Chapter 146

Julian's words were like a stone thrown into the quiet lake. It caused a stir in the set. Gloria, who was watching the fun, bent over with a smile. "Mr. Benton, I was wondering why have you not taken any action. It turns out that you've been waiting here!" Eliza wanted to tackle the two handsome men, but what was the outcome! In the end, not only was she unable to kiss Julian, but she was also unable to proceed with the kissing scene with this handsome man! Julian crossed his arms around his chest and looked at Beau provocatively. "Mister, the replacement I've found is much more professional than yours." "Her height, figure, and jawline are exactly the same as Eliza's." "Unlike you, who insisted on becoming the substitute without knowing how I look like." His words made Beau's face turn livid. He narrowed his eyes and stared coldly at Julian's face. "Are you sure you want to provoke me like this?" Julian smiled faintly. "You're the one who provoked me first." Filming was originally a normal job, and the kissing scenes were also part of it. Beau had used his identity as the producer to interfere with his normal job and deprive him of the opportunity to be intimate with Eliza. Naturally, he would not let him off easily. "Mr. Valentine, don't blame me for not reminding you." "You and I are both the producers. At the same time, I am also the male lead of this movie." Julian smiled gracefully. "Now you have two choices." "One, there is no need to use a substitute. Let Eliza and I play the scenes ourselves." "The other one." He pointed to the female substitute on the side. "You play it with her." After that, Julian even turned to look at Mr. Diaz. "Mr. Diaz, am I right?" "We're both producers, so don't be double standard."

Mr. Diaz pretended to be calm and coughed lightly. He turned to look at Beau and said, "Mr. Valentine, this.."

Beau crossed his arms around his chest and looked at Julian with a meaningful look. "Mr. Benton gave me two choices." "But what I am telling you now is..." He sneered and pulled Eliza into his arms. "I won't choose a single one." After saying this, he directly grabbed the back of Eliza's head and kissed her fiercely. His kiss came suddenly and arbitrarily. Eliza's body stiffened for a moment, and then her body became soft because of his kiss. It was the first time that she kissed in front of everyone. Eliza felt that she should be embarrassed and shy. But in reality... She actually enjoyed it a little. She unconsciously put her arms around his neck, as gently as a puddle of water. Everyone on the set was stunned.

The cameraman quickly turned on the camera and recorded this scene. In the warm, dreamy set, Beau held the back of Eliza's head with one hand and the other hand grabbed her slim waist, kissing her aggressively. Meanwhile, Eliza was kissing back like a little bird.

This scene was as beautiful as a fairyland. Mr. Diaz stared blankly at what was happening in front of him. "What a perfect match..." For some reason, he could see happiness from Eliza and Beau's kiss. Julian frowned hard, and jealousy, sadness, and helplessness climbed up from the corners of his eyes. Liliana was still waiting for him to marry Eliza back home to be her mother. He sighed. It seemed that he still had a long way to go if he wanted to satisfy the little girl. 2

"Mr. Benton." Gloria frowned and asked, "Why don't you stop him?" Julian turned his head and glanced at her. "Why should I?" "They've all kissed each other!"

Gloria looked unhappy.

Didn't Mr. Benton come out with the option that either Eliza shoot the kissing scene with him or that handsome substitute shoot the scene with the female substitute? Why was there no one stopping them? Great, Eliza was going to get carried away again! What kind of luck did an actress with no background and professional training like her have? "Then you go ahead." Julian rolled his eyes at her and ignored her. Gloria pursed her lips and glanced at the director and cameraman who were carefully shooting, but she still did not have the courage to stop them. She stamped her foot hard, swung her sleeve, and turned to leave. Behind her, Joye put away her mobile phone, smiled lightly and chased after her. Coming out of the filming site, Gloria was so angry that she kicked the big willow trees on the side of the road fiercely.

She was pissed off!

The female lead of this movie was supposed to be her. However, before the actress was decided, Raul took advantage of Madeleine and helped Madeleine become the female lead. There was no other way. She could only become the second female lead. She even comforted herself saying that it was the price she had to pay for not wanting to be taken advantage of. Moreover, it was good that she got to work with the king of acting. However, how could she have imagined that the final female lead was not Madeleine, but Eliza, who had been acting as a substitute for five to six years!

Why was she so lucky? She could not even film the kissing scene properly and had to get such a handsome guy to kiss her! She could flirt with Julian for normal scenes and could kiss the handsome man for intimate scenes! The more Gloria thought about it, the angrier she became. "Gloria, stop kicking." Joye grabbed her and asked, "Isn't your foot in pain?" "No!" "The tree is in pain." Joye chuckled, took out her mobile phone and showed Gloria a video. "Look." Gloria frowned and took a look.

The scene taken was Eliza and Beau kissing on the set. Both of them had their eyes closed, with happiness on their faces... Gloria felt jealous and turned off the phone directly. "Why did you show it to me?" Did she still think that she was not angry enough? "Of course it's to relieve your anger." Joye smiled and looked at Gloria. "Think about it." "Although there was someone on the set who's filming this, the man is a substitute. No one knows who he is." "But my video is different." She looked for the video on purpose and pointed to Julian, who was sitting aside with a cold face. "Mr. Benton, the male lead, is watching by the side. The female lead is kissing someone who is not an actor." "Don't you think it's interesting... if this gets out?" Gloria still didn't understand. "What do you mean?" Joye rolled her eyes at Gloria. She was really dumb. But she still carefully explained to her, "People will have different perspectives." "Mr. Benton's fans may think that this actress dislikes Mr. Benton because he had kissed too many other actresses, so she doesn't want to kiss Mr. Benton." "Some may suspect that this actress is really bad at acting, or she's too useless and can't act with the movie king." "Or, people will think that she doesn't deserve to be the female lead as she has to look for a substitute even for kissing scene..." "What do you think?" Joye's words made Gloria sober up instantly. She was right! Since Eliza was doing this in such a high-profile manner, she should make it public! Gloria took out her mobile phone and sent the video to her agent. "Make Eliza famous!"

"You two are really a perfect match!" On the set, after the director finished filming Beau and Eliza's kissing scene, he couldn't help but sigh with emotion, "If I hadn't known that Miss Lawson was single, I would have suspected that you two were a real couple!" Hearing what he said, Eliza couldn't help but blush. She pursed her lips. "In fact..." "In fact, it's not completely impossible." Beau interrupted Eliza and turned to look at her. "Go and remove your makeup." Seeing that it was about lunchtime, Eliza glanced at the makeup on her face and nodded. "Do you want to have a meal together at noon?" The cold and reserved-looking man chuckled and said, "Okay." "Then I'll go remove my makeup." Eliza smiled and turned into the dressing room. She hadn't eaten with Beau for a long time. It was either her who was busy, or Beau. Seeing her leave so quickly, a dotting smile appeared on Beau's face. In the distance, Joye's mobile phone recorded all these again and sent them to Gloria. Since she wanted to mess with Eliza, then she should make it big! Gloria directly published all the videos Joye sent to her on the Internet using an anonymous marketing account. "The new actress dislikes Mr. Benton, so she needs a substitute for the kissing scenes." "A lunch treat after the kissing scene. How many things are there that we don't know about Eliza?" In the past, even though Eliza always appeared on the trending news because of Madeleine and Jay, but at that time, Eliza's name was tied together with two small characters in the entertainment circle. Her popularity wasn't that extensive, and there wasn't much discussion on her. Naturally, there were not many people paying attention to her. But this time was different. This time, the target was Mr. Benton, the most popular actor in the entertainment circle. So, Julian's fans began to insult Eliza madly online. The netizens also began to criticize Eliza. It wasn't long before, Braint's software couldn't handle it. While sitting in the study, Braint wiped off his sweat silently and turned to look at Liliana. "Your uncle... has so many fans?" "Of course." Liliana rolled her eyes. "Mr. Benton is the most powerful person in the entertainment circle!" After that, she pursed her lips. "You can't handle it, can you?" Mr. Benton really had a lot of fans.

She had tried to fight back against his fans. Later, she discovered...

The software that was created, no matter how intelligent it was, could not compare with tens of millions of people's mouths. Now, it was finally the Braint's turn. Liliana leaned back on the sofa in a comfortable position. "Why don't I call Mr. Benton and ask him to clarify it?" "His fans listen to him the most." Braint pursed his lips. He did not want his mommy to have anything to do with Julian at all. If Julian helped Eliza this time, then Eliza would owe Julian a favor. If she wanted to return his favor, she had to keep in contact with him and might slowly develop a relationship with him... Thinking of this, Braint directly called Beau. "Daddy, have you seen the news? I can't handle it this time." "What should we do?" Beau frowned, took out another phone and flipped through the internet. Sure enough, he saw the news on the Internet. The kiss scene between him and Eliza was repeatedly played for many times. The video of Eliza inviting him to have lunch together was analyzed by netizens from various angles. Although it was supposed to be worrisome, Beau looked a little excited. So that was what he and Eliza looked like when they kissed. This was the first time he saw Eliza's kiss from a bystander's perspective. Well, she could have been more affectionate here. She could have held him tighter here... "Daddy..." Probably because there was no sound on the other side of the phone for a long time, Braint sighed, "Are you listening to me?" Only then did Beau regained his senses. He coughed slightly. "You don't have to deal with it if you can't handle it." "If you can't beat them, join them." Braint frowned. "What do you mean?" "I think the number of views in this video can be higher." "I look very handsome in the video." Braint, "." So the reason why his father ignored him for so long was because he was appreciating his beauty? Braint rolled his eyes. "But this is still bad news for mommy." Since Braint did not want Julian to deal with this matter, the only way was to find his father and let him suppress the news before Julian did. "Good or bad, it's all relative." Beau lightly curled his lips as he watched the video of him and Eliza kissing each other. "Now people are scolding her just because they don't understand the whole thingy." "But what if these people find out that Eliza and I are legally married?" "If Julian's fans knew that I protected the three of us at the same time, would they still scold her?" Braint was silent for a while. "I understand." His father was finally going to make this matter public, wasn't he? As a son, how could he not support him? "I'll play along with you guys." After hanging up the phone, Braint took a deep breath and began to type on the laptop again. Liliana, who was beside him, felt strange. She popped her small round head out of the couch and stared at Braint. "Brother, are you writing a new code?" "That's right." Braint nodded. Since he wanted to join Julian's fan and build up the reputation for his daddy and mommy, he had to write a different code. "Don't waste your effort." Liliana flattened her lips. "You can't beat Mr. Benton's fans."

Looking at the computer, Braint smiled wickedly and said, "Who said I was going to beat them?"

After removing her makeup, Eliza's phone rang as soon as she walked out of the set. It was Graciana. She frowned. Graciana was calling her at this time. Did something went wrong? Before she could answer the call, a large hand took away her cell phone. Beau calmly turned off her phone and put it in her pocket. "I need you to have a meal with me with a peace of mind, instead of making phone calls with your girl friend and ignored me."

Eliza: "...". When did she ever ignore him while talking on phone with her best friend? But she also knew that he was overbearing and domineering. Since he said so, there was no way to get her cell phone without having lunch with him. So she could only sigh and followed him out of the set. However, for some reason, she felt that after she removed her makeup, everyone on the set looked at her with strange eyes. Even Mr. Diaz hesitated to speak. Eliza furrowed her eyebrows. She knew that she sometimes looked pretty after removing her makeup.

But she shouldn't look... ugly until everyone showed a perplexed expression, right?" With this in mind, Beau brought her to a nearby restaurant, while ordering the dishes, Eliza subconsciously looked at the television above her

What... what was going on?

The scene had just been filmed, and this behind-the-scenes had already been broadcasted on TV? "This is the video from the set that was spread this morning." "It can be seen that the person in the video is the female lead of Purple City, Eliza, but the man who kissed her is not Julian, the male lead of Purple City." "Why is that? Someone exposed that the actress is not good at acting. She couldn't overcome her mental pressure to kiss Mr. Benton." "So in the end, she found a substitute for the kissing scene." "Some people said that this substitute was selected by the actress to cover up her poor acting skills."

"There are also people who said that this substitute was selected by the lead actor, because he doesn't want to perform with a woman who can't even do well in kissing scenes..." Listening to the broadcast by the TV host, Eliza's heart which was originally excited, instantly sank to the bottom. So... someone deliberately filmed a video of the scene in order to confuse the public? She pursed her lips and looked at Beau who was looking at his phone seriously in front of her. "Mr. Valentine, did you hear that?" At this moment, Beau was watching the video on his phone. This video was nothing special. It was about the scene of him and Eliza kissing each other. He watched it three times. ³ He felt that his kissing skills could be better and Eliza's performance could be more cute.

This was not her most attractive look. "Sure enough, she performed better at home than in the set." I Of course, he didn't wish for others to see Eliza's most beautiful appearance. Seeing that Beau ignored her, Eliza pursed her lips and said with a frown, "Mr. Valentine?" Only then did Beau come to his senses. He put the phone away gracefully. "What's wrong?" Eliza pointed at the TV in the distance. "This." He turned around, took a quick look, and knew what she was referring to. After all, the comments from the public were so fierce now, which was also due to Braint's

He smiled faintly. "Let them gossip." Eliza bit her lips while holding her chopsticks. "You're not going to do anything?" In fact... she didn't care what others said. She did not care about other people's thoughts, but others would. Julian and Mr. Diaz. Even the entire crew might be affected, right? A slight move in one part may affect the situation as a whole. It was not her own matter.

"Don't worry about it for the time being." Beau elegantly picked up some food for Eliza and said, "You'd better perform well in the afternoon." "The matter will be resolved when you finish filming." Since he said so, Eliza could not say anything more. She sighed silently and began to eat seriously. Sitting in front of her, Beau looked at how serious she was when she ate. He couldn't help but secretly take a photo of her and posted it to his Wechat Moments. Soon, someone left a message on Wechat. Demarion: "My mommy is the most beautiful!" Braint, "Cute." Noah, "Boss and Madam are a perfect match." Matthew said, "What are you eating? It looks delicious." Owen said, "Help! I don't want to be blinded anymore!" 2 Looking at the comments, Beau was in a good mood. He even had an extra bowl of food for lunch. After lunch, he sent Eliza back to the set and returned to the company. He still had something important to do in the afternoon so he had to deal with the work first. "Tsk, tsk, you came back after having dinner with the handsome guy?" As soon as they entered the set, Gloria blocked Eliza's way. "Have you seen the rumors online?" "Eliza, you're really a disgrace." Eliza was neither humble nor pushy. She looked up at Gloria indifferently and asked, "All by yourself?" "Where is Joye?" Probably because she didn't expect Eliza to ask Joye, Gloria twisted her eyebrows. "She went to see her old classmate." After that, she pursed her lips. "So, now you want to win the crew over to your side?" "Although Joye has a good temper, she is still my friend and will not stand on your side!" Eliza felt helpless. She once again looked up at the girl in front of her. Gloria was very beautiful, but why didn't she have a brain? Joye flattered her every time, fanning the flames with sarcasm. Was Gloria really unaware of

When she first entered the crew, the makeup artist told Eliza that Gloria had offended a lot of people in this circle, but Joye's relationship with others was very good. At first, Eliza did not believe it, but now, she did. The woman in front of her, named Gloria, was used by Joye, but she didn't realize. Gloria was the one who offended people, and Joye did all the pleasing. Thinking of this, Eliza shrugged her shoulders. "You've misunderstood." "I don't want to win Joye over to my side." "I want to win you over." Gloria rolled her eyes. "Are you crazy? Trying to win me over?" "Don't you know how much I hate you?" "I know." Eliza pulled over a chair and sat down in front of Gloria. "But you shouldn't hate me." "If you're interested, why don't we have a chat?" Gloria looked at her suspiciously and sat down beside Eliza.

They kept talking until the start of the filming. After Eliza was called away by the director, Joye came back. She encouraged Gloria to watch Eliza make a fool of herself. "Let's go and see if those things on the Internet have any effect on her." "I really don't know if she has a good mentality or if she has a thick skin." If it were as usual, Gloria would have rolled her eyes and said that Eliza was thick-skinned. But this time, after Joye finished, Gloria didn't say anything at all. She stood up and silently walked into the set. She began to seriously watch Eliza's acting. In the afternoon, Eliza was filmed falling from the city wall in the next scene. She did not use a substitute throughout the whole process. Instead, she was lifted up the seven to eight meters high city wall by using with a wire rope. Such a height would make ordinary people tremble in their hearts, but she acted as if nothing had happened and could discuss with the director about the change of her facial expression with a smile. Gloria looked at her. For the first time, she felt... Eliza was not as bad as she thought. "She used to be a substitute." Joye couldn't help sighing with emotion. "It's so high up and yet she's not afraid. She's really good." "With such ability, it's no wonder that she can act as the female lead even though she has no acting skills at all." Gloria frowned. "You really can't say that she doesn't have any acting skills at all." "I don't think I can make the same expression as her." "It's no wonder she can be the lead actress." "Didn't the news say that she once helped Madeleine and Jay improve their acting skills?" "It's pretty impressive." Joye was choked. She widened her eyes. Gloria was... praising Eliza. How was this possible? She just went out to see Lucija. Why did Gloria change her attitude towards Eliza so much?

Looking at Gloria's admiring look at Eliza, Joye frowned hard. No! She couldn't let Gloria have a good impression of Eliza! If Gloria didn't hate Eliza, how would she play her next game? Thinking of this, she snorted coldly. "With Eliza's ability, she can only teach an internet celebrity like Madeleine who had no solid foundation." "All the actors from a professional class are better than her." Joye curled her lips and reached out to hold Gloria. "You are much better than her." "It's a pity that you became the second female lead while she became the female lead." "It's not too bad either." Gloria took her hand away from Joye's. "Eliza just told me a story." She turned around and took a step back, keeping a safe distance from Joye. "It's a very old fashioned story, but quite interesting." "I think you should review the story." Gloria took a deep breath as she sneered. Joye frowned. "What story?" "The story of the fisherman who took advantage from the fight between the snipe and the clam." Gloria sneered, "Joye, I remember that if it weren't for the change of the leading actress, you would be the second female lead of this movie." (This novel will be daily updated at) "The second female lead is the character that you like. She is absolutely infatuated with the male lead and thinks highly of love." "As for the third female lead, her character is much worse in terms of personality and her affection towards the male lead." "You've told me before that you don't like to act as the third female lead."

"If I oppose Eliza, the two of us will compete with each other. No matter who becomes the main character in the end, this second female lead will return to your hands." After that, Gloria took a deep breath and said, "I should have thought of this." "It's a pity that I was too dumb to figure it out. I had to wait until the little boy analyzed it for me to realize."

Joye's face had become extremely pale. She bit her lip. "Gloria, I didn't mean that!" "Don't be brainwashed by Eliza. We have been friends for so many years, don't..." "Is that so?" Gloria snorted and took out her mobile phone to find a photo. "How do you explain this?" Joye glanced at it and suddenly, her face was as pale as paper. The photo showed that she was in contact with a media reporter! And the cooperation between her and the media reporter was to promote her to become the second female lead. She even prepared two versions of press release since she didn't know if Eliza or Gloria would become female lead. If Eliza was the female lead, then it would be written that her relationship with Eliza was harmonious. If Gloria was the female lead, the press release would be about Gloria and her sisterhood! These were all secretly done by Joye. She believed that she had done it perfectly. But... how could Gloria... Joye's pale face had completely betrayed her. "It is indeed like this..."

Gloria sighed and took back her phone. "Joye, I've always regarded you as a friend. I saw that you have always liked Julian, but you never found a chance to work with him. So I strongly recommended you to the director so that you could be in this movie." "But I never thought that you would make full use of me." "In your eyes, I am just a chess piece!" After that, Gloria turned her head and left without looking back. She should thank that little boy named Braint. If he hadn't sent her the email, she might not have understood what Eliza meant by "Fisherman's profit". Joye stood where she was, looking at Gloria's back as she left, and gritted her teeth. What kind of trick did Eliza learn? Gloria, this fool, had been tricked by her for almost two years. Now, she suddenly realized it? Also, the photos on Gloria's mobile phone and the contents of the press, where did they come from? Just when she was confused, her assistant called her. "Miss Yang, your computer has been hacked." "All the information in it seems to have been copied." (This novel will be daily updaed at) "Do you want to call the police?" Hearing the voice on the phone, Joye felt a chill in her heart. Her computer was hacked... It seemed like she had underestimated Eliza! Thinking of this, she raised her head and looked at Eliza, who was still filming in the set, with cold eyes. She was very angry.

"Miss Lawson."

After an entire afternoon of filming, Eliza had just removed her makeup and was about to go home when a person who looked like an assistant stopped her. "Nice to meet you."

The person said politely, "I am Miss Gloria's assistant. "Miss Gloria asked me to apologize to you." "The conversation with Braint has already made Miss Gloria deeply aware of her mistake. She wants to say sorry to you." "In addition, the video of you and the substitute kissing was indeed sent by Miss Gloria in the beginning." "But she soon realized her mistake." "But ..." The person on the other end of the line sighed. "I don't know why it caused a great sensation after the news and the video was released." "We realized that we were wrong and wanted to remove all the videos and messages, but we couldn't remove them at all." "And, there were more and more discussions about kissing scene online." Eliza furrowed her eyebrows and thought for a long time. It was not until the assistant left that she finally understood the meaning. The assistant meant that the person who was spreading rumors at night was no longer the person Gloria sent. Sitting in the car on the way home, Eliza leaned on the back seat and took out her mobile phone to watch the news while being blown by the evening cool breeze. On the Internet, there were many discussions about her and Beau, who acted as a substitute. What made her speechless and amused was that the discussions of these people had completely deviated from the topic. (This novel will be daily updaed at) The netizens' discussions were in full swing, starting from the genuine match between the substitute and Eliza, to the topic of who was more charming. Looking at the comments from the netizens, Eliza smiled faintly. If she was asked this question, she would vote for her husband without hesitation. If she did not love her man, who would? She flipped through a few pages, clicked the like button on the "Eliza and the substitute" option and she closed the page. The discussion on the Internet was very lively. However, Eliza could still tell that behind such a large discussion, there had to be someone who added fuel to the fire. But... who was this person? Gloria's men and capital had been withdrawn. She closed her eyes. Such a good marketing timing and such a loving topic. (This novel will be daily updtaed at)2 Therefore, this mastermind behind the scenes... Should be Beau himself! Thinking of this, she pursed her lips, took out her mobile phone and dialed a number. "What are you planning to do?"
