

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 51: Gloria changed her appearance

As soon as Gloria entered the gate, she asked the bodyguards. "Is Leon at home?"

"He's upstairs."

Taking the tea and refreshments, Gloria went upstairs to find Leon with a good mood.

Which was his room?

She thought about it, as yesterday morning she came out of his room...

After she found the room, she looked around, while it totally looked like the master bedroom.

Kenny was so close to him that Kenny let him live in the master bedroom?

Gloria reached out, knocked at the door, and soon Leon's voice came from inside. "What's the matter?"

His voice sounded low and cold, sounding colder than it usually sounded when he spoke to her.

Gloria said. "It's me, and I brought you the tea and refreshments."

In the room, Kenny was undressing to look at his gunshot wound.

After he asked Gloria to take the bullet out, he went back to the private hospital for a checkup. His life was bought by his mother at the cost of her own life, so he really cherished his life.

He would ask Gloria to help him get the bullet, but that was a matter of expediency.

His wound was healing well, but there was still scar on his body.

As he put on his clothes, he opened the door and saw Gloria standing in the doorway with the packed food boxes.

Gloria just looked up at him, her face looking plain and white, and she held out the packed tea as well as refreshments to him. "Well, here's the food I brought you."

He looking at the packed food boxes, he knew that this was the food that she had brought back from Jin Ding.

He took the food, asking. "Did things go well?"

"Things went well, thank you." Gloria could not help smiling and her bright and beautiful eyes which looked like the cat's eyes, made her look particularly attractive when she smiled slightly.

Kenny responded coldly with a slight movement in his throat. "Okay."

Then he slammed the door.

Gloria."..." Why did she feel that he had just acted as if he was afraid of her?

She turned and went back to her room, where she immediately received a text message from "Leon" with the name of a dish.

Then she received a succession of text messages from him.

Each text message had a dish name.

He should have just said what kind of food he wanted to eat in front of her just now, in case of such a childish behavior. Rich people just didn't care about money.

When she was poor, her phone was shut down for half a year and she couldn't afford the phone bill, not to mention sending text messages so casually...

But when she went downstairs, she found that there had been a more luxurious lifestyle.

...

Gloria had planned to go downstairs in order to see what's in the refrigerator to eat.

When she got to the kitchen, she saw two bodyguards taking food out of the refrigerator.

As she approached, she asked confusedly. "Why are you taking food out of the refrigerator?"

"Since the food was delivered at noon yesterday, the refrigerator needs to be replaced with fresh food today ."

"Why change the food? It's not bad, so it's edible!"

Gloria looked down, the food was still fresh.

The bodyguards looked at each other. "It's always been like this... Change to fresh food every day."

Gloria. "... All right."

When she cooked, the refrigerator was full of food, and she thought someone filled the refrigerator with food every day, but she didn't expect to change to fresh food every day...

When Gloria cooked dinner in the evening, Gloria made the largest portion of each dish.

Since she knew that if she didn't finish the food in a day, it would be changed.

Although she felt it was a luxury to change to fresh food every day, the rich young men had their way of life.

She was in the middle of cooking when she heard the noise outside.

She had just finished another dish, she took it to the table and went out to see what was happening.

There were two men in the living room besides "Leon".

They were Carl and Fu Tingxi.

As "Leon" knew Fu Tingxi, Carl knew Fu Tingxi, which was not surprising.

Carl had good eyesight, so he immediately saw Gloria.

Probably since Carl had shown his true colors during Kenny's illness, so he didn't wear glasses and pretend to be gentle, but looked very enthusiastic, waving to her with a smile.

He looked less gentle, but a little livelier, just like the most mischievous boy in her class at school.

He was the most conspicuous, the most disobedient, and the most agreeable.

Gloria thought he was like a little child.

"Gloria.....Gloria." When Carl got a good look at Gloria, he stuttered.

He turned to Fu Tingxi who was holding out his hand, smiling innocently.

Carl thought Fu Tingxi was smiling hypocritically.

In the afternoon, he and Fu Tingxi argued about Gloria's appearance at the office. Then he decided to come directly with Fu Tingxi to Kenny's house in order to see Gloria.

As it turned out, they weren't blind, but Gloria changed her appearance!

Carl asked lamely. "Why don't you look the same as before?"

"It's probably because the bangs in front of my forehead were too thick before, while my makeup didn't look good."

Gloria seemed to be joking as well as serious when she said these words, and when she finished speaking, she went back to the kitchen after she greeted Fu Tingxi.

Carl looked at her suspiciously, she looked so different now! It didn't look like the same person at all.

As he was lost in thought, he was still watching Gloria after she entered the kitchen.

Kenny walked over, kicked him in the leg, and looked at him coldly. "If you've seen enough, just leave."

Carl put his arms around his leg, screaming with pain. "Kenny, you are so cruel!"

Before Carl finished speaking, Kenny glared at him coldly. Carl suddenly realized what he said, covering his mouth quickly with his hands.

Fortunately, the kitchen was far from the hall, while Gloria was cooking, so she heard nothing.

Carl looked at Kenny in horror. "Your wife didn't hear me!"

"You may leave now." Kenny said, going into the dining room.

Carl smelled the fragrance of food early, and he followed Kenny to the dining room.

Kenny turned, looking at Carl without expression. "You want to go to Africa?"

As he finished speaking, he found that Fu Tingxi had followed him, too.

Fu Tingxi felt Kenny's eyesight, looking down, straightening his cuffs, and looking at his toes, as if nothing had happened. Fu Tingxi pretended not to feel Kenny looking at him, he deliberately ignored that Kenny wanted him to leave.

As there were three hundred and sixty-five days in a year, he ate out at restaurants almost three hundred and sixty-six days. There's home-cooked food to eat, so why would he want to leave now?

He could already smell the fragrance of spicy fish!

Gloria prepared the final dish, the spicy fish, when she brought out the spicy fish, she saw them, the three tall men standing at the door of the dining room without coming in.

She had no idea that they were deadlocked at the door, and that none of them would compromise, while she thought "Leon" was keeping them for dinner.

If he meant to keep them for dinner, why didn't they come in?

Gloria looking at "Leon", asked uncertainly. "Are you going out with your friends or are you going to eat at home? The taste of my simple home-cooked meals is just so-so..."

Carl was from the rich family, while Fu Tingxi seemed to be from the rich family, too. They may be picky eaters, and unlike "Leon", who liked to eat everything, so they might prefer to go to a fancy restaurant.

Carl pushed past Kenny into the dining room, smiling. "I just like simple home-cooked meals."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 52: I would only seduce Kenny

He followed suit, coming in. He smiled politely at Gloria, saying. "Me too."

When he finished, he sat down naturally at the table, while Carl hurriedly sat down beside him.

Only Kenny, who looked very terrible, stood at the door of the restaurant and did not come in.

Gloria, "..."

Why did she feel there was something wrong among them?

Kenny came in with a cold face, sitting down at the table, too.

When Gloria saw this, she was going to the kitchen in order to get two more bowls.

Kenny suddenly kicked the two men opposite him under the table. "As you're eating here, don't you know you're supposed to get your own bowls?"

His own wife should only serve him, so why should his wife serve them?

Carl and Fu Tingxi immediately went to the kitchen to get their bowls.

Gloria gaped as the two men obediently went to the kitchen to get their bowls. She could not see why "Leon", who seemed to eat the bread of idleness, should have ordered two men of such high status to do so... They looked as if they were subservient to "Leon".

That's right, because they gave Gloria the impression that as if they were subservient to "Leon."

Gloria herself sat down at the table.

She had helped herself to some food, and was about to eat it when she heard the clink of chopsticks on the plates.

As soon as she looked up, she saw that the three men were fighting for food. "Leon" in particular went too far, as he would fight them for every dish.

Gloria ate in silence, feeling that she was dining with three kindergartners instead of three tall men.

Fu Tingxi was the first to feel Gloria watching them, and he said apologetically. "I'm sorry to embarrass Gloria, and since I haven't been home for three years, I haven't had a home-cooked meal in a long time."

Carl said quickly. "I'm too busy at work, so I eat takeout every day."

Kenny. "Don't listen to them."

Carl and Fu Tingxi lowering their heads at the same time, ate without making a sound.

In Gloria's eyes, it's like that Leon was bullying them.

She nudged Leon with her elbow and when he turned to look at her, she said to him. "Now that you've kept them for dinner, don't be so fussed. Let's have a good meal."

When did he want to keep them for dinner?

Kenny sneered, looked at the two men sitting opposite him and his voice sounded grim. "You must eat well, and eat more."

Gloria's hand trembling uncontrollably, why did she think these men might fight anytime?

...

Gloria thought the atmosphere among them was strange, so she went into the living room after she finished eating.

She didn't understand these men.

As soon as Gloria left, on the contrary, in the dining room, the atmosphere among them became harmonious again.

Carl finally found the opportunity to ask his own question. "Gloria, she's like... What's the matter with her?"

Kenny glanced at him coldly.

Carl made a zipper to shut up, and then he immediately became silent.

Fu Tingxi was a very calm person by nature. Since he has been with Carl for a long time, he became lively sometimes, but when it came to business, he still looked serious.

He didn't just stay for dinner today, as he had other things to say.

Fu Tingxi looked serious. "There was indeed a problem with Loren's share transfer contract to Gloria, since there are very low-level flaws in this share transfer contract."

Kenny sneered. "Loren made good use of his smug calculation, but Gloria was not so easy to deceive. When she goes to work in the Taylor's Group, she will definitely make a real mess for the Taylor's Group, so sooner or later they will bring back the Taylor's old master, letting him control the overall situation"

Not long after he and his mother had been kidnapped and rescued, the Clarke's and the Taylor's, these two families suddenly made the engagement, while the Taylor's Old Master was no longer the chairman of the Taylor's Group, and then he went abroad for retirement.

In terms of background, even if Kenny was disfigured and sexually impotent, the women born in the Taylor's would not be eligible to be his fiancée.

As the engagement was so coincidental, and things seemed so out of whack, he suspected they were related to his abduction with his mother more than a decade ago. So when Randy asked him to get married, he said yes without any objection.

According to his original plan, he would find an entry point from his fiancée, Anne, using it to investigate the Taylor's Group.

Whereas he didn't realize that Gloria was going to marry him. Gloria was a woman who kept secrets, looking a little smart as well as a little silly.

Kenny leaning back, there was a hint of helplessness in his eyes.

Gloria cooked the same meals as his mother did, so he couldn't resist getting closer to her, a little closer...

Carl knocked on the table a few times, saying. "I think you could just bring back the Taylor's old Master."

"No, that would beat the grass and frighten away the snake--act rashly and alert the enemy." Kenny looked determined. "As the Taylor's old master went abroad to retire suddenly, there must be something fishy about it. Fifteen years have passed, so I don't care to wait a few more days. I am going to find out who was involved in that kidnapping, and find them all."

Find them all? And then what?

Kenny didn't say anything more, but Carl knew Kenny wouldn't let them go.

He suspected that some people of the Clarke's conspired with the kidnappers in the kidnapping. When the kidnapping was over, he kept guessing, and this was his conclusion, based on the clues of that year.

...

Monday

Gloria's going to work for the Taylor's Group.

She did not care at all what position Loren would give her, as she had shares and was not afraid of anything.

Now that she had stopped pretending, she did not have to wear the clothes she had worn before.

There was no girl who didn't love to be beautiful.

She had nice clothes, too, which she bought herself, while Edith bought a lot for her.

Edith's family had a lot of money, and in high school, Edith was the school bully. There were a lot of people who hung out with her, while there were a lot of people who hated her, and most of them were girls.

The way girls dealt with the girl they dislike was naturally low and full of malice.

They took Edith when she was alone, and they took her into an abandoned building, trying to beat her. They made Edith bark like a dog, took Edith's clothes off and then took pictures...

Gloria was going to feed the stray cats, and when Gloria heard the noise, Gloria picked up a rusty cement knife, went over, and threatened them. "A person with mental illness can kill a man and not be locked up."

The girls turned so pale with fright that they all ran away at once.

Then Edith and she became friends for many years.

Gloria picking out a red coat, under the red coat she was wearing a black sweater, and she had on a pair of black shoes, making her look fresh and spirited.

She came downstairs with her bag, and she saw "Leon", who had a cup of coffee in his hand, reading the newspaper.

He looking up at the sound of footsteps, he saw Gloria at once. She was wearing a red coat, which made her skin look whiter. She looked beautiful with bright eyes and red lips, while her long hair was as smooth as the waterfall.

Her red coat was an inch above her knees, revealing her slender and shapely legs.

She looked slender, luscious and beautiful.

Kenny looking at her for a few seconds, his eyes narrowed as his voice sounded dissatisfied. "You want to go out and seduce other men while my cousin is away."

What he said did not sound like a question, but a statement.

When Gloria looked in the mirror, she thought she looked good in her outfit, so she's in a good mood now.

She walked up to him, looked condescending, and she looked at him scornfully. "If I were to seduce, I'd seduce Kenny, and you mustn't think me so dirty all the time."

When Kenny heard this, he couldn't stop shaking and the coffee spilled over his suit.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 53 Did She Have A Plastic Surgery

Gloria saw this, raised her eyebrows and provoked him again, "You can't even hold a cup of coffee. Is there something wrong with your kidney?"

Kenny pressed his lips and put the coffee cup on the coffee table. He didn't wipe the coffee stains on his clothes. He remained calm and composed and said, "You'll know after we have a try."

Gloria lifted her hair, looked at him and turned to walk towards the door. With a slightly haughty voice, she said, "Perish the thought!"

Kenny, "..."

Was she having some kind of death wish?

Gloria went out of the villa, patted her chest and took a long breath.

The enemy was like a spring. If you were weak, he would be strong!

After arguing with "Leon" with an easy conscience, she felt like she was invincible in the world.

"Leon" was not so horrible!

If she was threatened by him again, she would be a real coward!

...

Gloria went to the Taylor Group by car.

When she was very young, she followed Anne to the Taylor Group once. After she grew up, every time she passed by, she just stood outside and had a look at it.

Once upon a time, her greatest wish was that Tina could love her more and pay more attention to her. She never wanted to enter the Taylor Group and take shares.

She never thought that the day would come when she would be invited back to work at the Taylor Group by Loren.

She took a deep breath, raised her chin slightly, lifted her feet and walked in.

Gloria, on her first day here and without a work permit, was stopped by the lady at the front desk as soon as she entered, "Miss, who are you looking for?"

Gloria turned to look at her and smiled. Her cat eyes were like stars, "Gloria Taylor, here to work."

Taylor? The receptionists looked at each other.

"Who's this?" Anne's voice sounded behind her.

Then there was the sound of high heels. They were tapping closer and closer.

When Anne came to her and saw her face clearly, she widened her eyes in shock, even her voice changed, "Who, who are you!"

"Sister, I'm Gloria. Can't you recognize me?" Gloria's voice was so soft. But for Anne, it was full of an inexplicable sense of gloom.

Anne subconsciously took two steps back, "How did you become like this?"

"I've always been like this. Sister, have a good look at me. I'm your sister. If you can't recognize me, will others laugh at you when I tell them about this?"

Gloria pressed closer to Anne as she spoke.

Anne was still immersed in the shock of Gloria's appearance change. When Gloria moved forward, she stepped back passively.

Anne naturally knew that those people didn't succeed at Zijin club that day.

But she didn't believe it. She arranged it perfectly. How could Gloria escape?

So she told Tina to ask Gloria out for dinner. She wanted to see if Gloria was really OK.

And these receptionists who saw this aside were too shocked to close their mouths.

It was said that the third young lady of the Taylor family was ugly and stupid. Did she have a plastic surgery abroad and then come back?

The second young lady, who was usually so domineering in the company, seemed to be a little afraid of the third young lady?

Anne returned to her senses, forced down her anger and unwillingness, and said, "You are my sister. I love you so much that I could even give my fiancé to you. How can I not recognize you?"

Oh, she used to buy top search online and said Gloria took her fiancé away. At the time, she said she give her fiancé to Gloria.

Gloria replied with a friendly smile, "Thank you for being so generous and letting me marry such an excellent man."

"You!" Anne had always been overbearing in front of Gloria. Seeing Gloria's proud look, she wished to peel Gloria's skin off.

Gloria reached for Anne's arm with an affectionate look. And the smile on her face remained unchanged, "Sister, let's go upstairs. Don't let dad wait long."

They were in the company, and there were employees here. If they quarreled, it would have a bad influence.

Anne didn't say anything. She turned around and went to the elevator.

However, before they went far, she heard several receptionists behind them talking about which one of them looked more beautiful.

"I think the third young lady is pretty. Did she have any plastic surgery?"

"But she doesn't look like she's had plastic surgery!"

"If not, she is much prettier than the second Miss!"

When Anne heard this, she was so angry that she shook Gloria's arm off. She looked at Gloria, as if she was looking at something dirty, "Don't touch me with your hands!"

Gloria reached out and brushed her arm, as if there were dirt on it, "Okay."

She felt that Anne was disgusting. It was okay that Anne fooled around outside, but she even had promiscuity.

Anne got angry when she saw her movements, but when she thought of what Loren said, she had to hold her anger back.

Out of the elevator, they went to Loren's office together.

Although Loren didn't like Gloria either, he smiled and said, "Gloria, you are here."

Anne was not happy with that Loren was so gentle with Gloria. She made a cup of tea for Loren and put it heavily in front of him to express her dissatisfaction.

Gloria saw it totally and thought it was funny. Anne could even hardly retain one's composure.

"Dad, what position are you going to give me?" Gloria sat down across from him, with a very soft and sensible expression.

Before Loren could speak, Anne said, "I know that the marketing department lacks a market researcher. I think you are also very willing to take the challenge, so you can do that."

Gloria took a look at her and said lightly, "But I'm not very willing to take challenges. I want an easy job."

She was in film school before, and of course she couldn't do the job about marketing.

But she also knew that it must be laborious to do market research.

"Gloria, you are young and really need to be trained. You can try it first. If it's not suitable, you can tell me." Loren's words sound good on the surface. In fact, he had made up his mind to let her work in the marketing department.

He and Anne were too familiar with Gloria, who was very obedient and always pocketed insults before, so they wanted to run her down.

Gloria understood this simple trick at a glance.

Gloria said gratefully, "In that case, thank you for your kindness."

"Anne, take Gloria to the marketing department." Loren finished speaking, and then looked down at the document.

Anne thought of the hardship that Gloria was about to go through, forced down her pride, pretended to be calm and said, "Come with me."

Gloria was a little puzzled about how much humble she used to be in the Taylor family, so that they still thought that they could do whatever they wanted to her?

Let her go to the marketing department to be the low-level market researcher? She just thanked Loren for his "kindness". Did she say she would work hard?

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 54: I'll pick you up

Anne Taylor directly took Gloria Taylor to the marketing manager's office.

The marketing manager was a middle-aged and bald man. He smiled and squinted as soon as he saw Anne Taylor, he looked very nauseous.

"What's the matter, lady?"

Anne Taylor hugged her arms and nodded him to look at Gloria Taylor: "This is a new market researcher. You are in charge of her and take good care of her."

She said 'take good care', but Anne Taylor treated Gloria Taylor indifferently.

The marketing manager thought he had grasped the key: "I will take good care of her."

"I'm assure about you." Anne Taylor darted a look at Gloria Taylor after speaking, and then turned away.

Anne Taylor's words made the manager more convinced. The "care" Anne Taylor said was the care he had realized.

"Goodbye!" The manager looked at her back smilingly, and turned around to look at Gloria Taylor seriously: "What's your name."

"Gloria Taylor."

The manager sat down on his seat, and he began to look Gloria Taylor up and down.

His eyeballs almost fell out. He kept peered at Gloria Taylor : "Taylor? Do you have relationship with chairman?"

Gloria Taylor felt disgusted and said coldly, "Yes,a little bit."

The manager was a loser who fawned on his boss. No wonder the development of Taylor's had been very ordinary for so many years.

So it meant that the relationship was not close.

The manager thought he had figured out the situation and smiled dirtily:
"Work hard, and I'll be nice to you."

He deliberately aggravated the word "nice", Gloria Taylor felt more disgusted.

But she didn't say anything. She was taken to the work area.

After introducing herself, Gloria Taylor sat down and felt that colleagues around her were still looking at her.

They were curious because this beautiful colleague was brought here by lady Anne.

Gloria Taylor didn't care. She had nothing to sort out. She took a photo and sent it to Edith Hall as soon as she sat down.

Gloria Taylor: I start to work at Taylor's.

Edith Hall: What is your position? Vice President?

Gloria Taylor: Market researcher.

Edith Hall: [an interrogative emoji], You might as well be my assistant, and I will give you an annual salary of 500,000.

Er

Gloria Taylor almost had a loud laugh. How did Edith Hall say such funny words ?

Someone told her: "Gloria Taylor, manager asked you to go to his office. He has something to tell you."

Gloria Taylor said smilingly, "I see. Thank you."

The colleague began to speak and then hesitated, and looked at her worriedly .

Gloria Taylor was not afraid at all. She knew that manager was a randy and useless sycophant.

Besides, she was prepared.

...

Gloria Taylor knocked on the door and entered the manager's office.

"Gloria, come in. This is the data I have sorted out. You take and have a look later."

'Gloria'? It was too close he called.

"Thank you." Gloria Taylor reached to take up the document.

But the manager suddenly touched her hand: "Don't hurry, let's talk about work first."

Gloria Taylor tried to take back her hand quietly, but the manager grabbed her hand at once: "Sit next to me, we can talk closely."

Gloria Taylor looked cold: "Sir, please loosen my hand."

The manager thought that he had hinted Gloria Taylor much, but he didn't expect Gloria Taylor was so tactless.

He was angry and pulled Gloria Taylor to him heavily. He put his arm around her waist and said impatiently, "You also heard what the lady said before. If you obey me, I will be nice to you. "

"Oh?" Gloria Taylor looked at him with a smile, and reached into the pocket.

The manager thought that she had yielded. He wanted to kiss her but before he got close, he felt numb. His eyes glared widely, pointed at her and screamed, "You..." then he fell down with a loud sound.

Gloria Taylor put the defensive spray away, stepped on the manager's body, and swaggered out with the document.

She had learned from what happened in the Zijin Club.

Colleagues were surprised when they saw her coming out so quickly.

Gloria Taylor just smiled to answer their surprises.

As soon as she sat down, the phone rang.

The number was a bit familiar but a bit strange.

She didn't want to pick up, but she finally answered the phone when she thought of she had to face this man everyday. "What's the matter?"

Kenny Clarke felt her indifference in her tone, and suddenly regretted he shouldn't pretend her cousin at that time.

However, if she knew that he was Kenny Clarke in the beginning, it maybe no such interesting things what happened later.

Kenny Clarke's tone was the same as usual: "How about your first day?"

Gloria Taylor paused when she was flipping through the document. Did he call to care about her situation?

Gloria Taylor closed it and asked him: "This is your purpose for this call?"

"Don't forget that you owe me a dinner. No time like the present. Today is best. I will pick you up later." When he finished speaking, Kenny Clarke hung up the phone directly without giving her any chance to refuse.

Gloria Taylor felt doubtful. She refuted "Leon Clarke " in the morning. He should be angry and try to rectify her according to his manner.

But his tone was calm as if there was nothing happened.

It made her a little flustered.

"Hurry, manager fainted."

The manager's office was not far from Gloria Taylor's work area. Gloria Taylor looked up and saw a woman standing in the door asking for help.

Gloria Taylor lowered her head and wanted them to ignore her.

Finally, the manager was taken to the hospital.

Gloria Taylor touched defensive spray in her pocket. It was really great. It could send the bald man to the hospital directly.

The manager didn't come back after being in hospital. Gloria Taylor had a peaceful day.

When she got off work, Gloria Taylor met Anne Taylor at the elevator.

Gloria Taylor had viewed the data for a day and was a little tired. She didn't have the energy to fight Anne Taylor again, so she stepped aside to let the others go first.

Anne Taylor didn't enter the elevator either. After others left, there were only them.

No one spoke first.

After entering the elevator, Anne Taylor turned to look at her and asked her casually, "Do you have a driver to pick you up? If you don't, I can give you a lift because Colin and I have a dinner later."

Gloria Taylor heard and looked at Anne Taylor surprisingly.

Did Anne Taylor and Colin Hall make up?

Anne Taylor knew Gloria Taylor was looking at her, so she raised her chin complacently.

"No." Gloria Taylor just thought of 'Leon' would pick her up after she finished speaking.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 55 What do you think of the Clarke?

Anne Taylor and Tina Walker had always misunderstood that she had an affair with 'Leon Clarke'. If Anne Taylor saw 'Leon Clarke' pick her up, it would be in trouble...

It was a real headache for her.

Anne Taylor went out first when the elevator arrived. Gloria Taylor waited for a few minutes and then called 'Leon Clarke'.

He answered quickly, and he had asked before Gloria Taylor spoke, "Unwilling to treat me, so you sneaked with the black card?"

Gloria Taylor : "... " A filthy mouth cannot utter decent language!

Wait a minute.....

"Where are you now?" Gloria Taylor doubted carefully that he had already arrived, otherwise how could he say "sneak"!

Kenny Clarke raised his eyes and looked at Taylor's: "Taylor group's gate. Hurry up if you don't sneak. There is no seat if you are late."

After finishing speaking concisely, he hung up the phone.

Gloria Taylor called him again, but he hung up directly.

She had no choice but walk out after dawdling, and she hoped that Anne Taylor and Colin Hall had already left.

If Anne Taylor saw 'Leon Clarke' pick her up, she might spread the rumors that she was lack in virtue and fooled around with her husband's cousin.

Although Kenny Clarke's attitude had eased a little recently, he had a better relationship with his cousin Leon. If she had a scandal with 'Leon Clarke', there was no doubt that Kenny Clarke would not believe her.

Unfortunately, when she walked out, Anne Taylor and Colin Hall had not left.

Colin Hall's car stopped at the gate, Anne Taylor lowered the car window, sat in the car and called her: "Gloria, we will take you on a ride."

Gloria Taylor knew Anne Taylor wanted to show off they made up again.

Gloria Taylor smiled stiffly: "No thanks, we are out of our way."

Colin Hall opened the door and got out of the car at this time, looking at the direction of Gloria Taylor: "Gloria Taylor, don't ..."

When he saw Gloria Taylor's appearance clearly, he was stunned. He looked surprised in a flash. Anne Taylor called his name reproachfully, and then he came to himself, continuing saying: "Come on, don't be so polite. I will send you back."

He said to give me a ride just now, but it changed to send me back.

Gloria Taylor tickled her lips sarcastically and was about to speak, but suddenly, a big sound of closing the car door came over.

She turned around, seeing 'Leon Clarke's slender figure coming towards her.

Colin Hall and Anne Taylor discovered that a black Bentley had been parked next to them.

Most of men loved cars. Bentley's model was smooth and graceful, which attracted Colin's eyesight. With that, he found it was the Bentley Elegant 728, which had been sold out and discontinued a few years ago. It was a customized.

The price was at least 10 million. And it would be made according to the requirements of the owner. Moreover, every car had a different price. According to his profession, the price of this car was at least 20 million.

Colin Hall knew the most of the wealth young masters in Huyang City, but he didn't know the man who walked towards Gloria Taylor.

Kenny Clarke walked to Gloria Taylor, looked at her, then turned to Colin Hall. His tone was indifferent but very imposing: "Sir, are you looking down our Clarke that we even need another man to send our young lady home?"

Colin Hall was shocked, this man was a member of the Clarke?

But it's said that Kenny Clarke was disable? Who was the handsome man in front of him?

Anne Taylor reminded him: "This is Kenny Clarke's cousin, 'Leon Clarke'."

Colin Hall sneered when he heard that "How do you know him?"

Anne Taylor bled when they first sexed, so he thought it was her first time. When the indecent video was shown public, he finally knew that she repaired hymen. There was no true love!

But he had to be tied up with Anne Taylor for some reasons.

Colin Hall depressed the disgust to Anne Taylor and turned his head and said, "Mr. Clarke, don't misunderstand. I am Gloria's friend. I just wanted to give her a ride."

"Really?" Kenny Clarke turned to look at Gloria Taylor.

Gloria Taylor naturally helped 'Leon Clarke': "Not on my way."

Kenny Clarke was very satisfied with her cooperation. His expression did not change much, but there was a smile on her eyes: "Since that, let's go first."

Until Kenny and Gloria got in the car, Colin Hall didn't take his gaze back.

Why did Gloria Taylor suddenly become so beautiful?

Even if she really did a facelift, there were not many days before he saw her last time. She could not recover so quickly.

This only showed that she was beautiful originally.

Why did she...

Anne Taylor just wanted to show off that she and Colin Hall had made up, but she forgot that Gloria Taylor became beautiful today and it would attract Colin Hall's attention.

Anne Taylor was angry, and sneered at Colin Halls: "What are you looking, she is the mistress of the Clarke!"

Colin Hall was stimulated by her words and looked at her angrily: "Shut up!"

...

The car was quiet.

Gloria Taylor sent WeChat to Edith Hall.

She told Edith Hall that Colin Hall and Anne Taylor had made up.

Edith Hall sent a shocked emoji: I never expected that there would be such a cuckold in the Hall! Amazing!

She recently filmed a costume drama, so her tone was a little dramatic.

Gloria Taylor felt that it might be Anne Taylor who caught Colin Hall's shortage, so Colin Hall was forced to make up with her.

After all, Colin Hall was a man who cared about his face so much. How could he be a cuckold willingly ?

She told Edith Hall her thought. Before Edith replied, the car had stopped.

As soon as Gloria Taylor unbuckled the seat belt and got out of the car, she saw Anne Taylor and Colin Hall getting off from the next car.

"..." There was a saying, it was a small world!

Colin Hall saw Gloria Taylor and was about to say something, but he was pulled away by Anne Taylor.

Gloria Taylor could not figure out what could let Colin Hall be willing to mess up with Anne Taylor. He was such a face-saving man,

The somber voice of 'Leon Clarke' sounded in her ear: "He has gone away, follow him to attach your eyes on him if you want."

When Gloria Taylor looked back, 'Leon Clarke' had turned and walked towards Jinding.

His legs were long. He walked so fast that Gloria Taylor caught up with him by running: "What the hell are you talking!"

"Colin Hall." Kenny Clarke stopped and glanced at her lightly.

Gloria Taylor was shivered by his gaze.

"Do you know him?" Gloria Taylor reacted and followed him. Suddenly, something popped into her mind. Then she grabbed his arm: "You investigated me!"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 56 Throw it away if you don't want

Kenny Clarke lowered his head and glanced at her slender and white fingers clasped on his arm. He didn't break free, but just said deeply: "Shouldn't I investigate you? Do you really think that our family can bear to be fooled at will by your family?"

His expression was rarely serious, Gloria Taylor wanted to shiver again.

Since the first day that Gloria Taylor entered the Clarke, Kenny had sent someone to investigate her clearly, and it was natural to know she liked Colin Hall.

As for her pretending to be silly and ugly, it couldn't be found because she took too long time to mask.

Gloria Taylor was stunned for a moment, and she couldn't help but be serious: "Kenny Clarke asked you to check?"

"Or else?" Kenny Clarke turned around and stood face to face with her, looking down at her.

Seeing her being scared, he didn't say any more and went into Jinding.

Kenny Clarke originally wanted to have meal in the box, but Gloria Taylor thought that he was not good-hearted, so she asked to be in the hall.

So the two finally found a table by the window in the hall and sat down.

After ordering, Gloria Taylor asked 'Leon Clarke': "When will your cousin come back?"

"I don't know."

After Kenny Clarke finished speaking and seeing that Gloria Taylor doesn't trust him, he put his arms around his chest, looked at her with a poker face and said, "Even if I know when he will come back, it is necessary to tell you his itinerary?"

It seems reasonable...

Gloria Taylor lowered her head and fiddled with the phone in her hand.

It was an unintended action to send her mobile phone, his whereabouts was a secret, so he naturally did not want others to know his itinerary.

Gloria Taylor thought and exclaimed that Kenny Clarke actually lived quite hard.

Kenny Clarke, who was living very hard, glanced at opposite Gloria Taylor, and saw her frown and "sad". He thought that his words were too cruel and reported a series of numbers after thinking.

Gloria Taylor looked confused: "What?"

Kenny Clarke slightly frowned, and seemed impatient: "Cousin's phone number."

Gloria Taylor suddenly became excited, and quickly opened the phone's address book to prepare to write down it : "Could you please repeat it?"

Kenny Clarke saw her so happy, and said it again patiently.

"Thank you!" Gloria Taylor saved the number and asked him with a smile: "Do you want to order a few more dishes."

Kenny looked indifferent: "No."

He was in front of her, but he couldn't directly tell her that he was Kenny Clarke.

The sudden distress made him gloomy throughout the meal.

However, Gloria Taylor didn't care about his expression, she was thinking about calling or texting him later.

It was better to send a message? Was it embarrassing to call him?

She felt that it was possible that he would hang up her phone and put her into blacklist.

After they had finished their dinner, Gloria Taylor and Kenny Clarke stood up and left. The exit was at the counter, and she went to pay the bill.

When she was paying the bill, he met Colin Hall and Anne Taylor again.

Colin Hall smiled at Gloria Taylor tenderly: "Gloria"

Gloria Taylor nodded and she was not willing to talk with him.

Anne Taylor watched them flirt with each other and gnashed her teeth with hatred, but she insisted on pulling a smile: "Colin Hall, pay the bill for Gloria by the way."

"No, I already paid it."

After Gloria Taylor finished speaking, the cashier handed back the black card respectfully to Gloria Taylor: "Please put your card back, lady."

Cashier's voice caught Anne Taylor and Colin Hall's attention.

Gloria Taylor took over the card: "Thank you."

The two were shocked when they saw the black card in her hand.

As a top giant, Clarke's industry has countless industries, including banks, exclusive global limited black cards, and only the person who was important status in Clarke's family could have it.

Although Gloria Taylor took the vice card, it was enough to show the importance that the Clarke attached to her.

Gloria Taylor looked at their expressions and looked down at the black card in her hand.

This black card seemed very awesome.

Gloria Taylor said to them calmly, "We have to go first."

As soon as they returned to the car, Gloria Taylor asked 'Leon Clarke': "What is this card indeed?"

Kenny Clarke answered simply and directly: "It's for shopping."

Gloria Taylor intuitively felt that 'Leon Clarke' was bluffing her. She felt that the black card in her hand was just like hot potato, she immediately gave the card to 'Leon Clarke': "I have treated you, so I should give it back to you now."

Kenny Clarke glanced at her coldly and threw the card back again.

"What are you doing?" Gloria Taylor returned to him again.

Kenny Clarke directly picked it up and threw it out of the window. The tone was calm and indifferent as if to comment today's dished: "Throw it away if you don't want."

Gloria Taylor opened the car door and got out to pick up the card.

She did not dare to give the card to 'Leon Clarke' anymore nor provoke this man.

It was no big deal that she could give the black card to Kenny Clarke when he came back.

The next day.

Gloria Taylor took the bus to Taylor's because the taxi was too expensive.

As soon as she got off the bus, she saw a person who she didn't want to see.

Colin Hall walked towards her: "Gloria."

Gloria Taylor walked two steps back: "What's the matter?"

Colin Hall didn't seem to be aware of her coldness, and he looked disappointed in his eyes, adding a little gentle melancholy: "I just want to see you and say something to you."

Compared with him, Gloria Taylor's attitude was much more indifferent: "You have said two sentences now. I have to go to work, so I will go first."

She used to like Colin Hall, but it was because she was puzzled by jerk. She added filters to Colin Hall automatically, so she thought he was good everywhere.

Now she removed the filter, Colin Hall only had one identity for her that was Anne Taylor's boyfriend.

Colin Hall smiled self-deprecatingly, and his tone was sad: "He treats you well, and I'm relieved."

Gloria Taylor: "...". Tina Walker would not say such words to her. She did not know how did Colin Hall have courage to say such words to her?

"If you are so free, go to the hospital to see a doctor." His brain must have been broken.

Colin Hall looked at Gloria Taylor's leaving figure, the loss on his face gradually converged away and showed an imperative expression.

Gloria Taylor was so indifferent must because she wanted to avoid the troubles. She had liked him for so many years. It was impossible to change easily.

Kenny Clarke could give Gloria Taylor limited black cards, so he definitely treated her very well.

His family had been going downhill in recent years, as long as he coaxed Gloria Taylor and let her say something good to Kenny, so that Kenny would support the Shen. Then the situation of his family could get better.

...

Gloria Taylor arrived in the lattice room, as soon as she sat down, Anne Taylor came in, too.

She could not cover the malicious pleasure in her eyes: "Dad asked you to his office."

"Did he say anything?" Gloria Taylor picked up the phone and looked at her.

Anne Taylor obviously wouldn't say : "No."

Gloria Taylor saw the marketing manager who was stunned by her with a wolf stunner yesterday when she got into the office.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 57 You Have Got What You Want

Gloria raised her feet and went in. She left the door a crack on purpose. She smiled innocently, "Manager Sun, you have left hospital? I was going to visit you in the hospital today."

The marketing manager, whose name was Sun Zhenghua, had already married and had a daughter. His wife was very fierce and tough. Before, after Sun Zhenghua had an affair with his female colleague in the company, she came to the company to beat him up.

Since then, everyone in the company knew that Sun Zhenghua was afraid of his wife.

Yesterday, she offended the Department Manager on her first day at work. Naturally, she had to do some preparatory work.

When Sun Zhenghua saw Gloria, the muscles on his face twitched. The woman looked weak, but unexpectedly she was not a pushover.

He had worked in the company for more than ten years. Could he be bullied by a little girl like her?

A trace of sinister showed in Sun Zhenghua's eyes. He looked away and ignored Gloria.

Gloria, of course, didn't care. She went straight to Loren and said, "Dad, what's the matter?"

Although she understood that Loren and Anne just wanted to give vent to their pent-up dissatisfaction, she had to pretend that she didn't know it.

Loren, with a cold face and a stern voice, said, "Gloria, if you are not satisfied with the work I arranged for you, you can come to me directly and tell me. Why did you vent your anger on manager Sun? If it spread out, others will think my daughter is domineering in the company! It will affect our corporate image!"

While he was talking, Gloria didn't interrupt him to try to explain, but listened carefully, pretending to be surprised and saying, "It sounds like the consequences are serious."

Anne snorted coldly, "Then apologize to manager Sun since you know that!"

Gloria ignored Anne completely, but turned to Loren and said seriously, "Dad, since you mentioned the corporate image, has sister taken good care of her business? A few days ago, someone said on the Internet that they saw sister go to the Zijin club for the party again."

Anne blanched at her words and opened her mouth to justify herself, "Dad, I..."

Gloria interrupted, smiled and said, "Of course I know that my sister is not that kind of person. How can my sister go to Zijin club? I think it must be a competitor in the industry. They deliberately spread rumors to frame her. But as the saying goes, father is to blame for his son's faults. Others will think that you didn't educate her well, so they may think that the Taylor Group is a less decent enterprise."

Gloria said it seriously. She almost convinced herself.

The topic of Anne's indecent videos and photos was suppressed by Loren on the day when it was on the top search.

But later, it was in the top search for a day or a night. Loren exhausted his connections and couldn't press it down. He had to wait for the hot search to subside before buying over the workers of the application to delete Anne's videos and photos.

These days, the heat of the topic subsided a lot. But Loren didn't expect Anne to go to Zijin club again!

Gloria's words successfully diverted Loren's attention. Although he also wanted to hold Gloria down, it was more important for him to deal with Anne's matter.

Loren's look was cold, "You go out first!"

Gloria took the lead in going out. Although Sun Zhenghua was a little reluctant, he also knew that Loren was going to deal with family matters, so he had to go out immediately.

As soon as he went out, he saw Gloria standing outside with her arms folded.

Gloria curved her lips. The smile didn't reach the bottom of her eyes. Her white face was a little cold, "Manager Sun, the chairman said I vent my anger on you. You said that yourself?"

As soon as Sun Zhenghua saw Gloria's cold and gorgeous appearance, he felt like something was tickling him.

He was not tall. Standing in front of Gloria, he had no height advantage, so he could only raise his chin to strengthen his momentum, "Wait and see after the chairman finishes handling his family affairs. If you beg me now, I may be able to intercede for you and let the chairman let you go."

Gloria's smile deepened. Sun Zhenghua thought that she was afraid and wanted to please him, so he was very proud.

At this time, he saw Gloria raised her foot suddenly. He had a bad hunch then. At the next moment, he covered his crotch and screamed, "Ouch -"

Gloria snorted coldly, took out a paper towel and wiped her shoe, saying, "You said, I vent my anger on you, and now you've got what you want."

Sun Zhenghua turned pale with pain. He pointed at her and couldn't speak clearly, "You... I... "

Gloria used to live in the slums for more than half a year. Sometimes when she went back at night, she would meet some hooligans. Although she was ugly at that time, she was a woman after all. Naturally, she was harassed sometimes.

So she was never afraid of being harassed.

People would normally choose to put up with this kind of workplace harassment, and by the same token, it was impossible for Sun Zhenghua to talk about it publicly even though she had taught him a lesson, so he could only endure it.

However, she was sure that Sun Zhenghua wouldn't let it go.

On the other side, the chairman's office.

After Gloria and Sun Zhenghua left, Loren said angrily to Anne, "What did I tell you before? I told you not to make trouble recently. But you still went to Zijin club! Have you ever taken my words seriously!"

"Dad!" Anne also didn't expect Gloria to put her on the spot. She said anxiously, "Those are all my friends. Their families are powerful and influential. Maybe they can do us favors in the future. If I never go to their party, they may not hang out with me. Then I will miss a lot of opportunities..."

"Hum! friends? What kind of friends are a group of rich second generation who only sit around and wait to die? Do you think your reputation is not bad enough and you haven't disgraced me enough? The most important thing for you now is to hold on to Colin!"

Loren had been in the business world for so many years. He was experienced and naturally knew what they did in Zijin club better than Anne.

Anne was scolded by Loren. She was upset, but she knew Loren did this for her good, so she only blamed Gloria in her heart.

Although she thought she was right, in order to calm Loren's anger, she immediately and cleverly acknowledged her mistake, "Dad, I know I was wrong, and I'll hold on to Colin well."

Loren sighed, "Alas, go back to your work."

...

Gloria went back, and looked at the data in a daze.

She had Kenny's phone number, but she hesitated to call Kenny last night.

It was nine o'clock in the evening. It should be eight o'clock in the evening in the United States. He may not be sleeping at this time.

Then send a text message?

[ I'm Gloria. How are you doing in America? ]

Was that proper? Would it be too abrupt?

Gloria deleted, modified and finally sent out the message, [ I'm Gloria, thank you for sending me the cell phone. I like it very much. ]

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 58: He needed a chance

After Gloria sent the message, she waited nervously for Kenny's reply.

She had never been so nervous even when she texted Colin before.

Nearby she heard her colleagues muttering.

"I heard that Sun Zhenghua asked for leave, going home to rest."

"What's the matter with him these two days? He used to wish he could pretend to be dedicated to his job in the company every day!"

"..."

When Gloria was interested in their conversation, one more colleague joined in the discussion.

Their voices became less and less audible.

Gloria did, however, hear these words. "... Gloria... Did... Yesterday..."

Gloria suddenly sneezed, so were they talking about her?

...

Sheng Ding Media Group

All people were quiet in the room, as Kenny sat in the head of the table. He looked down as he flipped the project report and evaluation with a poker face.

The top management below all seemed to be straightening their clothes and sitting properly, not daring to speak. After all, the boss behind the scenes was a lot grumpier than President Carl.

People outside thought Carl was the boss of their Sheng Ding Media group, only the senior managements knew that this man was the real boss of the company, and that his whereabouts and identity were mysterious, but whenever there was a major decision to be made in the company, this man would come out and chair the meeting.

Kenny hadn't been the company for a long time, so Carl dealt with everything in the company, and it was really hard for Carl to run the company and attend all kinds of events.

Gloria went to work for the Taylor's Group, so he happened to be able to take care of his work there.

A couple of people in the company were working with some senior executives to try to get control of the company, but that's not a big deal.

Finally Kenny looked through all the papers, set aside some of them away neatly, and threw the others straight into the middle of the table with a loud crack.

Everyone was shocked.

Kenny looked up, scanned everyone slowly at the crowd, as his voice was harsh. "Everyone is like the patriarch of the company and has been with the company for a long time. Since we've been working together for so long, I'll give you one last chance. Pick up the papers yourselves and do them properly before you bring them to me."

When he had finished speaking, he got up, leaving the room. Carl followed him, carrying off the papers Kenny had just folded neatly.

When Kenny got back to the office, he loosened his tie, sat down in the chair behind the desk, reached out and rubbed his temple.

Carl followed Kenny in, he put down the papers and said, "These damn old guys, how can they be so submissive as to finish the papers and send them to you?"

Kenny looked cold. "If people were fired by Sheng Ding Media Group, which other company in this industry would dare to hire them?"

He sounded arrogant, but Carl knew that he had the right to be arrogant.

Even though Carl felt that Kenny was grumpy and seemed extremely arrogant, Kenny's actually a nice person. It's the old guys who went too far this time.

"If you have nothing else to say, go to work first." Kenny said as he pulled open a drawer under his desk, pulling out a cell phone.

He pressed the power button and the phone's screen lit up, displaying an unread text message.

Unsurprisingly, it was a text from Gloria: I'm Gloria. Thank you for sending me the mobile phone and I like it.

His eyes fixed slightly over the words "I like it," and then he raised his lips, smiling.

Before Carl went out, he saw Kenny smiling at the phone, and he wondered. "Why are you smiling at your phone so brightly? I'm scared to see you like this."

Kenny was in a good mood, so he casually said. "If you're scared, why don't you just leave?"

Carl went around to see what Kenny was looking at, but Kenny looked like he had eyes on the top of his head. He flipped the palm of his hand, covering the phone over the desk.

Carl, "..."

Well, Kenny was tough!

Kenny didn't try to text back to Gloria until Carl was out: As long as you like it.

After all, "Kenny" didn't want to see Gloria, so that didn't seem like "Kenny" at all.

He tried to reply again: Shi Ye bought it.

It seemed too deliberate.

In the end, Kenny just replied: All right.

Putting down his phone, he leaned back in his chair, as there was a rare flicker of fidget in his black eyes.

Carl left and returned, as he pushed the door, going to Kenny. "Kenny, this is the information about a big IP that the company invested in recently. I'll put it here for you, and you can look at it later."

"You wait."

Carl left the papers on the table and was about to leave when Kenny stopped him, he looking back in a daze. "What else do you want?"

Kenny pretended to have a slight cough, he reached out and tapped on the table. He looked impassive, saying. "Do you think I should tell Gloria that I'm Kenny?"

When he had finished, he added coldly. "If you laugh, I'll stop the acting life of the little actress you like."

Although Carl knew Kenny was only pretending to threaten him, Carl tried to keep a serious face.

Carl flushed with a suppressed smile, and he looked serious, saying. "Yes, you'd better tell her that at once."

Of course Kenny understood that Carl was messing with him.

He picked up the papers beside him and threw them at Carl. "You get out of here at once."

"All right, All right, I'm out ha, ha, ha..." Carl no longer suppressed his smile, but laughed wildly.

Carl felt that he had not lived in vain, because he had lived to see that Kenny confused by women!

He's going to share this interesting news with Fu Tingxi.

Kenny compressed his lips, he looked impassive as he quickly picked up the pen holder and hit Carl exactly as Carl approached the door.

"Ah --"

Kenny was a little relieved by Carl's screams.

Then he frowned, as it would have been a bad time to tell Gloria directly that he actually was Kenny.

He needed a chance.

...

Gloria waited a long time until Kenny texted her back.

He replied in a few words, but that was good enough for Gloria.

When she went out for lunch, several of her female colleagues came to meet her for lunch.

"Gloria, let's go to lunch."

Gloria did not ignore the desire to gossip that seemed to be raging in the eyes of her female colleagues.

Gloria thought that it might have been because they suddenly discovered that she had personally punished Sun Zhenghua.

She didn't know how long she would be at the Taylor's Group, so she smiling, nodded. "Okay."

When Gloria smiled, even though they were all women, Gloria's beauty still dazzled her female colleagues.

As there were not many restaurants near the company, although they had only just found one for lunch, they met Anne and her father by accident.

Since Anne and her father were both supervisors, Gloria's female colleagues went over to greet them. "Hello, President, and hello Manager Anne."

Anne was the project manager, and of course, she lacked the ability to take up this position, so people who actually did her work were her subordinates.

Gloria didn't want to be too different, so she also went over to greet them.

"Hello, dad and hello elder sister."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 59: A man with the wife doesn't enjoy the night life

As there were other people, Loren, for the sake of his own face and dignity, he said casually to Gloria. "Let's eat together."

"Okay." When Gloria had finished speaking, Loren's face changed slightly, and she continued. "But not today, I'm going to eat with my colleagues, and I'll have it with Dad next time."

Loren was not close to Gloria, as he didn't like her, and of course he didn't want to eat with her.

When he heard Gloria's refusal, he looked relaxed, looking a lot gentler. "Well, you go ahead and eat."

At this time, Anne suddenly turned her head and smiled as she helped Loren eat with her chopsticks. "Dad, try this. I think their food is delicious today."

Loren laughed, saying. "You eat them yourself, as you've lost weight lately."

How harmonious they seemed as father and daughter!

Anne smiled contemptuously at Gloria, her eyes seeming to say: You poor bastard, your own parents didn't love you.

Gloria had to say that Anne really hit on her weak spot.

She thought she had already developed the heart of steel through repeatedly being used and abandoned by the people of the Taylor's, but she was easily struck by the harmonious relationship they seemed as father and daughter.

By the time Gloria and her colleagues had found a place to sit down, Gloria was still looking a little pale.

Recently, there had been a heated discussion about her and Anne's private affairs online. As these female colleagues were all young girls, naturally, they also went online, knowing about the private affairs between Anne and her.

They had seen what had happened, and they could sense, too, that Loren seemed to dislike Gloria.

One of them pushed the menu in front of her. "Look at the menu and see what you want to eat."

Gloria smiling, pushed the menu back. "I'm not picky about food. You order first, because I've never been here before and I don't know what tastes good."

When her colleagues listened to her, they stopped being too polite and began to order.

They thought Gloria was easy to get along with, so someone asked her. "Do you know why Sun Zhenghua asked for leave again today? What happened in the president's office?"

"I don't know. Has he done a lot of bad things before? Perhaps God is punishing him." Gloria looking very serious, she cooked up.

The others did not mind, as they laughed too, and they began to expose the evils Sun Zhenghua had done.

Gloria also spoke from time to time, and the atmosphere seemed harmonious.

Until someone said something that broke the harmony.

"Gloria, why do you want to work for the Taylor's Group when you're already the young lady at Clarke's?"

The questioner meant no harm, but the question was hard for her to answer.

Gloria paused, her voice sounding hesitant. "Well..."

Someone offered to speak up for Gloria. "Well, let's eat quickly, as we don't have much time. After we eat, we can go back to the office and have a rest."

The questioner asked her no more.

In fact, everyone in the company thought Gloria was unpopular at Clarke's.

As for the young master of the Clarke's, who was disfigured and sexually impotent, although he was the first heir of the Clarke's Group, he was physically unfit to take over the Clarke's Group. Therefore, many people have thought that the first heir of the Clarke's Group may have to be replaced, but it's just that no word has come out yet.

If the young master of the Clarke's was no longer the first heir to the Clarke's Group, the young master of the Clarke's was nothing but a useless man, while Gloria was not popular at the Clarke's, and Gloria had to go out to work.

Gloria not only came to work on her own, but also worked as the market researcher, a very hard job. So in this case, Gloria's really pathetic.

Gloria watched in bewilderment as her female colleagues kept helping her eat with their chopsticks, and the way they looked at her, it was like that -- they felt sorry for her?

On second thought she knew what it was all about.

From an outsider's point of view, she seemed rather pathetic...

Kenny spent the day at the office.

At the end of his day, Carl rushed up to him excitedly. "Let's go drink!"

Carl felt that his job was a lot easier because Kenny had come to handle the work. He was in such a good mood that he wanted to go out.

"No." Kenny refused without looking up.

Carl rolled his eyes. "Why are you going home so early? You just stay home when you're free. You go home as soon as you get off work, as you don't go to any parties. Your life is exactly like that of an old man."

Kenny responded blandly, contradicting Carl completely.

"People with wives live like this."

Carl raised the corners of his mouth, sneering. "Hehe."

At this time, Fu Tingxi just came in.

Unaware that Carl had just suffered a verbal trauma from Kenny, he asked. "Ready to go?"

"Let's go." Carl said as he walked outside.

Fu Tingxi looked at Kenny. "You're not going?"

Carl looking cold, he answered for Kenny. "A man with a wife does not enjoy the night life."

As Carl expected, Fu Tingxi looked stunned as if he had seen a ghost.

"Let's go, just the two of us, because we haven't got any wives yet?"

Carl putting his hand on Fu Tingxi's shoulder, pulled him out.

Fu Tingxi frowned, he pulled Carl's hand down and turned his head, his voice sounding a little sympathetic. "Even if you have a wife, you can only look at her from a distance."

Kenny sneered. "You're not going to eat in our house again."

Fu Tingxi looked stiff, he changed his tune and said. "How I envy people with wives like you."

Carl couldn't help kicking Fu Tingxi!

Why couldn't Fu Tingxi be a little tougher? Why did they have to lose to Kenny every time?

Fu Tingxi looked as if he felt no pain, as his legs did not move at all.

Carl taking him, walked out. "Don't make a fool of yourself here."

When he had finished speaking, he turned back to Kenny, saying. "The two of us will leave now. Good-bye."

Kenny was in a good mood, and his deep voice even sounded a little cheerful. "You two go for a drink first. It's my treat."

It's just that when Kenny drove home, looking at the empty house, his previous good mood suddenly disappeared.

He took out his cell phone, calling Gloria, but his call went unanswered until it was cut off automatically.

He called twice, but no one answered.

Did she not answer on purpose, or was there something wrong?

Kenny stood in the empty hall for a while until his bodyguard couldn't resist asking. "What's the matter, young master?"

The young master looked serious, so something great must have happened.

Kenny didn't say a word, he took his coat and went out, and when he reached the door, as if remembering something, he turned, saying. "If the young lady comes back, call me."

"..."Did something great must have happened meant that the young Lady hasn't come back yet?

...

And Gloria, she was invited to shopping now.

When she got off work, she wanted to go straight back.

However, her colleagues, who had lunch with her, probably felt that it was too pitiful for her to go home alone and stay in the empty villa, so they insisted on pulling her out, letting her go shopping with them.

In fact, she felt that she was not pitiful, because when she went home, she was alone in the empty villa, and it was a luxury villa, a thousand times better than the small rented house she had lived in before.

However, her colleagues were so kind and enthusiastic that she had to go shopping with them.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 60: Revenge on her

Gloria had been thinking about cooking for "Leon". After all, that's what she promised him.

But ever since Gloria walked into the mall, Gloria had been dragged along by them to look at this and try that.

As it was getting dark outside, Gloria made an excuse. "I'm so tired, and let's find a place to rest."

Then they found a place to drink.

When Gloria took out her cell phone, she saw two missed calls from "Leon".

She thought "Leon" was not patient at all, so she didn't expect him to call her twice, while she could even imagine his angry face that he found it impossible to get through after he called her the second time.

Gloria stood up. "I'm sorry, I have to go back. Thank you today, and I'll treat you to dinner another day."

Outside the mall, she called "Leon" as she walked toward the bus stop.

After only a few rings, the phone was answered.

"Where are you?"

"Leon" had a deep voice, and when he's in a bad mood, his voice would sound gloomy.

Gloria felt her neck cold.

She reached out, touched her neck, and she said. "I'm still out, and I'll be right back. If you're hungry, get yourself something to eat."

He repeated. "I asked where you are."

There was impatience and anger in his voice that he could not hide at all.

Gloria turned to look at the mall, and then she told "Leon" the name of the mall.

Since "Leon" threw away the rare black card in front of her last time, she dared not mess with this rich young master any more.

Gloria turned back, walked to the mall again, and waited for "Leon".

She was waiting in front of the mall, and she didn't wait long before she saw Leon's car.

She was about to go, when she heard someone talking to her behind her. "Gloria, you're still here?"

Gloria turning back stiffly, she saw that the people standing behind her were the colleagues she had been shopping with.

"Yes, I am still..."

Gloria was interrupted by "Leon" before she could finish speaking.

"Gloria, get in." Kenny drove up next to her, stopped the car, pulled down the car window and looked at her deadpan.

Her colleagues looked shocked in unison: (⊙o⊙)...

Gloria thought it would be bad for her.

Gloria turning to look at "Leon", she said with a forced smile. "I'm younger than you, but I'm your sister-in-law anyway."

Kenny tilted his head a little, he glancing at Gloria's colleagues behind her.

He raised his eyebrows, his voice sounding impatient. "Get in."

As Gloria sensed that he began to feel impatient again, she was afraid he was going to make trouble again, so she turned to her colleagues behind her, saying. "He's my husband's cousin. He picked me up on the way, so I'm leaving. Goodbye."

Not daring to stay any longer, she pulled the car door open and got on.

As "Leon" started the engine, Gloria looking through the rearview mirror, she could still see her female colleagues arguing passionately...

Gloria sighing, turned to "Leon". "Why did you drive here so fast? Are you doing anything around here?"

"Leon" ignored her.

Gloria looked out of the window, she didn't want to talk to him yet.

...

When Gloria got home, Gloria went to the kitchen to cook.

These days, she had got familiar with Leon's favorite flavor, as he was a lover of spicy food.

When they had eaten, they returned to their own rooms.

After Gloria took a bath, she's video-chatting with Edith in bed.

Edith was dressed in ancient clothes, and behind her was an antique building.

Gloria asked her. "You're still in Cinema City?"

"Yes, I'm in a night shoot." Edith ran to a lonely corner, whispering to her. "Do you know who I'm working with today?"

"Who?" Gloria suddenly thought of something, saying. "It can never be Si Chengyu? Didn't he go abroad to study?"

"It's him!" Edith's voice sounded excited. "The director seemed to know Movie King, Si Chengyu, so the director asked him to be a guest performer. I happen to be working with him, so I'm shaking all over. What can I do?"

Gloria compressed her lips, said in a low voice. "I don't know, as I'm nervous, too."

Si Chengyu was the youngest Grand Slam Movie King of all time, while Gloria had loved him for eight years.

The voice came from the other end of the phone. "Edith, come and work now!"

"I'll be right there." Edith answered, and she said to Gloria. "I will go to work first, and I will help you find Si Chengyu for his autograph. I may not get his nude pictures, but I will try my best. "

When she finished speaking, she turned off the video.

Gloria, "... " She's not as creepy as Edith!

The next day

When Gloria arrived at the office, she felt that the women she was with yesterday were looking at her, and they looked a little strange.

She had expected such a scene in the first place, so she did not care much about it.

Probably as Sun Zhenghua was punished by Gloria, Sun Zhenghua was afraid of Gloria, so over the next few days, Sun Zhenghua was as quiet as a chicken, and Sun Zhenghua made no trouble for her.

It wasn't until Friday that he brought someone over to meet Gloria. "You two are out doing market research today. It's Friday, so give me your report next Monday."

He brought a tall man who looked very simple and honest.

Glancing at the man, Gloria thought he looked strange.

There were a lot of people in marketing department, and Gloria was here for only a few days, so she didn't know everyone, while she didn't think much about it.

When they left the company, they took a taxi.

Gloria asked. "Can we reimburse the company for the fare?"

"Yes." The man looking at her, his eyes looked strange.

Alarmed, Gloria turned, looked out the window, and she saw that the car was heading for the suburbs.

Before they came out, she viewed the product brochure, so she knew that the company's product released this time was a kind of household commodity, and the place where they were going to do market research should be residential areas.

As they happened to be passing a drugstore, Gloria looked down, she bit her lip hard, and frowned, pretending to be in pain. "Can you stop for a minute while I go to the drugstore and get something?"

The man asked her. "What are you going to buy?"

"Painkillers." Gloria turned to look at him. "I'm on my period, and I have a stomachache."

The man thought for a moment and then understood, saying. "I'll go with you."

"Okay." Gloria knew that if she refused, he would think of other ways to keep her out of the car.

She was now certain that this man had been summoned by Sun Zhenghua to revenge himself on her.

The two of them got out of the car and entered the drugstore. The man closely following Gloria, Gloria bought her medicine, walking slowly out of the drugstore.

At that moment, a man in the mask and peaked cap came in from the outside. He put his hand to his lips and coughed slightly. As Gloria passed by, she suddenly grabbed his arm, she looking surprised. "Cousin, why are you here?"

The man in the mask seeming stunned for a moment, as he reached up and moved his peaked cap upward, showing a pair of familiar and gentle eyes.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 61: A New Trick?

Gloria widened her eyes. "Si ..."

Before she could say anything else, the man in the mask squinted his eyes and interrupted her in time. "Shouldn't I have asked you that? What are you doing here?"

There was a touch of sternness in his pleasant voice, and his concern for her was just right.

Gloria almost thought this man was really her cousin, so she froze, saying. "I was thinking of going back."

"I'll give you a ride." When the man in the mask had finished speaking, he pulled her by the wrist, walking out.

But Gloria's male co-worker, who was with her, was clearly not going to give up easily, as he approached Gloria, stopping her. "We're here to do market research, so are you purposely skipping work?"

Gloria looked at him with a smile. "My cousin actually came back from abroad, so I want to get together with him first. Please help me ask for leave, thank you. "

Her male co-worker still tried to stop her, but the man in the mask slowly pulled out his cell phone. "You want me to call the police?"

When the man heard this, he immediately got out of the way.

Gloria following the man in the mask to the car, she hesitated for a long time, and at last she had the courage to ask. "Are you Si Chengyu?"

Si Chengyu took off his mask, smiling at her. "You recognized me so easily?"

Gloria kept shaking her head, feeling a little excited. "No, it's not... I just..."

Gloria liked him for eight years, whereas Gloria was too shy to say so, her cheeks flushing with embarrassment.

She's seen all the movies he's been in, so she was familiar with his eyes.

Si Chengyu saw her face turning red, he nodded, his voice sounding gentle. "I understand."

He looked down, drove carefully, and asked her. "Where are you going?"

"You just stop where there's a lot of people ahead and I'll just take a taxi."

Gloria didn't expect to see Si Chengyu in person although she was happy to see him, while she liked him just because she liked the movies he was in. He helped her this time, and she shouldn't bother him anymore in the name of his fans.

When Gloria got out of the car in a crowded area, she asked him. "Are you going to be in new movies when you return home from abroad?"

Si Chengyu said without thinking. "If a good movie comes to me, I'm going to keep acting until I'm too old to act."

Gloria's eyes lit up, she nodding heavily. "Well, as long as you keep acting so well, I'll keep watching your movies."

Si Chengyu couldn't help smiling, as it seemed that she really liked the movies he was in and she was also a very candid audience.

Gloria continued. "Thank you so much for today."

Si Chengyu thought of what had happened before, and he said, frowning. "It's just like lifting a finger, but you have to be careful when you're out alone as a girl."

"Yes, I will." Gloria said this, smiled at him again, and turned away.

Si Chengyu watched her back behind her, for a brief period when he felt lost in thought, he asked her. "What's your name?"

Gloria turned back in surprise. "Gloria."

"Gloria..." Si Chengyu said her name gently, then he frowned slightly.

If he remembered correctly, her name sounded the same as Kenny's new wife's name...

...

Jin Ding senior club

When Kenny went in, he saw Shi Ye.

Shi Ye was sent abroad by him before, and Shi Ye had just come back.

Shi Ye came up to him, saying respectfully. "Young master."

Kenny raised his hand, looking at the time. "Is my eldest brother here yet?"

Shi Ye. "Yes, he just arrived."

Kenny went straight to the private room.

When Si Chengyu heard the sound of someone opening the door, he looked up at the door, and when he saw Kenny, he smiled warmly, his smile making him look gentle as jade.

He said. "Kenny."

Kenny went over to him and sat down, pushing the menu toward him. "Eldest brother, haven't you ordered yet?"

Si Chengyu was the son of Kenny's Aunt, while he was a top star signed by Sheng Ding Media Group.

"I'm in no hurry." Si Chengyu didn't look at the menu, but he asked Kenny, as if interested. "How are you getting along with your new wife?"

When Si Chengyu mentioned Gloria, Kenny frowned a little, as he didn't want to say much about these things. "We get along just fine."

Si Chengyu reached out, took the cup in front of him, and he pretended to ask casually. "What's the matter? Is she difficult to deal with?"

Kenny did not know whether Gloria was difficult to deal with or not, but she never bothered him.

Si Chengyu always looked like a laid-back guy, but he asked more questions today.

Kenny leaned back, looking critically at Si Chengyu. "Did you come back to take care of my married life?"

Since Si Chengyu also realized that he had asked too much, he smiled and then he naturally changed the subject. "My mom said if I still didn't have a girlfriend, she would let me go on a dating show."

Kenny had a rare look of schadenfreude on his face. "The company can't let you go on a dating show, but as the boss, I can let someone set you up on a blind date."

Si Chengyu coughed, cleared his throat and said. "If I'm in a relationship, I will lose my fans."

Kenny looked up at him. "You think you're an idol?"

Si Chengyu, "... " Was it his fault to be a Grand Slam movie king at 28?

...

In the evening, when Kenny came home from work, he found that Gloria was not only at home, but had already prepared dinner.

Normally, when he got home from work, Gloria just got home, so why did Gloria get home so early today?

When he got to the kitchen door, he happened to see Gloria wearing heat-proof gloves, coming out with a large bowl of soup.

When Gloria saw Kenny, she frowned. "Leon, get out of the way."

Kenny didn't get out of the way, but he took the suit jacket off his arm, hung it on Gloria's arm, reached out and took the large bowl of soup.

As Gloria watched him taking the large bowl of soup with his bare hands, she could not help reminding him. "Hey, this feels very hot!"

Unperturbed, Kenny put the large bowl of soup on the table.

Gloria, "... " The man must be made of iron.

When they sat down to dinner, Kenny pretended to ask casually. "Why are you back so early today?"

Gloria served herself a bowl of soup, she tilting her head to look at him. "Do I have to explain to you?"

Kenny laughed with rage. "You have such a sharp tongue as you really can talk!"

But now he was pretending to be "Leon", so he couldn't blame her.

"Thanks for the compliment." Gloria felt that she had learned the right thing, as long as she didn't show her weakness, "Leon" couldn't do anything about her.

Kenny squinting, he stared at Gloria.

He seemed to be so overbearing, when he was staring intently at others, there was something extraordinary and incomparable in his eyes.

Gloria felt uneasy at his gaze, when Gloria was about to speak, she heard Kenny speak slowly. "Gloria, actually, I'm Kenny."

Gloria, " ? ? ? ? "

There was a dead silence in the dining room, and as there was a table between them, they both looked very serious.

Gloria suddenly clenched her chopsticks more tightly, her voice sounding a little hoarse. "Is this your new trick to play on me?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 62 I Haven't Done Anything Dirty to You

Kenny's eyes were fixed on her, not letting go of any subtle expression on her face, with scrutiny and seriousness.

When he looked at Gloria, Gloria was also looking at him, and the two looked at each other in silence, like a silent contest.

In the end, it was Gloria who turned her gaze away first.

"Leon" is Kenny?

It's ridiculous!

Kenny watched the changing expressions on her face. He knew it was a little abrupt to tell her the truth.

He withdrew his gaze and took a slow gulp of water before saying without haste, "If I say no, will you believe it? "

Gloria certainly heard the teasing in his tone and was relieved, "Of course not, do you really think I'm so foolish? "

"No." said Kenny faintly.

It wasn't that he thought that she became a fool, but that she was always a fool.

When she returned to her room after dinner, Gloria was still thinking about what "Leon" had said.

She hadn't spent much time with "Leon", but his arrogance in his bones made him a man who could never be manipulated to marry a woman he didn't like.

Regardless of whether it was her or Anne who got married back then, "Leon" was able to find out the truth about them both.

She was "ugly and stupid" at the time, while Anne had a messy private life and was not a good match when she was messing around outside.

If "Leon" was really Kenny, there's no need for him to marry her and Anne.

What's more, Kenny was a flawed person, and his cold attitude towards Gloria was instead more real and believable.

With this analysis, Gloria settled down and took her clothes and went to the bathroom.

When she came out of the bathroom, she just heard her phone ring.

She did not see who was calling, and she answered the phone directly.

"You slipped away from work today? "

Hearing Loren's stern voice, Gloria was frozen for a moment, turned on speakerphone and put the phone on the bed, and then she said while rubbing her hair, "Dad, you really got the news so quickly. I came home as soon as I went out this morning, it's been late at night before you know I've escaped from work."

During the day, the man who went out with her to do market research must have been asked by Sun Zhenghua to get back at her.

Otherwise, how could Anne, who loved to cause troubles, haven't told about this only until night?

Anne was probably involved in this matter as well, probably because she was sure that that man hadn't succeeded, so she went to Loren and sued Gloria.

Anne was trying her best to deal with her.

Last time, she hadn't got even with Anne about the Zi Jin Club!

That day in Loren's office, she deliberately said that Anne had gone to the Zi Jin Club again, just to see if she was really there that day.

Although there wouldn't be anyone else besides Anne who was the mastermind of that incident, she still had to ensure that.

Loren didn't know anything about what happened today, and when he heard Gloria's arrogant tone, the anger in his heart grew more and more intense, and he roared over the phone, "Gloria Taylor! Do you really think that now that you're the young madam of the Taylor family, I can't manage you? "

While Gloria said casually, "No, if you want to manage me, you can do it whenever you want. "

However, ever since childhood, Loren never managed her except when she was useful.

Loren was so angry at Gloria's words that he was unable to speak for a moment and then said several words in a cold voice after a while, "Good, good! Talk with me in the company on Monday! "

After saying that, he hung up the phone directly.

Anne brought a glass of water and put it in front of Loren, "Dad, what did Gloria say that made you so angry? "

"She thinks no one can manage her, and she now doesn't even respect me! " Loren was so exasperated that he slapped hard on his desk.

Anne reached out and gently stroked his chest to comfort him, "Dad, I think Gloria has really gone too far this time, you've been so good to her, but on the contrary, she doesn't care about you at all. Dad, let's give her a lesson. "

Loren pondered for a moment after hearing this, and then he slowly nodded his head.

Gloria had predicted that the matter was not finished yet. She had to go to the company to talk about it with her dad, which was so troublesome.

But since she dared to go to the Taylor Group, she wasn't afraid.

Edith was still filming abroad, and Gloria had few friends in Huyang City, so she didn't go out much on weekends, staying at home to watch TV series and write the script.

She was certainly not going to stay in the Taylor Group long, moreover, she couldn't ignore her specialty.

These two days "Leon" also was busy at something and rarely showed up at home. In this whole weekend, she did not see him often, which made her relaxed.

Monday morning.

Last night when she was almost asleep at twelve o'clock, she heard the sound of the car engine, so she guessed that "Leon" should also be home.

So, when she made breakfast, she made two.

When she brought her own breakfast to the door of the dining room, she saw "Leon", who was dressed in a suit, already sitting at the table.

It was the first positive meeting between the two after dinner last Friday.

Still upset by what he had said that day, Gloria sat down with her share of breakfast, gave him a look and said, "Go get your own breakfast in the kitchen."

Kenny didn't speak, his gaze falling on her breakfast.

She made a simple breakfast of porridge and egg cakes.

Gloria felt his gaze and had the illusion that he would snatch the meal with her.

So, she bowed her head and took a bite of the eggcake first, swearing sovereignty.

It was only after doing this move that she felt herself a little naive.

However, she did not expect "Leon" to be naiver than she was.

He stood up straight away, took advantage of the long hand and brought the breakfast in front of her directly to his bowl.

Not only that, but he also took a bite at the eggcake that she had bitten.

Gloria hadn't had much contact with men in the first place, so she directly held her face red, "You, you shameless! "

Kenny put down his chopsticks, his expression serious and calm, "It's not like I molested you, why are you scolding me?"

Gloria felt speechless.

Without any words, she directly turned around and went back to the kitchen to get his breakfast and started eating.

When she came out, Kenny looked at her in slight surprise.

Gloria walked out quickly, and Kenny watched her figure disappear and couldn't help but laugh.

In fact, she didn't know he was Kenny, which seemed interesting.

Although he had been busy these two days, he was still thinking about Gloria returning so early last Friday.

Anne had a vicious heart, and would definitely find ways to deal with Gloria. Until he had to, he would not interfere. After all, it was still very interesting to watch Gloria fighting with that woman.

His mind thought so, but his body had already reacted by getting up and heading straight out.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 63 My Husband Was Not Up To You To Judge

Gloria Taylor walked out of the villa. She was not far ahead when she heard a car honking from behind.

Gloria Taylor looked back and saw the car stopped right beside her.

The window rolled down revealing Leon Clarke's handsome, but aggressive face. But for Gloria, this face was really annoying.

He squinted and said in a low voice, "Get in the car. I'll take you to work."

"No." Gloria Taylor refused. She didn't want people to watch her again.

She could already imagine the scene when Leon Clarke sent her to the company, people would certainly watch her and there would be a lot of gossip.

Leon Clarke hooked his lips and smiled. There was something terrifying in his eyes. He asked, "What are you afraid of?"

What was she afraid of?

Gloria Taylor realized that her cold behavior toward Leon Clarke was actually out of fear.

She had been acting distant and moody, but she had to admit that he was an outstanding man.

Arrogance seemed to be carved in his bones and it made him confident. He was born to be attractive.

Sometimes, he gave off a bad aura, but when he was nice to her, he was genuinely good.

Women would easily fall for a man like him.

Therefore, Gloria Taylor had always consciously avoided and treated him coldly.

She bore the title of Mrs. Clarke and this would follow her all her life. She thought that she must know herself and her duty better.

She was also afraid that she would fall for him.

Seeing Gloria Taylor in daze, Kenny Clarke teased her, "Do you secretly have a wild desire for me?"

"I don't!" she immediately replied.

She pulled her car door open and seated on the co-pilot position.

Leon Clarke was looking at the front with a calm expression, but his eyes exposed his mind.

Out of guilty conscience, Gloria Taylor didn't look at him. She looked out of the window and asked, "How much is your car?"

"It's not expensive." He replied.

Gloria Taylor was a little surprised. This car was very rare. When she was still at school, her rich friends would have their drivers pick them up the school gate driving various famous cars like Bentley, but she had never seen this one.

She thought that this car must be one of a kind-ly expensive.

Kenny Clarke gave her a look, "They stopped their production a couple years ago."

"I am just..." asking for no reason.

"If you want it, you can say it in a nicer way and maybe, I can give it to you." he cut her off.

Gloria Taylor's face changed after she realized what he meant.

If was understandable that Kenny Clarke wanted to give a car to her, but if it was Leon Clarke, she felt that it was a bit inappropriate.

After that, they drove to the company in silence.

When getting off the car, Gloria Taylor said, "Thank you."

She sounded too polite.

She closed the car door and turned around.

She met Anne Taylor who had been watching them, "It seems that you get along well with Kenny Clarke's cousin. You must have a good relationship with him that he even takes you to work."

"We're family. It's only natural to get along well. We don't have to be like you." Gloria Taylor took a few steps forward approaching Anne Taylor.

She whispered, "Not everyone likes to have fun in a place like Zijin Club. Next time, you should not fool me into having fun there again."

Anne Taylor stiffened, but she played it cool, "I don't know what you're talking about."

Gloria Taylor smiled brightly but with a subtle tone of threat, "Dad doesn't like you hanging out at that club. Be careful."

Loren Taylor didn't love Gloria Taylor as his daughter, but he liked to use her. Her title as the daughter-in-law of the Clarke family was also a big advantage for him. If Loren Taylor knew what Anne Taylor did to Gloria Taylor, he would certainly scold Anne Taylor.

Gloria Taylor was aware of this, so did Anne Taylor.

However, Anne Taylor was not afraid of her threat. She said proudly, "You don't have a proof. Who will believe you?"

"Gloria, I will pick you up after work. When do you get off work?" Leon Clarke suddenly said. Gloria Taylor looked at him in surprise. Her eyes clearly asked the reason he hadn't left yet.

But, Kenny Clarke didn't understand. He just stood there still and it seemed that before he could hear a satisfying answer, he wouldn't leave.

"Okay."

After getting the answer he wanted, he eyed Anne Taylor coldly, returned to his car, and drove away.

Anne Taylor shuddered, but her eyes filled with greed.

If only she knew that Kenny Clarke had a wonderful cousin, if only she was the one to marry the Clarke, Leon Clarke would send her to work.

She remembered when she was in Jin Ding the other day. Her eyes were about to popped out when she saw Gloria Taylor took a black card out.

She began to regret everything. She was the one who should have married the Clarke!

Gloria Taylor looked back and saw Anne Taylor looking at the direction of Leon Clarke leaving with a greedy face.

She hooked her lips mockingly, "Sister, do you regret giving me your fiancé? It's useless to regret it now. Even if Kenny agrees to divorce me, he will certainly not marry you."

After Anne Taylor's indecent video spread out, her reputation had been destroyed. It would be strange for the Clarke to let a woman with a bad reputation entered their family.

Anne Taylor's face was ugly after being triggered by Gloria Taylor.

But, she played it cool again. She brushed her hair triumphantly, "I don't want to marry Kenny Clarke. He is a trash."

The one she wanted was Leon Clarke.

Leon Clarke was one of a kind. She wanted to have sex with that man. He must taste good.

Gloria Taylor, even if she was getting prettier, but on bed, she certainly was not on par with her.

Gloria Taylor had never dated anyone before. Naturally, she didn't know that Anne Taylor was having a dirty thought. She only felt that Anne Taylor was acting like a retard.

However, she despised the way Anne Taylor insult her husband.

"Did you say that Kenny was a trash? My husband is not up to you to judge!" Gloria Taylor snorted. She stepped on Anne Taylor's foot mercilessly and stormed inside the company.

Anne Taylor ran up with a scream, "Gloria Taylor, you're a cheap woman!"

At this time, Kenny Clarke who should have left a while ago appeared with a straight face from behind the pillar.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 64: To Be A Good Example

Kenny should have already left.

But thinking of what Anne did last time, he still went back.

The result was...he watched a good show!

He grew so big that besides his mother, he was protected by a woman for the first time.

This felt wonderful.

Gloria wore a pair of small leather shoes with a heel height of three or four centimeters, and it wouldn't be very painful when she stepped on Anne's feet.

But Anne was angry for that, Gloria was always obedient to her, and now she dared to step on her feet!

When she ran into the Taylor group's hall, the elevator had arrived. Gloria turned back to Anne with a provocative smile and entered the elevator.

When Anne chased her, the elevator had already left.

Gloria went out of the elevator and went directly to Loren's office.

He called her last Friday and asked her to his office talking about the thing of skipping work. She still remembered it.

Not long after she waited, Loren came.

And Anne followed him behind.

They didn't know that Gloria was in the office in advance. Anne was still complaining to Loren: "Dad, Gloria went too far, although I sometimes have a bad temper, how can she treat me like that? I'm the company's project manager, she doesn't respect me at all. I'm afraid she doesn't even respect you either..."

Gloria sat on the sofa and looked innocently at the two entering the room with her head tilted.

Hahaha, Anne was wrong, Anne not only had a bad temper, but also had a black heart.

"Sister, what you said is wrong, the person I respect most is my father."

Hearing Gloria's voice, the two found out that she was in the office too.

When Anne heard Gloria's voice, she widened her eyes: "Why are you here?"

"Dad has something to tell me, I come here and wait for him." Gloria smiled harmlessly.

Anne now finally believed that Gloria's previous obedience and tolerance were all pretended.

Loren had just heard Anne's complaint about Gloria, and he was also angry. When he saw Gloria, his expression collapsed immediately: "Is the chairman's office free for you, an employee like you to come in?"

"Well." Gloria stood up, walked straight out, and closed the door smoothly.

Loren and Anne looked at each other without knowing what she was going to do.

Knock!

At the next moment, accompanied by a knock on the door, it was Gloria's polite voice: "Chairman, I am Gloria Taylor, may I come in now?"

Loren had a headache because of Gloria. He walked to the back of the desk and sat down. He raised his hand and pointed to the door: "Anne, let her in."

Anne's expression was not better than Loren's, she reluctantly shouted at the door: "Come in."

Gloria didn't push the door in.

Anne walked over to open the door and didn't see Gloria.

She gritted her teeth, restrained her anger, and looked back at Loren: "Dad, she's gone."

At this time Gloria had returned to her work place.

She did not see the figure of Sun Zhenghua.

After a while, Sun Zhenghua came over: "Hey, guys, prepare for the meeting later."

It was the regular meeting on Monday.

As a small grassroots employee, Gloria had nothing to do with this kind of meeting.

But it didn't take a long time after the meeting, Loren and Anne followed Sun Zhenghua to the marketing department.

Gloria intuitively felt that there was nothing good about them coming, and it was probably because of her.

At this moment, Anne looked at her and said seriously, "Gloria, come here."

Sure enough, they came for her.

Gloria looked at the three and got up and walked out.

Before she approached, Anne stepped forward two steps, slapped her face fiercely, and then said very harshly, "Do you know why I hit you?"

Gloria covered her numb face, and after two seconds, she turned to look at Anne.

Although Anne's expression was just serious and righteous, the thrill of revenge in her eyes was still caught by Gloria.

"I know it's hard for you to work in the marketing department, but you are my sister and a member of our Taylor family. Since you decided to come to work in the company, you should set a good example for everyone. But you are off work for your first day, what's wrong with you?"

When they were looking for the opportunity to cause trouble for her, she became a member of the Taylor family?

Gloria raised her lips and looked up at Anne coldly: "I'm sorry for what happened yesterday..."

Speaking of this, she changed her topic and asked: "The male colleague who went out with me yesterday must have been very hard. I want to apologize to him in public, can I?"

Anne was a little surprised. Gloria yielded so quickly?

At this time, Sun Zhenghua suddenly leaned into her ear and whispered, "The man I found yesterday was not working in the company."

Sun Zhenghua did not find anyone inside the company. He was afraid that the event would be known by Loren. No matter what, Gloria was Loren's daughter. The less people knew this matter and it would be safer.

Anne heard the words and frowned, then immediately said to Gloria: "Manager Sun said that the colleague was unwell and took a rest today."

Standing by the side, Loren, who had not spoken, said at this time: "Is there any serious illness? He asked for leave on Monday?"

Every Monday, the company's various departments and groups would hold regular meetings to arrange tasks, in general, they're not allowed to ask for leave.

Sun Zhenghua's expression changed, and he said hesitatingly: "I don't know very well, there are too many employees, I don't remember clearly, do I need to check that later..."

Gloria said slowly: "Manager Sun, could you please tell me the name of the colleague, I can visit him after getting off work."

Loren felt that Gloria's attitude was not bad, and he couldn't force her too quickly, because he also felt that his daughter was different from before.

As a result, Loren, who was very satisfied with Gloria's attitude, asked immediately, "Which group of the colleague took leave today?"

The scene was quiet and no one spoke.

Sun Zhenghua was so anxious that he began to sweat.

Just as Loren frowned, one of the team leaders replied: "It is our group."

The other members of this group looked at each other. Gloria just mentioned that it's a male colleague, but it was a female colleague who asked for leave in their group...

"Good, after a while, you tell Gloria his contact information, let her visit him after the work." Loren finished, looked around the staff, said: "Everyone, don't worry, even if it is on Monday, you can ask for leave if you have something important. The Taylor group is a big family, everyone is our family member..."

Loren said a lot of official words and left with Anne.

Anne, who didn't know that the matter had been half exposed, smiled with pride at Gloria before leaving.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 65: Gloria Did This

There were many female employees in the marketing department, and women naturally loved gossip when they got together.

At noon, what happened in the marketing department in the morning had spread throughout the whole company.

Gloria's face was so swollen, when she went to the bathroom halfway, she also heard female colleagues get together to discuss this.

"What the hell is going on? I heard that it's a woman who asked for leave, not a man?"

"You don't understand? Anne Taylor and Sun Zhenghua joined forces to fight against Gloria!"

"Seriously? Gloria just come here for several days and she has offended Sun Zhenghua?"

"Everyone knows what kind of person Sun Zhenghua is. He went to the hospital and asked for leave before, I heard it was because of Gloria!"

"Really, so ruthless?"

"I think Anne is even more ruthless. Before she slapped Gloria's face, I could hear the sound far away, how much hatred, how hard is it..."

Gloria leaned against the wall of the bathroom and waited for the outside to be completely quiet before opening the door.

Standing in front of the sink, she looked at her face in the mirror.

It was already swollen, and it was a little bluish, looking a bit daunting.

Anne did slap hard enough.

It seemed that during this time, Anne nursed much grievance.

Then wait and see who laughs to the end.

...

During the lunch break, Gloria was about to go out for lunch.

As soon as she got up, the phone in her pocket rang.

It was "Leon".

Gloria frowned and answered the phone: "What's the matter with you?"

As if he didn't feel the impatience in her tone, Kenny said straightly: "Come out for lunch, I'll wait for you at the entrance."

He ordered and hung up.

Gloria looked at the mobile phone that had returned to the lock screen interface, grabbed her hair irritably, picked her coat up, and walked out.

Out of the Taylor group, she saw the eye-catching car of "Leon". When she just got off, she secretly checked his car online.

The starting price was 10 million yuan, the real price should be determined according to the customized requirements of the owner.

This was already sky-high price for her.

Even at the Taylor family, Anne wanted a car that cost tens of millions of yuan, Loren was not necessarily willing to allow that.

Seeing that there were already many people talking about the car of "Leon", Gloria lowered her head and walked quickly in his direction.

At this time, another car drove by the roadside, Gloria was ready to wait for the car to pass before leaving, but the car stopped directly in front of her.

The driver got out of the car and opened the door of the back seat. The person getting off the car was Tina.

Gloria hadn't seen Tina for a while since she tricked her to go to the restaurant and stood her up.

Tina instructed the driver to take down the two insulated food boxes and inadvertently looked up and saw Gloria standing beside the car.

She frowned, and the whole person was completely shocked. She looked at her in disbelief and asked uncertainly, "Are you Gloria?"

Gloria smiled indifferently, with a deep sneer: "Do you think I am?"

Having lived under the same roof for more than 20 years, her biological mother could not recognize her daughter.

Not only that, Tina saw her face change, but directly ignored her unswollen face.

She didn't know if this was her sorrow or Tina's sorrow.

Tina approached and looked at her carefully: "You... you went for a facelift? So you didn't go last time I asked you to have lunch together?"

At this time, Gloria couldn't even smile, and there was a trace of sourness on her face: "Mom, I'm Gloria, This is my real face since young. But you always say, I shouldn't look prettier than my sister, So, the more I grow up, the uglier I am."

"How is it possible. These years, you are..." Tina could not believe her words, how could she pretend to be ugly for so many years?

Gloria stared at Tina calmly, and there was a sense of regret in her voice: "Because I want to be a good daughter of you, to make you happy, as long as you have any requirements for me, I will do it ."

Tina moved her lips, but for a moment she was speechless.

In memory, Gloria was nice and beautiful when she was a child. She had good grades. Later, her grades became worse. The older she became, the uglier she was. Before that, she did say that Gloria should not be better than her sister.

But soon, she said defensively: "You did it voluntarily, you can't complain now!"

Gloria froze for a moment, and asked her: "Mom, I want to ask you, am I your biological daughter?"

"You....."

"Let's go for lunch."

A male voice interrupted Tina's words very abruptly, Gloria raised her eyes and found that "Leon" had come to her side.

He was tall, when he looked at Gloria, he needed to lower his head.

When Gloria's eyes looked up at him with tears. The beautiful cat eyes were soaked with tears that were about to flow over her eyes and looked very pitiful.

Especially when his eyes touched her half-swollen face, Kenny's dark eyes burst into a fierce light, and then he concealed it in an instant, pulling her away with no expression.

Tina recognized that this person was the "Leon Clarke" who had been to the Taylor family last time. How could he come to pick up Gloria?

Did they...

Thinking of the last time what they did in the car, Tina quickly stopped the two of them: "Wait."

The two looked back at her together, and Tina said: "Gloria, I take a lot of food for your dad and sister. Do you want to eat with us together?"

Gloria was about to refuse. Kenny snatched in front of her and said, "Okay, I just haven't eaten yet."

"This..." Tina's meal was only enough for three people, and she knew that "Leon Clarke" was the cousin of Kenny Clarke. It was not good to offend him, so she didn't know what to say.

Gloria didn't understand, so she looked up at him, and hit him with her elbow slightly.

Kenny tightened the strength holding her forearm, looked down at her, and gave her a look and let her relax.

It was very strange that Gloria was soothed by his eyesight, she stood quietly beside him, no longer making a noise.

Tina had been a full-time wife for most of her life. In addition to spending money on beauty and pleasing Loren, she also knew how to size up the situation. She knew that "Leon Clarke" can't be neglected, so she glanced at the driver and let him inform Loren.

Loren came down quickly, followed by Anne behind him.

Anne made up her makeup deliberately, her makeup looked slightly strong.

As soon as she saw "Leon", her eyes didn't move away. Her eyes were greedy as if she was looking at something in her pocket.

Gloria noticed her eyesight, moved and stood in front of "Leon", trying to block Anne's sight.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 66: I Don't Hit Women, Do It Yourself

However, "Leon" was a strong man, he was nearly one hundred and ninety centimeters, Gloria was standing in front of him and she can not block his face.

Anne looked at Gloria contemptuously and took a step forward to look straight at "Leon Clarke", "Mr. Clarke, how are you?"

Kenny glanced at Anne, and then looked at Gloria, who was suddenly in front of him, and instantly understood why she would be standing in front of him.

Recalling what she said before when she was arguing with him, "A elder sister-in-law is like a mother". Did she really regard him as her son?

When Kenny thought of this, his expression was even more indifferent. He didn't want to give Anne even an extra look at all.

Anne was embarrassed to see "Leon" ignoring her.

Loren said in a timely manner: "Why don't we find a restaurant to sit down and talk slowly?"

...

The group found a restaurant for lunch.

When they were going to have a seat, everyone wanted to let "Leon" sit first.

However, "Leon" didn't sit down first. Instead, he first pulled out the chair and said to Gloria: "Please."

Gloria didn't know what he was going to do, but she subconsciously felt that "Leon" would not hurt her, so she sat down obediently.

As soon as she sat down, "Leon" also sat down next to her.

Loren immediately winked at Anne. Anne understood his meaning and immediately sat down on the other side of "Leon".

Gloria thought that "Leon" would say something, but he said nothing, as if he didn't see Anne sitting down beside him.

Gloria thought about it secretly, wasn't she thinking wrong, although "Leon" looked like a proud person, he loved women best, no matter who they were?

Soon the dishes were ready, and Loren said something from time to time to ease the atmosphere and it was still harmonious.

Anne also gave "Leon" a few dishes, he did not refuse, nor eat them.

Gloria felt that today's "Leon" was very strange. When he sat down, she felt that the air pressure on him was very low. After that, he didn't even refuse Anne to give him food, she still didn't believe that he would be able to like Anne!

Anne's overjoyed, with a gentle smile on her face: "Mr. Clarke, eat more, this one tastes good."

"Well." "Leon" responded indifferently, and did not eat it at a all.

Anne didn't mind, she asked him: "Mr. Clarke, do you have a girlfriend?"

This question was directly asked. "Leon" wasn't angry, but turned to look at her: "No, what about you?"

"I don't have a boyfriend either. To be honest, I actually..." Anne made a shy expression: "I like you."

"Is it?" Kenny raised his lips, his smile wasn't real, and there was a dark atmosphere between his eyebrows. The deep voice suddenly became very low: "But I like the woman with a big face, your face is too small."

Anne's eyes widened in surprise, and both eyes were about to fall out.

On the side, Gloria just drank the water, and was almost squirted out in shock.

What nonsense was "Leon" talking?

She glanced at the man next to her, and she could only see his handsome side profile, he wasn't joking at all.

"I can gain weight and make my face fat." Anne's voice was shaking with excitement, and she didn't forget to cast a proud look at Gloria.

She would definitely be favored by "Leon Clarke".

Gloria turned her head, she didn't want to look at her at all.

"Really?" Kenny lowered her eyes slightly, covering the indifference of his eyes, and said casually: "There is a quick way, you can try it."

Anne believed his words and quickly asked, "What's that?"

Kenny turned to Gloria: "Like her."

Anne looked at Gloria, for a while, Anne didn't react, but Loren suddenly understood what he was talking about, and said: "Mr. Clarke, you are really humorous, let's eat together, otherwise it will be cold later."

Kenny didn't care Loren at all, the expression on his face had completely cooled down.

He was already handsome and fierce, and he was sitting there with an indifferent face at this time, even more arrogant.

His aura was too strong, and no one dared to speak for a while.

Kenny was completely unimpressed, then turned to Anne, while his tone was still indifferent: "I don't hit women, you do it yourself."

"Mr. Clarke, this joke is not funny..."

"Joke?" Kenny hooked his lips, but didn't have a smile on his eyes. Instead, he showed a kind of insidious shadyness: "You think the young lady the Clarke family spent 300 million yuan is to let you make jokes as your wishes?"

Then they realized what the purpose of "Leon" was to have a lunch with them today.

Gloria looked at him in amazement. She hadn't expected that "Leon" would come forward to free her.

She didn't know until today that the Clarke family gave the Taylor family 300 million yuan.

Although 300 million was nothing to the Clarke family, it was a lot of money for the Taylor family.

"Leon" put it so clearly, Loren, as a master of a family, naturally wanted to stand up, he argued: "In fact, this is the case, Gloria and Anne are two sisters, Gloria did something wrong, Anne taught her..."

"Mr. Taylor, have you been so confused that you can't understand people's language?" Kenny raised his head slightly, his eyesight growing sharper.

When Loren heard his words, his expression suddenly changed, he did not expect that this "Leon Clarke" was so arrogant that he did not respect him at all.

His face was awkward, and he looked at Gloria: "Gloria, this thing..."

Gloria ignored him, took a piece of pumpkin pie on the plate in front of her, and ate it herself.

Everyone understood that this matter can't be solved easily today.

Loren frowned and didn't speak, but Tina said: "Mr. Clarke, could you please let go of Anne? Gloria, you..."

Kenny exhausted his patience: "The Taylor group latest huge investment failed, the capital chain broke, and it is urgent to re-inject funds. If the news is known by others, what will they do?"

Loren's face was pale. Taylor group's capital chain broken was an internal secret. How could Leon Clarke know it?

If they were known by other companies, they would definitely take advantage of this and make the Taylor group's condition worse.

Loren gritted his teeth and said cruelly: "Anne, do it yourself!"

Anne couldn't believe it: "Dad!"

Loren saw that she was reluctant to start, he got up and walked over, and slapped Anne's face.

Snapped!

Kenny's voice was lazy: "The other side."

Loren slapped her again, and Kenny looked at him and said, "It's big on the right but small on the left? It's unbalanced."

Therefore, Loren slapped Anne again and again for several times.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 67: Don't Move, Let Me See It

Even if Anne's face was swollen enough that they couldn't see her original appearance, Kenny did not let Loren stop.

But Gloria was unbearable. She kicked his leg gently under the table and whispered to him: "Leon!"

Kenny turned to look at her, knowing that she wanted to let him stop. His long fingers tapped twice on the table, and then he spoke casually: "Enough, Mr. Taylor is so cruel, your sweet daughter was hit like this by you, how can you do that?"

In his tone, they could hardly hear the guilty nor regret, but instead, he looked like a bystander watching the play.

Loren was angry, but he couldn't offend Kenny. He glanced down at Anne, and immediately he avoided her eyesight.

Anne's face was swollen like a fat pig's head...That was really ugly.

Kenny glanced at Anne and said leisurely: "You can teach your daughter, but you can't be as cruel. You have to prepare a Plan B for yourself."

Loren was angry, he can only lower his head, and did not speak.

Kenny's purpose had been achieved, he didn't want to stay here any longer, turned his head, and glanced at Gloria beside him, his tone eased: "Are you full?"

Gloria put down the pumpkin pie that she hadn't finished eating, put away the consternation on her face, and nodded: "Yes."

"Let's go." Kenny finished speaking, and stood up and walked outside.

Gloria quickly followed up.

Kenny's legs were long and when Gloria chased out, he had gone a long way.

She was about to trot to catch up, and found that he suddenly looked back and then stood still, as if waiting for her.

Maybe it was because there were a lot of things happening today, or maybe Tina affected her, she suddenly wanted to cry.

When she was a child, she was taken to the playground once by Tina, but Anne also went there.

Tina was busy taking care of Anne and had no time to care for her. She was curious about everything at that time, and then fell behind them. She watched Tina disappear into the crowd without looking back.

At that time, she hoped that Tina could look back at her so much.

Kenny saw her standing dumbly in place, and frowned and walked back: "What's wrong?"

Gloria quickly lowered her head and wiped her eyes. When she looked up again, he couldn't see anything strange except her eyes were a bit red.

"The wind is a bit strong, and there's the sand in my eyes."

She thought that her self-deprecating lies would be taken down by "Leon". Unexpectedly, not only did he not take down her, but he leaned over seriously: "Don't move, let me see."

Gloria was also immersed in the good impression that "Leon" had just helped her, so she stood obediently and raised her head to show him her eyes.

But she forgot, "Leon" was not a kind man even if he did something good occasionally.

In her eyes, "Leon" became more and more larger. And the closer he came to her face, the stronger bad hunch she felt. She wanted to retreat now.

Kenny quickly reached out and held the back of her head, lowered his head and kissed on her lips, then quickly backed away.

It took him two seconds to kiss her and back away.

After a while, Gloria reacted and wanted to scold him, but he helped her just now.

If she didn't scold him... that's impossible!

"Leon Clarke! Why are you so shameless!" Gloria found that there were no suitable words to scold him.

Except "shameless", she could not find other words to scold him.

But he did not know to repent.

"Hey, Gloria, I can still kiss you when you are with this ugly face, you should feel moved." He said and touched her half-swollen face.

Gloria shook off his hand and looked at him with an indifferent look: "Don't touch me!"

"Leon" seemed to find it's funny. So he reached out, trying to touch her again, which caused Gloria have to lift hand and was about to clap his hand away.

However, this time she failed to do so, because "Leon" grabbed her hand directly.

Her hand was so soft, as if there was no bone. I

Kenny's eyes flashed lights with interest, rubbing her hand again, and before Gloria became angry, he pulled her forward.

"Let me go!" Gloria had been struggling.

She felt that today's "Leon" was particularly presumptuous, he even kissed her in the public, and held her hand.

It was not far from the Taylor group, some employees would come here for lunch, in case someone met them...

Gloria felt that if she went on like this, she would be driven crazy by "Leon"!

She could not get rid of the hand of "Leon", and could not make the movement, she was afraid of attracting others attention, and finally, she was led into the car like this.

After the two left, Anne stood out from behind the pillar in the doorway of the restaurant with her swollen face, glanced at the picture she had just taken.

Gloria occupied the identity of the Clarke and she was still tangled with Kenny's cousin. She wanted to see what's these two people's results.

She had suffered so much today and she would never let them go!

...

Gloria was taken to the clinic by "Leon", compressed her face with ice, and applied anti-inflammatory drugs, and then returned to the Taylor group to continue to work.

When she arrived at the Taylor group, she sat down in her seat, and heard that the person next to her said that Anne was on leave to go home and rest.

As soon as the speaker saw Gloria coming, his voice suddenly dropped.

Despite this, Gloria still heard a few words.

"I think this Gloria Taylor is not simple...When she came to the company, the management of the company had accidents one after another, asking for leave..."

Gloria thought for a while, as if it were indeed the case.

Sun Zhenghua first, then Anne.

But can this blame her? They provoked her first!

When she was off work, Gloria had collected things and was about to leave, and saw Loren's secretary coming.

"Ms. Tylor, boss wants to see you."

Why did Loren want to see her?

Was it because of what happened on the day, and he wanted to avenge her for Anne?

Loren loved Anne, and this was not impossible.

So, Gloria said very seriously and gently: "I'm sorry, it's already off work. If he looks for me for official business, I will go to him tomorrow. If it's a private business, he will call me, and I also want to visit the male colleague who was exhausted because of my skipping work."

Loren's secretary had worked for Loren for many years, and he knew a little bit about Gloria's situation. Gloria was ugly and unresponsive.

He also knew about things in the company recently, but after contacting with Gloria, he found that Gloria not only became more beautiful, but also became smarter.

The secretary said stubbornly: "But he told me that you must go to see him."

Gloria's response was to go out directly.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 68 Sold It Again

Gloria Taylor went out of the Taylor Company and headed straight to the bus stop.

There were many people waiting for the bus at the moment. Suddenly, a familiar black car stopped in front of her.

The window rolled down, Loren Taylor called her out, "Get in the car."

She hesitated, but she opened the door and went in anyway.

There were the driver and Loren Taylor inside the car. After Gloria Taylor got inside the car, she was silent. She dared not take the initiative to speak.

The driver pulled the car out of the way and stopped by the roadside.

After a while, Loren Taylor spoke in a faint voice, "Gloria, I know that you skip your shift is a misunderstanding. Your sister has suffered so much today. This too shall pass and we will get over it. Don't take it to the heart."

"Pass?" Gloria Taylor hissed.

Loren Taylor frowned, "Your sister has suffered so much. What else do you want?"

"This." Gloria Taylor pointed at her face, "Anne hit me here."

What made Loren Taylor think that this matter shall pass that easily?

Loren Taylor said coldly, "Why didn't I find you so vicious before?"

"Like father like daughter, though not as vicious as you." Gloria Taylor lowered her head and fiddled the zipper of her handbag. She said that casually, but the sarcasm sure was noticeable.

Leon Clarke embarrassed him today and his heart was still heavy.

He was about to forget it, but once remembered it again, he turned to rage.

"Do you still have face to talk about it? Do you think I'm not distressed that a young man ask me to beat Anne that hard?" Loren Taylor was so triggered that he raised his voice.

Gloria Taylor covered her ears and said impatiently, "Alright, alright, I understand. If you have something to say, you can say it now."

She needed to come home quickly to cook for Leon Clarke.

Loren Taylor looked at Gloria Taylor. He noticed impatience and indifference on her face.

He once had a full assurance that she would help him persuade Kenny Clarke for an investment at the Taylor Company, but now, he was unsure of it.

He thought for a moment and sighed, "You heard what Leon Clarke said today."

Gloria Taylor didn't speak. He continued, "The company's capital chain was broken because of some investments mistakes. You're a member of the Taylor family. This time. You should help your family."

Gloria Taylor smiled sarcastically. She snorted sharply, "Isn't there my dowry worth three hundred million Yuan in the family? I have given all my selling money to the family. How else do you want me to help you? Do you want me to sell it again? I'm afraid nobody wants me."

Loren Taylor replied sternly, "At least you're married properly. Why do you speak so harshly?"

"It was supposed to be Anne's marriage." Gloria Taylor fearlessly looked him in the eye.

Loren Taylor was shocked by that eyes of hers. They were so cold and indifferent, unlike the old Gloria Taylor who held no grudge.

Since his persuasion was useless, Loren Taylor put up a cold and indifferent front as well, "Do you think the Clarke will be kind to you after our family collapse? A daughter-in-law of the Clarke family without her family support will not be able to stand firm in that family!"

"I can file a divorce if I cannot stand firmly." Gloria Taylor was indifferent.

She finally knew why Loren Taylor was willing to give her 15% of the shares and asked her to work for the company.

It turned out that he wanted to persuade her to ask Kenny Clarke for a capital injection.

The Taylor was bad at managing things, but they were good at calculating.

"Let me be honest." Gloria Taylor said seriously, "Why did Kenny Clarke agree to engage with Anne? Was there any shady business about it?"

Loren Taylor's face changed and he hurriedly replied, "What are you talking about? What do you mean your sister is not worthy of Kenny Clarke? He is the one at loss!"

His mind was always calculating. He knew that The Taylor Company was not as great as it was ten years ago. Even if he loved Anne Taylor, but he knew that under this circumstances, the possibility of the Taylor to marry the Clarke was zero.

However, the change in his face and his desperate rebuttal confirmed that there was indeed something shady in the marriage.

Gloria Taylor had always doubted the marriage. She just asked casually, but his reaction aroused her interest.

"It's late. I should go home. Let's talk again tomorrow." Gloria Taylor looked at the time, opened the door, and walked out.

Loren Taylor shouted behind, "Gloria!"

She just smiled and waved at him.

***

As soon as she entered the villa, Gloria Taylor saw Leon Clarke.

He was still wearing the retro dark blue suit he wore this morning. He looked elegant and arrogant, on condition that he kept silent.

"You came an hour late than usual. It is enough time for you to have a dinner with another man outside." Leon Clarke raised his wrist to look at the time and looked at her with a cold face.

Gloria Taylor stared at him. She threw the bag directly at him and walked to the kitchen.

Kenny Clarke caught her handbag as he watched her leaving.

Was she having a tantrum?

Suddenly, a phone rang.

Kenny Clarke found that the sound was coming from Gloria Taylor's bag.

He unzipped and took the phone.

He saw Edith's name on it.

Edith? It seemed that she was Carl Cook's little star.

He noticed that her phone was wrapped in a tough case. He could see that she loved her phone.

Kenny Clark smiled and walked to the kitchen with the ringing phone, but accidentally, his finger slide on the screen.

"Gloria, do you know that Si Chengyu has returned to Huyang City? If you have free time, you should go out and take a look. Maybe, you can run into him. I'll be back soon. I'll see if I can find him attending an event or something and maybe, I'll find a chance to take you to meet him."

Kenny Clarke listened to her and Edith Hall suddenly stopped as she wondered, "Gloria, hello? Why aren't you talking? Are you so happy that you cannot talk? Or don't you have signal there?"

This time, Gloria Taylor walked out of the kitchen, "I heard my phone ringing."

Kenny Clarke threw the phone at her and left.

Gloria Taylor almost missed the phone. She gasped and looked at Leon Clarke, "You have the worst temper ever! Are you a bipolar?!"

Gloria Taylor took the phone to the kitchen. Kenny Clarke was looking gloomy.

Kenny Clarke remembered that Gloria Taylor went home early the other day. At the same day, Si Chengyu came back to Huyang City. When they met, Si Chengyu asked a lot of questions about Gloria Taylor.

Kenny Clarke took his phone and called Shi Ye, "Check where Gloria went last Friday and check who she met with."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 69 It Was My Fault

When they were having dinner at night, she could feel that Leon Clarke's face was not right.

He would put up with cold front most of the time and when he didn't speak, he would look very imposing and sharp.

However, when he looked different with his usual self, it meant that he was in a bad mood.

Gloria Taylor put a piece of fish in his bowl, "Try this. I cook it with pepper today. See if you like it."

Leon Clarke didn't move. He just clipped the fish and threw it on the table.

"....." Gloria Taylor was stunned. It seemed that she had provoked him.

However, she clearly didn't remember when she provoked him. Was he angry because she threw her bag at him?

No way. Although this man was very stingy, but he didn't care about such small matter.

They were looking at each other and he asked, "Where did you go last Friday?"

"What?" Gloria Taylor murmured while avoiding his eyes.

He put down his chopsticks and locked his eyes on her, "Last Friday, where did you go and who did you meet?"

Gloria Taylor froze as she looked at him, "What do you mean?"

Leon Clarke's interrogating tone made her uncomfortable.

He smiled with cold eyes, "Are you starting to feel guilty? Were you having an affair?"

"What are you talking about?!"

This was not the first time he said this kind of thing, but this time, his tone was particularly excessive.

Gloria Taylor put her chopsticks on the dining table and stood up, "Even if I was sold to the Clarke for three hundred million Yuan, it doesn't mean that anyone surnamed Clarke can interfere in my affairs and dictate me!"

After that, she went out angrily.

She walked to the door and accidentally bumped into the door panel. She was very angry.

Kenny Clarke had no appetite either. He put down his chopstick and suddenly, his phone rang.

It was Shi Ye, "Sir, I have mailed you the surveillance video."

"Good work." Kenny Clarke said. He hung up the phone and went to the study.

It was a surveillance video in a pharmacy last Friday.

In the video, there were two people beside the doctor who gave her medicine.

One of the man was wearing a cap and a mask. Kenny Clarke recognized him in a second. It was Si Chengyu.

The pharmacy was located close to the suburbs. Gloria Taylor wouldn't go there if she had no certain purpose. The Taylor Company didn't make her work at the suburbs either.

In the video, Gloria Taylor grabbed Si Chengyu's arm. She was apparently asking for help.

Later, she was taken away by Si Chengyu.

The video showed that Gloria Taylor arrived at the downtown area via bus. They only talked a little after getting off the bus. There was nothing else.

The video showed Gloria Taylor's front angle. She took a few steps and turned back. Kenny Clarke wanted to see what she said, but after magnifying the video, the picture was unclear. Kenny Clarke could only guess, but he was still unsure of what she really said and there was no way to find out.

Kenny Clarke turned the computer off and rubbed his temples.

He felt that he was weird recently.

Si Chengyu was only asking a few questions about Gloria Taylor, but he was eager to find out about this thing.

***

She woke up hungry in the middle of the night.

She regretted it. She promised not to neglect her stomach the next time she was angry again.

She couldn't stand it. She rolled over and got out of the bed. After wrapping herself in a thick and long jacket, she went downstairs to find something to eat in the kitchen.

The villa was quiet at night, but because the villa was built halfway up the mountain, she could occasionally hear the hustling wind blows from outside.

In the kitchen, she grabbed some vegetables and tomatoes. She planned to cook a bowl of noodles for herself.

Just as she was cutting the tomatoes, she felt something cold behind her back as if someone was behind her.

She ignored it at first, but the feeling was getting stronger. She closed her eyes as she gathered her courage to look back. She heard someone behind her asked coldly, "What are you doing?"

Gloria Taylor was startled that she dropped the knife right on her foot.

Fortunately, she was wearing a thick, cotton slippers, otherwise, she would have been badly wounded.

Kenny Clarke was also shocked when he saw the knife fell down. He crouched to see if she was hurt. He found out that knife had not scratched her tightly wrapped foot. He stood up with a sigh of relief and said, "Gloria, I have never seen a woman as dull as you!"

Gloria Taylor returned back to her senses. She picked up the kitchen knife and glared at Kenny Clarke, "It's hard for me to cook for you every day already. Oh, I think I will stop cooking from tomorrow on. Before Kenny comes back, I will move to other villa to get out of your sight. How about that?"

Gloria Clarke put the knife back after washing it and turned to look at Leon Clarke seriously.

She was fed up with this man already.

He helped her and she was grateful to him, but it didn't mean that because he helped her, he could dictate herself.

"No way." Kenny Clarke lowered his face and said that coldly, "Do you want my cousin to think that I have kicked you out so that I and my cousin have a bad blood?"

"Whatever." Gloria Taylor lowered her head. She didn't want to argue with this man anymore.

Kenny Clark was standing backlight, while Gloria Taylor was standing facing the light. All of her subtle expression failed to escape his eyes.

She got up from bed in the middle of the night. Her hair was messy and she zipped her thick jacket up to her neck. Her face was fair and glowing under the light. Her energetic cat eyes were now covered by hanging eyelids. She looked depressed.

It took a while for her before she could hear him saying, "I was wrong before."

"What? Say it again." Gloria Taylor looked up.

Did he apologize to her?

But, Leon Clarke refused to repeat it. He glanced at the half cut tomatoes and said, "I want to eat too."

Gloria Taylor was at ease, but she was still talking back at him, "If I put poison in it, will you eat it?"

"I will eat it if you eat it too." he gave her a heavy look.

"..." he was a mental.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 70

Courage to Die

Gloria Taylor continued to cut the tomatoes and beef. She was about to make two bowls of tomato beef noodles.

When she was cutting the beef, Kenny Clarke stood by, he didn't budge. After a while, he said in an odd tone, "You cut slowly."

Said a man who never cooked, she thought.

Gloria Taylor cut the beef faster. After putting the beef slices on the plate, she turned to look at him and said, "Get out of here. Don't get in my way."

People got lonely easily when the night was late. Kenny Clarke didn't want to go to the dining table and waited for the dinner alone. He wanted to stay here watching Gloria Taylor cooking.

He made an excuse, "I want to stay here to watch you cook. What if you really poison me? I don't want to die just yet."

"I'm not stupid. If I kill you, they won't let me live either. I'm very expensive. I worth three hundred million Yuan." Gloria Taylor was only joking.

She blurted out carelessly, but apparently he took it seriously.

Kenny Clarke tried to defend himself, "It was the agreement of the elders of both sides of the family. Cousin disagreed."

"I don't blame him. What are you nervous about?" Gloria Taylor looked at him curiously, "I remembered the first day I came here you called Kenny a trash. Now, you're speaking on his behalf. Do you have a good or a bad relationship with him?"

Leon Clarke asked, "What do you think?"

I thought that you were a shameless psycho.

But, Gloria Taylor dared not say that out loud.

Gloria Taylor served two bowls of noodles on the table.

Perhaps, because of the dead of the night that they put their guard down and chatted while having the midnight dinner.

However, most of the time, she was asking about Kenny Clarke and Leon Clarke would answer her with "Hm.", "No.", "I don't know." and, "Maybe."

Gloria Taylor felt that this pair of brothers' good relationship must be fake.

***

The next morning, Gloria Taylor overslept.

She quickly washed and changed her clothes. Then, she ran out of the door.

She met Leon Clarke who seemed up.

He was the same person who got up in the middle of the night and had a bowl of noodle with her last night. Why did she oversleep and wake up depressed while he look so energetic?

He was probably made of steel.

Kenny Clarke frowned when he saw her in a bad mood, "You didn't sleep well last night?"

Gloria Taylor felt that he was just showing off.

She checked the time and left, "I'm running late. I don't have time to cook breakfast today."

She hurried downstairs.

Kenny Clarke followed and grabbed her hand, "I'll drive you."

Gloria Taylor didn't want him to drive her, but she might be late for the bus already.

In the end, Leon Clarke failed to drive her to the office because of a call. Before leaving, he asked his bodyguard to drive her.

***

Kenny Clarke went to a private tea house.

Leng Xu waited for him at the door. When he saw Kenny coming, he nodded slightly, "Young Master, Mister is waiting for you inside."

Kenny Clarke walked inside the tea house.

Randy Clarke was sitting inside a private room and his face was heavy.

"You suddenly called me. What can I do for you?" Kenny Clarke sat down at the farthest seat from Randy Clarke. His tone was indifferent. He didn't sound like talking to his own father.

Randy Clarke had long been accustomed to his attitude toward him, he just looked up and called Leng Xu, "Show him."

Leng Xu took the tablet and handed it to him.

The screen showed a headline news released this morning.

'Mrs. Clarke is suspected of being close to her husband's cousin.'

The title was striking and seemingly obscure but very appealing.

Therefore, the number of readers on this news were particularly high.

He scrolled down to see that the news were mainly rumors of Kenny Clarke's cousin and Gloria Taylor getting close.

There were also two supporting pictures attached. He and Gloria Taylor seemed warm and intimate. The background was a restaurant where Gloria Taylor and the Clarke had dinner yesterday.

"Explain this." Randy Clarke said.

Kenny Clarke nodded, "The angle of the picture is not very good and the news is a little ambiguous."

"Kenny!" Randy Clarke was so angry that he smashed the cup in front of him to the ground.

"Because of your mother, I have been holding back for so many years! You are young, so I turn a blind eye like I haven't seen your attitude! You have become more and more hostile to me. This is your revenge for not bringing your mother back, isn't it?"

Randy Clarke, the incumbent ruler of the Clarke family, naturally exuded a powerful and shard momentum.

Leng Xu took a step back.

However, Kenny Clark didn't budge. He looked at Randy Clarke with a heavy face and with a sarcastic tone he said, "What are you talking about? My mother died in the hands of her kidnapper. It has nothing to do with you. You don't have to blame it on yourself."

No one had to bear this responsibility until he found out the truth. After he found out, people connected to the case shall pray for their lives.

Randy Clarke looked at his son very carefully.

Because of his mother, Randy Clarke and Kenny Clarke had not been sitting together and talking for so many years.

Every time they met, the atmosphere got tense.

“Kenny, you’re a grown up now. You will take over the company later and you will have to reconcile with me. I have seen Gloria. She’s a kind-hearted young lady. If you don’t want to live with her, wait until the succession and you may divorce her.”

The Clarke was a big family. Many of his relatives were battling for the heir position. This time, Randy Clarke rushed Kenny Clarke to get married because most of the family members thought that Kenny Clarke was inhumane that he couldn’t inherit the company.

Since his mother died that year, Kenny Clarke had not been seeing anyone outside. Some of his relatives had never seen him again as well.

Randy Clarke even sent women to Kenny Clarke. He sent him the beautiful, brilliant, gentle, and intelligent ones, but Kenny Clarke didn’t touch them. So, they were sent out.

Randy Clarke had no choice but to have him married to shut the whole family up.

He knew that Kenny Clarke was in a perfect health. If Kenny Clarke was able to carry the pain all these years, he would also be able to carry the company.

“My relationship with Gloria Taylor has nothing to do with you. I advise you not to poke into this matter further if you don’t want to get hurt.”

Kenny Clarke thought that Gloria must have no idea about what happened today when she went to work.

He really underestimated Anne Taylor's courage to die that she dared to take such pictures and sent them to the media.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 71: Who would end up losing badly?

Kenny stood up slowly, looking Randy coldly. "You are too old to fuss about such little things anymore."

The meaning of what he said was that he didn't need Randy to take care of his business.

Randy was such a smart, and wise man that he understood Kenny right away.

He was so angry that he wanted to break something, but he refrained.

Leng Xu walking up, offered him a glass of water. "Sir, take a glass of water to calm yourself. The young master is still young now, and he'll see what you've done for him later."

Randy sighed. "I hope so."

Out of the tea house, Kenny took out his cell phone, being ready to call Gloria.

He took it out but then put it back.

He's kind of looking forward to seeing how Gloria would handle this.

...

Gloria was almost late.

When she sat down in her cubicle at work, she was acutely aware that everyone was looking at her, while the way people looked at her was strange.

Gloria took out the phone, using it as a mirror to look at her face. There was no dirt on her face, she looking as usual!

A woman, who was sitting opposite Gloria, was kind enough to point at the cell phone when she saw that Gloria seemed to know nothing at all.

Gloria finally understood, Gloria smiled at her, and then turned on her phone to surf the Internet.

She usually had the habit of surfing the Internet, reading entertainment news after getting up in the morning. Today, since she overslept, she did not read it.

The headline in the entertainment section was about her.

When she clicked in, she found the pictures of her and Leon walking outside the restaurant yesterday.

After Gloria was surprised, she calmed down.

"Leon" was so arrogant and unscrupulous that it's only a matter of time before they're photographed.

She wasn't afraid, as a straight foot was not afraid of a crooked shoe, but what would happen when the people at Clarke's saw the news?

What if Kenny saw these pictures?

Just then Loren called her. "Come to my office."

...

When Gloria went to the office, Loren was alone in his office, as Anne was beaten so badly in the face yesterday that she looked like a pig. Of course, Anne couldn't come to work today.

Loren didn't look well when he saw her. "What exactly is your relationship with Leon?"

Gloria pursed her lips, speaking in an indifferent tone. "We are not having any affair."

"If you're not having any affair, what is this?"

Loren slapped his phone in front of her, which again had a picture of her and "Leon" on it.

Gloria leaned over, rested her hands on the desk, and she raised her red lips a little. Her bright face looked gorgeous and charming, while her tone was casual. "That's a question you should ask Anne, as she took the photos secretly, so she knew best."

On her way to Loren's office, she thought carefully that only Anne had the audacity to secretly photograph them and send the photos to the press, as no one but her dared to mess with Clarke's.

Besides, only a few people actually knew her and "Leon".

"Gloria, since when have you been so thoughtless? She suffered so much yesterday for you, and now you want to accuse her!" Loren stood up angrily.

Gloria stepped back, there seemed to be a flash of cold light in her eyes, while she smiled more brightly than ever. "As for what you said yesterday, whether I choose to help you or not depends on how you deal with it."

Loren said yesterday that he wanted her to persuade Kenny to invest in the Taylor's Group. She was hesitant to ask Kenny to try, but Loren's words made her make up her mind at this moment.

Anne got what she deserved yesterday, but Loren said Anne was suffering for Gloria.

Knowing that there was a misunderstanding about her skipping work, Loren chose to patch up a quarrel and reconcile the parties concerned. He simply ignoring it, he did not even make an apology!

Of course Gloria didn't want to help Loren.

However, just like nothing was too deceitful in war, it's not certain who would end up losing badly!

Even if they had the same blood running through their bodies, once they were free of emotional bonds, they would no longer be afraid to hurt each other.

...

All day long, wherever Gloria went, she heard this news be discussed.

However, she turned her back on them all, as those who wished to ask dared not come to her about it.

By the time she left work, the top search about her and "Leon" had been removed, but there were still a lot of people talking about it in various forums and post bars.

Edith called her, too. "Next time when you're on top search, can you take me along, too? I think, with being on top search and getting the popularity, if you're on top search a few more times, you can be successful in the entertainment industry."

Gloria tried to weep, but failed to shed a tear. "Do you think I want to be on top search?"

Edith suddenly said in earnest. "To be honest, I saw the candid photos. Although there were many online water armies claimed that the candid photos were the dislocation shot, I could see at a glance that the photos were not the dislocation shot at all after being in so many scenes! I thought this guy, who called "Leon", was going to hatch a sinister plot against you. Otherwise, are you two really..."

"No, we are not having any affair!" Gloria quickly denied it. "Come back from the play as soon as you can, and I'm going to get off work. Good-bye."

After hanging up, Gloria was relieved, and then she packed up, being ready to go home from work.

As soon as she walked out the door of the Taylor's Group, before she knew it, she was surrounded by a crowd of entertainment reporters.

"Gloria, is the story about you and your husband's cousin true on the Internet?"

"Have you been entangling any other men besides your husband's cousin?"

"....." Other men? Fuck you.

Fortunately, Gloria was quick to cover her face.

It never occurred to her that she would be surrounded by entertainment reporters.

In the midst of the confusion, Gloria took out her mask, putting it on. Then she looked up, saying in a cold voice. "It's a rumor, so I have nothing to say, while I'm not in the entertainment industry yet, so I'm not obligated to answer your questions."

Some entertainment reporters were very careful to remember the key words in her words.

"Gloria, as you just said that: I'm not in the entertainment industry yet, so you mean you're going to make your debut as an entertainer later?"

Then, other entertainment reporters also asked questions on this subject. "It has been rumored that your husband may not be able to inherit the Clarke's Group due to personal health issues, so you want to enter the entertainment industry to find a way out for yourself?"

"As for the last few times you've been on top search, was it because you're deliberately hyping yourself?"

Gloria was surrounded by entertainment reporters and couldn't get out.

Suddenly, there was a sound of many people's footsteps, as a group of security guards came, they driving the entertainment reporters away.

Before Gloria realized what was happening, Colin suddenly appeared beside her. He taking her by the wrist, strode off toward the parking lot.

Gloria feeling sick at the thought of his hand touching Anne, she flung off his hand.

Colin was stunned for a moment, and then he said to her patiently. "Gloria, since the entertainment reporters will be here any minute, you get in the car first as I'll get you out of here."

Gloria hesitated for a moment, then she followed him into the car.

She dared not underestimate the power of entertainment reporters, so she'd better get out of here first.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 72

Cheating on Kenny

After Colin drove the car and left, Gloria saw that those reporters had disappeared, so she said, "Please stop by the roadside, I'm getting off, thank you for today's help. "

Colin silently pulled the car over at the side of the road, Gloria reached out to open the door, tried twice but found that the door couldn't be opened.

She turned her head to look at Colin, "The car door is locked. "

Colin also turned to look at her, his gaze a bit odd, "Gloria, it's safer for you to choose me rather than Kenny's cousin. "

"? " Gloria was in great shock. Gloria wondered if what he meant was what she thought he meant.

Seeing that Gloria didn't make a sound to interrupt him, Colin's tone became more confident, "We're both in love with each other and will definitely be happier together. More importantly, I won't let anyone find out about us. "

"Me and you, together? " Gloria pointed at him and pointed at herself.

Colin smiled and nodded. He reached out to stroke Gloria's face, "It's so hard for you to stay with that disabled Kenny. I can understand your relationship with his cousin. And I won't blame you. "

So hard?

So he meant that because Kenny couldn't give Gloria the fun of sex, she went to hook up with his cousin.

A dirty person always thinks that others are as dirty as he is! In his eyes, the whole world is black.

Gloria turned her head to avoid his outstretched hand, with a disgusted face, "You mean you want me to cheat on Kenny with you, right? "

Colin had also seen the online headlines and thought that Gloria hooked up with Kenny's cousin because she needed the love between the sexes.

Colin didn't mind Gloria's refusal at all. He got more and more excited as he said, "Kenny is not good enough for you, and we are truly in love with each other, aren't we? Why don't you just give up him and choose me? "

"What are you talking about? Who is truly in love with you? The one who is truly in love with you is Anne. I wanna leave now. If you still do not open the door, I'll call the police. " Gloria leaned tightly against the car door, looking at Colin with a wary face.

How had she not noticed that Colin was so radical before?

Anne's avoidance of him made him a little anxious, and he leaned in to Gloria with some excitement, "She is not qualified to be compared with you! "

Gloria didn't talk nonsense with him and directly took out her phone to call the police.

In the end, Colin still wanted to save face, so he just backed away a little distance and opened the car door for her.

Gloria opened the car door to go down, looking back at him, in a cold tone, "Colin, I used to like you, maybe you even don't know why I liked you, but from now on I won't like you anymore, and I won't cheat on Kenny with you. "

The more he listened to, the gloomier his face became. Gloria then turned away and no longer looked at him.

Not far out, another car stopped beside her.

She thought it was still Colin and walked especially fast. And then, a familiar voice came from the car.

"Young madam... "

Gloria turned her head in surprise, "Shi Ye? You're back? "

As a special assistant of Kenny, Shi Ye was usually the one who followed Kenny wherever he went.

After Kenny went abroad, she had never seen Shi Ye in the villa, so she guessed that he had gone abroad together with Kenny.

Shi Ye got off the car and respectfully responded and said, "Yes, the young master ordered me to come over to pick you up to go home. "

Gloria was somehow looking forward to meeting with Kenny, but she knew in her heart that Kenny would probably still ignore her.

Even so, Gloria still happily got into the car.

After getting into the car, her excitement disappeared and she calmed down, then she got a little nervous.

How could Kenny just come back at this time?

Did he just get back or was he already here in the morning? Had he seen the news about her and "Leon" ?

If... If he had seen the news, would he...

No, there is no need to use "if". Even if he hadn't seen it, someone would have told him.

She could be sure that the people who came out to suppress the news was the Taylor family.

The Taylor family knew about it, and Kenny must have known about it too.

With an apprehensive heart, the car stopped in front of the villa.

"Young madam, please get out of the car. We have arrived. " Shi Ye stepped forward and opened the car door with a respectful tone.

Gloria got off the car, took a glance towards the second floor where Kenny's study was located, and asked Shi Ye, "Is Kenny in the study? "

Shi Ye, "No, the young master is resting now. "

Gloria nodded, and as soon as she entered, she saw "Leon" who was sitting on the sofa and drinking coffee leisurely.

She was so angry, but because the presence of Shi Ye, she could only hold back the anger. She just glared at "Leon" and walked upstairs.

As soon as she left, Shi Ye walked up to Kenny and said respectfully, "Young Master, Colin met with the young madam just now. "

Colin asked in a light tone, "Oh? What for? "

Shi Ye still successfully caught a hint of unusual feeling from his light tone.

When he recalled that he saw Colin and Gloria in the car very close to each other and behaved in a somewhat intimate manner, he naturally didn't dare to say it to Kenny.

So he chose to say something that he thought was safe, "They stayed in the car for a while, and then the young madam got out. "

"How long has she been in the car? " Kenny put the coffee in his hand on the coffee table, leaning back, overlapping.

Shi Ye knew that he had said something wrong, "Just a little while, ten minutes or so... "

"Oh? Only ten minutes or so? You picked up people for over an hour before you came back. " Kenny's gaze suddenly became very sharp.

Shi Ye didn't dare to speak.

Kenny narrowed his eyes and didn't ask any more questions, as if he didn't intend to hear a satisfactory answer from Shi Ye.

When Glora went downstairs, "Leon" was not in the lobby.

She ran to ask the bodyguard guarding the door, "Where did Leon go? "

The bodyguard answered, "He's out. "

"Oh. " Gloria nodded and went to the kitchen to cook.

"Leon" was not home, and she felt that the air in the house had become a lot fresher.

Kenny had just returned from a tough trip, so she decided to make something light for him.

Before she had finished cooking, Shi Ye came in and said, "Young madam, I have to go out to do something, could you please give the young master food later? "

Gloria was a bit confused, it's almost evening, and why did they have so many things to do?

"Okay, I'll give it to him when I'm done. " Gloria was happy to do something for Kenny.

Soon, she made the food and carried it upstairs, and went directly to Kenny's study.

She stood at the door and knocked on the door, no one answering inside. So she just opened the door and got in.

She put the food on the table and decided to leave. However, when she turned around, she saw "Kenny" .

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 73 Coax Her With A Sweet Date After Slapping Her

Gloria frowned at him, "Didn't you go out?"

Kenny didn't expect Gloria to finish making the dinner so soon. He almost exposed himself.

He calmly said, "I can't come back?"

Gloria was still thinking about the news on the Internet. She was not in the mood to argue with "Leon". She said seriously, "Come out. I have to talk to you."

Her tone was a little dignified, and her poker face really made her look a little serious. But when she stared at Kenny intently with her big and bright cat eyes, he didn't feel her coldness, but thought she was attractive.

He put his hands into the pocket of his trousers and followed her slowly.

The most unlikely place to be visited at this time was the restaurant.

Gloria took him to the restaurant. Her voice was soft and cold, "Leon, because of you, I have become the target of public criticism. Are you satisfied now? "

She couldn't understand what was on Leon's mind.

If he was really interested in her, as early as she was calculated by Anne to go to Zijin club and be drugged, he could take the opportunity to have sex with her when he came to save her and took her back.

But he didn't.

However, she was always harassed and teased by him.

She had met many dandy young men who could easily dally with women with ease. They wouldn't spend too much time and energy on a woman. They would tease her for a while at most, and then go straight to the topic.

It was because Leon didn't do anything to her that time that she felt Leon didn't harbor any evil intention to her.

However, he still acted frivolously in front of her again and again, causing her trouble.

"Me too. I've been scolded badly, haven't I?" Kenny tilted his head, and he looked a little innocent.

What a shameless man.

Gloria glanced at him coldly, "You think I didn't read those people's comments! They didn't scold you. They all praised your physical proportion. They thought you must have an amazing figure after taking off your clothes!"

She really didn't understand that part of the netizens. Why could they be so partial? If they wanted to scold, they should scold both of them!

Why should she be scolded and "Leon" be praised?

Kenny's eyes narrowed slightly, and his expression was a little strange. He said in a very generous tone, "You women can see that? But if you want to see my figure, I can take off my clothes and show you."

"..... I don't care. Don't change the topic!" Gloria found that "Leon" was changing the topic completely.

"Leon" didn't seem to hear her. He took a few strides and left the restaurant. His voice was lazy, "I'm sleepy. I'm going to sleep."

Gloria was a little frustrated.

She exhaled a long, irritated breath and took out her phone to text Kenny, I have put the food in your study.

After more than ten seconds, an "okay" was sent back.

Gloria was in a heavy mood and didn't eat much. She guessed Kenny had finished eating, so she went upstairs.

She knocked on the door and entered. Kenny still had his back to her as before.

All the food on the trays on the desk were emptied. She remembered that Kenny would also eat up the food she made before.

The meal she cooked should agree very well with him.

Gloria asked him happily, "Would you like some fruit? Or something to drink?"

"No." Kenny's voice was still hoarse, completely unlike that of a young man.

Gloria was at a loss on one side. She was mentally disturbed, not knowing what to say.

All of a sudden, Kenny asked her, "You are the young mistress of the Clarke family. If you can be in your position obediently, we will live in peace with each other, otherwise..."

There was a little personal emotion in what he said, which made his hoarse voice sound a little gloomy, especially the words that he didn't finish intentionally. It gave her a kind of creepy feeling.

Gloria involuntarily held her arms, bit her lip and explained, "I swear, nothing happened between I and Leon."

She thought Kenny would say these words because he had read the news.

"Leon doesn't have a thing for you. I believe in him naturally." Kenny's voice was clearly a little serious.

Did he mean that she had a thing for other men?

Kenny was obviously speaking for Leon! She knew it would be like this!

Kenny loved "Leon" very much, so naturally he wouldn't believe that his beloved cousin would do anything improper to his wife. So he directed the spearhead at her.

Gloria asked him, "What about me? You don't believe me?"

Kenny kept silent for a while and said, "Why should I believe you? Your appearance is even fake."

Gloria, "....." She couldn't refute.

If she was willful and arrogant, she could refute recklessly, "Why can't I disguise myself if you dare not see me with your true face?"

Kenny was different from the Taylor family. His attitude to her was clear and straightforward at the beginning, so she couldn't take his shortcomings to poke his wound.

"If there is nothing else, go out. Later, I'll let Shi Ye take you to work and bring you back." Kenny said, and then he stopped speaking.

Suddenly, Gloria stared up at him in a mixed mood.

How did she feel like Kenny was coaxing her with a sweet date after slapping her?

What he did was very similar to what Leon did.

Leon had always been sometimes good and sometimes bad to her.

Probably because they had lived together for a long time, they had very similar temperament.

After Gloria left, Kenny turned around and rubbed his temples.

He felt like he was getting enmeshed in a web of his own spinning.

Gloria seemed to hate "Leon" more and more. If she hated "Leon" a little more, she would like "Kenny" a little more. When she knew his identity, it may not be so difficult for her to accept.

...

The news on the Internet was pressed down in this way.

Although it was mentioned occasionally, it didn't stir up much storm.

But in real life, it was not so easy to let the matter go.

There were a large number of female employees in the marketing department that Gloria was in. Every day, they got together to gossip, and naturally they would talk about Gloria.

The next early.

Gloria arrived at the company, and the employees of the Taylor Group all looked at her in surprise.

After she walked away, she still heard whispers from behind.

"I didn't expect her to come back to work today!"

"Is Mr. Clarke so generous? His wife and his cousin have hooked up, but he doesn't care about it?"

"Don't say that. What if Gloria and his cousin are innocent!"

"It's true. How can the Clarke family tolerate this kind of thing? If it really happens, they won't let Gloria go!"

"Oh, are you silly! Where there's reek and there's heat."

"....."

After all, these rumors were just some speculations.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 74 "She's not like that."

In the office of Sheng Ding Media. Carl Cook looked at Kenny Clarke, who was sitting behind the desk, pushed his glasses and put the documents on the desk in a decent manner, said like a secretary, "Mr. Clarke, this is all for you to sign."

The documents used to be sent by the secretary but Carl Cook came to send it as he had a purpose. Because of this, as soon as he put down the file, Kenny Clarke drove him out, "Go out!"

Carl Cook was always cheeky in front of Kenny Clarke, he took his glasses and raised eyebrows, which was like a dandy. Carl Cook said with a tone of sympathy, "Kenny, I really sympathize with you that your wife and your

'cousin' cheated on you, I would love to interview you, how are you feeling now?"

Kenny Clarke looked up at him, "Do you want to go to Africa to expand your business?"

Carl Cook quickly shook his head, "No, I don't."

Of course, he didn't want to go to Africa!

"Why you still here?" Kenny Clarke didn't want to hear him mention it again. But Carl Cook still stayed there and asked him, "What if Gloria Taylor fell in love with 'Leon Clarke' and shook with you on bed? What if she knew that you are 'Kenny Clarke'?"

Kenny Clarke interrupted him without thinking, "It's impossible."

"It's impossible to know that you are Kenny Clarke? Do you really think that you can keep it from her all forever?"

Carl Cook always thought that Kenny Clarke was a very powerful person but he did not think he could be so powerful.

"She is not that kind of person." Kenny Clarke said.

Carl Cook understood the meaning of the words, he stretched out his hand pompously and slapped in front of his nose, saying sarcastically, "How can you be sure that she is not that kind of person as you just been with her for a short time? Well, I seem to smell the sour smell of love."

Fu Tingxi came in from outside and happened to hear his words, he asked confusedly, "What?"

Carl Cook said with a meaningful tone, "Anyway, it's not the sour smell on our body and it's fragrance as we are single."

But as a straight man, Fu Tingxi did not understand him. Carl Cook explained, "The sour smell of love. Well, I know why you are single!"

Fu Tingxi, who had been urged to get married by her mother every month since several years ago, was very sensitive to this topic. He chuckled and said, "Someone's childhood sweetheart left him even if they had tasted each other."

Carl Cook rushed towards Fu Tingxi and beat him, "I didn't plan to go alive when I came."

Carl Cook had a childhood sweetheart that grew up together but she left him. Kenny Clarke thought that it was the star named Edith Hall who had a good relationship with Gloria Taylor, he only remembered her name recently. Carl Cook used to be a stubborn who always fought with others. He fought with Fu Tingxi for a long time and finally ended up with him throwing Fu Tingxi on the ground. Kenny Clarke had been used to this kind of scene for a long time and said, "Tidy up before go out!"

They had no choice but to listen to him.

Gloria Taylor spent the whole day in rumor. Maybe people would stop mentioning it after they got tired of talking about it. Shi Ye called her when she was off work and said that he might pick her up later as there was a traffic jam on the road. She was out of the Taylor Group, preparing to find a place to wait Shi Ye.

"Gloria."

She turned around and saw Tina Walker.

Gloria Taylor was a little surprised and asked coldly, "What's up?"

"Is it true that you hook up with Kenny Clarke's cousin as the news said?" Tina Walker was uncharacteristically concerned.

Gloria Taylor felt that Tina Walker was strange and looked at her suspiciously, "What's wrong with you?"

No matter how much Tina Walker did not care about her, she could not completely leave her alone. Tina Walker smiled, "Just knowing that many people scolded you very badly online and I'm worried about you....."

She sighed and said again, "It's all my fault, these things would not happen if I didn't ask you to marry Kenny Clarke and you would not be like this now."

Gloria Taylor felt that her words became more and more outrageous and she was more confused, "You can say what you want directly."

She did not believe that Tina Walker really regretted.

"Well, would you love to tell mom the truth that are you really with Kenny Clarke's cousin? Last time I saw both of you in the car....."

"Why do you care about me suddenly? What's your purpose?" Gloria Taylor asked warily.

"Gloria, although I didn't care about you very much before, I care about you sincerely."

Gloria Taylor's phone rang, which was from Shi Ye. She told him, "I'm at the door, just come over."

Tina Walker grabbed her arm suddenly and asked anxiously, "Who is coming to pick you up?"

"It was Kenny Clarke who asked someone to take me." Gloria Taylor felt that her behavior became stranger. What Tina Walker had just said touched her a little but looking at her cruel face now, she felt tired and numb.

"I don't know what Anne Taylor want to do to me by using you but I kindly remind you to think more about yourself instead of attaching to dad."

Anne Taylor would never be filial to Tina Walker in the future and she only treated her as a servant who warmed the bed for her dad. However, Tina Walker did not realize that.

She stunned for a moment when she heard Gloria Taylor's words. Gloria Taylor sat in the car and looked at Tina Walker who was still standing in the place where they just talked. Her expression was difficult to distinguish because she lowered her head, Gloria Taylor could feel her hesitation.

What did she hesitate about? She hesitated whether she should help Anne Taylor against Gloria Taylor? She was obviously playing with Gloria Taylor; she had been a rich and stable life these years but she did not know that Gloria Taylor had seen through her. Gloria Taylor noticed her purpose and carefully avoided the questions she asked about 'Leon Clarke'. No matter what means and tricks they had, they were all useless to Gloria Taylor.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 75 Taking Her Back And Giving Her a Lesson

Back at the villa, Gloria first went online to see if there was any news or topics related to her that popped up.

She read so much news and still didn't find any news about her. Then she went to the kitchen to cook.

When having dinner, Kenny still hadn't shown up as usual, and "Leon" also disappeared.

At this time, she realized that as long as Kenny was at home, "Leon" would be so busy that he often didn't have dinner at home.

Gloria shook her head and thought that she might have been bullied by "Leon" so much that she even felt unusual when he was not at home.

The next day.

Shi Ye drove her to Taylor Company on time.

When he returned, he saw a car parked in front of the villa from a distance.

As he parked and entered, he asked the bodyguard at the gate, "Someone is here to see young master? "

The bodyguard nodded and said, "She said she is the young lady's mother. "

Because of the special situation of Kenny, the villa was guarded by many bodyguards for years, and he hadn't been in the public eye all these years, so there were no obvious friends, and very few people would come to see him.

Even if someone were to come looking for him, it would not be easy to meet him.

When Shi Ye heard that, he walked in, and then he saw Tina sitting on the couch.

He had helped Kenny check the information, so he also knew Tina.

What's more, this woman looked much more graceful and elegant than she was in the picture. She must be a charming beauty when she was young.

He asked a bodyguard to come and said, "Get a cup of tea for Mrs. Walker. "

After he said that, he went to the study to tell Kenny.

For the past two days, Kenny always asked Shi Ye to drive Gloria to the office before going to Sheng Ding Company, and at this time he was still in the study.

Shi Ye opened the door and respectfully reported, "Young Master, Mrs. Walker is here. "

"Which Mrs. Walker? " He didn't even raise his head. He obviously didn't realize who the "Mrs. Walker" Shi Ye was talking about was.

"The young madam's mother. "

Kenny suddenly raised his head and thought for a while, then he guessed the purpose of Tina coming to him.

He seemed to be interested in this, "Let her come up. I want to talk to her. "

When Tina arrived at Kenny's study, she thought she could see Kenny. However, he found him sitting with his back to her, not showing up at all.

Shi Ye spoke, "If Mrs. Walker has something to say, just say it. I will listen to you. "

Tina clutched the corner of her coat and spoke with shame, "Mr. Clarke, I came today to apologize to you on behalf of my daughter. "

After she finished speaking, she wanted to see how Kenny reacted, and when she found that he didn't make a sound, she continued, "It's because I didn't teach Gloria properly, and she did something wrong to you. She married you in place of her sister to be your family member, and you are so kind that you didn't show cold-shoulder to her. However, while you were not home, she actually seduced your cousin into doing something like that... "

Hearing what she said, even Shi Ye felt so inexplicable.

Hadn't the young madam and young master been getting along well recently? Why does young madam's mother come here to talk nonsense?

Why does this woman blacken her daughter? Is she crazy?

Kenny had known before that the Taylor family's relations were complicated, Tina didn't care for Gloria and only loved Anne. Now he really knew that it was true.

As he was about to say something, the door of the study was suddenly pushed by force, it hitting the wall and making a loud sound.

Tina and Shi Ye both turned their heads and saw Gloria, who should be working in the company as this time, was standing in front of them. Her face was so gloomy and cold.

Hearing this sound, Kenny guessed who this person was without looking back.

Gloria looked into Tina's eyes and coldly said, "Mom, why do you speak ill of me in front of my husband secretly? If you are really telling the truth with a clear conscience, why didn't you say all these things in front of me? "

"Aren't you... Aren't you at work? " Tina's face suddenly turned so pale.

During this period of time, she clearly felt that Gloria had no longer been obedient to her like she used to be, and sometimes Gloria's look made her feel so scared.

"If I don't come back, how can I hear you saying such considerate words? " Gloria spoke as she slowly walked towards Tina.

She had been to the office, but today's mission was to go out and do market research, and when she came out, she found that she forgot to bring her cell phone, so she came back to get it.

As she passed by Kenny's study, she actually heard Tina's voice.

"Are you apologizing to my husband for me? " Gloria sneered, "You're really my good mother. "

Tina involuntarily took two steps backwards, taking one thing out from her bag, "I... I have evidence! "

Gloria took a clear look and realized that she was holding a recording pen.

It turned out that Tina came to find her yesterday because of this.

It's really hard for such a cowardly person as Tina to dare to come to see Kenny, and without any doubt, it must be Anne who asked Tina to do so without letting Loren know.

Loren was still counting on Gloria to help him raise funds with Kenny, if he knew, he naturally wouldn't have let Anne do such a thing.

Tina had pressed the play button, the entire recording was not long, and there were two sentences that were most crucial.

"Tell mom the truth, are you and that cousin of Kenny really together? At that time, I saw you in the car... "

"Does it have anything to do with you? Even if I am in love with his cousin, it is none of your business, OK? "

Gloria clearly remembered what she had said at that time was "Why are you suddenly so concerned about my affairs? What do you want? "

How dare she insult me with such a shitty synthesized recording!

Anne paid the media to publish the news because she secretly took pictures of her and "Leon", but ended up causing no influence on Gloria at all. So Anne was so angry that she directly wanted to reveal it in front of Kenny.

"Mr. Clarke, have you heard it? Gloria admitted it in front of me yesterday. It's all my fault. I didn't teach her well so that she became such an immoral woman. I want to take her back and give her a lesson. "

Gloria was so angry that she couldn't say any words and just wanted to laugh, eyes fixed on Kenny.

The study was quiet for a moment before the man's hoarse voice came. "She has married me, so she has become a member of my family. I don't need anyone else to educate her for me. You have no such a right. "

"But she... " Tina didn't expect that Kenny's attitude could be like this.

When she came over, Anne had told her that as long as she took out the recording, it would definitely anger Kenny, and then he would definitely let Gloria get out of Clarke family...

Although Gloria knew in her heart that Kenny would not believe this faked recording, his words still warmed her heart and she couldn't help but say so softly, "I'm sorry for disturbing you with my family business. "

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 76 "My man is better than him even if a finger."

Kenny Clarke said nothing. Gloria Taylor looked at Tina Walker with a mocking look and went out. However, Tina Walker did not understand what was going on. Shi Ye approached her, "Mrs. Taylor, please!"

Shi Ye nodded slightly and raised his hand, which was obviously driving her away. Tina Walker had always been cowardly, knowing that she was holding a fake recording, then she walked away. At the door, Gloria Taylor held her arms and leaned on the door, staring at her.

Tina Walker hesitated forward, "Gloria, you..."

"Do you mind giving me a ride?" Gloria Taylor said coldly. This kind of her was a new person to Tina Walker but she still nodded.

In the car, the two sat side by side in the back seat, Gloria Taylor asked, "Is it Anne Taylor who asked you to come here?"

Her cold tone even showed a sense of oppression, which made Tina Walker block the word 'No' at her mouth, she answered, "Yes."

"I remember what she said before, she said that who was obedient like a dog?" Gloria Taylor hooked her lips and smiled like a demon.

Hearing that, Tina Walker was angry but still tried to interpret for Anne Taylor, "She was just confused for a while and she was very good to me. Gloria, I found that Kenny Clarke trust you very much, you must get along well with him. Can you stop fighting against your sister and make her unhappy? She had been so angry that she had eaten less because of your business....."

Gloria Taylor clenched her hands and shouted at her suddenly, "Enough!"

Tina Walker was stunned as she had never been shouted by her. there was sadness and anger in Gloria Taylor's eyes but there were no tears under her eyes. This was the first time that she was so hysterical in front of Tina Walker.

“Even if you never treat me as your own daughter, but at least take me as a person! I also have a heart; I am not an object that never be sad to use at your disposal. I am a person! a person who had feelings!”

“I know.....” Tina Walker was frightened by her, but she still said, “it’s not easy for me to be at Taylor family for so many years and I just want you to help me.....”

“So, have I been easy all these years? You didn’t buy me a dress since I was born and all of which were left by Anne Taylor and servants. Every time you make cookies and fruits for Anne Taylor, I have to eat the rest of her. And now, I was forced to marry Kenny Clarke and you still fight against me.....”

Gloria Taylor closed her eyes to force tears back and shouted to the driver, “Stop here!”

Seeing that Gloria Taylor was about to get off, Tina Walker quickly pulled her, “Gloria, listen to me please.....”

“Go away!” Gloria Taylor flicked her hand away, “Don’t touch me!”

She was afraid that she would do something bad to Tina Walker if she looked at her again. The hatred and disgust in her eyes forced Tina Walker to let her go and dared not say anything more.

.....

The place where Gloria Taylor got off was not far from Taylor Group and she walked to there. Huyang City was south but the seasons were distinct. At the moment, the temperature of outside was only four or five degrees and the wind blew on the face, which made her feel hurt, but this kind of pain was less than a tenth as painful as her heart. She walked too fast and the wind blew fiercely, which made it difficult for her to breathe and ventilate and there was an illusion of suffocation.

She went straight to the office of Anne Taylor when she got the company. Her face was almost swollen and covered with a thick layer of rouge powder. Seeing Gloria Taylor came, Anne Taylor said with a bit of disgust in her eyes, "What are you doing here?"

But she quickly found that Gloria Taylor was in a bad mood. Suddenly, Gloria Taylor reached out across the desk and lifted her from the chair by holding her shirt, "Is it easy for you to against me by using my mom? Poor woman like you who lives on a calculation every day, do you really think Kenny Clarke is stupid as Colin Hall? My man is better than him even a finger! We will see if you disturb Kenny Clarke again."

Gloria Taylor was grateful for his trust in her and she blamed herself because of it. Kenny Clarke was introverted and did not like socializing but Anne Taylor asked Tina Walker to bother him.

Gloria Taylor slammed Anne Taylor back on her chair after she said. Her waist hit the armrest of the chair but she was so painful that she forgot to make a sound. Looking at the coldness of her eyes, Anne Taylor dared not say any words. Seeing Anne Taylor being like that, Gloria Taylor went out with a sneer. Anne Taylor relived until the door was closed. Thinking of what Gloria Taylor just said, Anne Taylor immediately called Tina Walker who had always been extremely fast to answer the call of Gloria Taylor.

"Anne....."

Tina Walker just called her name and was interrupted impatiently, "How is the thing going? Has Kenny Clarke been furious? And, did you see what he looks like?"

She asked Tina Walker to look for him, not only to provoke his anger with fake recordings, but also to confirm whether he was really ugly. After all, Gloria Taylor had spoken for him in front of her more than once. She is beautiful now and should raise her demands on her life partner, how could she be willing to be with a wreck? So, Anne Taylor was suspicious.

"I didn't see his face clearly....." Tina Walker knew that she had broken things down and said lowly, "And he didn't believe the recording at all, he said that Gloria Taylor is his families, I don't have the right to....."

Hearing that, Anne Taylor was angrier, "A wreck can be so arrogantly and let's see what will happen when he was kicked out of the heir of the Clarke Group."

Tina Walker knew that Anne Taylor was angry and she blamed herself, "I'm sorry, Anne....."

"Well, don't you always be like this? You can't do anything!"

Ding.....

The call was hung up. Tina Walker looked at the phone in her hand and Gloria Taylor's hatred and disgusted expression appeared in her mind. She did seem to be doing nothing. However, she really just wanted to stay at Taylor family. Was she wrong to please Loren Taylor and Anne Taylor? Gloria was her own daughter, why didn't she understand her hard situation?

.....

Shi Ye waited for a long time at the door of Taylor Group but he did not see Gloria Taylor when all the people left.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 77 I Will Accompany You If You Wanna Drink

Shi Ye called Gloria again and realized that something was wrong when there was still no answer.

He was about to call Kenny, and Kenny took the initiative to call and ask about the situation.

"Why aren't you back yet? Haven't you picked up Gloria? "

When saying the latter half of the sentence, the tone of Kenny was clearly a little colder.

"No, she didn't answer the phone, I suspect she might have left long ago, or else... " Something had happened.

He didn't dare to say the last three words but Kenny had already guessed it..

After a long while, the voice of Kenny came from the phone with obviously anger, "Then why don't you go and find her? "

"Yes. I will go immediately now. "

Hanging up the phone, Kenny picked up his jacket and went out.

It was only after he got in the car in the garage and drove out that he had time to think.

Tina's visit to him today must have dealt a big blow to Gloria.

Although she looked fierce, she was actually a paper tiger.

The likelihood of something going wrong was very small, but the likelihood of her hiding and grieving was a little more likely.

At that moment, his phone suddenly rang.

Looking down, he found that it was Carl calling.

"What is it? "

Carl still was saying in the casual tone, "You sound so bad, what made you so angry? "

Kenny didn't wanna talk to him, so he just directly hung up the phone.

In a bustling bar, seeing the phone that had been hung up, Carl sighed and took photos of Gloria who was sitting not far from him, and then he sent them to Kenny

You dare to hang up my phone call?

I will let you call me immediately!

Sure enough, the call from Kenny soon came, his voice cold and impersonal, "Address. "

"Is this the attitude of a beggar?" Carl had a rare opportunity to bully Kenny and was reluctant to tell him so soon.

"There are still openings for the African expansion business. If you want, you can go there. "

"Fuck! " Carl cursed and told the address of the bar to Kenny.

Kenny threatened him with this every time, but it also worked every time.

Because this kind of thing had been done by the Kenny. In the past, Carl once was ousted directly to Africa by Kenny due to his carelessness with a tremendous batch of omissions.

For Kenny, every word he says must be serious. He isn't a person that loves joking.

In the bar.

After Gloria drank all the wine in the glass, she still didn't feel drunk at all, and she then directly asked for another dozen beers.

Not getting drunk easily was a good thing usually, but at this moment, she felt it so bad. She just wanted to make herself drunk and forget about all the trouble, but now, it seemed impossible.

Seeing that she was drinking alone, many men all paid attention to her and watched her behavior secretly.

Finally, two men tentatively came forward to talk.

"Hey girl, are you alone? "

Gloria glanced at them, both men were wearing suits and looked like elite people, and Gloria thought that they both should be senior executives in their company.

Gloria ignored them and drank on her own.

There was no refusal, and they thought that Gloria had agreed to drink with them together.

The two men thought they had figured out what Gloria meant and sat down next to her.

The coat on Gloria's body had been taken off, and the slim knitted shirt she wore inside just outlined the curves of her slender body, attracting the two of them so much.

The two men beside just fixed their eyes on her body.

"Beauty, it's no fun drinking alone, let's drink together! "

Of course, Gloria had seen through their real thoughts and she just smiled, "Fine, let's drink together and play something interesting. "

The man suddenly got interested and asked her, "What to play? "

Gloria tilted her head and raised her hand to her chin, looking both sexy and a bit innocent. "Play dice. "

The two men smiled at each other, revealing a confident smile, "OK! "

This woman wanted to play dice with them? By the time she was drunk, it would become them playing her.

The two men were originally confident, but after playing a few games in a row, they found that the wine in front of Gloria hadn't been drunk, while they had already finished drunk several bottles of wine. They found that they couldn't defeat her!

Gloria smiled innocently, "You guys are so good at drinking that you haven't been drunk after drinking so much. "

She said as she continued to get the wine for them.

Carl, who was watching all this process, had wanted to come over when those two men came up to talk with Gloria, but seeing Gloria's nonchalant look, he just didn't move, planning to wait and see what would happen.

The two men were almost drunk, but the wine in front of her was still full, making Carl also want to come up and play a few games with Gloria.

At this moment, there was a commotion at the entrance of the bar.

Carl looked up and saw that Kenny was walking over here.

Kenny was very tall and had extraordinary temperament. He could be recognized even when walking in the crowd. He looked like he could shine.

The light in the sprinkle bar was dim. He couldn't see the face of Kenny clearly, but he vaguely felt that Kenny's mood was not very good.

Carl knew that something terrible would happen and he immediately went to Gloria.

However, he was not at all as fast as Kenny walked.

As soon as Kenny entered the door, he had seen Gloria.

He had seen her smiling and sitting with other men playing dice and drinking quite happily.

Well, he was so anxious to come over, while she was leisurely playing happily with other men.

Gloria was back to the entrance, so she didn't see Kenny. Just when he got close to her, she suddenly felt her back so cold, which made her immediately turn back to have a look.

Seeing that Kenny was standing behind her, Gloria was stunned, "Why are you here?"

The two men were already half drunk, and when they saw another man coming, they spoke up and asked, "Who's this? Your man?"

Gloria looked back at them and said with a serious face, "My cousin, handsome, right? Many girls are chasing him. "

Kenny's face became so gloomy, looking at the empty bottle in front of her, calculating how much wine she had drunk.

After saying that, she reached out and pulled the arm of "Leon", "Come and sit down! Let's drink together. "

"Gloria, come home! " The face of Kenny was so cold that it looked like it was covered with ice.

"No, I don't want to go home. I have no home! " Gloria bowed her head and drank all the wine in front of her, the smile on her face disappeared in an instant, leaving only desolation.

Ever since she was a child, she had never been loved by her parents. Her growth was hard, but she had also envisioned finding her true love and make a beautiful and happy family. However, she then was pushed by her mother to replace Anne to marry Kenny.

Did she still have a home?

No, she didn't.

When Kenny heard the words, he just kept looking at her for a few seconds, moved his lips, and eventually said nothing to comfort her. And then, he went to her side and sat down, "If you want to drink, I'll accompany you. "

His voice was as low as usual, but at this moment, Gloria felt it better than usual.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 78 You would be wrapped up in body bag soon

As soon as Kenny sat down, the aura of anger was on him, waking up the other two men who were already half drunk.

When they saw that Kenny was a tall man with extraordinary temperament, they couldn't help but have some fear. When they looked at Gloria again, their eyes changed.

Does this woman have any background?

Gloria glanced at "Leon", then turned to look at the other two men: "What are you waiting for? Just play, come on!"

With that, she "opened" several bottles of wine again.

The two men glanced at Kenny, while Kenny threw a cold glance to them. Suddenly, they looked slightly pale.

They were not young and had experienced a lot in this society for so many years. They knew who can provoke and who cannot, so they both got up and said, "We have business to do, so we must go."

Gloria looked at the backs of the two men and felt a little disappointed. She turned around and blamed "Leon", "You scared my wine buddy away, now you accompany me to drink?"

"I'll accompany you." Kenny glanced at her, lowered his head to pick up the beer she had just opened, and raised his head to start drinking.

Gloria turned her head and saw his throat knot rolling constantly because of drinking, looking inexplicably sexy.

Soon, Kenny finished drinking up a bottle of beer. With that, he turned the bottle upside down, and no beer dripped out of the bottle.

He really drank up the beer.

Gloria also took a bottle and began to drink.

She narrowed her eyes slightly and lifted her slender neck, looking very delicate.

Carl, who wanted to come over, watched the two drinking one bottle after a bottle, and didn't bother to come over to disturb them. Instead, he happily took a video and sent it to Fu Tingxi to watch the fun together.

...

Kenny didn't expect Gloria to have such a good capacity for liquor. After a dozen beers, her eyes were still clear.

But soon, he realized he was wrong.

Gloria slammed the empty bottle on the table, then stretched her arm and placed it on Kenny's shoulder.

But because Kenny was taller than her even though he sat down, which made it hard for her to place her arm on Kenny. After failing once, she finally caught him on the shoulder.

Not only that, she turned her head closer to him with a very serious tone: "I have something to discuss with you."

When she talked, a smell of alcohol surrounded him. But it was not annoying at all. On the contrary, she was a bit enchanting, making Kenny's heart shiver.

However, her tone was too serious. So Kenny frowned and asked her, "What's the matter?"

They all said the truth after drinking, this woman wanted to tell him her secret?

Gloria glanced around, and then said in a mysterious voice, "I want to go to the bathroom, but my head is a little dizzy, you help me go."

"..."

Kenny's face suddenly turned black.

Seeing that Kenny didn't move, Gloria shoved his arm: "Don't be so stingy. I have cooked for you so many times. But you don't want to help me with such a minor matter?"

Kenny squinted at her, her pretty cat eyes narrowed slightly, looking a little misty.

It seemed that she was really drunk.

If it were usual, she might not be able to tell him to help her go to the toilet.

Kenny thought about it and gritted his teeth: "I will help you."

Looking at the lively Carl in the corner, Kenny helped Gloria stand up, thinking that the two were finally about to leave.

So he followed.

However, on the way, he found it was the wrong direction.

When he looked up again, he watched Kenny help Gloria into the women's toilet.

Carl, "..."

Gloria quickly solved her physical problems. When she came out and saw "Leon" standing at the door, she said in surprise: "What are you doing standing at the door of the women's toilet? I didn't expect you to have this hobby!"

At this time, two women came to the toilet. When they heard Gloria's words, the two quickly turned around and left.

Kenny held back his anger: "Shut up!"

He regretted drinking with her now.

Kenny had a black face and looked a bit scary, while Gloria glanced at him, then bowed her head and shut her mouth obediently.

Kenny pulled her and went out.

After two steps, Gloria struggled again and said, "Well, could you please pay attention to hygiene? I haven't washed my hands yet!"

Kenny, "..."

Kenny had to hold his temper and took her back to wash her hands.

He unscrewed the faucet for her, but instead of washing her hands, she stretched out a finger like a child and circled around the water column.

Kenny felt that all his patience in the past 26 years had been spent on Gloria tonight.

He tensed his face, squeezed hand sanitizer and rubbed foam on his hand, then pulled her hand and started washing her hands.

Gloria's hands were smaller and softer than his, and they were slippery when she applied hand sanitizer. She deliberately withdrew her hands like having fun.

Kenny reproached coldly: "Keep quiet!"

Gloria was frightened by his voice, then gave him a timid look, and said feelingly, "Even my mother hasn't helped me wash my hands, you are really nice."

Kenny's movements paused, the cold expression on his face eased slightly, and his voice was low and deep: "I can do better."

Gloria looked confused: "Ah?"

Kenny's eyes deepened and his voice was lower: "I'll show you at home."

He carefully dried Gloria's hands, took her back to the hall, took her clothes and covered her, intending to take her back.

Gloria started to make trouble again at this time: "No, no, I haven't had enough, I still have to drink."

Talking, she reached out to grab the wine bottle.

At this time, a group of people came out of a box inside, and one of them deliberately hit Kenny when passing by them.

Then a frivolous voice came, "Oh, you guy, your muscles are very hard. You make me hard."

The group of people behind him laughed immediately.

Gloria came with the bottle: "What's hard?"

Kenny sullenly pressed her head back, kicking directly on the person who spoke.

The man flew away at once, and the sound of "bang" on the ground sounded painful.

Others saw it and gathered around: "Just kidding, boy, if you now kneel down and call us grandpa, we will let you go today, or else..."

Suddenly, there was a "bang" again.

Everyone turned around and saw a woman standing on a chair with a bottle of wine half-crushed.

Seeing everyone watching her, Gloria pointed at the person who spoke violently, "You son of bitch, come and kowtow to apologize. If you pleased me, maybe I would leave mercy to you! Otherwise, you would be wrapped up in body bag soon!"

Gloria tilted her head and squinted her eyes, looking imposing.

Kenny was irritated with blue muscles on his forehead stood out, "Gloria, you come down!"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 79 Want to Learn More From Sister

Gloria took a look at him and said seriously, "I won't come down. So many of them want to bully you. Don't be afraid. I'll give vent to your anger!"

Hearing her words, Carl, who followed her here secretly when they had a fight, suddenly laughed.

Kenny always bullied others. How could others bully him?

Gloria said, then looked up at those people, "You heard me, right? Admit your defeat!"

These men were had never been provoked by a woman like this. They immediately rolled up their sleeves and was were about to fight.

It happened that Shi Ye came here with bodyguards and got rid of those people quickly.

Shi Ye came to Kenny and asked respectfully, "What should we do next, young master?"

Kenny took a look at Gloria, who was still holding a bottle of wine and shouting "well done", and a trace of connivance appeared in his eyes, "Let them kowtow to her and admit their mistake."

Shi Ye thought he heard it wrong, "Ah?"

Then there was this picture in the bar.

A group of men knelt on the ground, kowtowed to Gloria, and said, "I'm sorry."

...

On the way back, Shi Ye was driving, and Kenny was sitting in the back with Gloria, who had fallen asleep.

From time to time, Shi Ye looked in the rearview mirror at the back.

He clearly saw Kenny, holding his wife in his arms like a treasure. Even if he could not see Kenny's expression clearly, he could feel that Kenny was in a good mood from the relaxed atmosphere in the car.

He didn't understand. What happened in the bar to make the young master feel so good?

Soon the car arrived at the gate of the villa.

Kenny got out of the car with Gloria in his arms. When he went upstairs, he stopped at the door of his room, hesitated and then took Gloria back to her room.

When she was in the bar before, she made such a scene. After she fell asleep, she was much more obedient and lovely.

She was like a little ruffian when she was shouting with a bottle of wine in her hand. He didn't know where she learned it from.

Gloria slept a little sound. Her breath was even, and her bright lips were slightly open, which was very attractive.

Kenny leaned over and stared at her for a few seconds. He couldn't help but kiss her on the lips.

At the end of the kiss, his voice was a little hoarse, "You stink."

Then he adjusted the temperature of the heating for her, tucked her up, and went out.

...

The next day.

When Gloria woke up, she was dizzy.

She closed her eyes again, and then opened them again after a while. Then she felt much better.

She sat up from the bed, looked at the familiar room at a loss, turned over and went into the bathroom.

How did she get back last night?

She remembered that "Leon" went to the bar to find her, and then they had a drink together. But she couldn't remember what happened later!

She dressed herself up, opened the door and went downstairs. Every a few steps, she would look around like a thief.

She used to drink only with Edith. According to Edith, after drinking, she was quite different from usual.

So she was not sure whether she had gone too far and had done something to Leon last night.

"Good morning, Gloria."

The male voice suddenly sounded, which shocked Gloria suddenly, and she became nervous at once.

She looked at the place where the voice came and saw Leon coming out of the kitchen with a glass of water.

Gloria smiled grudgingly, "Morning."

Kenny approached, and saw Gloria look good. He said with a hint of imperceptible dissatisfaction in his voice, "You slept well last night?"

Gloria replied truthfully, "Not bad..."

"Ho." Kenny sneered and walked past her.

She had a good sleep, but he had a beautiful and erotic dream all night.

Gloria followed up and said with hesitation, "Yesterday, you drank with me... Thank you."

As she spoke, she paid careful attention to "Leon's" look.

She really forgot what happened later last night.

Kenny looked at her with his head aslant and saw that her look was normal. He understood that she didn't remember what happened last night.

The look in his eyes changed, and he said, "Don't drink if not necessary. Fortunately, it was me who picked you up. If it was someone else..."

His hesitant look made Gloria feel bad at once.

What on earth did she do last night?

But "Leon" looked like he didn't want to talk more about it. She could guess that it was not something good. Naturally, she didn't dare to ask. What if it was something embarrassing?

Kenny was satisfied to see Gloria scared and went upstairs with the water.

This woman usually looked weak and calm. He didn't expect that she was so good at making trouble after being drunk.

If he was not around, who would clean up the mess for her?

Gloria was just too sad yesterday. Edith was not in Huyang City, and she was so busy in filming. Gloria didn't want to bother her with these things.

Except drinking, there seemed to be no other way to make herself feel better.

After calming down, she thought herself was kind of useless.

Tina didn't know what she had done that hurt Gloria so far. Gloria was the only one who was sad.

Gloria had a clearcut stand on what to love and what to hate.

She was so obedient in front of Tina back then, expecting nothing more than a little attention and love from Tina.

She had understood that it was impossible to realize her poor and extravagant hope.

But she and Anne resented each other deeply at the time, and Anne naturally refused to let her go easily.

Coincidentally, up to now, she would not let her go easily, either.

They took full advantage of her and used her with a clear conscience on everything. How could she let them continue bullying herself?

...

When Gloria arrived at the Taylor Group, she went straight to Loren's office.

As soon as Loren saw Gloria, he frowned slightly, and his tone was not very friendly, "What are you doing here?"

"I can't do a good job as a market researcher. I apply to transfer to the project department. I want to learn more from my sister." Gloria's sincere look made it hard for Loren to tell if she was sincere.

Market researcher was the basic level personnel, and the project department was the most important department of the company.

Loren transferred Gloria to the marketing department from the beginning because he didn't want her to come into contact with any project of the company. In this way, although she held shares of the Taylor Group, it was not very useful.

"You can't even do a good job as a market researcher, but you want to work beside Anne and learn from her. You think you can do a good job then?" Loren thought about it, but still didn't believe Gloria.

Gloria smiled and said seriously, "The main reason is that I think my sister is such excellent. I can learn a lot from her if I work beside her. I admire her ability since I was a child. I listened to her since I was young. You know how much I like her. Recently... I did something sorry to her...."

After that, Gloria's voice lowered, and she forced out some tears.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 80 Up to No Good

Loren doted on Anne inordinately without sense.

Naturally, he was pleased when people praised Anne.

To put it bluntly, Gloria has been as obedient as the domestic dog in the hearts of the Taylor family for so many years, so when she said this, Loren believed her.

What was more, Gloria managed to force out a few tears.

Loren finally compromised, "OK, I'll transfer you first. If you can't competent at the job, I'll transfer you back."

Gloria smiled sweetly at him, "Thank you, Dad."

People were visual animals. Gloria was beautiful. Even Loren thought that she looked very pleasant. Naturally, "thank you dad" sounded very pleasant to him.

"You go back first. I'll tell Anne about it, and then I'll tell you to move there."

Gloria went out of Loren's office, and her smile faded. She reached out to wipe off the tears on her face, and a sneer appeared on her lips.

...

After Gloria left, Loren called Anne in.

As soon as Anne came in, she said impatiently, "Dad, what's the matter? I still have a lot of work to do."

Loren didn't mind her attitude either. He said gently, "Gloria just came to me and said she wanted to be transferred to work with you and learn from you. What do you think?"

"She said this on her own initiative?" As soon as Anne heard this, her eyes widened in surprise.

"Yes, she did."

"Would she really want to learn from me? I guess she is probably up to something else." Anne snorted coldly, and said in a non-negotiable tone, "Dad, please don't let her work with me. She is annoying."

Loren was originally in the attitude of negotiating with Anne, but Anne's attitude was so tough that she almost embarrassed him. He couldn't help but get a little angry, "Anne! Anyway, you are sisters. Besides, we need her to persuade Kenny to invest in our company. That's settled. I'll transfer her to your department, so you can train her."

Anne was not happy with this, so she lost her temper, "Dad! How can you do that! I said I didn't want her to work in my department. Can't you understand?"

Loren said in a loud voice, "Anne!"

Feeling that he was really angry, Anne had to compromise, "Alright, whatever you want."

After that, she stormed out.

When she went out, she slammed the door.

Loren frowned deeply, and wondered that if he pampered Anne too much, so that she only knew how to lose her temper in front of him.

...

Gloria was soon informed of the transfer.

She simply packed up her things, said goodbye to several familiar colleagues and went to the project department with the box in her arms.

She stood at the door of the Anne's office and knocked it.

After a while, Anne's voice came, "Come in."

Gloria pushed the door in with a smile on her face, "I would appreciate your guidance later."

Anne didn't look good when she saw her.

"We are in the company. Call me manager Taylor."

Gloria called her kindly, "Manager Taylor."

Anne looked at the smile on her face and felt like herself was inferior than Gloria.

So she asked people to give Gloria a pile of useless materials, and let Gloria copy them, and then let her shred them.

Gloria had been doing this all day.

She thought that Gloria would lose her temper and come to her after she did it for a while. Unexpectedly, Gloria did it all day without any complaints.

This made Anne feel unimaginably queer.

Gloria stormed to her office yesterday and made a scene. However, Gloria changed her nature at this time?

She didn't believe it anyway.

By the time they got off work, Anne had Gloria get another pile of materials to copy.

After everyone else left, Gloria hadn't finished copying.

Anne went to the copying room and saw that Gloria was still there making copies seriously. She squinted and went over, "Gloria, what kind of trick are you playing? You can cheat dad. But you think you can cheat me?"

"I'm not playing any tricks. I really think you are excellent, so I want to learn from you."

Gloria said mildly. Suddenly, her tone turned to be meaningful, "If I can't learn anything from you all the time, will others think my sister is incompetent?"

Anne sneered, "I knew you were up to no good!"

Gloria took a look at her, slowly sorting out the documents in her hands, and then ignored her.

Long ago, she heard from people in the company that Anne sat in the position of project manager and didn't do anything. She took all the credit from her subordinates.

"As long as dad knows that I came here to learn from you sincerely, is it important whether I'm up to something or not?" Gloria smiled scornfully, pulled out the last copy of the document, and turned away.

Winter nights always came early.

Gloria came out of the Taylor Group. It was nearly seven o'clock in the evening, but it was already dark.

Shi Ye had been waiting for her for a while.

She got in the car and said to Shi Ye, "You don't have to pick me up every day. I can go back by taxi myself."

She had never enjoyed the treatment of designated car before. Although she knew Kenny did this for her, she always felt not used to it.

Shi Ye's tone was as rigid and serious as ever, "Whatever master orders is my work."

Back at the villa, Gloria suddenly remembered the black card that was pressed to her by "Leon" last time.

She put down her handbag, took the black card and went to the study to find Kenny.

When he was at home, he spent most of his time in his study. She didn't know what he was doing.

Kenny still didn't face her. He sat with his back to her, and his voice was hoarse, "What's the matter?"

"I found a black card at home. I guess it's yours." Gloria didn't dare say that it was the card that Leon gave her.

Kenny kept silent for a long time, and then said, "Since you found it, keep it."

"But I heard that this card seems to be very valuable..." It even shocked Colin and Anne.

She couldn't hear any emotion in Kenny's voice, "No matter how valuable it is, it needs to be used. Then It could claim to be useful."

Gloria was stunned, and even thought that what he said was particularly reasonable, which made her unable to refute for a while.

Seeing Kenny has nothing else to say, Gloria turned around and went out.

In the evening, Edith called her and said she would be back tomorrow.

"Book a restaurant. Let's have dinner together."

Gloria took a look at the black card in her handbag and said quietly, "Then I'll see you at Jinding Restaurant."

"You won a lottery of five million dollars?"

"I guess..." Kenny said that no matter how valuable something was, it needed to be used by someone to play its role.

So she decided to use it!

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 81 He seemed to know her before

Edith was back and Gloria felt happy all day.

There were so much work that Anne didn't find her fault.

Before off work, she called Shi Ye and told him not to pick her in that she met someone.

Going out the company, Gloria thought she needs to cook for "Leon".

Standing on the side of the road, she called "Leon"

Just one ring and the phone was on.

"What's the matter?"

Leon's sound listened a little low and more charming on the phone.

Gloria got used to his voice but she still was in a trance slightly, and she said: "Will you go home for dinner?"

He asked: "otherwise?"

Gloria explained with him friendly: "I had an appointment with my friend for dinner tonight."

For some silence, he said with some coldness: "With Colin?"

She pumped her corners thinking there is something wrong with his brain.

"That's a girl" she gritted her teeth, "I promise to cook for you but I am not the servant, and I also have my gang."

He, turning a little nice suddenly, said: "well, go."

After call, Kenny gave a look to Carl and said indifferently: "You said there is a party tonight?"

"Will you go?" Carl was surprised because Kenny hardly attend the meet in ordinary time.

Fu Tingxi beside had known everything: "His wife has dinner outside tonight."

"You are so wordy." Kenny glanced at Fu, then Fu went out silently.

.....

Gloria didn't see Edith when she went to Jin Ding by taxi.

A woman dressing very strictly came forward her when she was about to call Edith.

Gloria asked tentatively: "Edith?"

Edith moved her sunglasses a little, looking around nervously: "It's me."

After saying, she dragged Gloria forwards the door. While walking, she said, "Can you come in?"

Edith knew Jin Ding is top high-end clubhouse focusing on privacy, so not everyone can come in randomly.

Gloria nodded: "Of course, I ever ate here."

They walked to the door right at this time. Seeing Gloria, the doorman spoke loud with much enthusiasm: "Welcome."

After coming in, Edith took off her sunglasses and scarf used to cover her face, looking Gloria carefully: "I just go out filming, and you changed yourself completely?"

Gloria and Edith recognized for many years but at most time Gloria was "an ugly girl", and Edith was accustomed to her look, too.

Last time when Edith went back to theatrical group, Gloria had recovered her face but after a short time, Gloria's temperament became better.

They were in the lift and Gloria looked at the mirror wall of lift, saying, "I feel I am just like before."

Edith standing beside said suddenly: "What about filming, maybe you will be more popular than me."

"Showbiz is not only chaotic but also complex, so I won't go."

.....

They chose a proper position and sat down, then ordered the dishes.

Gloria went to toilet and when she went back with her head down, she knocked someone at the corner because of absent-mind.

She apologized hurriedly: "Sorry..."

That man was a little tall and kept silence for some time.

Gloria looked up with amazement, seeing Si Chengyu's tender face.

He smiled and called her name correctly: "Gloria."

Gloria was a little flattered: "Do you have dinner here?"

Huyang City is so big that she never thought she can meet Si Chengyu twice in such a short time.

"Yeah, with my friend" Si nodded and asked suddenly, "Are you OK recently?"

He saw the news about Gloria and Kenny's cousin.

He didn't know how many cousins Kenny had but Kenny had only one closed cousin, that was Si's little brother, Leon Clarke.

His mother was Kenny's aunt; his father's surname was Si and he too named Si, but his little brother followed his mother's surname.

However, his brother was just fourteen years old and lived with his mother in a foreign country.

"Yeah, I am fine." Gloria didn't understand why he asked such a word.

She always felt that Si had known her before.

"OK." Si just said with a smile.

Going back to restaurant, as soon as Gloria sat down, Edith held up her phone in front of Gloria: "I viewed Si Chengyu's moments just now, is this place Jin Ding?"

Gloria saw the picture in Si's latest moment. That was Jin Ding.

But it was not surprised because she just met him.

Seeing Gloria calm, Edith patted Gloria's shoulder: "Aren't you excited at all? Maybe you can encounter Si Chengyu going out now."

"Uh..." Gloria paused and tried to speak her words carefully, afraid that Edith didn't believe, "I have met Si twice and the recent time is just now."

After Gloria's words, Edith's mouth opened like an "O".

Not far away Si Chengyu turned to the hall deliberately and saw Gloria and a woman sitting in the opposite who filmed with him last time.

.....

Kenny and others got to Jin Ding and he received a SMS of consumption just in the lift.

Gloria spent his money? Kenny thought.

Right seeing the content and a slight smile appeared on Kenny's face. Carl felt creepy, "Are you crazy? How can you be so glad that she used your money?"

Kenny looked at Carl indifferently, "She spent my money willingly, but what about Edith?"

Carl felt ached as if he was hit with an arrow.

Kenny glanced at the number of consumption which was over ten thousand yuan. He buried into his thought and then smiled.

Carl felt Kenny's smile was full of malice.

Ding~

The lift door opened.

Rising his head, Kenny saw Gloria outside the door.

Gloria saw him, too and screamed amazingly: "Why are you here too?"

Have all these men made an appointment today? They all came to Jin Ding. As soon as Carl saw Edith, he ran to her with glow in his eyes, honestly like a Pekingese. "Edith".

Edith gave him a glance and kicked him directly.

"Ah..."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 82 Go home together

Gloria had seen such scene so she was not surprised.

Then she smiled to Fu Tingxi who stood beside "Leon", "Hi, Mr. Fu."

Fu Tingxi responded with a slight nod.

Kenny noticed that Gloria said "why are you here too" and this "too" showed she had met someone before.

Gloria had hardly friends, let alone a friend who can afford in Jin Ding.

With eyes shining, Kenny walked to Gloria and looked down at her, "You are here with your friend and why not tell me in advance?"

Gloria felt strange, "Does it have anything to do with you?"

Carl was not angry at all and said to Edith smilingly, "Have you eaten? You must not haven't finished eating, right? Go and have meal with us. That will be very lively!"

"No, we have had enough." Gloria refused directly and simply.

Kenny said to Gloria with a good temper, "Come on, we can go home together moments later."

Truly Gloria was soft-hearted and she hesitated after hearing his words in such a good temper.

At this time Kenny dragged her towards the box.

Gloria was not hypocritical and thought she can take a free ride, but it was not good to be pulled away.

"Let me go, I can walk myself." Gloria said.

"Leon" turned back, seeing her and let her go directly without one word.

Gloria turned to see Edith and Edith followed too.

But her look that looked like watching a play gave me a bad hunch.

And then Gloria felt her phone was vibrating and she found Edith's message, "Wow,Leon is so overbearing and so handsome!! think he is your type, he is not only handsome but has good shape."

Gloria, "...". It was hard for Edith to see "Leon' s good shape" from the surface.

Gloria responded with an emoji of "Please be missish"

And Edith replied an emoji of "Make some troubles".

Gloria smiled to Edith mysteriously and responded, "Carl is so good, handsome, rich and has good shape,how about him?"

Edith didn't respond just stared at Gloria.

Finally, they got into the room.

Kenny, Cark and Fu canceled their appointment because of the appearance of Gloria and Edith, so they simply had a meal in their own room.

Gloria and Edith had eaten enough so they just ordered fruit platter to help digest.

Si Chengyu had just finished his meal at this time. His assistant came in and whispered in his ear, "Mr. Clarke is here too."

"Mr Clarke" is Kenny.

Si Chengyu stood up and went out, "I need to greet him."

Si pushed the door and came in, seeing Kenny at the first time.

He was about to say something and suddenly he saw Gloria.

Kenny didn't expect that Si was here and he glanced at Gloria without trace firstly, finding she was looking at the phone with Edith.

Afterwards he turned to see Si again and said firstly: "Are you here too, Mr. Si?"

With that, he thought in a flash what Gloria said before ----- "Why are you here too"? And his face went ugly.

Hearing his words, Gloria rose her head and saw Si standing at the door.

Si also recovered at this time and said with a smile: "I heard Mr Cook is here so I came to say hello."

Si was an actor belonging to Sheng Ding and this was not a secret, so Si's words were no problem.

However the atmosphere in the room became embarrassed: "Uh, you are here, right."

"Uh, my friend is waiting for me so I have to go first." Before leaving, Si gave a glance to Kenny and Gloria.

Gloria thought Si was seeing Kenny but Kenny thought conversely.

These two turned to see each other weirdly but took their eyes off quickly with frown.

"That man is Si Chengyu!" Edith recovered, seeming to react a little slower and then she flapped Gloria, "That is Si Chengyu! Why don't you take pictures with him?"

Carl said at once with smiles, "Gloria, if you want to take pictures with Si Chengyu, you can come to my company."

It is said that if you want one girl to be yours, you can be firstly friendly to her friends. Yes, Gloria is Edith's good friend.

Kenny glanced at Carl coldly. "Can you stop speaking?"

Carl was confused. What he said was wrong?

Why did Kenny become angry? He was happy just now because Gloria used his money! What he did was to shine up to Gloria and didn't he feel comforted?

Owing to Si's appearance, the comforting atmosphere became a little quirky.

Until leaving Jin Ding, Gloria still felt quirky.

On the way home, Gloria asked "Leon", "Do you know Si Chengyu?"

Otherwise why did Si Chengyu give a look to him?

Kenny was a little irritable and said coldly: "Does it has anything to do with you?"

Oh, gosh! How bad temper he had! He could chose to be quiet and refuse to answer her, so why did he reply her in this annoying tone?

She meanted to make a good relationship with him after all they were in one house.

Until going home, Gloria said nothing to him.

As soon as she went home, Gloria asked the bodyguard, "Are your master in home?"

The bodyguard said with the prepared words, "Master has been asleep."

"En", Gloria nodded and went upstairs.

She thought again and again and decided to send a message to Kenny: I had dinner with Edith tonight and I just got home. Goodnight.

Stepping in his room with a cold face, Kenny received Gloria's message.

Report the schedule to him? She was more good at coaxing him.

He thought so but he can't help but feel glad.

He replied "En" with his long fingers sliding on the screen.

At this time Si's call came.

Staring at the screen for two seconds, Kenny picked up the phone.

Si's sound was as gentle as usual. "Kenny?"

All the time, Si Chengyu was an elder cousin with good temper.

But Kenny said directly, "Have you ever seen Gloria before, my good cousin?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 83 Got Her By Force

Si Chengyu kept silent for a while, and his tone was frank, "I met her by accident before."

Kenny's tone grew colder, "She's Gloria."

"I know, she's your newly-wed wife, Gloria." Si Chengyu's voice suddenly became a little hazy.

Kenny frowned, wishing to speak but stopped on a second thought and finally said nothing. Then he hung up the phone.

...

The next morning.

Gloria got up and then made breakfast. Seeing "Leon" coming downstairs, she couldn't help thinking of what happened yesterday again.

As she brought out the breakfast, she glanced at "Leon" secretly.

Kenny lowered his head slightly and looked down at his mobile phone. He picked up the glass and took a sip of water, and suddenly said, "Why are you peeking at me?"

Gloria raised her eyebrows and looked at him provocatively, "You don't look well. Do you need me to stew something tonifying to nourish your kidney?"

When Kenny heard this, the movement of his hand stopped. He raised his head, and smiled meaningfully, "You are the only woman in this house. Why do you want to nourish my kidney?"

Gloria glared at him and turned into the kitchen.

When it came to showing off eloquence, she could rarely win "Leon".

At last, their cooperation ended in discord again.

As usual, Shi Ye sent Gloria to the Taylor Group to work.

In the car, Gloria couldn't help but ask him, "Shi Ye, your young master has always been like this? I mean, avoid seeing others."

Shi Ye thought of Kenny running errands every day and said against his conscience, "Yes."

"Did he ever see a doctor?" Gloria finished speaking, realizing that her words were misleading and explained, "I mean, he can't spend the rest of his life without seeing anyone. He has to live a normal life."

Kenny, who needed to live a normal life, called Shi Ye at this time.

"I'm sorry. I have to answer the phone." Shi Ye answered the phone when he finished speaking.

Kenny's voice was a little serious, "Keep a close eye on Gloria."

Kenny's order was a bit inexplicable, but Shi Ye didn't ask much and responded, "Yes."

...

As soon as Gloria got to the door of the company, she met Anne.

Anne glanced at the car that brought Gloria here with a flash of jealousy in her eyes.

If it was her who married into the Clarke family, she was the one who took the car to work every day.

Gloria arranged her hair and walked to Anne, who was as tall as her only in high heels, and said with a smile, "Manager Taylor, good morning."

Anne snorted coldly and ignored her.

At the office, Gloria, just like yesterday, continued to copy the rest of the materials.

It was clear that what Anne did was to embarrass Gloria. The people in the project department could see that clearly, but no one dared to say anything.

However, it did not prevent them from discussing the matter in private and passing it to Loren's ears.

When it was almost lunch break, Loren called Anne to his office.

"Even if you don't like Gloria, don't show it so obviously! If others see it, they will gossip!"

Anne didn't seem to care at all, "I am the chairman's daughter and the manager of the project department. Who dares to do that?"

"Even if you want to make it difficult for Gloria, do it seriously." Loren regretted that Anne did not live up to his expectations. He used to think that Anne was clever, but at the time she seemed so stupid!

"Alright, I will take her out to talk about the project this afternoon." Anne didn't bother to listen to Loren's long speech and turned away.

Gloria had basically lived in the copy room for the past two days.

When people came to print the file, she smiled and greeted them. She was beautiful and good-tempered and was also related to the chairman, so that her colleagues' impression of her was better.

A kind colleague reminded her, "In fact, you don't need to copy everything. These documents are useless."

Gloria put on a surprised expression, and she couldn't believe it, "Ah? These are useless?"

At this time, Anne's secretary came to find her, "Gloria, the manager wants to see you."

"Then I'll go to the manager first." Gloria stopped her work with a smile and went to Anne's office.

As soon as she went in, Anne threw her a pile of information, "This is the information of the cooperative project that I'm going to negotiate today. You can take it and read it, and go with me in the afternoon."

Gloria took a look at it and made sure that she couldn't understand it at all, and the professional words in it were quite numerous.

Difference in profession made one feel worlds apart. If you didn't understand it, then you really didn't.

She was up to something when she was transferred to the project department, and Anne would definitely also be up to something by taking her out to talk about the project.

She had to check this company first.

After checking for a while, she didn't find anything unusual.

Edith certainly didn't understand this kind of thing. Colin may know about it, but she couldn't ask him.

Thinking about it, she could only ask "Leon" about it.

She didn't know why. Although "Leon" seemed to be idle all day, he was after all one of the Clarke family. The Clarke family engaged in business deals. He may know about this.

While taking a lunch break, Gloria called "Leon".

She was still a little worried that no one was answering, but surprisingly, it was connected after it rang for a while.

Gloria remembered that she argued with him this morning, and her tone was a little uneasy, "Leon, are you busy now?"

"Leon" said simply, "What's the matter?"

Gloria said with guilty, "I want to invite you for lunch..."

"Leon" said casually, "Get to the point."

Did this man have clairvoyance?

Gloria wasn't affectedly bashful anymore and said, "I want you to do me a favor!"

"Leon" didn't ridicule her as usual but made a direct decision, "I'll come to the Taylor Group to pick you up."

"Okay." Gloria responded subconsciously.

Hanging up, she felt something was wrong.

If she asked "Leon" for help, shouldn't she go to him?

He was actually going to pick her up!

"Leon" came quickly. Gloria did not wait for her at the entrance of the Taylor Group. Instead, she went to an intersection with few people nearby to wait for him.

When Kenny found her, he looked bad, "Get in the car!"

In her heart, he was so unpresentable?

Gloria also guessed why he looked bad and apologized, "Sorry, many people in the Taylor Group have seen you. I'm afraid they will take pictures of us again and guess our relationship."

Kenny said nothing, but smiled coldly.

This feeling of hiding was very uncomfortable. He should have got her by force when she was drunk that night!

Gloria was scared to shudder by the expression of "Leon", as if he was about to swallow her. She shut her mouth at once and stopped talking.

"Leon" drove her to a restaurant with few customers.

The two sat down and ordered a meal. "Leon's" eyes fell on the file bag she was holding, and he said in a low voice, "Take it out."

Gloria looked at him in amazement, and slowly took the file out, "How do you know that this is the favor I need from you?"

"Leon" glanced at her like glancing at a fool.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 84 Messed Up the Project

"Leon" took over the file in her hand and said lightly, "Will I not know your major?"

"..."

Gloria remembered that when she married into the Clarke family, they had already investigated her thoroughly, and naturally they knew what major she studied. She knew nothing about doing business.

"Leon" scanned the document roughly, frowned slightly and put it aside.

Gloria asked him in doubt, "What's wrong?"

"Leon" glanced at her and said, "There is nothing worth reading in this document. The Taylor Group is unable to get this project."

Just at this time, waiters started to serve dishes. Kenny directly picked up the chopsticks and started eating.

Gloria picked up the document and read it doubtfully, but she could hardly see anything wrong.

However, since she asked "Leon" for help, she should trust him, so she didn't ask anymore.

...

In the afternoon, Anne took a group of people to discuss the project.

The company that talked about the project with them was called Teng Sheng, and it was also a medium-sized enterprise in Huyang City, which had a better prospect than the Taylor Group.

They went to the meeting room, and after a long time, the person in charge of the project came.

The project leader was a middle-aged woman, nearly forty years old, with meticulously combed hair. At first glance, she was a very domineering woman.

Anne stood up to greet her, and her attitude could claim could be very arrogant, "Manager Ke, we meet again."

Manager Ke glanced at her and sat down directly, as if not hearing the arrogance in Anne's tone. She said in a serious tone, "Last time, I made it very clear that if your Taylor Group wanted to cooperate with us on this project, you must show your sincerity."

Anne smiled and turned around to glance at Gloria, "You know that the chairman of the Taylor Group is my father. This time he sent me and my sister to discuss the project with you. Isn't it sincere enough?"

Manager Ke glanced at Gloria, and her expression became worse. She hated people to use connections most in her life. She looked down on Anne before. At the time, with Gloria, she looked down them more.

"Sorry, I'll have a meeting at three o'clock later. Excuse me." Manager Ke stood up and walked straight out the door.

Gloria finally understood why "Leon" said that the Taylor Group couldn't get this project.

Manager Ke was an able woman, and she obviously looked down on Anne. However, Anne still thought of herself as somebody and took Gloria to anger Manager Ke together.

Anne said to Manager Ke's back, "Although my sister is just a newcomer, she works hard. Manager Ke, why don't you reconsider it?"

Manager Ke's pace was faster.

Gloria frowned, vaguely understanding why Anne brought her here.

According to Manager Ke's age, she should be a senior employee in the company, who was deterrent and had a certain degree of experience, but the Taylor Group sent Anne who was ignorant, and Gloria at the time...

This was an insult to Manager Ke and also a contempt to the project.

When Manager Ke went out, Anne looked back with a cold face, scolding Gloria, "Dad values this project very much. But you have messed it up. I'd like to see how can you explain it to him after you go back!"

Gloria, "???"

From the time when Manager Ke came in to the time when she left, Gloria didn't say a word. Why did it become her fault that the project was messed up?

Gloria turned to look at the other two people who were with them. After feeling Gloria's gaze, they just turned their heads to look at other places. Obviously, they were on Anne's side.

"Why are you doing? Expecting Manager Ke to come back?" Gloria lifted her chin, glanced contemptuously at Gloria, and went out first.

Gloria followed her, and slowly walked out.

She thought Anne was a fool who had to grind her beneath her heel even by the price of messing up a project that was very important to the Taylor Group.

Anne was really spoiled. Because of the Taylor Group, she could enjoy the wealthy life with peace of mind, but she took the company's projects as a trifling matter.

If she kept acting like this, sooner or later the Taylor Group would collapse.

...

Upon returning to the Taylor Group, Anne called Gloria to go to Loren's office together.

When Loren came back after the meeting and saw that both of them were there, he asked, "How is the project today?"

Anne bit her lip and her eyes were red, "Dad, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have connived Gloria and let her go with me to talk about Teng Sheng's project..."

Before she finished speaking, Loren interrupted angrily, "Teng Sheng? Who asked you to discuss the project cooperation with Teng Sheng?"

He knew his own daughter's ability. He attached great importance to Teng Sheng's project. Knowing that Anne could not get it, he prepared to take the long view, and then find the right person to discuss the cooperation.

"It was Gloria. She wanted to prove herself and discuss big projects. I was soft-hearted at that time, then I promised to take her to discuss Teng Sheng's project..."

Anne's words were actually full of loopholes, but Loren was partial to her. Even if he knew that Anne was lying, he would only vent his anger on Gloria.

"Gloria! I agreed to let you transfer to the project department, because I wanted you to learn, not to hinder Anne and mess up our company's projects!"

Loren's look was gloomy, as if he was going to slap Gloria.

Gloria looked at the father and the daughter who were good at playacting coldly and sneered, "I hindered Anne? She can't accomplish anything like a loser! You should ask yourself, after she entered the Taylor Group, how many projects has she taken and how many projects has she messed up?"

"Gloria, what nonsense are you talking about! We have promoted countless projects every year. They were what I and my team worked so hard to get!"

Anne shook her head with a sad look, "I was dedicated to the company, but you wanted to project yourself for your own selfish desires, so you messed up such a big project, and now you still try to slander me. How ridiculous you are!"

Oh... She was like talking about the truth.

"You are clear whether you are dedicated to the company or not."
Gloria's smile did not reach the bottom of her eyes.

Anne was looked at by Gloria like this, and she couldn't help feeling guilty.

"Of course I'm dedicated to the company!" Anne raised her voice to hide her guilty.

Seeing them arguing, Loren yelled, "Enough! Both of you, go back!"

Anne refused to leave. The purpose of her doing this was to get Gloria out of the project department.

"Dad, Gloria is really not suitable for the project department! Please transfer her back to the marketing department!"

Gloria's previous words actually mentioned Loren. Since the project department was taken over by Anne, its performance was indeed getting worse and worse every year.

He was extremely annoyed, "Get out!"

"Dad!" Anne called him. Although she couldn't be reconciled, she turned around and went out.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 85 Trauma Sequelae

Gloria took the lead to get out and stood at the door waiting for Anne.

Anne didn't look good when she saw her, "I'll see how long you can be proud. You can wait for Dad to drive you out of the Taylor Group!"

"Oh? Drive me out of the Taylor Group?" Gloria smiled softly, "Don't you want Kenny to invest in the Taylor Group?"

Anne snorted, "Do you really think Kenny, that loser, has any money?"

"Watch your language." Gloria glanced coldly at her.

"Are you qualified to say that?" Anne raised her chin and smiled proudly, as if she suddenly thought of something. The smile on her face slightly faded, and she turned back to Loren's office.

Gloria took a look at the closed office door and turned to leave.

In Loren's office.

Anne sat across from him with a serious look, "Dad, I forgot to tell you one thing. Gloria has a Clarke family's internal limited black card!"

"How do you know that?" Loren asked with a shocked expression, "It is such a short time since she has been in the Clarke family. Kenny would give her a black card?"

"The last time I went to Jinding for dinner with Colin, I saw her pay the bill with that black card!" Anne looked excited, "I heard that the Clarke family's black card has unlimited credit?"

Loren was not very clear whether Clarke's global limited black card had unlimited credit or not.

As a top rich and powerful family, even if it didn't have unlimited credit, the money in it was beyond imagination.

Seeing that Loren was taking her words seriously, Anne continued, "If we can get the black card from Gloria, we don't have to worry about the funding!"

Loren was also a little bit tempted, but he was a veteran in the business world. He would not be as impulsive as young people, so he was more cautious on everything.

He thought about it and said, "But, anyway, that black card was given to Gloria by Kenny. Will she let us use it?"

Anne saw that Loren was tempted, so her eyes flashed with the light of success, "Dad, you are Gloria's biological father. You gave her life, support her, and dote on her. It's no big deal that you use her black card. Even if she misunderstood you and did not want to give you the card, we can ask mom to convince her..."

Loren heard her words and kept silenced for a moment before nodding.

Gloria came home from work, and the meal hadn't been ready. However, "Leon" had already come back.

The heating was turned on in the villa, and he took off his coat as soon as he entered the door, leaving only a thin dark shirt and suit pants, which were very straight.

He went to the kitchen to find Gloria.

He leaned against the door frame. His voice was low, and his tone was light, "How is that project?"

Gloria happened to be shredding vegetables, and said indifferently, "It was messed up."

He said with a smile, "You messed up your first project."

The mood in his tone was not obvious, so it was difficult to tell whether he was laughing at her.

Gloria looked back at him, "It was messed up by Anne, not me."

Although Anne had already scapegoated her, she would not admit that it was her fault.

After she finished speaking, she turned back to cut vegetables.

Kenny looked down and laughed silently.

The next day was Saturday.

Gloria got up early and made breakfast as usual, and "Leon" got up early too.

As soon as Gloria saw him, she said, "Have your cousin got up? Can you bring him breakfast upstairs."

"No." Kenny refused without thinking.

He was here. Obviously he didn't need to do that.

Gloria glared at him and called a bodyguard to bring breakfast upstairs to Kenny.

She went out after eating.

She didn't usually go out much on weekends. Kenny was a little curious about where she would go, so he called Shi Ye to drive and follow her.

However, Gloria went to a psychotherapy clinic.

Across the road, Kenny was sitting in the car, looking at the door of the psychotherapy clinic through the window, and said, "What is she doing there?"

Shi Ye thought of what Gloria said in the car yesterday, considered and then said, "Young mistress may go there because of you."

Because of him?

Kenny thought about it for a moment, and realized what was going on.

This woman thought he had a mental disorder, so she went to the psychological clinic?

Gloria had been in the Clarke family for such a long time and had not seen "Kenny". Anyone else would also thought Kenny had a psychological barrier.

This woman really put some thoughts into Kenny.

Shi Ye looked at the changing look of his young master and said tentatively, "When will you let young lady know your identity?"

When?

Kenny was stumped by this question.

Just then, a familiar figure appeared at the door of the psychological clinic.

Shi Ye saw that the man was Si Chengyu and said, "Master, is that your cousin?"

Kenny looked in the direction Shi Ye pointed and recognized at a glance that the kit-out man was Si Chengyu.

He was too familiar with Si Chengyu and could easily recognize him.

Before Shi Ye heard Kenny's answer, and when he was puzzled, he heard the sound of the door being opened.

Kenny had got down the car and walked to the door of the psychological clinic. Shi Ye quickly followed.

...

Psychological consultation room.

The doctor listened to Gloria's narrative, and then said solemnly, "This symptom is also a type of trauma sequelae. It should be related to his previous experience. He needs psychological guidance from people close to him."

Gloria repeated subconsciously, "Previous experience?"

The doctor explained to her further, "Something mentally stimulating has happened to him. It usually related to the experiences of childhood and adolescence, because the minds of these two periods were not fully mature and relatively fragile. So, there are sequelae."

The doctor made it simple and easy to understand.

This was similar to what Gloria thought.

She did not tell the psychologist completely about Kenny's condition, only that her newly-wed husband did not like to see people and liked to shun the world.

Kenny's situation was an open secret in Huyang City. If she made Kenny's situation too clear, the doctor may guess the person she talked about was Kenny.

"Thank you, doctor."

Gloria thanked the doctor and got up and walked out.

Just a few steps after she came out, she saw two men approaching.

The two men approached her tandem. The man walking in front was kitted out, but his figure was familiar.

Gradually approaching, the man took off his glasses. Whether the smile on his face, or his voice was just right gentle.

"Gloria, we meet again."

"Si Chengyu?"

Gloria looked at the man in front of her in amazement.

She... met movie king Si again! ! !

Si Chengyu saw her expression and smiled, "Why are you so surprised to see me?"

Gloria nodded, "In just one month, I have met you three times. I think I should buy a lottery ticket."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 86 He Is Just A Victim Who Is More Innocent Than Anyone Else

Gloria didn't know what she said amused Si Chengyu. He suddenly laughed out loud.

Si Chengyu, such a big shot in showbiz, would always have a paparazzi to follow wherever he went. Gloria actually didn't really want to encounter him. She feared being photographed with him.

However, Si Chengyu had a good memory. The next two times he saw her, he even took the initiative to say hello to her.

If she was photographed by the paparazzi, she must be headlined again.

She even thought of the headline name.

For example, [The Young Mistress of the Clarke Family Had A Tryst with A Big Shot in Showbiz] or something.

It was horrifying to think about it.

Therefore, Gloria stopped talking to Si Chengyu and smiled very politely, "Excuse me, I have to go."

"See you." Si Chengyu's eyes flickered with understanding, and his attitude was still gentle.

This made Gloria uncomfortable, so she left in a hurry.

Si Chengyu turned around and watched Gloria's figure disappear before moving forward.

The assistant behind him suddenly said, "Brother Yu, does this woman have anything to do with Mr. Clarke? I seemed to see her with Mr. Clarke in Jinding that day."

"Did you? I don't know." Si Chengyu walked forward with his head hanging down. The smile on his face faded, and his look became deep.

Si Chengyu came here mainly to prepare for the next movie.

His new movie was a suspenseful drama. He played a psychologist in it, so he came to the psychological clinic to get some inspiration.

Just when the two entered the clinic, Kenny and Shi Ye appeared in the corridor behind.

Kenny looked at the place where Si Chengyu and Gloria met.

Shi Ye glanced at Kenny and wished to speak but stop on a second thought, but in the end he still didn't speak.

Si Chengyu had a tight schedule, so he didn't stay with the psychologist for a long time before he came out.

As soon as he came out, he saw Kenny standing in the corridor.

He was surprised, "Kenny? Why are you here?"

When he finished asking, he showed a look of sudden enlightenment, "You came with Gloria."

Kenny didn't speak, raised his hand, and motioned Shi Ye to shun.

Only two of them were left in the empty corridor.

Kenny's face was a little cold, but there was still a difference from being cold to those strangers.

He fixed his eyes on Si Chengyu, "Brother, I told you before, she is Gloria."

"I know she's Gloria, and her name is pretty good." Si Chengyu's smile was the same as usual, very gentle.

Kenny kept silent for a moment, as if he had made a certain determination. His plain tone sounded a bit cruel, "Gloria looks like Qing Ning, but she is not Qing Ning."

The gentle expression on Si Chengyu's face finally collapsed. His eyes widened, and he shouted, "Shut up!"

Kenny really fell silent and stopped talking.

After a while, Si Chengyu calmed down, and the expression on his face returned to his usual gentleness.

"Kenny, I really just encountered Gloria." He finished speaking and looked Kenny up and down carefully, "You quite cared about her."

Kenny narrowed his eyes slightly and said in a low tone, "She is my wife."

"Why do you use my brother's name to cheat Gloria?" Si Chengyu's tone sounded like he was asking a casual question, but soon he laughed, "If Leon knows, he will definitely ask you for a name borrowing fee?"

Kenny gave him a deep look, and his voice lowered a bit, "Brother, Qing Ning has been dead for a long time. You should get out of it."

After speaking, he didn't take a look at Si Chengyu's look that suddenly changed, and strode away.

...

Gloria came out of the psychotherapy room, thinking about Kenny's matter, and walked a little slow.

Beep——

The car whistle sounded behind her.

How could people be so overbearing? She had already moved to the side of the road, but the man was still beeping to let her make way.

She turned around with a disgruntled face, and the black car stopped right behind her, lowering the window halfway down. She saw the handsome face of "Leon".

"Leon" looked at her with his head slant and looked lethargic, "Get in the car."

Why was he here?

Despite her doubts, she didn't refuse. She directly pulled open the car door and got into the car.

Before she even spoke, Kenny said directly, "Don't ask me 'why are you here?' this kind of useless thing."

Gloria didn't even had the chance to let out her doubts.

She simply kept silent.

Kenny turned to look at her, and saw a pensive look on her face. He smiled insignificantly, but the voice was not warm at all, "What did you do here?"

Gloria turned her head with a serious smile, "I'm not going to answer this kind of useless question."

Shi Ye, who was driving in front, listened to the conversation between the two and couldn't help but laughed aloud.

But soon, he closed his mouth after seeing Kenny glance at him coldly in the rearview mirror.

Gloria just got in the car and didn't notice that it was Shi Ye who was driving, "Shi Ye, did your young master go out today?"

Shi Ye glanced silently at Kenny, who was sitting back, shaking his head, "No."

Gloria nodded and thought about that after going back, what she should make for Kenny for lunch.

Thinking about it, she reached out and poked "Leon".

"What?" Kenny turned to look at her with a poker face.

It was scary to be looked at by "Leon" like this.

Gloria moved back, "Tell me honestly, what does your cousin like to eat?"

Gloria wore a white down jacket with ponytail. Her face without makeup was still white and delicate. She looked simple and pure, like a little girl who was innocent and naive.

She looked at him with beautiful and bright cat eyes, waiting for him to answer.

Kenny reached out to loosen his tie. His voice sounded a little hoarser than before, "Why do you care so much about him?"

"I'm his wife. If I don't care about him, should I care about you?" Gloria couldn't help but glared at him when she remembered what "Leon" had done to her before.

"Leon" was uncharacteristically unconcerned. He continued, "Due to my cousin's physical condition, you can't live like a normal couple. He may not even be able to inherit the Clarke Group. You haven't even seen him so far. Why are you so loyal to him?"

Gloria did not hear sarcasm from the tone of "Leon". His tone was more curious.

Gloria pressed her lips. It was rarely for her to be willing to explain it to him calmly.

"Why?" Gloria thought for a while and said seriously, "It may be because of the responsibility. Although I was forced by my mother to marry your cousin, but if I resisted with my life that day, she would definitely compromise. Since I married your cousin, I have to take the responsibility of being her wife, and..."

Gloria paused and said with sigh, "In these years, people in Huyang City have gossiped Kenny's things at their leisure. But Kenny doesn't want to be like this. He is just a victim who is more innocent than anyone else."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 87 Prepare 50 Million Yuan for Us, Otherwise We Will Kill Her

After that, the carriage fell into a weird silence.

She looked at Shi Ye driving in front, and turned to look at "Leon". Seeing he pondering, she reached out and patted him, "You haven't told me what your cousin likes to eat!"

Kenny recovered, looking deeply at her for a few seconds before speaking, "He's not picky. He eats every kind of food."

He was telling the truth. Gloria had good cooking skills. He had been eating the meal she made for so long and every dish tasted good.

Gloria felt that what he said was useless.

After that, "Leon" remained silent, and did not speak again.

She didn't know what he was thinking.

The first thing Gloria did after she got home was to see Kenny.

She went to the door of the study and knocked. No one opened the door after she knocked for a while.

When she went downstairs, she met "Leon" and asked him curiously, "Didn't you say that Kenny was at home? I just knocked on the door of the study and no one answered."

Kenny turned his head slightly to look away, avoiding Gloria's gaze, "He has probably returned to his room to rest. My cousin is not in good health and is easily tired."

After telling a lie, you needed to use countless lies to patch it up.

He cheated Gloria before because he thought she was funny and wanted to tease her.

In secret or in public, he had seen her be partial to "Kenny".

Kenny was born in a big family with a century history. After hearing many stories, he could tell at a glance whether Gloria's words were sincere or not.

Because he could tell that Gloria's words were sincere, his mood became so complicated that himself couldn't even understand it.

"I see." Gloria nodded and went downstairs.

Kenny watched her enter the kitchen and called Carl a little irritably, "Come out and drink with me!"

"I have to..." Carl wanted to refuse, but Kenny hung up the phone before he finished speaking.

...

Jinding High-level Club.

Carl walked up to Kenny reluctantly while shaking his glass, "Tell me, what's bothering you? so you have to drink with me in the daytime?"

Kenny didn't speak, but just took a sip of wine in silence.

Seeing him like this, Carl realized that things might be a little serious, so he no longer grinned cheekily. He said with a straight face, "I have to know what's going on, right?"

Kenny finally turned around and looked at him squarely.

However, he looked at Carl for a few seconds, then looked away, and said lightly, "You won't understand even if I tell you."

"Then why did you want me to drink with you?"

...

When Gloria finished cooking, the bodyguard told her that Kenny was out with "Leon".

She had to eat alone.

As she picked up the chopsticks, her cell phone rang.

She took it out and found out that it was Tina who was calling.

She reached out a finger and tapped on the screen, and finally slid toward the green answer button.

Gloria put her on the speakerphone, and her tone was very light, "Hello?"

There was a harsh noise at the other end of the phone, and then a sharp cry for help from a woman, "Gloria, help me..."

Gloria glanced at the phone number again and made sure that it was Tina's.

Tina screamed over there with a crying voice, "Gloria, I was wrong, I am your mother anyway. You must save me..."

The phone was taken away before Gloria could speak. This time it was a man who answered the phone.

"Are you this woman's daughter? Listen, prepare 50 million yuan for us, otherwise..." The man's voice suddenly became gruff and malicious, "We will kill her!"

Gloria was shocked, and then said very coldly, "I don't have money. If you want money, go to the Taylor Group to find Loren Taylor!"

Tina was kidnapped?

Fifty million yuan was not a small amount!

If the kidnappers wanted to kidnap Tina long ago, they should call Loren at this time. Why did they call her?

"Huh, you are the young mistress of the Clarke family. Will you have no money? Don't be kidding! I will give you two hours to prepare the money, and I will contact you again in two hours. Don't call the police or we'll kill her!"

The man hung up the phone after speaking.

Before he hung up the phone, Gloria heard Tina's miserable screams on the other end of the phone.

Gloria clenched the phone tightly, and her look changed slightly.

No matter how egregious Tina was, she was Gloria's mother. Gloria couldn't watch Tina be in danger, and do nothing about it.

Gloria took out her phone and called Loren while walking outside.

No one answered the phone.

Gloria was anxious and ran directly down the hill and took a taxi to Taylor's house.

Gloria never returned to Taylor's house after returning to her original appearance, so when she stood at the door of Taylor's house, she was directly stopped by the doorkeepers.

The doorkeeper asked her, "Excuse me, miss, who are you looking for?"

Gloria gave her a cold look, "I am Gloria."

"The third miss?" The doorkeeper looked incredulous, but upon closer inspection, she could indeed see that the woman looked a little alike Mrs. Taylor.

The doorkeeper dared not stop her.

Gloria asked her while going inside, "Where is my dad and Anne?"

"They are eating." The doorkeeper finished speaking and asked, "Have you eaten?"

When Gloria heard this, she ignored the doorkeeper, and the anger was burning in her heart.

Even if someone lost a dog, he would look for it. Moreover, Tina had been kidnapped!

Gloria was familiar with Taylor's house and went directly to the dining room.

"Dad, the shrimp tastes good today. Try it."

"It indeed tastes better than usual..."

When she went in, Anne and Loren were eating with pleasure.

Anne first saw Gloria and looked at her in surprise, "Normally you won't come back even if mom asks you to come home for dinner, but today mom is not at home, but you came back yourself?"

Gloria strode over and reached out to smash the bowl in front of Anne to the ground, "Mom has been kidnapped. You are still in the mood to eat!"

Anne's eyes widened, and she looked more surprised, "What? Mom has been kidnapped?"

"The kidnapper didn't call you?" Gloria squinted at Anne.

"Mom said that she invited a friend to have spa together and told us not to wait for her to eat. How could she be kidnapped?" Anne also made a distrustful expression.

"Someone called me and said he kidnapped mom and asked me to prepare 50 million yuan in two hours, otherwise they will kill her!" There was a note of tension in Gloria's voice.

After Anne heard this, her first reaction was not to worry about Tina. Instead, she frowned and said, "50 million? So much! The company has been short of money recently. Where can we get so much money all at once!"

Gloria looked cold, "Even though you don't have so much money, you have to do something about it! My mother has been working like a horse in your family for so many years. Isn't it worth raising 50 million yuan to save her?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 88 Came Alone

Gloria Taylor's remark was a bit harsh.

But, this was what she thought in her heart. Tina Walker lived a life of a rich wife in the Taylor family. Compared to other rich wives, her life was pretty good.

Tina Walker would arrange foods and clothes for the family.

50 million was not a small sum, but Loren Taylor could certainly get it.

However, Loren Taylor was not always willing.

Anne Taylor was obviously pissed off, but she held it and said, "If we have money, we can take the 50 million, but now the problem is that we don't have money!"

"Raise money if you don't have it." Gloria Taylor was too lazy to argue with Anne Taylor again. She turned to Loren Taylor and shouted, "Dad!"

Loren Taylor frowned, "That's true. I have to raise 50 million, but we only have two hours left. Where can we raise that amount of money?!"

Gloria Taylor was only fooling around. She didn't expect Loren Taylor was really willing to raise money.

"Raise as much as you can." Gloria Taylor bowed her heads and opened the phone book on her phone.

She sort of realized that other than Edith Hall, she really had no other friends.

Loren Taylor took his phone and started making phone calls.

Gloria Taylor stepped aside and called Edith Hall.

Edith Hall quickly answered the phone, "What's the matter? Have you eaten yet?"

Gloria Taylor sipped her lips, "Edith, I need to borrow money from you."

"Okay. How much?" Edith Hall had always been generous to her. As long as she asked, Edith Hall would certainly lend it to her.

After all, it was a matter of great importance. Gloria Taylor asked, "How much do you have?"

"I have around 34 million, I think? I don't know for sure. Wait, let me check." Edith Hall checked her deposit.

Halfway through, she suddenly realized that something was off. She asked aloud, "Why do you want to borrow that much money? What happened?"

"My mother was kidnapped and we need 50 million as a ransom."

"You should call the police!"

"We have to pay them first." Gloria Taylor was worried about Tina Walker's safety. The kidnappers might kill her.

Edith Hall actually wanted to tell Gloria Taylor to just let her heartless mother die.

However, she knew too much about her best friend. If Gloria Taylor didn't know about this matter, then she could just shrug it off, but once she knew, she would help until the end.

"Alright. I'll transfer you the money."

"Thank you."

Anne Taylor and Loren Taylor had been watching her all along.

When Gloria Taylor said that she had to pay the kidnappers first, Anne Taylor smiled proudly.

She walked approaching Loren Taylor, "I knew Gloria won't ignore mom."

He nodded. They tacitly smiled.

***

They were running out of time. They had raised 6 million. It was a far cry from 50 million.

Gloria Taylor walked back and forth anxiously.

Suddenly, Anne Taylor called her out, "Gloria, I remember you have the black card of the Clarke family!"

Gloria Taylor glared at her.

Anne Taylor added, "This is a matter of life and death. Mom's safety depends on you! We have done our best!"

Gloria Taylor was so anxious that she forgot she had the black card.

"I'll be right back!" Gloria Taylor didn't think much about it. The most important thing was to save Tina Walker.

Loren Taylor said, "We will take you back home. We will go the appointed place after that."

The two hours deadline was approaching. She had no option but to agree with his proposal.

Soon, she arrived at Kenny Clarke's villa.

Kenny Clarke and Leon Clarke had not come back yet. She took the black card and went out.

As she walked along, she took her phone and called the police.

After she received a call from the kidnapers, she was too nervous that she forgot to file a report to the police.

Anne Taylor saw her on the phone and asked nervously, "Who are you calling? Do the kidnapers call you?"

"I call the police to file a case."

She couldn't let the kidnapers take 50 million so conveniently.

Tina Walker was to be rescued. The money was not to be so cheap.

Anne Taylor was surprised when she learned that Gloria Taylor was calling the police. She hurriedly said, "Let's not call the police now. We have to give them the money first. Mom must have seen the kidnapers. We can call the police later."

"No. I have to call the police first."

Seeing her firm attitude, Anne Taylor grabbed her phone and hung it up. She retorted, "Why are you rushing to call the police? Do you want to harm your mother? What if the kidnapers know? What if they kill her? Are you doing this because she treats me better than she treats you? You don't have to hurt her like this! No matter what, she is the mother who gives birth and raise you!"

Anne Taylor was so proud of her own words. It was convincing.

"Shut up!" it was true what she said, but it was hard for Gloria Taylor to accept it.

No matter what, Tina Walker was her mother.

The kidnappers called again.

They gave an address and said, "You should come alone. If you bring any police or other people, I will kill this woman!"

She put the phone on loudspeakers. Loren Taylor and Anne Taylor also heard the kidnappers.

Suddenly, a strange feeling emerged in her heart.

She felt that the kidnappers came at her since the beginning. They never mentioned Loren Taylor.

Did they kidnap a housewife because they thought that she was rich?

This made sense, but the behavior of the kidnappers were off.

She asked, "Why you need to go alone?"

"Because it's not safe." Loren Taylor said, "You drive Anne's car and we will follow you."

Loren Taylor and Anne Taylor seemed very enthusiastic in rescuing Tina Walker.

Gloria Taylor was surprised, but she put her doubt aside. After all, they were the ones living with Tina Walker for more than 20 years.

Loren Taylor asked Gloria Taylor, "Can you drive?"

Gloria Taylor smiled mockingly, "Of course.

During her four years in college, she financed herself by taking scriptwriting jobs. Sometimes, she earned a good money and some other time, she earned less. Apart from tuition and living expenses, she saved money for driving license.

***

The address given by the kidnappers was an abandoned garage in the suburb. She was not familiar with the place.

After navigating there, she typed a short message and sent it to Edith Hall who was helping her called the police.

She had to rush there now and it was very likely that the kidnappers would be watching her from the road. So, she could only asked for Edith Hall to help her call the police.

After she successfully sent the message, Gloria Taylor deleted it.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 89

Surnamed Taylor

Gloria Taylor was driving while watching Loren Taylor's car behind her.

There was a sharp turn toward the abandoned garage.

After Gloria Taylor turned, she didn't see Loren Taylor's car again.

She stopped at the gate of the abandoned garage.

The rusty shutter door was pulled open from the inside and a tall, big man came out. He was wearing a mask and looking at Gloria Taylor gloomily.

"Are you Gloria Taylor?"

"Yes." Gloria Taylor nodded.

"Have you brought the money?"

Gloria Taylor said calmly, "I want to see my mother first."

The man looked around to make sure that she came alone. He turned around and came inside, "Follow me."

Gloria Taylor followed him inside.

The old abandoned garage was a mess. The ground was covered with thick layer of dusts. There were piles of unused stuff on the corners.

Gloria Taylor followed him and saw Tina Walker tied to a chair.

Tina Walker's well-groomed hair was not a mess. She was pale and looked unkempt.

She was gifted with beauty, but her age ate it up.

When Tina Walker saw Gloria Taylor, her eyes burst with surprise. Her voice was hoarse, "Gloria, you're here!"

"Are you alright?" Gloria Taylor walked approaching her with a flat face.

Tina Walker smiled and nodded, "I'll be fine since you're here! Give them they money, please! They just want the money!"

At this moment, the man who took her inside just now stood in front of her. He reached out his hand, "Where is the money?"

"You don't give me enough time. I can't find that much money." Gloria Taylor said calmly, "Since you know that I'm the daughter-in-law of the Clarke family, you know that the Clarke has a black card, accessible from the anywhere in the world. Can I give you that card?"

His face changed, "Are you kidding me? Do you think I'm stupid? If I take this black card, you will have it frozen and call the police to arrest us!"

Gloria Taylor's face changed. Indeed, she thought so.

Another man behind this man stepped forward and said something to him.

The man who was wearing a mask raised his hand to her and said, "I can let the old woman go, but you have to come with me to get the money."

"Deal." Gloria Taylor agreed without looking at Tina Walker.

After they let go of Tina Walker, she looked at Gloria Taylor and said in panic, "Be careful!"

Then, she quickly ran out.

Gloria Taylor smiled mockingly. She said nothing.

She took the black card and handed it to the man.

Instead of reaching for the card, the man reached out his hand to the back of her head and cut her neck.

Gloria Taylor blacked out for a moment. Before passing out, she tried to recall what happened today.

She realized something was wrong, but it was too late.

***

When Gloria Taylor woke up, she realized that she was no longer in the abandoned garage.

She was still in daze, but she heard someone talking, "Is the Taylor who hires us?"

"It's exactly this woman's family."

"What sorcery is this? If we do something to this woman... will the Clarke come looking for us?"

"Do you forget that Mrs. Clarke was kidnapped ten years ago? It didn't end in reconciliation. Wealthy family wants their reputation."

Gloria Taylor was shivering badly. She felt the cold was piercing through her bone.

When she went to the Taylor's residence, she broke Anne Taylor's bowl, but Anne Taylor didn't get angry.

Anne Taylor didn't let her call the police.

Gloria Taylor was so anxious at that time because she thought that it was a matter of life and death. She had no expectation for Tina Walker at all, but she couldn't see Tina Walker die helplessly.

It turned out that she was too green to compete with Loren Taylor and Anne Taylor.

"Brother, she wakes up!"

That person saw her waking up.

Gloria Taylor's face was cold as ice, but she was calm, "I heard what you said. The people who hired you, were they Loren Taylor and Anne Taylor?"

One of them snorted, "Why bother asking if you're dying?"

"I need to know before I die." Gloria Taylor talked as she looked around the room.

It was a living room with a set of sofa and a dining table. She was tightly tied into a chair and her body was a little sore.

"So what if I tell you? It is them who hired us. Don't blame us if you die. Blame your bad luck." The man saw that Gloria Taylor was beautiful, so he was willing to say more words.

Gloria Taylor felt that her luck was bad indeed.

She underestimated Anne Taylor too much.

What role did Tina Walker play in this kidnapping?

Did she know Anne Taylor's plan since the beginning? Did she help Anne Taylor exploit her black card?

Another man came up and stared at Gloria Taylor with obscene eyes, "Don't talk nonsense with her. We should leave Shanghai after this is settled. Who come up first?"

"Brother, you go first."

Her pupil and her heart sank. She tried to break free twice, but the tie was too tight that she couldn't move.

Last time in Zijin Club when Anne Taylor tried to harm her, she was lucky enough to escape, but this time, could she escape?

She was unwilling!

Gloria Taylor forced herself to calm down. She raised her head to look confident, "Do you think that the Clarke is easy to handle? Do you think anyone is alive after taking part in kidnapping the late Mrs. Clarke? Reputation is a great deal for the Clarke. Do you think that they will stay silent if other steps on their face?"

Mrs. Clarke they mentioned just now was Kenny Clarke's mother.

When she found out that they waived, she continued, "Even if Anne Taylor gave you a lot of money, you will not be able to spend it alive. If you let me go now and leave Shanghai, the Clarke will not trouble you."

"This girl is threatening us!"

"I don't intend to live a long life either. Even if the Clarke won't trouble me, the police will, but I have never slept with a beautiful woman like you. Today, I will."

He was talking while reaching out his hands to her clothes.

Her face was pale.

She told herself not to be afraid. There must be another way.

The man was pulling her zipper down and now her jacket was opened. After that, he tried to sneak his hands under her sweater.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 90 Followed Me

Out of her survival instinct, Gloria Taylor struggled hard and fell to the ground with the chair.

"Damn it!"

The kidnapper was pissed off. He kicked her stomach and reached out his hand to grab her hair to pull her back up.

His kick was a little too strong. Gloria Taylor was covered in cold sweats.

She was thinking of how she could avoid the man's disgusting hands.

The man was pulling her hair to get her back up. Suddenly, the door was kicked open from outside. It made a loud noise.

Bang!

Gloria Taylor's hair was torn and her head was hurt. She pursed her lips while looking at the door.

She saw a familiar figure standing at the doorway. Her fear that she held back flooded like a riptide. Her tears were pouring down her cheek.

Although her tears were falling, but she didn't cry at all. Instead, she smiled and looked at the man at the doorway, "Leon, you're here."

Gloria Taylor realized that she could remain calm and confident because she was sure that someone would come and save her.

The one who would come to save her must be the best among the people she knew and best of them all was Leon Clarke.

Kenny Clarke clenched his fists when he saw the situation inside. He was raging with anger and he was fearful like the devil from hell.

Both of the kidnappers were so frightened that their voices shook, "You... who are you?"

When the person surnamed Taylor told them to kidnap Gloria Taylor, they didn't say that there would be a bunch of people coming to save her.

"You can ask this question again in the next life." Kenny Clarke walked approaching the man. He said in a low and cold voice, "Because in this life, you won't have the chance to know."

He talked and walked slowly toward them. However, after a sudden fast movement, before they could see his action, they were smashed heavily to the ground. Soon, they curled up with pain.

Kenny Clarke crouched down and carefully propped her chair back up. He quickly untied her rope.

His face was flat, but there was a trace of sadness in his eyes. He looked terrible.

Gloria Taylor was worried after she found out that no one came in after Leon Clarke.

In other words, he came alone.

He asked her, "Are you okay?"

"I'm okay. Why do you come alone?" she didn't know how he found this place and it was risky for him to come alone.

"It's enough even if I'm alone."

He was bowing his head, so she couldn't see his eyes.

"Go out and wait for me outside." He said, almost like a command.

Gloria Taylor was relieved that he was confident. However, when she tried to lift her foot, she found out that she was weak and sore that she couldn't walk at all.

Even though she appeared calm, unlike her heart, her body was honest.

She was scared.

Kenny Clarke stretched out his hand and pulled his tie off. He covered her eyes by tying it to her head. He pushed her to the chair so sit. Then, he pushed the chair to the corner of the room.

He whispered in a low voice, "It will be over soon."

After that, Gloria Taylor heard the sound of fighting and shrieks. The smell of blood filled the room.

When the smell of blood was getting stronger, the shrieks quieted down.

Now, everything was silent.

Gloria Taylor felt his hand on hers, he said, "It's done. Let's go." Gloria Taylor reached out to remove the tie form her eyes, but Leon Clarke stopped her.

"We can talk outside. Follow me."

With her blinded eyes and dark sight, she followed his lead outside. Her mind was once again peaceful.

But, this scared her.

Out of the room, Leon Clarke stretched out his hand and pulled her tie off eyes.

She blinked to adapt with the light.

It was already dark, but she could vaguely see grass around her.

They were still in the suburbs. They just moved the location from the abandoned garage to wherever here was.

They were holding each other's hands tightly. Her hand was cold while Leon Clarke's was warm.

For the first time ever, she didn't try to dodge him, she was willingly led by him.

Out of impulse, she looked back at the half closed door with fear. The kidnappers were lying on the ground, motionless, bathed by blood. One of them was out cold with eyes opened looking at her direction.

Was he dead with his eyes opened?

Gloria Taylor was shocked and shuddered by the idea. Did Leon Clarke kill those kidnappers?

Leon Clarke felt that she was acting strange. He looked at her not knowing what she was thinking. He lingered his arms on her shoulders.

"You... I can walk alone." Gloria Taylor said.

Leon Clarke didn't reply.

Gloria Taylor found out that he didn't speak much since he made his appearance.

Leon Clarke took her to the car.

Gloria Taylor had many questions to ask, but the car was too warm and there was Leon Clarke beside her. Her tense nerves could finally relax and soon, she fell asleep.

After driving for a while, Leon Clarke noticed that Gloria Taylor was sleeping.

She looked like she didn't suffer much. Her hair was messy, but there was no scratch on her hands and face.

She had long escaped the danger, but it still scared the hell out of him.

He hated kidnappers the most.

They all deserved to die.

At this moment, his phone suddenly rang.

It was Shi Ye.

"Sir, where are you?" Shi Ye was worried. He heard people say that the young master drove away, but they didn't know where he'd gone.

Kenny Clarke ordered in a low voice, "I will send you the address and you will send someone to clean up the mess."

After a pause, Shi Ye replied, "Yes, Sir."

***

The heater in the car worked so well that she woke up warm.

She didn't see Leon Clarke around. She turned around and looked outside the window. She vaguely saw a tall figure in the dark, but it was too dark that he merged with it.

She opened the car door and the cold winter wind made her shudder.

He heard the noise and he turned around, "Don't get out of the car. I'll come back inside after done smoking this cigar."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 91 Leon Clarke Was Comforting Her

In the middle of the dark, Leon Clarke's hoarse voice sounded like Kenny Clarke's.

Gloria Taylor dazed for a moment. She thought that Leon Clarke was somehow weird tonight.

She was just kidnapped, but after sleeping for a while, her mood was better. Meanwhile, Leon Clarke seemed to be in a bad mood. He looked gloomy as well.

She couldn't figure out why and it frightened her.

She hesitated for a moment and decided to get off the car.

She stood behind him and asked softly, "What's wrong?"

He didn't speak. After putting his cigar out, he turned around.

Under the dim light of the night, Gloria Taylor couldn't see his face clearly, but she could feel the pressure around him.

Suddenly, the man standing in front of her lowered his head and fiercely kissed her on the lips.

He kissed her deeply and his breath was hot. She felt warm and slightly shuddered by the sensation.

Then, she came back to her senses and stretched her hand to push him away.

But, Leon Clarke was different. He didn't let her go no matter how hard she struggled.

Instead of loosening his arm, he lingered it around her waist and grabbed her tightly. She was unable to move.

The large gap of strength between a man and a woman made her struggle useless. She could only bear his increasingly rough kisses.

It was not until their breath getting heavier that he finally let her go.

Her body weakened. As soon as he let go of her, she felt like falling to the ground. With a swift move, he swept her off her feet and shove her back to the car.

Leon Clarke got inside the car from the other side and started the engine without saying anything.

After she calmed herself down, she knew that she was angry with his behavior, but she was unable to fight back. They went back to the villa in silence.

The villa was brightly lit and bodyguards were guarding each floor.

Gloria Taylor was surprised, "What happened?"

Did Kenny Clarke know that she was missing and ask his bodyguards to find her?

Leon Clarke who just molested her acted like he didn't hear her. He got off the car and walked straight to the villa.

Gloria Taylor followed him. She looked at his tall and straight built from behind. She found that he was more and more unfathomable.

Once he was inside, he went straight upstairs.

Gloria Taylor walked inside. She could finally calm down, but she felt very hungry right now.

When a bodyguard saw her walking to the kitchen, he immediately followed her up and asked, "Young Lady, what would you like to eat? I'll make it for you."

"Do you have anything ready? I'll eat anything." She was very hungry that she felt she could eat two cows alive.

She said that she would eat anything ready, but the guards served her a table full of dishes instead."

She was hungry. She quickly picked up her chopstick and began to eat.

Halfway through the meal, she saw Leon Clarke coming in and sitting opposite her.

The guard quickly prepared the dinnerware for him.

Gloria Taylor looked at him and asked, "Haven't you eaten yet?"

"I don't have time to eat." Leon Clarke said faintly.

It took a lot of time for him to save her. It was only normal for him not to have time to eat.

Leon Clarke had changed his clothes and his hair was slightly wet. He must have bathed.

Gloria Taylor who had finished most of her meals said solemnly, "Thank you... for saving me again."

Her feelings was complicated.

She had been trying to stay away from him, but he kept coming to save her. Now, their relationship was hard to explain.

"Don't be stupid next time."

He said flatly without looking up.

Gloria Taylor smiled helplessly, "I'm so stupid." She sighed, "But, what else can I do? She is my mother. I cannot ignore her even if she is no good to me. I didn't expect that she would gang up with them to deceive me and—"

Her voice cracked. She almost sobbed.

Then, she was silent. Her tight jaw showed that she was trying hard to bear it all.

Leon Clarke looked up to see her stubborn face. He said slowly, "Not all mothers are like her. My mother was a good person."

Gloria Taylor looked up. Was he trying to comfort her?

When she thought that he would say something more, he lowered his head and ate slowly as if he didn't just say that.

***

Gloria Taylor had a nightmare that night.

She woke up early and made breakfast for herself but she was not in the mood to eat. She sat on the sofa in the living room, watching TV.

She was not in a hurry to confront the Taylors.

She knew that even if she confronted them, Anne Taylor would not admit it.

Her phone buzzed.

She glanced at the caller ID. It was Edith Hall.

She called Edith Hall yesterday, but she didn't explain what happened. She only said a few words, so, Edith Hall had no idea that she almost die yesterday.

Leon Clarke came to save her because Edith Hall told Carl Cook.

"Do you want to go shopping today? I will have to go on a tour in a few days to promote my new movie."

"Sure." Gloria Taylor replied.

She went back to her room to change her clothes. She met Leon Clarke when she went downstairs again.

"Where are you going?" Leon Clarke saw she was carrying a handbag. He knew that she was going out.

"I'm going shopping with my friend." She added, "I'm going with Edith Hall. She is that girl you met the other time."

Gloria Taylor found it strange that she deliberately explained it to him.

He stood up and picked up his car key, "I'll drive you."

Gloria Taylor was about to refuse, but she knew that it would be useless. Leon Clarke seemed to know what she was thinking and explained before she opened her mouth, "Cousin asks me to drive you when I'm free."

When it came to Kenny Clarke, her eyes didn't brighten up like before.

When she was kidnapped yesterday, it was Leon Clarke who came to save her. When she returned to the villa, she didn't see Kenny Clarke around. She didn't even hear Kenny Clarke saying a word of concern.

She thought that she had shown enough sincerity, but Kenny Clarke was still repulsing her.

If that's the case, then it was better to them to treat each other like strangers.

They had nothing to do with each other, didn't care about each other, and just lived their own lives.

Since she was a little girl, she had never been cared about. So, it was no big deal for her that Kenny Clarke treated her the same way.

With that in mind, she seemed to relax a lot. She took a few steps closer to Leon Clarke and said playfully, "You don't have to drive me if it's your cousin's order, but if it's your idea, I'm fine with it."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 92 Follow Her Willing

Leon Clarke listened to Gloria Taylor's words and his eyes flashed with surprise. He looked at her thoughtfully, but he only made a faint noise, "Let's go."

Gloria Taylor followed him with mixed feelings.

Everyone was easily defeated by emotion. She didn't hate Leon Clarke so much now. Her heart was full of gratitude and worship for the man. If only he wasn't Kenny Clarke's cousin, if only she didn't marry Kenny Clarke.

But, this way, the problem returned to square one.

If she didn't marry Kenny Clarke, it was impossible for her to cross path with Leon Clarke.

There was no way out for this problem. Fate was indeed ridiculous and helpless.

They got inside the car and Leon Clarke suddenly asked her, "How are you going to get the black card back?"

Gloria Taylor smiled, "I will think of a way."

"Aren't you afraid that my cousin will investigate this matter?" Leon Clarke was trying her.

"If he wanted to, he would've done it last night." The smile on her face disappeared, "He is so generous. I need to bring the card back to him."

She used to think Kenny Clarke gave her the card as a recognition of her status.

Now, it seemed that he gave her the card because he didn't really care about it.

Kenny Clarke noticed the way she said 'give it back to him'.

That time, when he gave her a phone, he said that it was Kenny Clarke who bought it for her. She accepted it happily.

When he gave her the black card, she refused and gave it back to Kenny Clarke, but Kenny Clarke let her keep it. She only used it once in her life.

Before, she was happy to accept everything Kenny Clarke gave her.

But now, she intended to return the black card to him.

She finally lost patience with Kenny Clarke and planned to focus her attention to Leon Clarke.

When Kenny Clarke learned about this, he was not happy. His face sank for quite a while.

***

Edith Hall earned a lot of money from filming, but she was also a big spender.

Every time she went shopping, she occasionally spent hundreds of thousands of Yuan. Sometime, she even splurged for millions of Yuan.

Gloria Taylor's style of consumption was different from Edith Hall's, but Gloria Taylor thought that a woman could spend their hard earned money as they wished.

They spent the whole day shopping. In the evening, Gloria Taylor took Edith Hall for dinner before they went back home.

After returning to the villa, Gloria Taylor came in and saw Leon Clarke inside.

"Have you eaten yet? If you haven't, I'll cook something for you now." She was thinking of cooking for Leon Clarke, so she went home early.

It was only six o'clock in the evening.

Leon Clarke looked up. He was flattered.

He coughed softly and replied seriously, "I haven't."

The bodyguard twitched. Leon Clarke had just came back from Jin Ding to have a meal.

After she cooked the meal, she wrapped some of it and put it in a tray for the guard to bring it to Kenny Clarke.

If Leon Clarke hadn't eaten yet, so did Kenny Clarke.

She went back to her room.

Kenny Clarke was sitting on his chair while looking at those appetizing dishes. He asked the guard to pour a cup of water for him, "Do you think that the Young Lady is acting different?"

The guard thought for a moment and said frankly, "The Young Lady usually asked whether Young Master was home or not, but today, she didn't ask."

The young master he meant was Kenny Clarke.

The guard felt that he didn't say it clear enough, he added, "By young master I didn't mean you, I mean that other young master. The young lady—"

Halfway through, the guard found it difficult to explain.

"I understand. You may go." Kenny Clarke interrupted him. He waved hand and let him out.

The next day was Monday. Gloria Taylor woke up early and put on a light makeup.

When she went downstairs, Shi Ye was already waiting for her.

She looked around, but she couldn't find Leon Clarke anywhere. She walked up to Shi Ye and said, "I won't trouble you. I will go by myself."

She turned around and left.

It was no trouble for him. Driving the young lady to go to work every day was the easiest job for him.

After Gloria Taylor left, Kenny Clarke who was standing on the second floor walked downstairs. He was everything.

"Sir." Shi Ye greeted him respectfully. He knew that Kenny Clarke saw the scene just now. He didn't explain much.

Kenny Clarke looked at the door, "Let her."

He thought that Gloria Taylor was close to finding his identity, but now, she deliberately distance herself from him.

Gloria Taylor went to the Taylor Company.

She got off the bus and stood at the entrance of the company. Her face was bitter and cold while her eyes were full of confidence.

She was lucky that she made it out alive.

She lifted her foot toward the door. All the staff who walked pass her involuntarily set their eyes on her.

They found that her face was different. It was still the same beautiful face, but there was something different about it.

A colleague from marketing department who knew Gloria Taylor well passed by and greeted her, "Morning, Gloria."

"Morning." Gloria Taylor smiled.

Her beautiful cat eyes curved up like a crescent moon. Her lips were purplish red and her skin was fair. Her facial features were delicate and spot on.

Another staff standing by that colleague was enchanted by her beauty that it took him a while before he smiled.

A bunch of other staff got into the elevator. Gloria Taylor chatted with them, "How's your weekend, guys?"

"I went to the playground with my children."

"I went out on a date with my boyfriend."

"Oh, I thought the red marks on your neck were mosquito bites!"

"What are you talking about?"

They laughed. Gloria Taylor no longer talked. She smiled and pressed the button to close the elevator.

But, the elevator was opened again.

It was Anne Taylor coming in.

As soon as she came in, the laughter stopped and the elevator quieted down.

Gloria Taylor stood in the corner of that sophisticated elevator. Anne Taylor glanced at the people inside with her chin up high. She didn't notice Gloria Taylor was inside.

Gloria Taylor looked at Anne Taylor. She saw her wearing a new coat she saw on the mall yesterday. It worth nearly a million Yuan.

Gloria Taylor hooked her lips. She smiled, "Good morning, Sister."

The elevator was rising and it was very quiet inside. Her voice spread inside the elevator and sounded strange.

Anne Taylor looked back in disbelief. When she saw Gloria Taylor, her face changed.

She looked like she just saw a monster. She stumbled and nearly fell down. She held the handrail inside the elevator and stared at her with wide eyes, "Why are you here? You're not—"

She realized that she was in an elevator. She pretended to calm down, "Gloria, you're early today."

The people beside her stepped aside when they heard Gloria Taylor talked.

Gloria Taylor set her eyes on Anne Taylor and faintly said, "Earlier than you."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 93 Poor Thing

Anne Taylor got goosebumps when she saw Gloria Taylor. Her body became stiff.

She wanted to look calm and to smile, but the fear in her eyes was too obvious. As the result, her face looked strange.

Everyone in the elevator noticed her strange look, but no one said a word.

Gloria Taylor slowly approached Anne Taylor. She held her arm and touched her new coat with her other hand. She said in admiration, "Sister, this coat is new, isn't it? It's beautiful. It must be expensive."

Anne Taylor loved showing off her clothes, but the person in front of her was Gloria Taylor who was supposed to be dead yesterday. She was too frightened to show off.

Moreover, she brought the expensive coat using Gloria Taylor's black card.

"No... It's not that expensive." Gloria Taylor moved her arm. She was giving Anne Taylor an illusion that a poisonous snake was lingering her. If she moved, she would get bitten to death.

"Perhaps, it's not too expensive for you. I saw the same model in a shopping mall yesterday. The coat costs more than 900.000 Yuan and people have to make a pre-order. They cannot casually buy it just because they want it."

If Anne Taylor had pre-ordered the coat, it meant that she planned to steal the black card a long time ago.

Everyone else would think that Gloria Taylor was envying Anne Taylor's coat, but actually, Anne Taylor was so scared that she dared not budge.

Gloria Taylor was satisfied with her reaction. This was how a bad person should react.

Ding.

The elevator reached a certain floor. The door slide open.

Anne Taylor wanted to go out, but she dared not move because Gloria Taylor didn't loosened her arm.

Others saw Anne Taylor standing still. They dared not move as well.

Gloria Taylor pretended to be surprised, "What are you doing, Sister? Why don't you go out? Everyone is waiting for you."

She said as she pulled Anne Taylor out.

She didn't forget to look back inside the elevator and said to the other staffs, "See you later."

They went inside Anne Taylor's office. Gloria Taylor locked the door and loosened Anne Taylor's arm.

"Anne, you look afraid. You put me in a difficult situation. People think that I'm bullying you." Anne Taylor took a step back when Gloria Taylor started talking.

Gloria Taylor sneered. She held Anne Taylor's collar and said maliciously, "Don't be afraid, Anne. I've always been obedient to you. I dare not bully you."

Gloria Taylor had been talking for a while, but she didn't mention yesterday's event. Anne Taylor thought she was lucky that Gloria Taylor didn't know what she did yesterday.

With that false thought came a confidence.

Anne Taylor shrugged Gloria Taylor's hand off her and put on a puzzled look, "Gloria, have you been taking the wrong medicine? You're talking nonsense this morning."

As she spoke, she turned around and walked to her desk. She sat down posing like a person in charge, "It's time to work. You can start working. Come to me when you have something to discuss with."

Gloria Taylor was not surprised that Anne Taylor would pretend like nothing happened.

“Well, I will come to see you after work.” Gloria Taylor smiled and went out.

As soon as she went out, Anne Taylor threw the documents on her desk to the ground.

Gloria Taylor was alive!

Loren Taylor and she came up with the kidnapping plan to steal her black card.

The plan that they agreed on was to steal the black card and let the kidnappers leave Shanghai. Even if Gloria Taylor knew about it, she couldn't do anything to them because she had no evidence.

However, Anne Taylor hated Gloria Taylor so much that she wouldn't let her go so easily.

She secretly gave more money to the kidnappers to let them have fun with Gloria Taylor and kill her after they were satisfied. The kidnappers were wanted criminals and they were ruthless. Anne Taylor didn't contact them again because she was afraid of leaving trails. She thought that Gloria Taylor was dead. She didn't expect she's alive!

Gloria Taylor was not the same as before. Once she knew that Anne Taylor was the one orchestrating the plan, she would definitely not let her go.

***

Gloria Taylor went out of Anne Taylor's office to find Loren Taylor.

The kidnapping must have been planned by two of them. Anne Taylor couldn't have done it alone.

Gloria Taylor knocked at the door, "Come in." Loren Taylor said.

She pushed the door open and Loren Taylor looked up.

When he saw Gloria Taylor, he was surprised, but he was not afraid.

In other words, Loren Taylor probably didn't know what the kidnappers wanted to do to her.

He stood up, "Gloria, are you alright?"

"I'm okay. How's Mom?" Gloria Taylor walked past quietly with flat face.

Loren Taylor saw that she didn't mention about the kidnapping. He thought that she must have no idea about it. He smiled gently, "She is fine. She will cook lunch and deliver it this noon. Do you want to eat together?"

Gloria Taylor nodded, "Sure."

Tina Walker came to the company at noon to deliver some foods for Loren Taylor.

Her face slightly changed when she saw Gloria Taylor was in there, "Gloria, you're here."

"I haven't eaten the food you cook for a long time. Dad said that you would come to deliver some meals. I think I'll join you for lunch today."

Gloria Taylor said as she looked straight into Tina Walker's eyes. Gloria Taylor's face was complicated. No one knew what she was thinking.

"My cooking tastes... nothing special." Tina Walker took out the dishes from the lunch box. She was avoiding Gloria Taylor's eyes.

Tina Walker's fidgety behavior confirmed that she knew about yesterday's kidnapping.

Otherwise, what was she guilty of?

She couldn't describe how sad she felt, but she was a little disheartened.

She had to admit that her own mother didn't love her for the past 22 years.

She had no place in her mother's heart.

Tina Walker could do anything for Loren Taylor.

Anne Taylor was right. She was a poor thing who wasn't even loved by her own mother.

Gloria Taylor lowered her head and laughed in a low voice, "I haven't eaten much of your cooking. I don't remember what it tastes like."

Tina Walker stopped moving and turned her head to look at Loren Taylor.

Loren Taylor looked at her and shook his head.

She was reassured.

After what happened last Saturday, she found out that Gloria Taylor cared so much about her. She could casually trade the valuable black card out for her.

She must be an importance for Gloria Taylor. If Loren Taylor were to ask Gloria Taylor for a favor next time, Tina Walker would do her best to help him.

If she could help Loren Taylor, he would be happy and treat her better.

With the thought, Tina Walker smiled and handed the dishes to Gloria Taylor, "You should eat more." she bribed.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 94

Exposing The Shady

"Thank you." Gloria Taylor looked at Tina.

Although Gloria was thanking her Tina still felt that she had a deeper meaning behind her smile and the pair of cat eyes had already understood everything in her eyes.

Tina shuddered automatically and the chopsticks in her hand did not hold firmly at that moment, so they fell to the ground.

Gloria stooped to help her pick the chopsticks up and then said: "Mom, hold the chopsticks firmly. I may not be able to help you pick the chopsticks up by your side next time."

She spoke slowly with a gentle tone, but Tina felt like she had another meaning by telling her this.

Oliver frowned and smiled again: "I just didn't pay attention."

"Really?" Oliver smiled noncommittally and stood up: "I'm full and I'm going out first."

In fact, she didn't really touch the chopsticks at all.

Loren watched Gloria walked out and frowned, he always felt that Gloria was a little bit strange.

...

As soon as Gloria walked out of Loren's office, all the expressions on his face were condensed and only has a cold face left.

Gloria has seen all the deliberately pleased from Tina but there was no fluctuate at all in her heart.

She has been deceiving herself for so many years.

Tina would not buy her anything even a cloth for so many years if she loves her nor would she kneel down and ask her to marry the inhuman Kenny Clark.

Tina understood the essence of her heart and tasted the sweetness because of this kidnapping, so she wanted to please her?

She probably has already forgiven Tina if it was before.

However, people will become soberer after being discouraged and nothing can paralyze her even Tina's flattering.

She would never care about Tina anymore in the future.

No one can uncover that page and pretend that nothing has happened after being injured for many times and also without a limit,

Gloria went to an empty place and sent a message to the paparazzi that Edith introduced to her: "The latest kitchen cleaning towel developed by the Taylors is of inferior material and contains harmful toxins."

The Taylors products are mainly daily household- use necessities, they have also been exposed to product inferiority and was found to have problems two years ago, but all the news were quickly suppressed.

She was still in high school at that time, she went to the Taylors' factory and checked those products, there were indeed some problems.

The paparazzi introduced to her by Edith was relatively reliable and also professional.

Although he is an entertainment paparazzi, he can sell this news to other media.

The paparazzi quickly returned to her: "Are you sure?"

"I'm sure, but you have to go to the factory to take pictures of those products, I will send you the address." The camouflage and sneak shots skills from paparazzi are the best and also are their specialities.

"Sure, Okay!"

There are some values of the Taylor news because of the in-law relationship with the Clarkes, so the paparazzi responded without any hesitation.

Gloria put away her phone and walked to the room.

She met Anne who just came back from eating outside on the halfway.

Tina often cooks and delivers foods to the company but Anne is a hedonistic person, she is sick the food from Tina and naturally prefer to go out for food.

Anne shouted with pride: "Don't you want to learn something from me? I will have a meeting later and you could come to join us."

Anne has relieved herself now, she thought she knew Gloria very well and if Gloria knows she did that thing, she would naturally not be so calm. But she was not completely sure about it, so she wanted to ask Gloria to stay with her and then look at her reactions.

Gloria replied with a smile: "Okay."

Conference room.

Gloria sat beside Anne and listened to the content of their meeting.

Although she couldn't understand it very well, she still could feel that Anne was just like her which means that there was nothing important in her brain.

Anne looked at Gloria's confusing expression and was even more proud.

A fool is a fool!

Gloria doesn't care how much Anne is proud of the moment, because all the projects will be forced to stop sooner or later.

Anne asked Gloria to stay at the end of the meeting.

"I can't even understand the contents of such a simple meeting, I suggest you go back to your marketing department!" Anne looked at Gloria with the eyes full of contempt and there was unabashedly contemptuous in his tone.

"Oh, Let's talk about it later then." Gloria looked at her lightly and walked away after turned around.

The least accustomed thing that Anne hated is that Gloria never looked at her with respects.

She looked at Gloria's back with a vicious look and she didn't believe that Gloria could be so lucky every single time, she would be able to step Gloria into the mud one day!

Gloria returned to the lattice room and searched the information's online but didn't find any news related to the Taylor.

Didn't the paparazzi shoot anything? Or did he go to Taylor's factory to dig up news?

Gloria waited for the result after a while.

An emergency meeting was suddenly held in the company when everyone was about to leave the office.

The atmosphere in the office suddenly became tense and the sound of the phone rang all the time, everyone was so busy with it.

It hasn't been long since Gloria came to the project department and all the job she did is to serve as a handy girl.

Therefore Gloria became the idlest person in the company.

She slowly took out her phone and saw the news related to the disclosure of a company's shady headlines.

[Breaking News: The reporter went deep into a large daily necessities factory to expose the shady side]

"People can't help to think of the Taylors when it comes to the daily necessities company in Huyang city, our reporter breaks the door and went to the Taylors' factory to expose the hidden behind scene today... Most of the raw materials are recycled from garbage... it can cause great harm to human health..."

Gloria read ten more lines until the comment area.

"The daily necessities, towels and mops were all from the company in the previous ten years, but they stopped using them until two years ago, everyone knew the reason why after used them..."

"I just bought a new suit from this brand, can I return it?"

"Do you still remember the protagonist of the indecent video? It was the daughter of the CEO of this company, what kind of conscience product do you expect from such a boss who can teach such a shameless daughter?"

"+1, I think the person upstairs is so right!"

"+2..."

+ID number, I have guessed that such a company will be exposed one day sooner or later!"

" ... "

This review just mentioned Anne's improper video and thousands of comments were followed behind it, the direction which led by the first review was very right and it could deepen the reader's resistance to the Taylors.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 95 Tactical containment

Gloria Taylor read the comment again. Thanks to the disagreements with her sister Anne Taylor recently, she felt all the more that the comment seems to be deliberately issued by someone, with the following comments whose owners have been bribed.

Gloria Taylor thought of Edith Hall. She sent a screenshot of the tens of thousands of comments to Edith Hall, asking her: "You sent this comment? And bought the Internet Water Army?"

Edith Hall replied instantly, "My God! You can see that? Tell me the truth! Have you installed something strange on my phone?"

Gloria Taylor laughed, replying in a word: "feeling."

Edith Hall: "What a wonderful feeling you have! However, Why don't you let me in if you want to find someone to expose Taylor Company! I can help you find the water army to build momentum, ah ha!"

Being always up to no good, Edith Hall has really stayed the same.

"Don't get involved. I can handle it. You're a public figure. Careful!" Gloria Taylor really worried about Edith Hall. If anyone tried to smear her, she was doomed.

"It's ok, I won't be picked out, I have done a very good job of secrecy. Talk to you later guy, I'm off to have a good laugh at sb on Microblog anonymously. And! Celebrate tonight!"

Cele...brate?

Gloria Taylor helplessly smiled, and withdrew the chat interface.

The colleague next to her said: "Gloria, the meeting is about to begin, why're you still here?"

"Right away."

Gloria Taylor got the phone into the pocket, slowly moving to the meeting room after the crowd.

It was the deputy manager rather than Anne Taylor who organized the meeting.

Deputy manager's face grave: "let's contact the cooperative clients in our lists. Firstly, appease them, as for those who want to disengage, we also try to grasp a little..."

Gloria Taylor fiddled with her own hair, casually listening.

Once the inside story of a plot in the factory was exposed, the company's image would plummet in public. Just like the typical case of a certain milk powder brand, after it was exposed to add harmful substances to milk powder, either bankrupt, or never recover after a setback. Taylor

Company deals with business about commodity, not food category; as long as its public relations are in place, it would not go bankrupt, but it still would suffer a heavy setback. In this era of rapid development, some people will pursue fame and fortune by fair means or unscrupulous, and the public is impetuous. Gloria Taylor struck the fatal blow. But if the factory of Taylor is with due diligence, then it is impossible to be caught on the wrong side.

When the emergency meeting was over, it was already overtime, and almost everyone had to stay overtime. Gloria Taylor didn't plan to stay overtime. She got up and left with her bag. Approaching the elevator, she turned back towards Loren Taylor's office. Coincidentally, the office door was half-covered. Anne Taylor's angry voice came from inside. "How much benefit do we give to those media every year, how do they handle affairs like this? Dad, what should I do? Will our company go bankrupt?"

Hearing the word "bankruptcy", Loren Taylor stopped her aloud: "Shut up! I said earlier that you should calm down and go out to play with a low profile. Now someone has caught Taylor's handle, and made a big fuss about your affairs. Someone deliberately embarrassed us!" "How do I know people will take photos and videos? I was just thinking about playing, and you didn't care about me. Ah, You're no good either. I caught you looking for a woman younger than me outside and entering the hotel..."

Anne Taylor was probably too anxious and unbalanced due to being scolded by Loren Taylor, and she began to speak without thinking. With the sound of "pa", Anne Taylor's voice came to an abrupt end. Gloria Taylor gently pushed the door open slightly, and saw Anne Taylor covering her face, followed by her sharp voice: "You slap me?" Loren Taylor seemed to regret a little, and his tone eased a lot: " Anne..." Anne Taylor took a step back: "Don't call my name!" She finished and turned to run outside.

Seeing this, Gloria Taylor turned and hurried away. When she was almost at the door, she thought of the thing that the media went directly to the Taylor's door to block people at the last time, and she pulled out a mask from her bag and put it on. In winter, she has the habit of always holding a mask in her bag, but she didn't expect to come in handy at such times. As soon as Gloria Taylor went out, she was surrounded by reporters.

"Are you an employee of Taylor Company? What is your position in Taylor Company? Are you employees clear about the shady Mu factory?" "Sorry, no comment." Gloria Taylor turned around casually, and saw Anne Taylor coming. Gloria Taylor's thoughts turned and said: "Your problems, our department manager should be able to answer you."

The reporter followed Gloria Taylor's sight and saw Anne Taylor. Although Gloria Taylor is slim and has beautiful eyes, the clothes she wears are very ordinary, and thus she doesn't look like a company manager at all. The high fashion clothing that Anne Taylor wore was seen in Fashion Week, and seen on the celebrities. Someone who can wear such expensive clothes must have a high position in the company. The reporters were smart, and like a bunch of bees squeezed over to block Anne Taylor. Gloria Taylor didn't go far, but retreated to a corner that was not so conspicuous, watching Anne Taylor surrounded by those reporters.

"What is your position in Taylor Company? Do you have anything to say about the exposure of the Taylor factory's shady scene? When are you going to give the public an account?" The first questions are all about Taylor factory. However, after someone recognize Anne Taylor as the heroine of the previous indecent video, the following questions turned sour. "Are you the heroine of that indecent video on Microblog before?"

"Your private life is so chaotic, can you be competent in management of Taylor Company?" The reporter who asked this question apparently did not know that Anne Taylor was Loren Taylor's daughter .

After all, they are not entertainment reporters and don't pay much attention to the news. Instead, there were other reporters who responded quickly, and searched the Internet for previous video incidents. Then a reporter started live broadcasting directly at Taylor Company's door.

"Hello everyone, I'm a reporter from... I'm now at the door of the company of Taylor and the lady standing behind me surrounded by reporters is a middle-level manager of Taylor company. It is reported that, This manager was caught in the scandal of indecent video some time ago, for such a..."

Before the reporter finished the speech, Anne Taylor threw the microphone over and opened it in her hand. Anne Taylor now has been unscrupulous and said with a terrible face: "Why are you talking about nonsense? Can't you reporters report the facts seriously rather than these fictitious things!"

The other reporters slammed Anne Taylor and shot at her. The flash was dazzling, Anne Taylor raised her hand to cover her face, and the voice was a little hysterical: "Don't shoot, let you guys stop, the security guard! Where is the security guard! Get them all away!"

The reporter whose microphone was knocked off by her before picked it up again and found it still usable. He was excited to continue the live broadcast: "The man who just killed my microphone was the management staff of Taylor Company. We just learned that she was the daughter of Chairman Taylor, named Anne Taylor..."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 96 Out of my way

For Anne Taylor's ugly appearance, Gloria Taylor no longer had interest in appreciation. She took a bus back to the villa. As soon as she entered the door, she threw the bag and collapsed on the sofa, so tired that she didn't want to move. She was confused about why did she feel so tired with a free day? May be heart tired feeling. She turned on Microblog and saw that the two hot topics of "Hei Xin (unscrupulous) Factory" and "Indecent Video of Hei Xin (unscrupulous) Factory" were pushed to the front of the topic list. There was scolding in the comments. Occasionally, several comments defending Taylor and Anne Taylor were quickly overwhelmed.

Soon, Gloria Taylor saw a video of Anne Taylor being blocked at Taylor Company's door. Anne Taylor in the video looks like a lunatic. The number one hot comment below the video is: "why do I think this woman looks more like a real neuropathy? Otherwise, after her indecent video flows out, how can she still scold the reporter without any shame and say this is a fool's thing?" "Agree with the landlord(one who posts a post)'s point of view. Fortunately, I am not her friend. Will this kind of neuropathy be punished for killing?" "It's a frightened woman!" "Sleep?How much?"

Gloria Taylor put down her phone and was too lazy to read it again. Apart from several bodyguards outside the door, the entire villa was empty, and it was unknown whether Kenny Clarke and Leon Clarke were at home. Gloria Taylor hesitate to send a message to "Leon Clarke": "Are you coming back for dinner?"

If "Leon Clarke" doesn't come back for dinner, she won't do it. Anyway, she has a bodyguard to cook.

On the other side, Kenny Clarke just ended a three-hour meeting, a little tired. As soon as he returned to the office and sat down, he received a text message from Gloria Taylor. He was about to reply, and saw Carl Cook's aggressively pushing the door stride in. "Kenny, look at this!" Carl Cook handed the phone to Kenny. Kenny looked down, his pupils shrunk, and after a rough look, he said indifferently: "The factory under Taylor Company have had problem. Someone who wants to deal with Taylor Company, must use this to destroy it. But now these Enterprises are not clean at all. So no one will come up with such a big deal to deal with Taylor if they are generally not in a hurry."

Carl Cook nodded and said: "Do you think that the old Mu may go back to China after the scandal?" "It is possible." Kenny Clarke thought of thing, and his voice suddenly fell cold. Carl Cook didn't notice this detail, but he asked with some doubt: "This thing was exposed smoothly. There was really no noise before. Who did this?" Who did it? Mu Ting's eyes flickered, and then he looked at Carl Cook expressionlessly: "You guess" Carl Cook stared with wide eyes: "Just look at the news, you can know who did this?" Kenny Clarke ignored him and turned on the computer to watch the news related to Mu Family. Carl Cook reluctantly continued to ask him: "Then you reveal a little, is it a competitor in the industry?"

"No." Kenny Clarke replied very simply this time. All over the world are scolding Mu, and there is nothing new. Kenny Clarke looked at it for a few minutes and stopped. He remembered that Gloria Taylor had texted him before. He edited and sent over a text message to Gloria Taylor. Carl Cook want to ask what more, but Kenny Clarke had stood up with his coat on and walked out. Carl Cook just saw Kenny Clarke sending text messages, but he didn't see the content. People who will let Kenny Clarke send text messages will naturally only be Gloria Taylor. "Are you going home for dinner? I didn't drive back and forth today. I'll take your car to your house!" Carl Cook had eaten the food prepared by Gloria Taylor and had been thinking about it, and wanted to go to Kenny's house to rub a meal.

Kenny Clarke turned back and refused coldly: "It's not the way to go, don't take it." "Don't be so cold and ruthless, just go to your house to have a meal, is it a buddy!" Kenny Clarke still refused: "No " In the end, Carl Cook still shamelessly rubbed on Kenny Clarke's car.

.....

Gloria Taylor stared at the phone screen and looked at the text message "Leon Clarke" back to her. There is only a simple "Uh" word on it. As a poor patient, Gloria Taylor felt that she needed to add "Leon Clarke" 's WeChat. She could send WeChat directly to him if she had something to do without spending telephone expenses. She looked in the WeChat phone contacts and found that there was no "Leon Clarke". Does this person even not use WeChat? Gloria Taylor put down her phone and got up to the kitchen. As soon as she cut the dishes, she heard the sound of the car engine outside. It should be "Leon Clarke" back.

"Gloria." This voice... Gloria Taylor turned back and saw Carl Cook walked in with a smile, carrying a delicate small box in his hand. The logo printed on the box is a cake shop that Edith Hall often patronizes. "Alas, I didn't drive to the company today. I had to hitch a ride with him and spend the night at your house. You have to cook one more meal and the cake is for you." Worthy of being the CEO of the entertainment company, you can't fault him.

However, she was somewhat uncomfortable to hear "Gloria" called by Carl Cook. "Thank you." Carl Cook looks so handsome and flattering, polite, Gloria Taylor of course can only smile and accept the cake. Gloria Taylor took a photo of the cake and sent it to Edith Hall. Edith Hall replied an exhaled expression: "You go to buy a cake without me!!!" "I bought it from Carl Cook, as if it was bought at a store where someone often goes? I don't know whether someone has encountered him by accident. ..."

Gloria Taylor no longer amused her, thinking of Edith Hall's previous words to celebrate with her: "Do you want to come to dinner?" "No" Carl Cook is also here, Edith Hall is impossible to come.

.....

During the meal, Carl Cook, who was so blatant about the Mu's factory incident, mentioned it again. Gloria Taylor buried his head in a meal, silent, as quiet as a chicken. After talking for a long time, Carl Cook remembered that Gloria Taylor was also a member of the Mu family. He simply asked Gloria Taylor: "Gloria, what happened to your company?" Gloria? Kenny Clarke narrowed his eyes and looked up at Carl Cook: "Go away if you are full." Carl Cook looked inexplicable, when did he provoke this uncle again? Gloria Taylor is already accustomed to Kenny Clarke's indefinite personality. She shook her head: "It's not very clear. After all, I'm just a doall factotum in the company."

The words fell. "Leon Clarke" sitting opposite her suddenly turned to look at her. Ink-like eyes are deep and mysterious, with a hint of insight. Why did she feel that "Leon Clarke" seemed to see that she was lying...

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 97: Wouldn't let me off

After the meeting finished, Gloria was about to leave but then was stopped by Loren's secretary.

The secretary nodded slightly. "Gloria, the president asked you to come over and see him."

"What did he want with me?" Gloria asked, strolling out of the room.

The secretary remembered that when Loren had asked her to look for Gloria last time, Gloria was very uncooperative, as Gloria went away directly. The secretary put out her hand, grabbing Gloria's arm, while the secretary's voice sounded helpless. "Miss, please, just go to meet him. The president even didn't rest last night..."

"Then let go of me..." Gloria had planned to go, too, as she wanted to see Loren in distress.

She had to admit that actually, she was pretty bad. When they reached Loren's office, the secretary knocked on the door, saying. "Mr. Taylor, Gloria is here."

As she spoke, she opened the door for Gloria and respectfully made a gesture of inviting her in.

"Thank you." Gloria smiled at Loren's secretary, walked in, and Gloria closed the door behind her.

Loren raised his head from behind his desk, smiling gently. "Gloria, you're here, and have you had breakfast?"

There were several breakfast boxes on the desk with the vaguely familiar logo from a nearby restaurant.

"I've had my breakfast. Dad, what do you want with me?" Gloria sat down opposite him, looking serious.

Loren's face did look haggard, and she could see that he had not slept all night. He shook his head, looking a little worn. "As you know, something serious has happened to our company. The colleagues from the Public Relations Department had a busy night yesterday, but they didn't get any good results, while someone went to our specialty store yesterday and smashed it up..."

Loren pretending to be sad, and then complained to Gloria, and Loren did look a little pathetic.

But Gloria knew that as Loren had wanted to see her early in the morning, he was not merely complaining to her, and he certainly had another purpose.

And sure enough, as Loren spoke, he mentioned her. "Taylor's Group is our own company, and even though you're married, you still belong to the Taylor group. Now that the company is in such serious trouble, ordinary people can't help us unless..."

His words were plain enough for Gloria to understand him, as he just wanted Gloria to beg people of the Clarke's to help him.

Gloria was the one who started this, so how could she help Loren?

As if she didn't understand, she said with a serious face. "Yes, this is a serious matter. When I went online yesterday, I saw that they were all abusing our company, so in this case, we need to correct our mistakes because we have to win the forgiveness of our customers..."

She said it simply, and now Taylor Group's most critical problem was that all the partners wanted to break the cooperation. Even some partners wished to sue the Taylor Group, which worsened the situation.

However, at this moment, if the Clarke's would stand up and say a word for the Taylor's Group, all the partners dared not want to break the cooperation any more.

After all, no one could mess with Clarke's.

When Loren saw that Gloria did not understand him at all, his face changed a little, his voice became serious, and he said directly without being in a roundabout way. "What you have said is secondary, as now the most important thing is to keep our company running. You just ask Kenny to speak up for our company, because then the Taylor's Group will be able to get through this."

Gloria's eyes lit up. "Is that enough?"

Loren thought he had persuaded Gloria, so he nodded quickly, saying. "Yes, that's enough."

But soon, Gloria's face grew pale, looking a little frightened. "He gave me a Black Card which was cheated out of me by the kidnappers. I haven't dared to tell him so far, and if he'd known about it, he wouldn't have let me off..."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 98: Crying too hard

Gloria watched Loren's face as she spoke.

As she mentioned Black Card, she saw guilt in Loren's face.

He knew he's guilty now?

But it was too late.

Seeing Gloria looked frightened and did not seem to be pretending, Loren felt a little embarrassed. He said, "You won't tell him about the Black Card yet, will you?"

Gloria sneered in her heart. At this point, Loren still didn't want to give the Black Card back to her.

Although she thought so, she looked more and more frightened.

She pinched her leg quietly, as the pain brought tears to her eyes. Then she blinked hard, and her tears welled up.

Gloria broke down in tears, saying with sobs. "Kenny only lent it to me, and I'm going to give it back to him, so if I don't tell him, he'll find out sooner or later..."

As if she thought of something terrible, Gloria cried even harder. "You don't know how terrible he is. He's a devil, and he'll never let me off..."

When Gloria began to cry, she could not help herself, and she realized that she was so good at pretending to cry.

Maybe she could get into the entertainment business.

Loren was already upset, while he pretended to be friendly with Gloria because he needed her help. Now that he saw her crying all the time, he's even more upset.

"Don't cry!" Loren yelled at her angrily.

Gloria stopped crying immediately, and as she was crying so hard, she belched.

Loren looked at her with a little more disdain. A fool was a fool. Even if she looked pretty and smarter, she was still as useless as ever.

He thought that Kenny was wholly attracted to Gloria, and that's why Gloria got the Black Card from Kenny, but he didn't realize that it's only for temporary use.

Gloria also felt a little ashamed of herself; she didn't want to cry like that, whereas she just cried too hard.

Loren asked, as if with some great resolution. "What if I could find the Black Card?"

"Can you get it back?"

Gloria looked pleasantly surprised, but that soon disappeared, she smiling miserably. "How can the Black Card be found again? I don't even remember what the two kidnappers looked like..."

Loren watched Gloria's face calmly. When he was sure that she knew nothing about Tina's kidnapping, he said while frowning, "I'll find a way."

...

After leaving Loren's office, Gloria went to the bathroom and washed her face.

It's a good thing she didn't make up today; otherwise, it would be embarrassing to appear in front of others with messy makeup.

After washing her face, she found that her eyes and nose still looked red from crying.

She was crying too hard.

When she returned to her seat, her colleague next to her saw her, asking her with concern. "Gloria, what's the matter?"

Gloria shook her head. "I'm fine."

Her colleague next to her did not ask any more questions, but another colleague of Gloria, who had seen Loren's secretary come to look for Gloria, whispered. "The president asked her to come and see him."

"What does the president want with her?"

"I don't know. Maybe it's about the factory, because she's married to Kenny, so the president wants to see her to ask her to go to Kenny for help..."

"..."

Gloria listening in silence, she thought the people in the Project Department were competent because they could even guess this.

As for what they said afterward, Gloria did not hear very well. She did vaguely hear, "went too far... How could the president do that..." words like that.

Gloria felt a little curious. She wondered what her colleagues were imagining.

But they sounded like they're badmouthing Loren?

...

Sheng Ding Media

"Kenny, should we still ask Jin Ding to deliver food at noon?" Carl's chief concern every day was to eat.

Kenny didn't look up at him. "I don't need it."

Carl asked him. "Where are you going?"

Kenny stopped talking to him.

Carl rolled his eyes in anger. If he hadn't known Kenny for so many years, Kenny would have been beaten up by him for being cold as a refrigerator.

Kenny was just finishing what he was doing, and he looked up at Carl, his voice sounding chilly. "Can you beat me?"

Carl looked at Kenny in horror as if he had seen a ghost. "Oh, dear, I can't beat you! How can you guess what I was thinking?"

Kenny chuckled, picked up the phone, and walked out.

Carl was talkative, outgoing, and active all the time, and when he was a silly teenager, he often got into group fights, so those who knew him well could easily guess what he was thinking.

Kenny drove to the Taylor's Group.

The thing of the Taylor Group factory came to light yesterday. It has been a night, and the whole world now knew about it so that Loren might be desperate, and then Loren might suddenly guess that the manipulator behind the scenes was Gloria.

He was worried about her, so he decided to go to the Taylor Group to check on her.

He drove to the Parking lot of the Taylor's Group, and he pulled out his cell phone, calling Gloria. But no one answered.

He got out of the car and went straight into the company.

Access to the Taylor Group has also become stricter due to the exposure of the factory.

As soon as Kenny went in, the security guard stopped him.

Security guards lined up around the company, mostly for fear of someone coming to make troubles.

Kenny was so tall that people had to raise their heads to look at him in front of him.

Kenny lowering his head, he looked poker-faced, which made people dare not stand up to him.

The security guard thinking the man was imposing, he looked like a big shot, so the security guard couldn't ignore him, as the security guard took him straight to the front desk. "Just tell the receptionist who you're coming to."

The receptionist, who was on guard today, had been almost confused by the reporter, for they had sneaked into the company once. The receptionist was already feeling extremely nervous.

But when she saw Kenny's face, she faltered. "Please... You want to find... Who would you like to see?"

"Gloria." Kenny looked down, hiding the impatience in his eyes.

He had been impatient, but he found himself a little more patient when it came to Gloria.

"Gloria?" The receptionist felt the name sounding familiar.

Before the receptionist could ask again, Kenny suddenly heard a familiar female voice. "Leon?"

Kenny turned to look, and he saw Gloria coming from a little distance away.

She strolled, as if unsure if it was him, and then she trotted in his direction, coming to him.

It was lunchtime, and Gloria was going out to eat. Still, as soon as she got off the elevator, she saw a tall, hunky man, who very much resembled "Leon," standing at the reception desk to receive an inquiry from the receptionist.

"Leon" was so arrogant, so how could he endure to receive an inquiry from the receptionist?

But the more she looked at the man, the more she thought he looked like "Leon", so she called out "Leon."

Unexpectedly, it was really "Leon".

Gloria trotted up to him, looking puzzled. "I didn't realize it was you, and why are you here?"

The receptionist, standing by, also recognized Gloria when she saw Gloria, and she smiled, saying. "Gloria, this gentleman is here to see you."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 99: Get you out

Gloria looked more and more puzzled. "Why did you want to see me?"

But she also knew this was not the right place to talk, so she pulled "Leon", and they walked out.

Kenny looked careless as she pulled him out, since he was tall, it took her two steps to catch up with him when he took one step, making him look like he was at his ease.

"Why did you want to see me?" After they walked out of Taylor's Group, Gloria asked the same question again.

In her opinion, if there was nothing to ask her, "Leon" would not come to her.

Instead of answering her question immediately, "Leon" looked at her quietly.

Gloria had cried before, although it was no longer apparent that she had cried. Kenny was careful enough to notice that her eyes were a little red and swollen from crying.

Did she cry?

Squinting the eyes, he could not imagine that Gloria would cry.

Besides, she was crying at the Taylor's Group, while she wasn't crying in front of Loren, was she?

It took a few seconds for Kenny to say. "I'm just passing by, so please treat me to lunch."

He spoke in a tone that made her feel he deserved to be beaten.

But "Leon" was her benefactor because he had helped her, so as long as he didn't ask too much, Gloria would try to satisfy him.

Gloria took him to a restaurant a little further away from the office as it was not easy to meet her colleagues in the company, so they were less likely to cause trouble.

When they got to the restaurant, Leon didn't say anything, but Gloria could find out he didn't like this restaurant.

Gloria understood him.

As he was a Young Master of a wealthy family, so he usually went to places like Jin Ding for meals, and he regarded Jin Ding as the kitchen in his own house.

He had asked her to invite him to lunch, while at one of these restaurants, a meal would cost a few hundred dollars, and for her... It's still pretty expensive.

As Gloria thought about this, she could not help feeling her purse, her face looking a little distressed for her money.

When Kenny noticed the look on her face, he involuntarily raised his lips. Of course, he knew she was weak.

But it was fun for him to exploit her, make her invite him to lunch, and to take advantage of her.

When the waiter came to help them order, Gloria pushed the menu to "Leon". "You order first."

Leon didn't pretend to be polite either. He opened the menu, quickly ordered three dishes.

Gloria knew that at the top of the menu were the restaurant's signature dishes, all of which were expensive.

Kenny looked back over the menu, ordered a soup, and then he looked up at Gloria, asking with a sincere face. "Did I order too much?"

Gloria shook her head. "You didn't order much..."

She still remembered when she ate with them in Jin Ding last time, there were only four or five people in total, but they ordered many dishes which seemed as rich as the full, formal banquet, combining Manchurian and Chinese delicacies.

Kenny nodded approvingly. "Then, I'll order two more dishes."

Gloria, "..."

Kenny looked at the menu, frowning. "There's nothing good to eat."

Then he handed Gloria the menu.

Gloria's lifestyle was entirely down to earth, as she thought three dishes and a bowl of soup would be enough for the two of them.

But she remembered that it was the Young Master, "Leon" sitting opposite her, so she ordered two more dishes and a dessert, or she would think the food was not good enough for him.

After ordering, Gloria got up and went to the bathroom.

When Kenny lost sight of her, he called the waiter, handing over a card. "I'll pay for the meal now."

...

When Gloria came out of the bathroom, she saw Anne.

Anne didn't see Gloria, because she was walking out the door with her back to Gloria.

Gloria slowed down, walking behind Anne. Gloria didn't want Anne to see her eating with "Leon" to prevent unnecessary trouble.

Anne, however, was going in the same direction as Gloria, so Gloria had to walk slower and slower until Anne walked into a private room.

Gloria paused as she passed the private room.

The private rooms in the restaurant were not well insulated.

She heard arguments coming from inside.

Anne's voice sounded shrill, and her voice was much lower when Gloria heard it outside the private room. "You can't give her back the Black Card !"

"No... Taylor's Group... What the hell do you want...?"

Loren spoke, and his voice sounded a little lower than Anne's voice so that Gloria couldn't hear him very well.

Were the father and daughter arguing over whether to return the Black Card or not?

It had been less than twenty-four hours since the factory had come to light, and this was the second time that Gloria had heard Loren and Anne arguing about it.

Loren liked Anne and spoiled Anne. Since Taylor's Group was in crisis now, Anne didn't think of how to help the company through a disaster, but she only quarreled with Loren for her selfish reasons.

Anne has been so cruel to Loren, so wouldn't Anne be even harsher to Tina in the future?

Gloria had mixed feelings; she no longer wanted to have anything to do with Tina.

No matter how Anne would treat Tina in the future, it was of Tina's own choice.

Even when she changed Tina back with the Black Card, Tina was not touched at all. Instead, Tina was trying to please her so that Tina could use her later...

Gloria took a deep breath, regained her composure, and returned to the table where "Leon" sat.

The waiter had already served several dishes, but "Leon" had not touched his chopsticks, and she did not know what he was doing with his mobile phone.

When he felt someone coming, he looked up at Gloria for a second, and then he put down the phone. He remained calm and composed, saying. "I was just about to call Shi Ye."

Gloria looked puzzled. "Why?"

Leon's voice sounded serious. "I will tell him to take someone to the bathroom and get you out."

Gloria, "..."

Well, it took her more than twenty minutes to go to the bathroom.

Gloria didn't answer, and "Leon" probably felt bored, so he stopped talking, whereas he didn't eat much.

When they were about to pay for the meal, the waiter handed Gloria a card. "Hello, your husband has paid for the meal, as you have spent six hundred and eighty dollars here."

"My husband?"

Before Gloria knew that the waiter was referring to "Leon", the first person she thought of was Kenny.

She turned to "Leon", asking. "Does your cousin eat here too?"

Leon's expressionless face suddenly darkened.

He glanced at her coldly, turned, and strode out.

He looked as if the wind was blowing under his feet, he walking very fast.

Kenny thought that if he didn't walk faster, he might be tempted to beat Gloria.

The waiter realized that he had misunderstood the relationship between the two guests, so the waiter quickly explained. "I am sorry, as I thought that gentleman was your husband, and that gentleman just paid for the meal."

Gloria froze for a while, she took the card and ran after "Leon".

"Leon" didn't go very far, and he answered the phone when Gloria caught up with him.

"Sexual happiness of lifetime"

Gloria paced, waiting for him to answer the phone. After two minutes, 'Leon' hung up the phone and looked back at her, which made Gloria embarrassed, and she gave him her card and cash, "I said I'd treat you to dinner, and of course, I'd pay."

'Leon' only took the card back.

"Wait! Your money."

'Leon' looked at her slender, white fingers and then stretched out his hand. Gloria thought that he would take the money, but he did not. 'Leon' held her hand directly and pulled her into his arms. He looked at her affectionately with his dark eyes, which were surging waves. Then his magnetic and pleasant voice sounded like a glass of old wine, making her drunk. "Kiss me! Then I'll take the money."

Is he crazy!!!

They were on the side of the road, and Gloria was very nervous. Suddenly, she lifted her knee to kick the most painful part of this man in a hurry.

"Ouch....."

Kenny was paying attention to her facial expression and did not expect that she would kick him. But to be honest, Gloria directly kicked on his essential part, which was painful. Kenny realized that his vigilance in front of her was almost zero.

"Are you okay?" Gloria concerned about him. She could feel that he was very painful from his tight jaw. However, she was not guilty at all. He deserved it.

'Leon' did not let go of her hand and said gloomily, "I'm okay, but you are in trouble." She'd be out of the sex of the rest of her life if she hurt him. However, Gloria did not understand him and thought that he would find her accounts. She planned to run away, but then she realized that her hand was still held. She knew that she was in trouble and looked up subconsciously at 'Leon', but he bowed his head and kissed her, which made Gloria Taylor angry, and she wanted to kick him again but did not succeed. 'Leon Clarke' kissed her severely and ruthlessly, which made her unable to breathe. Gloria Taylor pushed him, but she was not his opponent at all. Kenny bit her lips and stepped back, looking at her affectionately. Gloria Taylor was pushed away by him suddenly; after staggering, she finally stood still.

Feeling painful on her lips, Gloria Taylor touched her lips and found a little blood on her hand. She knew that 'Leon' bit her lips just now. She did not know how to deal with him; he would be more shameless if she scolded him. She glared at him and turned away.

"Gloria."

She was about to go when someone called her. The familiar voice made her more annoyed. Anne Taylor saw them kissing when she came out of the restaurant, but she did not take any pictures this time. After all, she made a topic with their pictures last time but finally was pressed down by the Clarke family.

"It is you." Anne Taylor came over and pretended to surprise to see 'Leon Clarke'. "What a coincidence, Mr. Clarke is here." Kenny Clarke ignored her and squatted down to pick up the money that Gloria Taylor had been thrown to the ground in a panic.

Although Gloria Taylor was still angry at 'Leon Clarke', she had to admit that he had a unique temperament. Realizing that she was attracted again by him, Gloria Taylor bit her lips to make herself sober. No matter how charming he was, he was just a crazy man who flirted with his sister-in-law. 'Leon Clarke' picked up the money and put it into his pocket.

Gloria Taylor found that she did not know 'Leon Clarke' at all, and she wanted to live in peace with him, but he was always shameless. Anne also was surprised. 'Leon Clarke' would squat on the ground to pick up money? She did not know about the money. She thought she did not have to give the card back to Gloria Taylor but could also solve the crisis of the Taylor family. She planned to tease 'Leon Clarke' who was living in the house of Kenny Clarke, it could be said that they were relatives. Thinking that she was going to be with 'Leon Clarke', Anne Taylor smiled triumphantly. She deliberately pulled her clothes down and revealed the low collar dress inside, looking at 'Leon Clarke' with a wink. But he said to Gloria Taylor, "I'll pick you up."

Then he straight away. Gloria Taylor looked at him, and she knew that he was deliberately making her angry. A gust of cold wind blowing, Anne Taylor was cold to shrink and hurriedly tightened her coat. Gloria Taylor looked at her, which made Anne Taylor suddenly annoy, "Taylor Group is in crisis, but you didn't ask help for Kenny Clarke. Instead, you hook up with other men here."

"I'm just a miscellaneous in the Taylor family, and I also feel guilty."
Gloria Taylor smiled, which seemed that she did not feel guilty at all.

She slowly walked into Anne Taylor and said again, "I lost black card. How dare I ask help from Kenny Clarke? Maybe he would do something bad to Taylor Group as he had a strange temper."

"You are just a piece of shit!" Anne Taylor sneered and suddenly noticed the lip wound on Gloria Taylor.
