has never met his biological mother, he has certain habits that are very similar to his mother. Pan Haoyang is also very talented in design.

Because of this, Suzi's hatred for Pan Haoyang was a little less.

She stood outside the door, listening to the movement inside.

There was no movement inside.

She originally thought that Pan Haoyang would make a lot of noise when he was locked in, but he was very calm.

This made Suzi feel relieved.

She let Yingzi lie on the sofa, half of her bench sat in front of Yingzi, let Yingzi rest on her lap, and Yingzi suddenly pulled out her feet from her lap.

Suzi looked at Ying Zi puzzled: "What's wrong?"

Yingzi said coldly: "You are a pregnant woman, it is inconvenient to sit, I... I put my legs on you, what does it look like."

Suzi couldn't help but sneer: "Yo! It's quite humane."

After a pause, she said again: "But also, your brother is a thief, a robber, but you are not, you are a regular girl, come on! It's okay, I'm not afraid of your foot odor, and I'm not afraid of your feet. With me, what are you afraid of?"

As soon as she said it, Suzi directly grabbed her foot and put it on his lap again.

Her feet are really rotten and not light, I really don't know how she insisted on walking.

Suzi took out a basin of salt water, soaked the salt water with gauze and twisted the water on her feet: "Endure the pain."

"Hi..." Yingzi still couldn't stand the pain.

"You have to hold back!" Suzi said: "You are all fungus, the wound is very deep, you will have to clean your feet like this every day in the future, and you'd better stay in bed, don't wear shoes, don't wear socks, you are all It's covered up."

Suzi pressed her feet with his hands and rinsed her with salt water over and over again.

The filth cleaned from her feet mixed with the water in this basin, which was half the basin.

The painful Yingzi almost fainted.

However, after cleaning it up, she felt that her feet didn't seem to take care of them very much. Although it hurt, the pain was a relief.

Suzi said: "After drying, wait for your feet to recover a little, wash with alcohol and iodophor, wait until the dirt and wounds on your feet are cleaned up, and then treat with fungicidal medicines. Then add some home remedies."

Suzi is not a doctor.

But coincidentally, she also had such abscesses on her feet.

That's because one year, when Sanford's legs needed a lot of treatment fees, Suzi worked on the construction site during the day and got off work at five or six o'clock in the afternoon. A nearby cannery is peeling peaches.

For a whole summer, her feet stood in that rotting peach skin all summer long.

That summer, Suzi earned more than 10,000 yuan, but after the work in the cannery was finished, her feet were soaked and rotten, and fresh meat was exposed in some places. But during the day, she has to work on the construction site, and some construction sites have to deal with cement or something, and she has to wear rubber boots.

In this way, a pair of feet were covered, and the abscesses were covered.

Later, Suzi's feet had abscesses and couldn't walk, so a local old mother gave her the remedies.

Because many local people who want to make more money suffer from abscesses on their feet every year, and they have the experience to deal with it.

It was also a coincidence that Suzi could cure Yingzi's abscess.

"Remember, don't walk these two days, your feet will be fine in half a month." After Suzi finished speaking, she gently placed her feet on the sofa, then got up and left.

"Wait." Yingzi suddenly shouted.

Suzi: "What else is there?"

Yingzi's tone suddenly softened: "That...you...why are you being so kind to me?"
