

Love At First Night Chapter 71

Chapter 71

"That's good. This is my land, and you are my staff. If Ms. White likes it, I can give you a discount." Frank thought he should let them settle down first. Even if Eric was his son, he wouldn't let Gina know about it. Eric would become Frank's other weakness. It was fine for Gina to do anything to Frank, but he could not let her threaten him with his family. Gina had already registered a company with another identity to purchase the shares of the Gita Group. As long as the Gita Group was gone, Gina could do nothing anymore. When Judith heard this, she was very excited. She liked such a beautiful villa very much when looking at it. But she knew that she did not have that much money. Even if it was sold at the internal price, she still could not afford it. He looked at Frank's smile, which was different from the cold face she had seen in the company. He showed some affinity. She looked at him and smiled gratefully. "Thank you for your kindness, Mr. Taylor. I can't afford it even if you give me the low price!" She told the truth. Her principle was that she would never buy anything that she couldn't afford. If she was too stressed, she would lose it in front of the children. It didn't matter if the house was big or small. As long as her family lived together, she was happy. Frank looked at her and smiled. "Isn't Ms. White allowed to take off? The villa here is also two-story. The area is not very large, and the internal price won't cost you much. Why don't you take a look first?" Frank usually wouldn't meddle in such matters, especially with women. But Judith was probably his Judy. He had to help her. Judith smiled. He had money, so it was nothing to him. However, she was different. In order to buy a house, she had saved money for the past few years. The prize money for the design was only about a hundred thousand. With Eric's money, it was still not enough. She had to get a loan for a house? ! Judith weighed it and decided to first look at a second-hand house. "Thank you for your kindness, Mr. Taylor. I can only afford a second-hand house. Let's go and see a second hand house first!" Judith smiled calmly and confidently and there was nothing to feel embarrassed about. She was very grateful that Frank was willing to help her. "A second-hand house?" Frank frowned slightly. How would she live comfortably? Eric couldn't live in that kind of house.: Frank's eyes flashed. He got an idea. He slowly said, "Ms. White, let's go then! Let's go somewhere else." Judith thought that he would leave after hearing her words. After all, how would someone of his status have the mood to accompany her to see second-hand houses? Real estate was very profitable, but he plunged into fashion design, which made Judith very curious. Judith looked at his back with a puzzled face. Frank walked in the front, took out his phone, and sent a message to his friend, Patrick. Patrick was now responsible for the work of the villa area, He remembered that some time ago, he had taken a fancy to a two-story villa. Before it even opened, it had already been set by him and was now ready to be renovated. Moreover, the price Patrick gave Frank was very low. Frank nearly took it for free.

Patrick, who was preparing for the renovation in the villa, was capable with calm and serious eyes on his handsome face as he scanned the room. He wore white casual clothes on his upper body and black trousers. When combined, the clothes made his face look gentle. He was drawing the renovation drawings when he got the message. He picked up the phone on the table and glanced at the message. "Patrick, sell your villa for 400,000 dollars. The reason is that you have to go abroad and you need the money." He narrowed his eyes and was about to lose his temper. The notebook and pen in his hand fell to the ground. He looked at the message three times and confirmed that it was from Frank. Anger flashed through his eyes as his fingers tapped the keyboard. Frank had been waiting for Patrick's message and then the screen lit up. He quickly looked down. "Frank, are you crazy? You know how much I like this villa. You want me to sell it for 400,000 dollars. Impossible! I won't sell it! I spent much more money than that!" An angry expression and a series of question marks were attached.

Frank frowned. The Jensen family did not lack the house. He quickly replied to the message. "You have to sell it. I will tell you later. Call me now and tell me that you want to sell your house and go abroad." "Impossible! It's impossible even if you put a knife on my neck. This villa is what I always wanted." Patrick quickly replied to the message. Frank's eyes were filled with rage as he typed. "Do as I told. I'll give you a three-story villa later." Frank had just sent the message when Judith's phone suddenly rang. "Adam!" Judith shouted with a smile. As soon as Frank heard the name, his heart was filled with anger. Why was Adam haunting Judith like a ghost? "Judy, you don't have to look for a house anymore. One of my friends is going abroad and needs money urgently. He has a two-story villa near the school. The price is not expensive. It's suitable for your family of five." Adam's happy voice came from the other end. "Really?" Judith was very excited and also a little unconvinced. She asked again, "Adam, are you sure that I can buy a villa in Mayfield at this price?” “Judy, I knew you wouldn’t believe me. This villa was built ten years ago. At that time, the price of the house was not as high as now, less than half of it. Moreover, the house was a little old, and it was vacant for many years before it was sold at this price.” “That’s good! Adam, I’ll come to find you later!” Judith chatted happily for a while before hanging up. She looked at Frank happily and said, “Mr. Taylor, we don’t have to look for a house anymore. My friend just called me and said that he has a friend who is going abroad and needs money urgently. There is a villa that is just about to be sold, and the price is within my acceptable range. I want it!” Frank’s face darkened. The excuse was exactly the same as his. Did Adam think the same as he did? At this moment, Frank received Patrick’s message. “Deal! A three-story villa!” When Frank saw this, he wanted to punch Patrick so much. If he had agreed earlier, Adam wouldn’t have had the chance! Frank thought, “This bastard! I’ll deal with him later!” Frank was so angry at the moment that he wanted to kill Patrick.

Chapter 73

“Ms. White, is the house around here?” Frank was afraid that her house was so far away that it would be inconvenient for her to pick up her child, Frank asked a lot of questions. He hadn’t wanted to speak these questions out, but he couldn’t help doing this. Even Frank himself didn’t know the reason. It was as if Judith had a magic power that bewitched him. Only after a few years did he understand what this magic power was. It was love. When a man fell in love, he was willing to do anything for his beloved woman. “Yes, it’s near the school.” Judith smiled. That smile was relaxed and pleasant. As Frank looked at the smiling Judith, he could not help but also smile slightly.

His voice was clear and carried an imperceptible gentleness.

“Congratulations, Ms. White.” “Thank you, too, Mr. Taylor,” Judith said politely, her smile moving. She felt that Frank was completely different from the first time she saw him. Back then, Frank was like a hedgehog, having a thorn all over his body. He was on guard against everyone, as if he always carried a cold aura. When one saw Frank from afar, the person might go to another side to avoid Frank.

Frank looked straight at Judith. He was going to say something, which made him feel somewhat nervous. He had run an enterprise for many years and had gone through many difficulties. However, when Frank looked at Judith’s pure and clean face, he couldn’t help getting nervous. His eyes flashed and a faint smile appeared on his lips. “Ms. White, since you want to thank me, how about treating me to dinner?” When Judith heard this, she got a bit embarrassed. Tonight, she was going to have dinner with Adam and the others, and Eric had to return to Kimshire. Judith looked up. Her clear and bright eyes were suffused with a touch of guilt, yet they were attractive. “Mr. Taylor, I’ve had an appointment tonight. Why don’t we eat out tomorrow night?” When Frank heard this, disappointment flashed across his eyes. “Is she going to have dinner with Adam?” Frank thought. Everyone was like this. When they believed that something belonged to them, they would definitely care about it

Frank was such a classic example. When he didn’t want something, he didn’t even bother to look at it. But when he wanted something, he would do anything to get it. He just met Judith a few days ago, yet Frank felt that Judith had stolen his heart. On the street, people came and went in a hurry. Frank was about to speak. Suddenly, Judith’s phone rang again. Frank lowered his eyes and stood at the side in an imposing manner. There was no expression on his handsome face, making him look a little indifferent. “Eric.” When Judith received her son’s call, the smile on her lips grew wider.

The name “Eric” made Frank tense up. Being ignored, Frank suddenly held his breath and listened. “Mommy, Alissa, and I won’t come home tonight. We’ll come back tomorrow, so we can’t have dinner with you. We have a dinner party here. After dinner, mommy, could you wait for me? I’ll be home around ten o’clock.” “Why?” Judith asked in confusion. “You will know tomorrow morning! Mommy, goodbye!” Eric quickly hung up the phone but left suspense for Judith. Judith held her phone with a puzzled face. Judged by Eric’s tone, Eric seemed very happy.

Frank, on the other hand, was suddenly excited. A bright smile blossomed on his handsome face. “It seems that Ms. White has no dinner tonight.” ; Judith looked at Frank, who had a faint smile on his face as if he was looking forward to being treated to dinner by her.

“Since I have time, just do it,” she thought.

Judith smiled and said, “Then I’ll return your favor and treat you to dinner.”

Love At First Night Chapter 74

Chapter 74

“My pleasure” Frank looked at Judith with a charming smile, Judith suddenly felt a chill from her heart. Frank’s smile reminded Judith of his cold aura when Sherly hid in his arms. Back then, Judith could feel the ruthlessness from Frank’s body even from afar. Judith’s eyes flashed. She did not dare to look into Frank’s eyes. She seemed to urge, “Mr. Taylor, let’s go!” With that, Judith turned and walked forward. Frank looked at Judith’s receding figure, his handsome face relaxed, and his dark eyes shone with a bright light Frank went up a few steps and soon walked shoulder to shoulder with Judith. “Ms. White, are you used to living in our company’s dormitory?” His tone was neither fast nor slow, but it carried a bit of laziness and faint concern “It’s good. At first, I was going to return to Kimshire after staying there for a month. Now, I might have to stay there for a lifetime.”

Judith had not expected it. She had thought of coming back, but the city had left her with too much pain. It gave Judith the feeling that she was locked in a cage and she couldn’t escape anywhere. Time never left all the wounds to heal, especially the wound in one’s heart, which might not be able to recover for a lifetime.

In the past, Judith did not have enough courage to face all these sorrowful memories because she was not confident enough to face Sherly. In other words, Judith had been living under the shadow of Sherly. However, after Judith was hurt by the deepest pain in the world, she suddenly realized that if she had yet to become strong, she might be knocked down. “Mayfield is good! Ms. White, don’t you like this place?” Frank attempted to sound out Judith’s feelings for Mayfield again

Judith glanced at the bustling street and a bitter smile appeared on her lips. “It’s not that I don’t like it. This place left me with a bit of grief, but now it gave me some hope.” Judith had forgotten what had happened before she was six. She might get back her memory one day. That memory might be hiding in a corner of this city. However, even if she went to ask Julissa, Julissa would not tell her. After all, both Sherly and Julissa were vicious women. But Judith still tried finding her biological parents. At the very least, she wanted to know if their lives were going well At the very least, she wanted to see what her parents looked like. Judith believed that kinship was always the closest relationship in this world. She swore to try every way to find her biological parents. Judith always wondered if she took after her father or her mother. If they saw her, what would they say to her? “As long as there is hope” Frank seldom comforted others, so it was a bit difficult for him to say something inspiring right now. He had been in the abyss and longed for someone who could touch his heart to pull him out of the abyss. In the past few days, Judith had suddenly appeared in his world. From then on, Frank changed a lot. But he would only show his change to Judith. Frank didn’t want Judith to feel worried about anything. He just hoped that Judith could be happy for the rest of her life. Sometimes, even if one was smiling, it didn’t mean that he had forgotten about the painful past. “That’s right. As long as there is hope!” Judith smiled confidently and looked at the blue sky. With three children, Judith believed she would lead a bright life in the years to come.

Frank looked at Judith’s energetic smile, and he also smiled slightly. There was a supermarket nearby. Frank asked Judith to wait for him. He went to buy two bottles of water, unscrewed the cap, and handed a bottle to Judith. “Thank you.” Judith took the water with a smile and glanced at this handsome and elegant man. She suddenly felt that Frank was not as terrifying as how her colleagues had described. Indeed, Frank was indifferent and distant. Considering his identity as the CEO of the Taylor Group, it was quite reasonable that Frank was not so easy to get along with.

Love At First Night Chapter 75

Chapter 75

Judith took a sip of water and asked, “Mr. Taylor, where do you want to go for dinner?” She knew that rich men were used to exotic delicacies. Unfortunately, Judith didn’t think she had enough money to treat Frank to any expensive restaurants. Frank looked at Judith’s pure face. His eyes flashed slightly as he pondered. After a while, the corners of his lips curled up. "Let's go to the restaurant from last time. Its meals are pretty good." Frank and Gary also went to this restaurant many times. Judith was happy to hear that because she could still afford to eat there. "Let's go then! It's just the right time. It's crowded there on the weekend." Judith also liked that restaurant very much.

She couldn't wait to taste the seafood there. That was her favorite. Judith thought, "I'll go there with Adam another day!" "Let's go!" Frank raised his head and drank some water. Judith looked sideways and froze a bit. The moment Frank raised his head, his face looked more intoxicating than ever before. Frank gave others a sense of alienation and indifference, but the light inadvertently shone from his eyes could always steal the heart of the people who looked at him. He was like Apollo. Frank's entire body gave off an oppressive aura as if he was the king, and the others were kneeling down by his feet. Frank was like the sun. When people passed by him, they couldn't help but look at this handsome guy with amazement. Frank suddenly looked at Judith, as if he sensed Judith's stare. His gaze was deep and seemed to carry a sense of attraction, causing people to sink to hell if only he gave the order. Judith stared at Frank for a long time and suddenly realized that she had lost her composure. Judith quickly retracted her gaze, and her face flushed a lot. Her heartbeat also accelerated. She quickly swallowed and felt extremely embarrassed for her loss of composure. Judith lowered her head. She, who had always been confident, did not dare to look at Frank at this moment. She held her bag so tightly that her hand turned pale from nervousness. Gosh! She was attracted to Frank! Judith didn't even know when this feeling came up. Frank smiled evilly as he looked at Judith's blushing face. Her adorable expression was deeply engraved in Frank's heart. The girl's face that he had seen in his childhood overlapped with Judith's current appearance. The shocking similarity made Frank's heartbeat go rapidly, and his eyes lit up with hope. What he needed to do now was wait for Gary to find out everything. During this period, Patrick, who finally compromised, called Frank many times, but Frank did not answer. Frank turned his phone to silent on purpose. Poor Patrick! He just delayed for a few seconds, and he was blacklisted by Frank. In a short period, it would be impossible for Patrick to see Frank again. Although Patrick worked hard, he still made Frank unhappy. More importantly, Patrick made Frank unable to help Judith. After Patrick found out the reason, he almost cried his eyes out. He was regretful. Why didn't he agree much earlier? If he had agreed that earlier, he would even have got a three-story villa from Frank. "Ms. White, I knew you studied in Mayfield for your bachelor's degree. I wonder which primary school you went to." Frank asked casually. Judith suddenly looked at Frank strangely. Why did he ask about this? Frank smiled and explained, "Ms. White, sorry if I offended you. I am just curious." Judith chuckled inwardly, "Wise reason." D She thought for a moment and said, "I lost a part of my memory. I just remember that I studied in Marbleash in primary school. And then I came to Mayfield in junior high school."

Love At First Night Chapter 76

Chapter 76

At that time, Judith already knew that she was not Julissa's biological daughter, but at that time, Judith was still too young, and she was unable to change anything.

She had to study hard and changed her life. With this belief, she had a very great mark on her studies. At least, Judith did not need to be like Sherly, who even had to study from tutors after going back from school. Judith lived with the Cooper family, yet she could never be welcomed by this family. She didn't know the reason until the morning when she heard the conversation between Sherly and Julissa. At the time, Frank was shocked by Judith's words "I lost a part of my memory." He did not speak. Instead, he had a solemn expression on his face. Frank pursed his lips as if he was deep in thought. Even the corners of his eyes, which were usually raised, sank a bit. After walking for a while, Frank asked casually, "Why did you lose your memory?" Judith suddenly stood still, her face pale, her eyes gazing straight ahead. She seemed to be looking at the distance with uncertainty. Unknowingly, the two had arrived at the entrance of the restaurant in Fashion Square. It was just so coincidental. Last time, Judith met Sherly and Julissa right there, and Judith met them again right away

Noticing the frown on Judith's expression, Frank quickly followed her gaze and looked over. When he saw Sherly and Julissa, he instantly remembered what had happened last time. However, Judith's expression was different from the previous time. Judith was no longer afraid, but she was full of confidence.

Frank suddenly looked forward to what Judith would do.

Frank narrowed his eyes and glanced at Sherly and Julissa.

"Mom, look, isn't that Judith? The man standing beside her is Mr. Taylor!" Sherly said in shock as she stared at Judith with her eyes wide open. At first, Sherly thought that she recognized the wrong person. After looking over for a long time, Sherly was sure that the elegant woman standing right there was Judith, who was wearing the most popular white dress this season. Moreover, Judith's every move was full of confidence.

If it weren't for the same facial features, Sherly would not believe that the eye-catching woman was Judith.

In Sherly's impression, Judith always lowered her head, like a yes-man. Julissa also looked at Judith calmly for a while. Suddenly, Julissa sneered. Damn Judith! She had disappeared for seven years, and now she showed up. Julissa was wearing a rose-red suit, which was the most popular suit in the season. Even though she looked evil with this sneer, she still looked noble. Julissa and Sherly walked to Judith side by side. When they walked over, Judith restrained all of her thoughts. She looked at them indifferently and showed a fake smile. Judith exuded a mature charm. "Judith, do you forget I'm your mother? Are you not going to say hello to me after being Mr. Taylor's woman?" Julissa's tone was sharp and her expression carried a clear hint of contempt. Julissa thought, <Judith is an ingrate! A dog is even more grateful than she is.

She shows no respect to me because she is not my biological daughter! "Mr. Taylor, long time no see!" Sherly, who was dressed in sexy clothes, paid all her attention to Frank and looked at him with a gentle smile. Frank lazily narrowed his eyes and nodded indifferently. His gaze fell on Judith's face. At this time, Judith was completely different from just now. All her body was surrounded by a mature aura. Julissa looked at Judith with indifference and did not speak. She frowned and looked at Judith with a sneer. Suddenly, she said something. Her tone became more and more sarcastic. "Judith, you have run away from home for seven years. I'm your mother. Don't tell me you have forgotten this."

Love At First Night Chapter 77

Chapter 77

Judith smiled indifferently, a trace of confusion flashed through her eyes. Her tone was neither fast nor slow. "Madam, have you recognized the wrong person?” Frank was surprised to hear that, but his face remained calm, while the corners of his mouth curled into a meaningful smile.

Julissa and Sherly choked and looked at Judith in disbelief. Sherly looked at Judith in anger and mocked, “Judith, you’re an ingrate! You’ve been relying on the Cooper family for more than ten years and left home for seven years. Now you’re back, but you are even reluctant to admit we are your mother and sister? How hard-hearted you are!” Sherly’s angry face was extremely ugly. The corners of her eyes and her eyebrows slanted, and the wrinkles on her forehead could be seen clearly.

Judith’s eyes were as clear as water. She looked at Sherly with a generous and calm smile. After a long time, Judith curled her lips into a smile. “Ms. Cooper, right?” Sherly was stunned and looked at Judith suspiciously. Judith always acted like a yes-man to please them. She had never been so calm and collected in front of them. Under Judith’s calm smile, Sherly couldn’t help but give a slight nod. Julissa also looked at Judith suspiciously. This face was indeed Judith’s, but the woman in front was even more beautiful and elegant than Judith, If the woman were not Judith, how could she be? How could there be such a similar person with Judith in the world?

The smile on Judith’s face gradually widened, and her clear eyes were covered with a layer of coldness. “I heard that the Cooper family is also rich and noble, but ladies, you don’t seem to be brought up by this family. My name is Judith White. I’m from the White family, not from your Cooper family. Ms. Cooper, you don’t even know who I am and you barked so loudly at me, isn’t that rude?” “You... Who do you think you are? How dare you preach to me?” Sherly blushed from Judith’s words. No one had ever insulted Sherly like this. Judith was the first person who dared to say that to Sherly. Judith had a smile in her eyes. Her voice was light and her smile was calm. Her face was full of confidence. “|| don’t dare to show off in front of you. I just learned a lot from you, Ms. Cooper. I finally know what the demeanor of a noble lady from a rich and powerful family is like.” Since the last time she saw Sherly and Julissa, Judith knew that she would see them again. If she did not grow stronger, how would she take revenge and find her biological parents? Ever since Judith gave birth to her children, she had become stronger day by day. From timidity to her calmness, she had been improving herself and growing mature. It was only now that Judith saw Sherly that Judith realized how much she hated herself seven years ago. To integrate into the Cooper family, she had abandoned her real self and kept doing things that Sherly and Julissa wanted her to do.

Judith had been so timid.

Now Judith thought about it. Why should she copy other people’s lives and change herself into another person? How silly she was back then!
“You bastard...”

“Ms. Cooper, you got the wrong person, and you are still barking at her. Aren’t you going too far? This is the design director of the Taylor Group’s headquarters, Judith White, not Judith Cooper!” Frank’s tone was neither warm nor cold, making others not dare to approach him. As soon as Frank spoke, Sherly changed her expression to a soft and gentle one. When she came back to her senses, Sherly realized that Frank was speaking up for Judith. Sherly could not believe it. “Mr. Taylor, is she really not Judith Cooper? Are you sure that she didn’t change her name and used a false identity to steal the confidential document about the Taylor Group?”

Love At First Night Chapter 78

Chapter 78

Sherly only wanted to tear apart Judith's disguise and spoke out without thinking. Julissa looked at Sherly and frowned. <Why did Sherly have such a big mouth? Judith has lived with the Cooper family for more than ten years. According to the face, she is indeed Judith.

But...!

The smile in Frank's eyes grew colder, and he then gave a chilling smile. "It seems that the Cooper Enterprise wants to get something from my Taylor Group. I'll check it out and see if you placed any spies in my Taylor Group." His words got Julissa taken aback. Julissa's proud face instantly turned pale. She quickly smiled apologetically. "Mr. Taylor, you must be joking. Sherly didn't mean to say that. She is still like a kid. Mr. Taylor, please forgive her. It seems that we really recognized the wrong person. I have a daughter who takes after Ms. White. My daughter has been away from home for many years. I just suddenly thought of her when I saw Ms. White. I miss her too much. Ms. White, please forgive us for our rudeness." As Julissa was about to finish speaking, she looked more and more sorrowful. It seemed that she truly missed Judith. But was that so? Judith looked at Julissa's hypocritical face and sneered. She thought, <Julissa is really talented at acting. It was a pity for her not to be an actress. In this world, only a mean person like Julissa can exchange her adopted daughter for her own interests.!

Judith smiled calmly, but the eyes in her eyes were cold to the extreme. Her voice was neither fast nor slow, and she looked way decent. "Mrs. Cooper, please don't say that. I have always been a generous person. I won't lower myself to the same level as people like you. I hope that the two of you won't make such a mistake again." "Ms. White, we won't." Julissa forced a smile, and darkness and hatred filled her eyes. "Mr. Taylor, we gotta go." Judith didn't want to see these two hypocritical faces again for the rest of her life. "OK!" Frank nodded and walked into the restaurant with Judith without even looking at Sherly and Julissa. Frank stood beside Judith.

His tall and straight figure gave Judith a sense of security. Sherly couldn't hold back her anger anymore. Her chest heaved violently and her breathing accelerated. Sherly looked at Julissa and snapped, "Mom, she is Judith. We didn't recognize the wrong person! Why didn't you expose her? She is with Frank, and it seems that she is going to have dinner with him. I have tried all the tricks, but I can't see Frank even once. If I can marry him, our Cooper family will become the most powerful one in Mayfield."

Julissa glared at Sherly coldly. Julissa also couldn't hold back her rage. "Expose her? How? Frank spoke up for her and said that she was Judith White, not Judith Cooper. What else can I do?" "Mom? Doesn't she have a birthmark or something to prove her identity?" Sherly refused to give up. She swore to expose Judith How could Sherly allow a woman who was prettier than her to exist? "I didn't even bother to look at her since she was a girl. How could I remember if she had a birthmark?" Judith had always been a ticking time bomb in Julissa's heart. Julissa was afraid that one day, she would be imprisoned after Judith remembered what had happened many years ago.

Julissa, on the other hand, had a scruple of Frank. As soon as she thought of this, Julissa quickly glared at Sherly. "Sherl, the business world is also a battlefield. Frank is such a capable businessman. How can you speak in front of him without even thinking? Do you want our Cooper family's hard-won wealth to go to waste?"

Love At First Night Chapter 79

Chapter 79

"Mom! How can you say that about me? I spoke that out because I wanted to slander that bitch. Mom, have you seen that Frank had ever brought a woman for dinner? "He must have felt for the woman that he went out for dinner with." Sherly was still arrogant and angry. Suddenly, she thought of another thing. The design director of the Taylor Group... Julissa furrowed her brows. A hint of deep thought flashed through her eyes. She raised her voice. "By the way, isn't the design director of the Taylor Group Hana? She is one of the best designers in Mayfield. Why did Judith take over this position? Judith shouldn't be capable enough to be the design director of the Taylor Group." Judith was only two years older than Sherly. Sherly remembered clearly that Judith did not have such talent in design. Even after seven years, Sherly did not believe that Judith would be so capable. Julissa was calmer than Sherly. She looked at Judith and Frank who were talking and laughing in the restaurant. In Julissa's impression, Frank had been unapproachable, giving off an indifferent aura all the time, As for Judith, she had been submissive and timid. Julissa had never seen such confidence in Judith in the past. If this woman was really Judith Cooper but pretended not to know Julissa and Sherly, something might go wrong. Julissa's eyes flashed, and the corners of her mouth curled into a sinister sneer. She looked at her angry daughter and slowly said, "Sherly, we don't have to care whether she is Judith Cooper or Judith White. Anyway, she is an ingrate for us. She can't give any benefits to the Cooper family no matter what. "Call Ann now and tell her that Frank is having dinner with the design director of his company. Ann is the apple of the eye of the Chaney family and has a close relationship with the Taylor family. Moreover, Ann wants to . marry Frank. As long as she is involved, Judith won't be able to marry Frank." Sherly raised her eyebrows, her gaze strange as she said with a smile, "Mom, you're so clever. I'll call her now." Sherly quickly took out the phone from her bag and dialed Ann's number. Judith and Frank sat by the window. The two seemed to be chatting, but in fact, they were observing Julissa and Sherly. Seeing Julissa's slightly narrowed eyes, Judith knew Julissa was calculating something. After all, Judith had been too familiar with such gazes in the past. When Julissa gazed like that, she was always plotting against someone. Mayfield was a big city, but the ladies from rich families still found a way to closely link with each other. They had a Line chat group with all the ladies from rich families. Today, Judith and Frank had dinner together. Frank had never gotten so close to other women. Therefore, today's date between Judith and Frank would become the biggest topic for ladies from rich families. Judith had worked hard for six years just to be the biggest shareholder of the Cooper Group. Adam and Alissa had bought the shares of the Cooper Group. As for Judith, she had also placed some money in Adam's account. Once the Cooper family threw their shares, Adam would buy them. When Judith lived with the Cooper family, she had been in fear, wholeheartedly devoting herself to the Cooper family. But what awaited her was an unexpected conspiracy. However, only this would not let Judith hate the Cooper family that much. What she hated the most was that Julissa caused that car accident and made Judith lose her memory. Therefore, Judith had to leave her biological parents. Frank glanced at Julissa and Sherly who were still outside. A strange light flashed in his eyes. After he and Judith entered the restaurant, they did not order anything.

Judith said they should wait for a while. Now Frank seemed to understand the reason. It seemed that Judith had known what Julissa and Sherly were going to do. He looked relaxed and unrestrained. He stared at the mole on Judith's hand from time to time. When he thought of what Judith had just said, his heart pounded heavily with excitement.

Love At First Night Chapter 80

Chapter 80

Judith had lost a part of her memories. Knowing this, Frank got more hopeful. He thought, "Jodie, this time, let me find you, okay?" Frank looked down at Judith from time to time. Judith leisurely drank the water, also looking at Frank from time to time. At the very beginning, she thought that Frank would ask her some questions, but he didn't ask anything about Judith Cooper at all. Instead, he chatted with her about other things. As if it was about time, Frank looked at Judith with a smile in his eyes and said in a clear voice, "Ms. White, do you mind going to another restaurant?"

Judith smiled and nodded. It was exactly what she wanted. Judith smiled and said, "Mr. Taylor, let's go to another restaurant." She understood what Frank meant. Sherly made a call. Even if Judith did not hear what Sherly had said, Judith could also tell what Julisse and Sherly wanted to do. The two of them left without getting noticed by Julissa and Sherly. Frank was not afraid of anyone knowing that he had dinner with Judith. He just didn't want his date with Judith to be disturbed. Frank admitted that he was very interested in Judith, especially that she had always given him the feeling that she was Jodie. Also, Judith was Eric's mother. Considering the two clues, Frank had a feeling that he could no longer let go of Judith Frank took Judith through an alley in Era Plaza, where there was also a wonderful restaurant. There, it had a better environment than the previous one. This time, Frank took Judith straight into a private room. After the two of them ordered the dishes, they continued to chat and wait for the dishes to be served. Frank's Line beeped a few times. He unlocked the screen. It was a message from Gary. Gary had discussed everything with Alissa. Tomorrow morning, Alissa would bring Eric to the company to sign the contract. When Frank saw this message, he gave a faint smile. Gary did a good job this time.

Judith was calm. From time to time, she looked through the window. Outside the window, the roses were blooming beautifully. They swayed gently in the night breeze, charming and moving. When Frank did not take the initiative to talk to her, Judith would not speak. While Frank replied to the message, Judith sat quietly at the side, not disturbing him. Although it was quiet in the room, Judith did not feel depressed at all. On the other hand, when Ann arrived at the restaurant that Sherly mentioned as fast as possible, she did not see Frank and Judith. Ann instantly felt furious and called Sherly at once. Sherly and Julissa went to another restaurant to have their meals. On the second floor, they could clearly see what Frank and Judith were doing. Sherly and Julissa wanted to enjoy a good “show”. But before Sherly and Julissa entered a private room, they received a call from Ann. “Ann!” Sherly answered the call with a smile. She thought Ann was calling back to thank her. However, Ann’s voice sounded sharp and angry from the phone. “Sherly, are you kidding me? Frank and Judith are not here at all!” “How is that possible? When Mom and I left...” Sherly paused. When she left, she did not look back. “Ann, believe me or not. I saw them with my own eyes. I called you out of kindness, but you snapped at me. Aren’t you going too far?” Sherly also had a fiery temper. Ann shouted at her and Sherly instantly lost her cool.
