

Married by Mistake – Chapter 1882

Madeline studied Ada's flustered look and calmly pulled out an object from her pocket.

"Mrs. Gray, can I request that you widen your eyes and take a good look at this. Does it belong to you?"

In unison, all eyes turned to the object which was held between Madeline's fingers and wrapped in plastic. Likewise, Ada immediately turned her gaze toward the object. When she saw the necklace in Madeline's hand, she unconsciously reached up and touched her bare neck.

"Your reaction, Mrs. Gray, confirms that this is indeed your necklace."

"... Eveline, how dare you steal my necklace!" Ada bit back.

However, Madeline was unruffled. She contemptuously eyed Ada, who was still desperately protesting, and calmly walked up to Ada.

"I didn't steal this necklace. I picked it up at the site of the fire the day after it occurred."

Ada fell into a panic at that moment. She had no idea when she had lost the necklace, nor could she recall where she had dropped it.

Nevertheless, the necklace was now in Madeline's hand, and she was claiming that it had been picked up at the site of the fire.

Upon seeing the necklace in Madeline's hand, the police, in a serious expression, asked Ada, "Can you explain about this necklace?"

"This... This isn't my necklace!" Ada simply rejected the claim and denied it.

Madeline, however, smiled. "Do you think you can just deny it by saying so? Forensic scientists can extract the fibrous tissue and fingerprints on the necklace. After a test, we will know who has worn this necklace before."

"..."

Ada had originally thought she could erase any suspicion against her. She had not expected Madeline to bring in forensic scientists.

"What do you think? Should we proceed with a test?" Madeline lifted her eyebrows slightly.

Ada, at a loss of words, could only glare at Madeline.

“Why do you insist on victimizing me, Eveline? Is it because I ruined your wedding with Carter back then?”

Madeline almost laughed out loud when she heard that.

“You have killed people, yet you are asking me now why I’m testifying against you? Don’t you think your question is ridiculous?”

“You... ” Ada gritted her teeth viciously. She was preparing a retort to Madeline when a police officer approached Ada and placed a pair of handcuffs directly on her wrists.

Ada had never been treated this way before. When she saw the handcuffs on her wrists, she began struggling wildly as if she had lost her mind.

The frail disposition she displayed earlier had disappeared.

“What? How dare you arrest me? Do you know who I am? I am the Viscountess!”

“Regardless of your status or position, if you break the law, you will be executed. Don’t waste your breath, Ada.” Madeline delivered a final blow to Ada.

“Eveline... Crawford.”

Ada spat out Madeline’s name word by word through gritted teeth. She clenched her fists and wished she could swallow Madeline alive.

As the situation had progressed to this point, there was nothing Ada’s mother could do. She walked over to Ada and reassured her.

“Don’t be afraid, Ada. Just go with them. Mom will hire the best lawyer to help you!”

It would have been better if she had not said that. The moment Ada heard those words, she seemed to explode like a time bomb all at once!

“Help me? You should help yourself instead! You made me do all this!”

Married by Mistake – Chapter 1883

Ada’s mother had not expected Ada to betray her at such a critical moment. Her eyes widened in disbelief as she stared at the woman in front of her shouting at her.

"This was all your idea! You told me to simply burn Adam to death. You told me that once he was dead, Shirley would never recover! This might anger her so much that the baby in her womb may not survive as well!"

"..."

In lashing all her anger out at her mother, Ada had revealed how Ada had been instructed by her to commit the crime.

"What? So you were the one who instigated her to do this? You two are amazing. Both mother and daughter!" Camille was shocked by what Ada had said.

Ada's mother immediately turned green in the face. She feared that the police would arrest her as well, but she was more afraid that Carter would torture her because of this.

Carter, however, did not make any move despite the rage burning in his eyes. While he may be a malicious person, he would never expose that side of himself in front of the police.

"Madam, please come with us too."

The police officer spoke, pulling out another pair of handcuffs with a stern look on his face, and immediately handcuffed Ada's mother.

"This... No... Officer... This has nothing to do with me. My daughter has gone mad and is now spewing nonsense!" Ada's mother did exactly what Ada had done earlier, flailing her hands around as she spouted absurdities, trying desperately to explain herself.

"If you have anything to explain, you can do it at the police station." The police officers did not allow Ada's mother an opportunity to speak up. They pushed both mother and daughter directly toward the door.

Ada's mother had never felt so disgruntled. She turned her head toward Ada and screamed, "I gave birth to an idiot! I came here to help you, yet you turned the tables on me and betrayed me instead!"

"There's no cure for someone as stupid as you. No wonder Carter despises you. You are a foolish idiot! If the crime is confirmed, I, at most, had given you the idea. But it's different for you. You have killed two people!"

"..."

Ada, stunned by her mother's words, paled significantly. She seemed to just realize how foolish she had been in blurring out all the unnecessary details. However, she could not take back her words now.

“Let’s go, ” the police officer urged.

Ada’s anger had subsided, and she trudged forward lifelessly. Her mother, however, continued to curse, accusing Ada of dragging her into this mess.

Angered and upset, Ada turned her head and scolded, “As my mother, how can you accuse? You taught me to start a fire and kill! You’ve ruined my entire life! I am stupid, and that’s because I have an idiot mother!”

“You...” Her mother’s temper flared, and she raised her hand and slapped Ada across the face.

Ada had not eaten much during that period, plus she had been beaten by the bodyguards, so she had very little energy left. The moment her mother hit her, she lost all her strength and dropped to the ground with a thud.

Ada gritted her teeth angrily. She was struggling to stand up when Madeline walked up to her.

“Actually, I did not find this necklace at the site of the fire. I came here a few days ago and deliberately took it from your room, ” Madeline said calmly, lowering her eyes to see Ada’s expression as it increasingly lost its calm.

“You... Eveline, what did you just say?” Gritting her teeth and clenching her fists, Ada stared at Madeline with a hateful glare.

Indifferent, Madeline continued to stare at Ada. “I’ve used this tactic before. Have you forgotten? It was the same tactic I had used when you framed me for adding peanuts to the soup.”

Ada’s expression froze. Her memory of what happened the last time returned quickly.

At that time, Madeline had also presented Ada’s jewelry and claimed that she found it in the soup. It had been that incident that led to Ada losing all credibility with Camille.

However, she had not expected Madeline to use the same tactic twice!

Ada was fuming. She swiftly leaped up from the ground and attempted to strangle Madeline.
